

Index

- #MeToo, 1, 89, 92, 102, 147, 150, See also unsilencing: slogans
- absence
 identifying. See expectation;
 intentionality; relevance; unsaid, the: as slippery
 lexical gap, 64–66
 physical as metaphorical, 25–27
 significant, 24–25, 26, 27–28, 31 academia, 85, 102, 155–156, 246, 248 acknowledgement, 260–266 action
 joint, 273–277
 affect theory, 237–239
 All Lives Matter, 63, See also unsilencing:
 slogans
 apartheid. See South Africa: apartheid applause and unapplause, 24–25, 31–34 archives, 74, 122, 223, 231, 234 assault
 sexual, 107, 108, 117, 147–148, See also #MeToo; violent: intimate partner
 writing about. See methods: affective:
 writing
 avoidance, 5–6, 12, 46, 59–60, 261, 263, See also silence: conspiracy of;
 elephant in the room; expectation;
 intentionality; meta-silence;
 relevance;
 as tiptoeing, 90, 91
 awareness, 33–34
 unconscious, 285–289, See also
 intentionality
 Axis of Evil, 195, 196
- Bauman
 Zygmunt, 216, 220
 Benjamin
 Jessica, 258–260, 262
- Billig
 Michael, 5–6, See also commemoration:
 Portuguese parliamentary;
 repression: dialogical
 Black Lives Matter, 1, 63, See also unsilencing:
 slogans
 body, 110, 150, 154, 161, See also affect:
 theory; methods: affective as sexed, 154–156, 159
- capacity, 109, 111, 117, 122, 231, 238 communicative, 113
 categorization, 107, 214–215, See also labelling censorship, 120, 166 claims regarding, 170, 174, 181, See also Herman, Eva; New Right, the;
 Walser: Martin
 propagandistic, 187–188, 189 commemoration
 Portuguese parliamentary, 22–32
 communication facilitated, 110–120
 conduct accountable, 277–280
 conflict
 doctor-patient, 42–43, 52–54 conversation analysis, 43–51
 US-North Korea, 194–198 conversation analysis, 52, 54, See also conflict:doctor-patient: conversation analysis preference organization, 40–41 sequence organization, 40 turn design, 41–42
- Daubert et al.
 William
v. Merrell Dow, 1993, 116, 118
 death tax, 191

294 Index

- denial, 264–265, See also haunting;
 melancholia
 racism, of, 72
 social, 263
- disability, 108–110, 119–121, See also communication: facilitated;
 exclusion: moral
- discipline, 214–216, 218, 219, 220, 221
- discourse
 anti-political correctness, 165–166, 170–175
 public, 166–168, 170–171
- discrimination
 anti-disability, 121–122
 racial, 78
- domestic labor
 paid, 92–96
- écriture féminine*, 247–248
- El Salvador, 122, 189–190
- elephant in the room, 35, 53, 54, 60, 279, See also meta-silence; silence:
 conspiracy of
- emotion, 138–141, See also narrative:
 gendered
- encryption, 266, See also haunting;
 repression
- euphemism, 62–63
- exclusion, 118, 256
 discursive, 274
 moral, 108, 109–110, 112
 relevant information
 media. See propaganda
 social, 5, 287–288
 whistleblowers, 207–208, See also
 discipline
- expectation, 6–7, 9, 22–23, 27–29, 40, 61–62, 151
 default assumptions, 64 interpretations of, 159–160
 unfulfilled, 169, 271–272, 273
- fairness, 108, 117–118
- feminism, 158, 175, 177, 244–245
- Foucault
 Michel, 167, 207, 214–216, 221, 274
- Frie
 Roger, 262–263
- Frye
v. United States, 1923, 116, 118
- fugitive stories, 121–122
- gender, 148–151
- generics, 63–64, See also All Lives Matter
- genre, 192, 193, 202
- Germany, 166–168, See also Holocaust; Nazi past
- Ghaddafi
 Moammar, 195, 196, 197
- Great War, the
 representations of. See museum: war silences of, 227–231
- haunting, 236, 261, See also encryption;
 melancholia; repression; Schwab:
 Gabriele
- hegemony, 85
 cultural
 New Right, the, 171, See also New Right, the
 discursive, 181–182
 maintaining, 71–72, 73, 90
 subverting, 13, See also unsilencing
- Herman
 Eva, 175–181, See also discourse:
 anti-political correctness
- hesitation, 61–62
- Holocaust, 59, 167, 171, 172, 173, 263, See also Nazi: past; Walser: Martin; Schwab: Gabriele; Benjamin:
 Jessica; encryption as unrepresentable, 203.1 See also
 witnessing: failed
 survivors, 62, 259
- homelessness, 190–191
- Hussein
 Saddam, 195, 196, 197
- ideology, 34–36
 language, 151, 153, 167–170, 171, 181–182, See also metadiscourse
- impasse, 30, 236, 245, 249, 250
- inequality, 89–90, 101–102
 racialized, 72, 74, See also domestic labor:
 paid
- injustice, 9.1, 9.2, 9.3, 9.4, 9.4
- intentionality, 41.1, 41.2, 41.3, 41.3
- invisible, 11–12, 90, 97, 101, 206, 207, 217
- Iraq, 195, 196, 197, 199
- justice
 scope of, 107, 108, 109, See also
 exclusion:moral
 system, 211, 248
- Kim
 Jong-Un, 194, 195, 197

- knowledge as disaster, 212
- labelling. See also categorization as self-evident, 64, See also taken-for-grantedness avoidance of, 47, 59
 semiotically superfluous, 64–66
- language
 ideology, 161–162, 171
 turn to, the, 3–4
- layered data, 91–92, 101
- Libya, 195, 196, 197
- melancholia, 264–266
- memory, 262
 collective, 224
 gendered, 139
 language of, 227–228
- metadiscourse, 168–171, 181–182
- meta-silence, 12, 60–61, 206, See also elephant in the room; silence:
 conspiracy of
- methods
 affective, 249–251, See also witnessing:
 affective
 arrangement, 244
 writing, 245–249
 ethnographic, 78–84
 narrative, 127–133
 psychoanalytic. See acknowledgement;
 encryption; witnessing
- movement
 undocumented student, 96–100, See also inequality; violence: intimate partner
- murmurs, 254–258, 260, 261, 266, 267, 273, 288–289
- museum
 war, 223–227
- mythology
 American, 198–199
- narrative
 common, 209–211
 cultural, 129, 132, 133, 138
 gendered, 133–138, 139–140
 “Florence Nightingale” frame, 133 “John Wayne” frame, 133, 138 master, 120, 121, 127, 281
 cultural, 132, 133, 138
 voice and silence, 130–131, 132–134, 140–141
 whistleblower, 209
- nationalism, 35, 272
- racial ideology and, 73 See racism:silence
 about: Mexico
- Nazi past, 166–167, 172–173, 174, 175–176, 180–181, 261–262, See also Frie: Roger; Benjamin: Jessica; Schwab: Gabriele; Holocaust; Herman: Eva;
 Walser: Martin
- New Right, the, 168, 170–171, 172–175, 179, 181–182, See also discourse:
 anti-political correctness
- news
 fake, 200
- Nicaragua, 189–190, 196
- partial criticism, 31
- pharmakos*, 213
- Portugal
 revolution, 1974. See commemoration:
 Portuguese parliamentary
- positionality
 and humour, 80
 researcher’s, 84–85
- power
 disciplinary. See discipline
- propaganda, 186–193, 201 detection
 citizens, 202–203
 researchers, 202
 US-North Korea, 193–198
- racism
 Americas, in the, 71–78
 color-blind, 72
- reception
 audience, 191–192
 relevance, 9, 52, 271–272, 274
- repressed
 return of the, 229, 265
- repression, 255–256, 279, 281
 dialogical, 5–6, 71
 humour and, 79–80
- rhetoric
 epideictic, 21, 27–28 See commemoration: Portuguese parliamentary
- Schwab
 Gabriele, 263–265
- self-silencing, 129, 140, 210, 221
- sexuality, 94
 black, 93–96
 closeted, 156–157
 silencing of, 93–96, 110, 119–121
- silence
 breaches in, 75–76, 78–79

296 Index

- silence (cont.)
 conspiracy of, 60, 71–72, 85, See also elephant in the room; meta-silence
 gendered, 151–152, 161–162
 feminine. See unsaid, the:
 subordination through masculine. See unsaid, the: dominance through resistant. See unsaid, the: resistance through
 literal, 22
 metaphorical, 22
 speakers, 27–31
 performative, 227–231
 essentialist, 228
 family, 228, 229, 231, See also Schwab: Gabriele
 liturgical, 228, 229–230 political, 228, 230–231 rhetorical audience, 25, See also applause and unapplause
 speakers, 27–31
 silence about. See meta-silence social. See silence: conspiracy of speaking about, 280, See also metadiscourse; unsilencing topical, 187
 turn to, the, 7–8, 13, 271
 silencing
 courtroom, in the, 110–112, 118 science as, 113–117, 216, 272 skepticism, 10, 192, 203 slavery
 British, 266–267
 silence about
 Brazil, in, 74, 76
 Mexico, in, 74
 South Africa
 apartheid, 1–2
 violence, 2, 3
 post-apartheid, 92, 93, 94, 96, See also domestic labour: paid; inequality:
 racialized
 Spivak
 Gayatri, 5
 stigmatization, 282–285
 taboo, 61, 62, 73, 165–166, 227–228, 275–276
 family violence, 99
 racism, 71–78, 276
 shifts in, 281
 taken-for-grantedness, 64–66 topography said and unsaid, 275–277, 282
 torture, 2, 121, 240–244 triangulation, 91–92, 100–101
 Trump
 Donald
 election, 179
 media statements, 59, 63, 153, 194, 197, 200
 presidential debate, 152, 153
 Truth and Reconciliation Commission South African, 1–3
 unconscious. See also awareness:
 unconscious, melancholia;
 repression
 unheard, 2, 209, 215, 224, 231, See also
 witnessing: failed
 as silencing, 216–217
 Great War, the, 231–234
 unsaid, the
 as multi-layered, 10–12, 122–123
 as slippery, 9–10, 61, 72, 90, 100, 270–271
 as social action, 12–13, 52, 91, 101–102, See also hegemony; ideology dominance through, 152–155 resistance through, 158–161
 subordination through, 155–158
 unsilencing, 2, 3, 6, 12, 102, 266–268, 289
 academic, 102
 risks involved, 73–74, 280 slogans, 1, 3, 63–64, See also #MeToo
 violence
 epistemic, 5
 intimate partner, 98–100
 state. See South Africa: apartheid structural, 110, 122, See also exclusion:
 moral; fugitive stories; silencing:
 courtroom, in the
 vulnerability, 100, 101, 107, 109–110, 245, See also methods: affective:
 writing
 gendered. See narrative: gendered Walser
 Martin, 172–174, See also discourse:
 anti-political correctness
 war. See also commemoration: Portuguese parliamentary; Great War; Holocaust; Nazi past;
 Korean, 194–195, 196
 Weinstein
 Harvey, 89, 147, 244, 245, 247

Index

297

- whistleblower, 212–216, 218, See also
 - discipline; exclusion: social:
 - whistleblower; knowledge as
 - disaster; narrative: whistleblower
 - monologue, 206, 209, 212
 - silencing of, 219–220
- whistleblowing. See whistleblower
- witnessing, 256–260, 267–268
- affective
 - extraordinary rendition as, 243–244
 - torture, 240–244
- failed, 260, See also unheard
- qualitative research as, 268, 289
- words
 - code, 80–82
- writing-as-research, 245–249