

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-65152-4 - The Surface of the Earth: Elementary Physical and Economic Geography

Herbert Pickles

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

CHAP.	PAGE
I. Rain. Evaporation. Condensation. Clouds. Influence of mountains. Measurement of rainfall. Wet regions. What happens to rain which falls on to the ground . . . . .	1
II. Rivers and their Work. Springs. Underground waters. Gorges. Windings. Waterfalls. Deltas. Estuaries. Commercial rivers. Irrigation. Power-supply . . . . .	9
III. Sedimentary Rocks. Consolidation of river-borne sediment. Fossils. Examination of a quarry. Submerged forest. Drowned valleys. Chalk ridge. Limestone ridge. Coal. Economic products of sedimentary rocks . . . . .	24
IV. Igneous Rocks. Rugged scenery. Granite. Crystalline rocks. Volcanoes. Vesuvius. Mont Pelée. "Igneous." Lake District rocks. Giant's Causeway and Fingal's Cave. Geysers. Metamorphic rocks. Mineral veins .	33
V. Highlands and Lowlands. Tilted sedimentary rocks. Folds. Cooling globe. "Crust" of the earth. Fracture of rocks. Earthquakes. Uplift. Formation of Continents and Mountain systems. World water-partings. The carving of peaks. Crust-block "mountains." Groups. The Hawaii group. Valley-making. Dry valleys. Plains of deposition. Influence of highlands on routes	43
VI. Work done by Ice. Snow. Snow-line. Avalanche. Glacier. Moraine. Crevasses. Icebergs. Traces of ice-action in Britain. Boulder-clay .	57
VII. Climatic Zones. Long and short shadows. Summer and winter temperatures. Slope of sun's rays. The torrid zone. Temperate zones. Frigid zones. High mountains in hot regions. Extreme climate. Land and Sea breezes. Monsoons. Trade-winds and Westerly Winds. Six months' daylight. The "Midnight Sun "	66

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-65152-4 - The Surface of the Earth: Elementary Physical and Economic Geography

Herbert Pickles

Table of Contents

More information

viii

Contents

CHAP.	PAGE
VIII. The Sea. Ocean troughs. Soundings. Saltness of the sea. Tides. Bore. Destructive action of the tide. Ocean currents . . . . .	84
IX. Lakes. Salt lakes. Fresh-water lakes. Formation of lake basins. Windermere. Märjelen See. "Cut-off." Lakes as filters. The Vale of Pickering. Lakes as sources of drinking-water. The American lakes . . . . .	97
X. Islands. Formation of the British Isles. Continental islands. Oceanic islands—volcanic and coral. Atolls. The South Sea islands. Copra. Robert Louis Stevenson's description of the South Sea islands . . . . .	110
XI. Vegetation and Animal Life. Equatorial Forests. Descriptions by Wallace, and by Kingsley. Products of equatorial forest. The temperate forests. Cultivation areas. Grass-lands. Rearing of animals. Wheat-lands. Deserts, hot and cold. Products of hot desert. Polar expeditions. The tundras. Life in the ocean . . . . .	119
XII. Human Settlements. Prehistoric man. Early settlements in S.W. Asia, the Mediterranean region, India and China. Settlements in the Americas, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand and Siberia . . . . .	137
XIII. Foodstuffs and Raw Materials. (1) Agricultural foodstuffs. (2) Pastoral foodstuffs. (3) Raw Materials . . . . .	146
XIV. Trade and Transport. (1) Over-Seas Trade of Britain. Exchange of commodities. Food. Raw materials. Manufactured goods. Transport. Ocean lines. Famous British liners. Ocean routes. Docks. Communications inland. Certain typical ports, London, Liverpool, as importing and exporting cities respectively, the Humber ports. Southampton . . . . .	154
	(2) Some Inland Distribution Centres. Selected examples: Manchester, Leeds and sub-centres. York, sorting of goods and passengers. Distributing centres in agricultural areas—market-towns . . . . .	166
XV. Some Great World-routes. Trans-continental railways in America, Africa, Asia, Australia. The Suez Canal. The Panama Canal. Airways . . . . .	174
General Index . . . . .	184
Index of Place-Names . . . . .	186	