

Index

- accumulation by dispossession, 3, 162–63, 229
- AIFLD (American Institute for Free Labor Development), 142, 209, 214, 236
- expulsion from El Salvador (1973), 33
- leftist unions, opposition to, 144–46, 184–88, 190–92
- Sindicato Agua, support of, 15–16, 144–46, 151, 233
- during the strike of 1987–1991, 207, 234
- SIP—Sindicato Agua split, role in, 129, 143, 234
- UCS, support of, 33, 95
- UPD, support of, 135
- violence against the employees of, 233
- Alvarenga, Ana, xi, 133, 236
- domestic violence experiences of, 129, 209, 223, 234
- union activity as means of liberation from, 209, 234
- exile of, 242
- Sindicato Agua leadership, resentment against, 222, 235
- as SIP leader, 129, 209–13
- at Pezca S.A., 153
- Amaya, Adela, xi, 146
- ANDA (Water and Sewage National Administration), 195
- continued repression of unions connected to, 189
- strike at (1985) and repression of, 188
- APLAR (electronics factory)
- formation of cooperative at, 116–18
- ARENA (Alianza Republicana Nacionalista—Nationalist Republican Alliance), 165–67, 179–80, 220
- 1988–1989 electoral victories of, 179, 196
- agribusiness and financial elites, ties to, 148, 155, 163–71
- Duarte reforms, opposition to, 155
- founding of, 163–71
- in government, 196
- labor movement, repression of, 196–98
- Atarraya S.A., 18, 20, 31, 39, 41, 49, 69, 75, 137, 169–73, 202–3, 208
- assistance to SIP strikers by workers of, 71
- blacklisting of Sindicato Agua members at, 216
- company structure of, 13
- death squad support by investors of, 164
- la movida*, involvement in, 131
- mistreatment of female workers at, 24, 43
- rightist military's influence at, 167–68
- strike at (1971), 22–25
- worker intersectoral tensions at, 67
- BAC (Banco Agrícola Comercial), 202
- defrauding of, 170–82, 202
- investigation, 176–81
- political underpinnings, 170–71

- BAC (Banco Agrícola Comercial) (cont.)
 Pezca S.A., intervention into, 199, 203, 206–7, 213–22
 Pezca unions and, 216–22
 Pezca S.A., opposition to cooperative at, 218
- Bará, Yvette, xi
- Benítez, Mauricio, 155, 170, 202–4, 237
 Atrarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, view of, 200, 202
 use of in strike negotiations (1987–1991), 206
 background as eventual, 138 criticized as union leader, 222–25 election as Sindicato Agua leader, 138 eventuales, popularity among, 154, 201, 213
 Pezca S.A. cooperative, support for, 146–48, 205, 240
 Pezca S.A., denunciation of hiring practices at, 140
 Pezca S.A., initial conflict with, 139–41
 Sindicato Agua strike (1985), role in, 142–46
 Mena Lagos, Alfredo, conflict with, 150–54
 Sindicato Agua strike (1987–1991), role in, 205–9, 212–18, 220–21
 SIP, distancing from, 140, 142, 145
- BPR (Bloque Popular Revolucionario — Popular Revolutionary Bloc), 9, 86, 97, 102–4, 114–16, 126, 227
- JRG, assessment of, 107–11
 JRG, struggle against, 91–95
La Constancia strike, solidarity with, 72–74
 Ministry of Labor building, occupation of (1977), 57–59
 state repression, response to (1979), 79–85
- Cabrera, Mario, 189–90
 Caifás, 105
 Carbonell, Tomás Atrarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, role in, 170–71, 175–77, 179
 indictment over, 181
 PDC, connections to, 176
- Chávez, Leonel, 29–30, 37–38, 42, 51, 63, 65
- CISPES (Committee in Solidarity With the People of El Salvador), 165, 240
- CLAT (Central Latinoamericana de Trabajadores), 135, 155, 190, 197
 Sindicato Agua, support for, 207 worker self-management, support of, 147 cooperative, 3, 127–28, 131, 222, 240 at APLAR factory, 117–18
 in Puerto el Triunfo, 16, 146–50, 205, 207, 216–21, 225
 discussed during Atrarraya-Pezca S.A. fraud trial, 178–79
 factors in its failure to materialize, 213–15, 235–37
 Mena Lagos, Alfredo, and, 151
 SIP opposition to, 149–50, 154, 202–3, 208, 227
 leftist view of as counterrevolutionary, 150, 158, 228
 as result of Duarte land reform, 135, 158, 185 on seized plantations, 112, 150, 157–58, 163, 227
- counterinsurgency, 187
 centrist labor unions, role in, 194
 Duarte administration and, 233
 Duarte administration land reform and, 196
- Cristiani, Alfredo, 180, 215 anti-labor activities and the administration of, 196–98, 215 election of, 196
 Sindicato Agua strike (1987–1991), position on, 219–20
- CTD (Central de Trabajadores Democráticos), 185
- D'Aubuisson, Roberto, 157
 death squad activity, involvement in, 139, 161, 164, 166
 fishing industry, involvement in, 139, 167–69, 173
 JRG, tensions with, 161–62, 174
 Miami Six, ties to, 164
 presidential campaign of (1984), 136, 167 Romero, Oscar Arnulfo, involvement in assassination of, 139, 161, 163, 165, 168
- Daglio, Roberto, 13, 166, 173
 D'Aubuisson, Roberto, ties to, 167 death squad activity, financing by, 164–65
 JRG, opposition to, 163
 Miami Six, as part of, 164–65

- de Zelaya, Maura, xi
- death squads, 9, 57, 74–75, 85, 125, 139, 145, 153, 159–60, 166–68, 192, 226
- Ellacuría, Ignacio, assassination by, 198 and FENASTRAS, 121–22, 188 intimidation tactics of, 123–24 under JRG, 89, 230 Miami Six, financing by, 163–66 in Puerto el Triunfo, 15–16, 20, 38, 120, 122, 124, 128, 232 Romero, Oscar Arnulfo, assassination by, 161
- desencuentro*, 8, 158, 235–36 definition, 6 as failure to ally of groups with shared goals (II), 7 between FAPU and the BPR, 74 between OP and JRG, 125 between SIP and Sindicato Agua, 130, 154, 203 between local and national labor movements, 79 as methodological tool, 7 as political disagreement (I), 7 between labor movement leaders and rank-and-file, 125 between OP and JRG, 109–10 between SIP and Sindicato Agua, 67, 154 between SIP and Sindicato Agua, 158, 223, 225
- DIANA (cookie and cracker factory), 80–81, 91–92
- Duarte, José Napoleón, 129, 150, 170, 177–79, 206–8, 233–34 election as president, 140, 142 JRG, ascension to, 107 labor unions, marginalization of, 190–91 labor unions, relationship with, 16, 135–36, 185–96 leftist unions, marginalization of, 142–43, 145 as common goal with Reagan administration, 185–87 as PDC leader, 96 repression of, 184, 186–89 Sindicato Agua strike (1985), reaction to, 151–52 Sindicato Agua strike (1987–1991), reaction to, 214
- leftist opposition to the reforms of, 158, 190, 193
- Pezca S.A. cooperative plan, position on, 147–48
- the right, antagonism with, 148, 155, 170, 175, 194, 196
- Ellacuría, Ignacio, 91, 194, 233 assassination of, 124, 198 as a co-author of the JRG program, 89–90 on the distinction between guerrillas and OP (Organizaciones Populares), 108–9 JRG, criticism of, 105–6 on labor power, 73–74, 192 OP (Organizaciones Populares), criticism of, 9, 93, 96
- ERP (Ejército Revolucionario del Pueblo—People’s Revolutionary Army), 74, 88, 91, 109, 189
- Escalón, Rafael, 153, 201–2, 209, 214–15 Atarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, role in, 169–81
- D’Aubuisson, Roberto, friendship with, 166 far right, ties to, 166–67, 170
- Escobar, Ángel, xi, 215, 242 on Benítez, Mauricio, 223 on la movida, 130
- eventuales*, 22, 49, 140–41, 143, 216, 222–23 cooperative as labor solution for, 148, 206 in fishing crews, 139, 154, 201 lacking job security, 40 layoffs of, 75 resentment of permanent workers towards, 38–39, 232
- Sindicato Agua, support for, 157, 187, 201, 213, 217, 236 unionization of, 40–41, 137, 139, 232, 236
- FAN (Frente Amplio Nacional), 162–63, See MNS (Movimiento Nacionalista Salvadoreño)
- FAPU (Frente de Accion Popular Unificada — Unified Popular Action Front), 36, 57–59, 73–74, 92, 102, 114, 145, 240 JRG, interactions with, 93, 96–98, 108–9, 111 state repression, response to (1979), 79–86

- FARN (Fuerzas Armadas de Resistencia Nacional), 109, 189
- Federal Bureau of Investigation, 164–67, 169
- FENASTRAS (Federación Nacional Sindical de Trabajadores Salvadoreños), 15, 22, 55, 67, 69, 75, 78, 82, 120, 128, 134, 138, 169, 186–88, 212–13, 225, 234, 240, 242
- bombing at the office of (1989), 134, 198, 217
- Christian Democratic unions, cooperation with, 190
- conflicts within, 81
- FMLN, ties to, 189
- JRG, opposition to, 92, 102
- SIP strike, support of (1978–1979), 71
- SIP, affiliation with, 37, 71, 149, 228
- state repression of, 112–19, 121–23, 192, 197–98
- strike successes of (1979), 71–74, 79
- tomas*, support of, 83–85
- FMLN (Farabundo Martí National Liberation Front), 10–11, 128–29, 137, 145, 167, 208, 217, 227
- agrarian reforms, opposition to, 149–50, 156–58
- and labor unions, 187–90, 192–98, 228, 234
- November 11, 1989 offensive of, 198, 225
- the right, speculated common ground with, 156–58
- and United States foreign policy, 233
- Franco, Rolando, xi
- on Pezca S.A. cooperative plan, 213
- fraud
- as form of economic redistribution under neoliberalism, 3, 162
- at Atrarraya and Pezca S.A., 2–3, 16, 158–59, 170–82, 221, 235
- archival evidence of, 18
- financial consequences of, 200–2, 234
- as a result of financialization, 229
- Sindicato Agua's position on, 200–1, 218
- SIP and, 204
- electoral, 30, 33
- García, Gloria, xi, 63–64, 68–69, 76–77, 234
- background of, 19–20
- exile of, 123–24
- gender relations in SIP, view of, 43, 45–47
- politicization of union work, objections to, 37
- García, Guillermo, 90, 101
- gender
- and conflict
- between SIP and Sindicato Agua, 129, 153, 158, 187, 229, 232, 234
- domestic, 54
- and the division of labor, 38–47, 234
- and honor, 65
- norms of, 211
- Granadeña, Altigracia, 212
- Granadeño, Ovidio, xi, 123, 126–29, 159, 226–29
- Pezca S.A. cooperative plan, opposition to, 148–49
- radical left ties of, 137–38, 234
- Grande Preza, José Luis, 142, 145
- Grandin, Greg, 55, 110
- on violence and neoliberalism, 3, 124
- Gutiérrez, Jaime Abdul, 98, 106, 195
- as leader of JRG, 90, 95, 110
- Harvey, David, 229
- on neoliberalism, 3, 160, 162
- IMES (textile plant), 72, 82–83, 85
- Jovel, Ricardo, 136, 139, 142, 192, 204, 217
- D'Aubuisson, Roberto, encounter with, 168–69
- as FENASTRAS activist, 134–35
- Pezca S.A. cooperative plan, support for, 148–49, 213
- radical left, ties to, 138
- removal from FENASTRAS and SIP of, 213
- JRG (Junta Revolucionaria de Gobierno), 15, 113, 125, 161
- collapse of, 106
- composition of, 89–91
- failure of, 88–89
- leftist opposition to, 91, 107–12
- military response to, 91–93
- military, inability to control, 92–93, 105–7

- OP (Organizaciones Populares), truce with, 89, 93–95, 97–98
 reformist intentions of, 89–91, 98, 236 reforms of, 95–97
 rightist opposition to, 91, 100–2
 US embassy view of, 98–99
- La Constancia (bottling plant)
 strike at, 72–73
- la movida*, 129–33, 135, 174, 177–78, 221, 228 as antisocial activity, 132–33 as form of resistance, 6, 133
 justifications of, 51–52
 as proto-cooperative system, 151
 as source of desencuentros, 6, 130, 158, 235
 SIP's denunciation of, 79, 204 as source of financial strain for fishing companies, 131 attempts to curtail, 51–52, 70, 141
 SIP's collaboration with Pezca S.A. on, 202, 204
 through subcontracting, 169 as union-busting tactic, 201–2 captains, role in, 131–32, 138, 202 hidden transcripts of, 235
 justifications of, 53, 66
 origins of, 51
 senior military officers implicated in, 52, 133, 168
 Sindicato Agua acceptance of, 67
- LP-28 (Ligas Populares 28 de febrero—Popular Leagues, 28th of February), 82, 93
- JRG, armed resistance to, 91
- machismo, 129, 133, 169, 214, 225, 234–35
- machista. See machismo
- Majano, Adolfo, 90, 109, 112, 161–62
- Mariscos de El Salvador, 13, 20, 26–27, 30, 35, 49, 75, 163
 closure of, 130, 135
 SIP strike of 1974 at, 31–34
- Mariscos Tazumal S.A., 139, 169
 Aarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, role in, 173 far right, connections to, 167–68
- Mathies Regalado, Roberto Aarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, role in,
 176–81
 Miami Six, ties to, 164
 rightist ties of, 163
- Mena Lagos, Alfredo, 131, 170, 174–75, 177 attempts of to curtail la movida, 130, 141, 151
 background of, 160
 Benítez, Mauricio, relationship with,
 150–51, 213
 Duarte, José Napoleón, antagonism with, 151
 JRG, opposition to, 174
 Miami Six, ties to, 164
 Pezca S.A., resignation from, 153, 172 rightist political activism of, 160–62, 164
 Sindicato Agua strike (1985), response to, 144, 150–54
 SIP, harmonious relationship with, 136, 151, 157
- Miami Six, 163–65
- Minero, Carmen, 45, 243
- MNS (Movimiento Nacionalista Salvadoreño), 101, 161
- Molina Lara, Alejandro, 15, 50, 62–65, 79, 134, 230, 242
 as FENASTRAS activist, 112–14, 119–20, 122
 as SIP organizer, 26–29, 31–36
 contract negotiation strategies of, 32, 34–35, 62
 co-optation of ORDEN members by, 38
 FENASTRAS, support for, 36–38, 71, 119 notions of gender, evolution of, 42–43 pushing for broader labor solidarity, 67–68
 recruiting female workers, 27–29, 41
 background of, 26
 exile of, 123, 240
la movida, opposition to, 79
 labor activism of after exile, 240–41 production process knowledge of, 36 on solidarity, 77–78
 on syndicalism, 77–78
 Sindicato Agua, criticism of, 78
 SIP secretary general election victory (1975), 34
- Muñoz, Manuel, 22, 30–31, 77

- neoliberal rationality, 4, 228–29, 236 neoliberalism, 2, 160, 186 and labor, 3, 75 aspects of financialization, 3, 159, 162, 229 wealth redistribution dispossession, 3, 162
 in Latin American context, 3–4, 232 in El Salvador, 4, 125
 in Puerto el Triunfo, 129, 163, 181, 187
 in policy, 16, 198, 228 in social relations, 159 violence and transition to, 3, 124–25
- OP (Organizaciones Populares), 5, 15, 92–93, 101, See also BPR (Bloque
 Popular Revolucionario — Popular Revolutionary Bloc); FAPU (Frente de Accion Popular
 Unificada — Unified Popular
 Action Front); LP-28 (Ligas
 Populares 28 de febrero—Popular Leagues, 28th of February)
 Duarte junta, resistance to, 110–12
 JRG, truce with, 89, 93–95, 107–8, 110–12
 labor unions, relationship with, 81–82 leftist guerrillas, divergence in practices with, 108–10
 revolutionary triumphalism of, 96 rhetorical limitations of, 110–12 SIP, role in the strike of (1979), 74 solidarity, notions of, 9
 US embassy's negative attitude to, 98–99
- ORDEN (paramilitary group), 91, 102, 108, 160
 co-optation by SIP, 37–38, 122, 231
 dissolution of by JRG, 88, 94, 100
- Ortiz Palma, Evelio, 23
- Parada, Carmen
 on tomas, 57, 85
- PCN (Partido de Conciliación Nacional), 30, 37, 232
- PCS (Partido Comunista de El Salvador—Communist Party of El Salvador),
 36–38, 99–100
 FENASTRAS, role in, 81
 JRG, support for, 92
- PDC (Christian Democratic Party), 91, 176, 184 electoral defeat of (1988), 196 negotiations with JRG, 96–97
- Perez, Migdonio, xi, 216, 220
 on Benítez, Mauricio, 224
- Perez, Salvador, 179
- Pezca S.A., 2, 16, 19–23, 30–31, 50, 53, 68–74, 128, 131, 157, 162–71, 215, 229, 236, 241
 anti-union measures at, 133–34, 144, 151, 200–1
 company structure of, 13, 160
 disaffection with union leadership at, 29, 31, 63
 female workers' activism at, 34–36, 41, 209–11
 fraud at, 159, 170–82
 liquidity crisis as a result of, 199–200, 214
la movida at, 51–52, 130, 141, 151, 170 labor process organization at, 39–41 mistreatment of female workers at, 68 proposal to form a cooperative in place of, 146–50, 214, 217
 Sindicato Agua strike (1987–1991)
 settlement of, 222
 Sindicato Agua strike at (1985), 142–46,
 152–53
 Sindicato Agua strike at (1987–1991), 205–9, 211–13, 221
 eviction of fishermen from the docks (1989), 215–16
 Sindicato Agua, contract negotiations
 with, 139–41
 SIP, contract negotiations with, 35, 62–65, 76, 122, 136–37
 stake in fishing companies of, 49 subcontracting plan of, 16, 175, 200–3, 212, 216
 successful strike at (1977), 35
 Wright family takeover of, 12
- Productos Pesqueros, 176, 207–9, 211–12, 214 Atarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, role in, 173
- PRONACSA (vegetable oil factory), 72–73
 strike at, 68–69

- Quinteros, Noé, xi, 23, 35, 40, 57, 63, 79 collaboration with far left, view of, 74–75 la movida, view of, 51–52 politicization of union work, objections to, 37, 230 rising through SIP ranks, 29–31 on SIP and death squads, 122
- Reagan administration, 16, 155, 160, 164–65 and the Duarte administration, 148, 184, 186–87, 233–34
- Reyes, Virginia, xi
- Romero, Carlos Humberto, 100, 161 regime of human rights violations, 80, 98
 JRG investigation of, 95–96
- Romero, Oscar Arnulfo, 121
 as conflict mediator, 72, 113 assassination of, 120, 139, 161, 163, 165, 167
 JRG, support for, 89–90
- Sagrera, Fernando (“El Negro”), 167–69, 173
- Samayoa, Salvador, 84
- Saravia, Alvaro
 as Atarraya head of security, 168
 Romero, Oscar Arnulfo, involvement in the assassination of, 162
- Sector Agua. See Sindicato Agua (Sindicato General de la Industria Pesquera y Anexos)
- Sector Tierra. See SIP (Sindicato de la Industria Pesquera)
- Segovia, Eloisa, 44
- shrimp, 1, 6, 33–34, 64, 79, 131, 133, 140–41, 176 catching of, 48–49, 51–53 in El Salvador waters, 12–13 as leverage in labor negotiations, 66, 70–71, 73, 143–44, 207, 209, 214 overfishing of, 136, 177, 239 as payment or bribe, 50, 53, 140, 213 processing of, 23, 31–32, 38–40, 49, 139, 167, 173, 211–12 gendered labor division in, 39–40 as significant Salvadoran export, 36, 147, 201 stealing of, 68, 130. See la movida
 as worker benefit, 44–45, 49, 199
- shrimp industry, 1–3, 23, 34, 86, 136, 175–76, 215 decline of, 1, 200, 239
 origins of, 12–13
 in Puerto el Triunfo, 13, 231
 decline of, 159
 and Salvadoran oligarchy, 13, 168 death squad financing, connections to, 164 as source of profit for military elites, 15
- Sindicato Agua (Sindicato General de la Industria Pesquera y Anexos), 2, 4, 15–17, 50–51, 67, 73, 78, 119, 128–30, 155, 157–58, 169–70, 174, 178–80, 191, 227
machista worker culture at, 50–51
 SIP, membership rivalry with, 49–51, 213
 SIP, split from, 21–22
 SIP, strike of solidarity with (1979), 70–71
 strike of (1985), 138–54
 strike of (1987–1991), 200–25
- Sindicato Tierra. See SIP (Sindicato de la Industria Pesquera)
- SIP (Sindicato de la Industria Pesquera), 1, 4, 10, 15–16, 21–22, 25–31, 35–38, 49–51, 86, 102, 139–40, 142–43, 150–51, 157, 168–69, 209–14, 222–23, 225, 229, 231–32, 234–37, 243 corruption at, 138 gendered division of labor at, 38–47 inclusion of death squad members in, 122
la movida, opposition to, 202–4
 Sindicato Agua fishing cooperative plan, opposition to, 148–50, 153–54, 203, 235
 Sindicato Agua strike, opposition to (1987–1991), 204–9 Sindicato Agua, attempt at solidarity strike with (1985), 143–45
 state repression of (1980–1981), 119–24 recovery from, 133–38
 strike of (1974), 31–34
 strike of (1978–1979), 62–79
 worker mobilization at (1970–1977), 53–56
- SIU (Special Investigative Unit), 180
- solidarity, 1, 3, 33, 35–36, 55, 82, 118, 236
 AIFLD and, 184–85, 187
 American activists and, 165

- solidarity (cont.)
 Christian notions of, 8–9, 227 impact on labor movement, 9
 Duarte administration's counteracting of, 186 between FENASTRAS and Christiad democratic labor unions, 190 neoliberal rationality and, 228, 236–37 rupture of, 158–59, 228–29, 232–33
 Salvadoran national labor movements and, 61, 187, 192
 in response to ARENA's policies, 196 at SIP, 32, 67–71, 212, 227–28
 expanding notions of, 38, 54, 67–68, 77–79, 231–32
 female union activists and, 41–42 limits of, 74, 78
 with Sindicato Agua (1979), 71
 with Sindicato Agua (1985), 144–45
 and subaltern consciousness, 8–10 solidarity strike, 15, 81, 84
 by SIP for PRONACSA workers, 68–69
 for ANDA workers, 188
 for BPR against repression of, 80–81 for IMES workers, 82–83
 for La Constancia workers, 72–74 for SETA leader, 192
 STECEL (electrical power worker's union), 113 repression and shutdown of, 121 attempts at reconstitution, 195 role in the strike of 1979, 73–74 syndicalism, 37, 54, 78, 85 and solidarity, 79, 118
 as Salvadoran labor movement ideology, 60, 230

tomas, 5, 81–82, 84–85
 disadvantages of, 85 effects of, 84
 as leftist resistance tactic, 81
 origins of, 84
 promotion of by FENASTRAS, 83

 Torres, Ruperto, xi, 52, 215, 217, 221
 Benítez, Mauricio, recollections of, 224–25
 tropical deindustrialization, 226, 233, 236 elements of, 158

 UCS (Unión Comunal Salvadoreña), 33, 123
 UDN (Unión Democrática Nacional), 99
 UNOC (Unión Nacional de Obreros y Campesinos), 157, 215–16
 founding of, 190
 reconciliation with leftist unions, 197, 225
 UNTS (Unión Nacional de Trabajadores Salvadoreños), 157, 189
 ARENA government, opposition to, 197 conflicts within, 191
 founding of, 190
 issues in common with UNOC, 191
 radicalization of, 193–95
 UPD (Popular Democratic Unity), 184–85, 191
 Duarte, Jose Napoleon, support of,
 135–36, 184

 White, Robert, 160, 164–65
 Wright family. See also Wright, Juan Wright, Juan, 73, 150, 156, 158, 163
 Atarraya—Pezca S.A. fraud, role in, 170–73, 176–81
 background of, 12
 business interests of, 12–13, 68, 163
 Duarte reforms, opposition to, 171
 Escalón, Rafael, marriage of daughter to, 166 far right connections of, 69, 164, 170
 Miami Six, ties to, 165

 Zacapa, Carlos (“Sandi”), 167, 169–70, 173–74
 Zacapa, Joaquin, 167, 174