OF ITS EXTENT AND ANTIQUITY.

The MANNOR OF WAKEFIELD in the County of York is one of the most large & extensive Mannors in England. The greatest part of the West Country from Normanton Four Miles East of Wakefield to Lancashire being parcell of it and noe less distance than 34 English Miles.

It contains 118 Townes, Villages or Hamletts of which Wakefield & Hallifax are the Chief.

This Mannor was p[ar]cell of Ancient Demesne & Surveyed under the Title of T[erra] R[egis] E[dwardi] before the Conquest & it continued as p[ar]cell of the possessions of the Kings of England till Henry the first who about the 6th year of his Raign Anno D[omi]ni 1107 did give this Mannor among others to Wm de Placetis Sonne of the first Wm Earl Warren in consideration of his service for taking Robert de Courtois The Kings Brother Prisoner in Normandy.

THE SUCCESSION OF THE LORDS OF THE MANNOR.

This William to whome this Grant was made had issue a Daughter named Issabel,[1] She first married to Will[ia]m Sonn of King Stephen with whome she had noe issue and after to Hamelin Plantaginet the naturall Sonn of Jeferay Plantagenet by whome she had issue Willm̃.

This Will[ia]m maryed the Daughter of Will[ia]m Earl of Norfolk[2] by whome he had issue John.

This John had issue William who married the Daughter of Robert Earl of Oxford but died in the life time of his Father leaveing his Wife with Child who had issue John who died without Issue in the 21st year of King Edward the Third.

This last John Earl Warren built the Castle of Sandall Scituate about a Mile South of Wakefield and made it the cheif Seat of the Mannor. He haveing diverse Bastards & noe lawfull Issue gave all his Honors Castles Mannors Lands & Tenements to King Edward the Second in the 9th year of his Raign of intent to have a Regrant to his Bastards intaile; the King the year after made a Grant to the Earl & to one Matilda de Mairford[3] his Concubine for Life, Remainder to John de Warren Sonn of the said Matilda and the heirs Male of his Body & Remainder to one Thomas de Warren, another Sonn of the said Matilda and the heirs

Male of his Body, Remainder to the Heirs of the Body of the said Earl lawfully begotten and for want of such Issue to returne to the King. In the 12th year of the said King Edward the Second, This John Earl Warren by virtue of Lycence from the King did grant this mannor of Wakefield to Thomas Earl of Lancaster for & dureing the Tearme of the natural life of the said Earl Warren The Earl of Lancaster injoyed it but for a small time for he was beheaded at his owne Castle at Pontefract within three years after (vizt) in the 15 King Edward the 2d after the death of the Earl of Lancaster, this John Earl Warren had the Mannor of Wakefield again & injoyed it dureing his Life : He died the 21st year of Edward the Third & had marryed the said Matilda his Concubine before who survived him She lived untill the 33d Year of King Edward the Third & kept Courts at Wakefield in the name of Countis de Warren, and her Two Sons John & Thomas before mentioned dyed before her without Issue—Soe that from the first grant of the Mannor to the death of the Countis de Warren it apeareth to be 252 years.

After the death of Matilda Countis de Warren, King Edw[ar]d the Third in 36th Year of his Raign Created Edmund de Langley his Sonn Earl of Cambridge & gave him in Augmentation of his Revenies The Mannor of Wakefield. King Richard the Second created this Edmund Duke of Yorke who had issue Edmund Duke of Yorke who dyed at the Batle of Egen Court. His Second Sonne Richard Earl of Cambrige was father to Richard Duke of York who was slain at Wakefield feild Batle whose Sonn Edward the 4th after he had gotten the victory at Totonfeild builded Wakefield Bridge & a Stately Chapel thereupon in memory of his father & of those who lost their Lives with him. This Victory was in the year 1461. Soe that this Mannor of Wakefield was the Inheritance of the Dukes of Yorke for about the space of 100d. Years.

From the begining of Edward the 4th time it continued p[arcell] of the possessions of the Kings of England till the year 1554 at the mariage between King Philip & Queen Mary which at time it was united to the Dutchie of Lancaster.

In the 6th year of King Charles the First this Mannor of Wakefield was granted from the Crowne to the Earl of Holland soe that it apeareth to have been as p[arc]ell of the Possessions of The Crowne for the space of 170 years.

This Earl of Holland maryed his Daughter to S[i]r Gervas Clifton & gave him this Mannor of Wakefield as her mariage fortune.

About the Year 1665 This S[i]r Gervas Clifton sold it to S[i]r Chr[ist]ofer Clapham.

And the Heirs of S[i]r Chr[ist]ofer Clapham in the year 1700 sold it to His Grace The Duke of Leeds the present L[or]d of this Mannor.

A Discrip[ti]on of the Scituation of its severall Parts & its Boundaries.

This great Mannor of Wakefield is not altogether intire & contiguous for in severall places it is broke off by the Honor of Pontefract & other Mannors.

The most Eastern p[ar]te Four Miles from Wakefield lye Normanton & Woodhous a Towne & Hamlet which are boundred round with the Honor of Pontefract viz^{t} Whitwood to the East, Snydall to the South, Warmfield to the West, & Altofts to the North, within this Division is the Mannor of Woodhous.

About Fourteen Miles North-West from Wakefield, lyeth Eclesell, another Branch of the Mannor, & is also incompassed by the Honor of Pontefract, & other mannors & break of at least Eight Miles from the nearest p[ar]te of any of the rest of the mannor and is bounder'd by Horsford, & Calverley to the East, Tongue, & Pudsey, to the South, Bradford, & Bolton to the West, & Idel to the North Its reputed one of The Inferior Mannors.

About Twelve Miles West of Wakefield lyeth Dalton another Branch of The Mannor & is incompassed by the Honor of Pontefract & other Mannors & broke off about Two Miles from the rest. Its bounded by Kirkheaton to the East, Almonbury to the South, Huthersfield to the West, & Dighton & Bradley to the North, its also reputed one of the Inferior Mannors.

The rest of the Mannor may properly be devided into Three Branches (vizt Wakefield Branch, Holmfirth Branch, & Hallifax Branch.

Wakefield Branch joyns on Holmfirth Branch & is in Length from the East end of Wakefield Outwood to Emley south west being the nearest p[ar]t of Holmfirth Branch about Ten miles, it's very irregular in it's forme, for in some places it is 7 or 8 miles broad & in others not above one. Within this Branch are the Graveships of Wakefield, Stanley, Alverthorp, Thornes, Sandall, Horbury and Osset and hath also within it The Mannors of Walton, Crigleston, Bretton, Soothill, Ardsley, Southwood. The Rectory Manor of Wakefield, & the Rectory Mannor of Dewsbury. It is bounded by Medley, The River of Calder, Heath, Okenshaw, Crofton, & Chivit to the East, Wooley, Bretton Di[midium]? to the South, Emley (p[ar]t of Holmfirth Branch) Midgley, Nether Shitlington, Thornhill, Mirfield, Heckmondwike, and Batley to the West, Morley, Midleton, East Ardsley, Lofthous, & Carleton to the North.

Holmfirth Branch extends from North-East to the County Palatine of Chester, West being about 14 Miles, within this Branch is the Graveship of Holme. The Inferior Mannors of Emley, Burton, Cumberworth, Shelly, Shepley, & Thirstonland, It is bounded by Bretton (part of Wakefield Branch) & Midgley to the East. Clayton, Skelmanthorp, Denby, Thurlston, & Penniston, to the South, The County of Chester & Sadleworth, to the West, Marstin, Meltom,
