

Index

- accountability
- authority paired with, 36, 116, 164–5, 215
 - civic technology, 133
 - Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 146
 - Financial Stability Oversight Council, 144–6
 - good governance limits, 115–20
 - Kenya service delivery, 185
 - participatory monitoring, 183–6, 190–4
 - power disparities despite, 116–18
 - privatization effects, 123
 - real estate developers, 195–8
 - Shack/Slum Dwellers International, 184
 - state wage boards, 198–200
 - transparency as, 116–18
- administrative institutions. See agencies
- Administrative Procedure Act (1946), 116, 119
- administrative procedure reform, 115–20
- advocacy. See professionalized advocacy
- agencies. See also institutional design, regulatory bodies
- accountability but power disparities, 116–18
 - accountability with authority, 36, 116, 164–5, 215
 - CFPB as bureaucratized participation, 143–50
 - civic technology movement, 14–15, 33
 - constituencies across identity groups, 114
 - constitutional status of, 116
 - culture change for civic power, 151, 160–2, 206, 210–11
 - day-to-day governance, 41, 114–15
 - key against inequality and exclusion, 114–15, 164
 - Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 - Mayor's Public Engagement Unit, 158–62
 - nineteenth century movements creating, 54
 - obstruction of, 114
 - Open Government Initiative, 13
 - personnel rotations, 216–18
 - power shifting for reform, 136–8
 - privatization effects, 123
 - responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–5
 - visibility, 164, 165, 170, 215, 220
- agency. See civic power, political power
- ages of civil servants, 167
- ages of Trump era Resisters, 208
- Ailes, Roger, 78
- Air Traffic Controllers strike, 61
- Alt-Right, 72, 76–9
- American Federation of Labor (AFL), 55, 58
- American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), 67
- American Liberty League, 64, 76
- American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (2009), 131
- Americans for Prosperity Foundation, 76
- AmericaSpeaks Citizen Summits, 16
- Analyst Institute, 158
- Arab Spring movement, 83
- argument. See dialogue, political conflict
- Arnstein, Sherry, 35
- Atlanta Journal-Constitution*, “Color of Money,” 188
- authoritarianism, 3–5, 10
- authority with accountability, 36, 116, 164–5, 215

- balance of power. See also civic power, power shifting citizen audits addressing, 191 democracy as, 37, 210 democracy as contest of interest groups, 49–51. See also political conflict Oakland community benefits agreement, 197–8
 responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–8.
See also institutional design
- bank transparency, 186–90
- Bannon, Steve, 77
- Bean, Lydia, 104
- Berry, Wendell, 91
- Bingham, Lisa Blomgren, 181
- #BlackLivesMatter, 84
- Blair, Tony, 130
- Bloomberg Philanthropies, 153, 154
- “bodyless heads” of advocacy groups, 62
- BOS:311 infrastructure app, 152
- Boston
 Community Investment Coalition, 189
 Mayor’s Office of New Urban Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 participatory budgeting, 175
 StreetBump infrastructure tool, 129
- bowling to socialize, 18
- Brazil using participatory budgeting, 172–4, 181
- Breitbart News, 77, 78–9, 93
- Brexit campaign, 77
- Brown, Michael, 23
- Bryan, William Jennings, 54
- Buckley v. Valeo* (1976), 66
- budgeting. See funding, participatory budgeting
- bureaucracies. See agencies
- bureaucratizing participation agency culture change for civic power, 151, 160–2, 206, 210–11
 Boston Mayor’s Office of New Urban Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 143–50
 democratizing from within, 163–8, 216
 need for, 142–3
 New York City Mayor’s Public Engagement Unit, 158–62
 skillsets of personnel, 150, 155–7, 158–9, 160, 162, 167–8, 216, 217
- Bush, George H. W., 78
- Bush, George W., 121
- business interests
 business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 campaign finance influence, 66
 CFPB to be dismantled, 143, 148–9
 comments on proposed regulations, 119 community benefits agreement
 accountability, 195–8
 corporate citizenship strategies, 17, 68, 181, 206
 exclusionary populism support, 205
 financial dominating industrial, 65
 Financial Stability Oversight Council
 creation, 145
 “free” online platforms, 86
 Freedom of Information Act favoring, 118
 funding right-wing movements, 76–8 nineteenth century populists, 54
 policymaking steered by, 5–8, 65–8
 preemption of local policies, 106, 212, 221
 private realms, 9
 privatizing government, 120–4 racialized employment, 9 regulators deferring to, 6, 7, 66, 67
 regulatory agency obstruction, 114
 state wage boards, 198–200
 status quo maintenance, 208
 unions as countervailing power, 61, 65
 War on Poverty backlash, 139
 worker insecurity, 98–9
 worker schedules, 28–30, 99–100 workers told how to vote, 68
- Business Roundtable lobbying group, 64, 65
- Cambridge Analytica company, 77
- campaign finance system, 5, 66, 83
- Carnes, Nicholas, 7
- Castells, Manuel, 89
- Center for Rural Strategies (CRS), 90, 93–6
- CFPB. See Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
- Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, 64, 65
- Change.org petition site, 130, 132
- Charlottesville, Virginia, white supremacist rally, 72, 205
- Chávez, César, 59
- checks and balances
 autocratic power consolidation, 3
 business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 civic technology lacking, 133

- Madison democratic institutional design, 25–6, 38
 regulators deferring to industry, 6, 7, 66, 67
 Trump's lack of, 1–2, 3
 wealth concentration asymmetry, 8
- Chicago
 neighborhood governance, 181
 participatory budgeting, 175, 177–81
 Smart Chicago collaborative, 219
- CIO. See Congress of Industrial Organizations
- citizen audits, 183–6, 190–4. See also
 participatory monitoring
- Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission* (2010), 66, 77
- civic capacity building power and inclusion, 90–1, 210
 multiracial progressive movement, 90, 104–7
 online labor organizing, 29, 90, 98–104.
See also digital mobilizing, labor organizing organizations helping build, 52, 59
 politics of place, 90, 91–7, 214
- civic engagement. See participation
- Civic Hall, New York City, 127
- civics power
 building civic power, 27, 206, 212–22
 business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 civic associations having power, 5–7, 28, 30, 35–6, 54–5
 civic associations losing membership, 6, 60–4, 82
 civic associations proliferating, 62–4 communal identities for durable associations, 35, 48, 52, 88, 206. See also communal identities community organization importance, 35.
See also community organizing culture change internal to bureaucracies, 151, 160–2, 206, 210–11 for democratic reform, 11–12, 24–7 description, 12, 22, 47
 good governance ethos contrasted, 24, 27, 169 government of, by, and for the people, 43–4
 inclusive populism, 210–12
 Movement for Black Lives, 23, 183
 organizing for, 28–30, 40–1, 59, 212–14.
See also organizing participatory monitoring, 192–4. See also
 participatory monitoring public's low motivation, 5, 11 racial exclusion history, 57–9
 recommendations for funders, 218–21
 recommendations for organizers, 212–14
 recommendations for policymakers, 214–18
 recommendations for scholars, 221–2
 Resistance in Trump era, 210–12
 roadmap for, 37, 49, 51–3, 212
- civic technology movement. See also digital mobilizing algorithmic code underpinning, 86
 autonomy required, 89
 “beneficial inefficiencies” of in-person lost, 85
 Cambridge Analytica, 77
 CFPB online platforms, 147, 148
 citizens as policy co-producers, 131
 communal identity lacking, 127
 as conventional reform, 2, 14, 115–16
 copwatching using, 183
 curating required, 131–3
 description of, 14–15, 124–8
 durability strategies paired with, 82, 85, 88–9, 158, 159–60
 elite opinion makers using, 21
 expenditures for information technology, 126
 funding sources, 125 geographic reach expansion, 126
 good governance ethos, 19–20, 124
 government capacity improvement, 220 government data transparency, 128–9 growth of, 125
 innovation offices, 33, 152
 Internet of Things and public services, 129
 Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics, 153–5
 Mayor's Public Engagement Unit, 158–9, 160–1
 Obama 2008 campaign, 87–9
 Obama administration, 13, 33, 88–9, 121, 152
 offline relationships supporting digital, 29, 85, 88–9, 95, 100, 158, 159–60, 213, 220 online community organizing, 29
 online small-dollar fundraising, 83 online vs. offline organizing, 40, 82–7 participation in democracy, 124, 129–31 passive recipients vs. active participants, 190 petitions online, 13, 130, 131–3
 rational public policy via, 18 regulation commenting platform, 119 “slacktivism” over activism, 85

- civic technology movement (cont.)
 social media for political engagement, 84–7,
See also social media
 Technology Transformation Services, 121
 town halls electronically, 130
 as transparency, 14, 124, 128–9 Trump election concerns, viii vulnerability of technology, 221
- Civil Rights Act (1964), 75
- Civil Rights movement backlash, 75, 114
 Community Reinvestment Act, 186–90
 Democratic party support, 58 exclusionary populism backlash, 68
 Medicare and racial disparities, 137
 organizing for political power, 57–9 remaking of democratic institutions, 43
- civil servant ages, 167
- civil servant fellowships, 216–18
- civil society organizations. See organizing
- civility as democracy reform, 18, See also political conflict
- class divisions. See business interests, economic inequality, inequality, wealth concentration
- Clinton, Bill, 121, 189
- Coalition of Immokalee Workers, 98
- Coalition of Low-Wage and Immigrant Worker Advocates, 200
- Code for America philanthropic initiative, 157, 167
- Cohen, Cathy J., 16
- collaborative governance, 26, 134–6, 181, 182
- “color blind” equality, 71
- “The Color of Money” (Atlanta Journal-Constitution), 188
- Colored Farmers Alliance (CFA), 57
- Colored Farmers’ National Alliance and Co-Operative Union, 57
- Colvin, Claudette, 58
- communal identities candidacy of Scott Walker, 101
 civic technology lacking, 127
 coalitions across identity groups, 82, 88–9, 97, 105, 114, 196, 210, 213
 Coworker.org building, 102
 durable associations requiring, 35, 48, 52, 88, 206, 213
 exclusionary populism, 68–76, 81
 issue-specific appeals motivating, 96–7, 212
 National Rifle Association, 75
 offline relationships supporting digital, 29, 85, 88–9, 95, 100, 158, 159–60, 213, 220 organizational capacity via, 59
 participatory budgeting, 182
 participatory monitoring, 185
 politics of place, 90, 91–7, 214
 rural initiatives, 92–6
 strategic capacity building, 51–3 United Farm Workers movement, 59
 urban initiatives, 96–7
- communications infrastructure importance of, 95
 New York City initiatives, 161
 rural initiatives, 93–6
- community benefits agreements (CBAs), 195–8
- community development corporations, 187
- community development financial institutions, 187
- Community Investment Coalition (CIC), 189
- community organizing. See also organizing
 Boston Mayor’s Office of New Urban
 Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 Chicago initiatives, 175, 177–81, 219
 civic power requiring, 35
 common identities among members, 59, 63,
See also communal identities
- community benefits agreements, 195–8
- Community Reinvestment Act, 188–9
- exclusionary populism, 68–76
- Farmers’ Alliance into Populist
 movement, 54
- issue-specific appeals motivating, 96–7, 212
- Montgomery bus boycott, 58
- movements linked with governance, 30–3
- New York City Mayor’s Public Engagement
 Unit, 158–62
- Obama 2008 campaign, 87–9
- Office of Economic Opportunity, 139
- online platform Coworker.org, 29, 90, 99–104
- online platforms for, 29, 40, 90
- organizations building political power, 51–3
- participatory monitoring, 183–6
- Philadelphia New Urban Mechanics
 Office, 156
- reform of day-to-day policies, 38
- reinventing for civic power, 40
- rural communities, 91–6, 214
- Starbucks baristas, 28–30, 99–100
- suburban communities, 90, 104–7

- urban communities, 105–6, 195–8, See also
 - urban community organizing
- War on Poverty power shifts, 138–40
- Community Reinvestment Act (CRA; 1977), 186–90
- Concerned Veterans for America, 76
- conflict. See political conflict
- Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO), 55, 56, 58
- Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), 58
- Congressional Research Service, 67
- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB)
 - accountability, 146
 - as bureaucratized participation, 143–50
 - as democratic governance, 34
 - formation of, 143–5, 146
 - grassroots engagement, 146–50
 - obstruction by business lobby, 114
 - responsiveness to the people, 146–8
 - skillsets of personnel, 150
 - Trump leadership curtailing, 143
- contestation. See political conflict
- conventional reform of democracy
 - campaign finance reform, 5, 66, 83
 - citizen audits contrasted, 190–1
 - civic technology reforms, 2, 13, 14–15, 115–16, 124–34
 - deliberative democracy, 15–17, 18
 - deregulation, 115–16
 - electoral system corruption, 13
 - failure of, 13, 18–22, 206
 - good governance reforms, 2, 19–20, 115–20, 142, 206
 - “innovating government,” 120–4
 - participatory budgeting contrasted, 182
 - privatization, 115–16, 120–4
 - radical reform contrasted, 140, 142
 - radical reform instead, 22–7, 222–3
 - regulatory agency reform, 115–20
 - special interests hijacking democracy, 19
 - transparency, 13–14, 18
- Conway, Kellyanne, 77
- “copwatching” as participatory monitoring, 183
- corporate citizenship strategies, 17, 68, 181, 206, See also business interests
- cost-benefit analysis vs. external accountability, 116, 119
- countervailing power
 - civic power as, 24
 - Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 148
 - democratic reform via, 27, 42
 - institutions facilitating, 25, 37, 38, 210–11, 215
 - Madison harnessing rivals’, 25–6, 38
 - participatory monitoring as, 185, 192
 - responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–8
 - thinning of organizations, 205
 - unions vs. corporate interests, 61, 65
 - War on Poverty backlash, 140
 - workers’ undermined, 6–8
- Coworker.org online platform, 29, 90, 99–104
- CRA. See Community Reinvestment Act
- Cramer, Katherine J., 70, 72, 101
- criminal justice system racial inequality, 9
- crises of democracy
 - authoritarianism already here, 10
 - chronic view, 2–5
 - civil rights erosion deliberate effort, 48, See also racial exclusion
 - economic inequality, 5–8, See also economic inequality
 - organizational power imbalances, 48, See also balance of power
 - political efficacy waning, 11, See also political power
 - reinventing democratic institutions, 12, 210–11, See also institutional design
 - systemic exclusion, 9–10, See also exclusion
 - true sources of, 222
 - Trump election fears, 1–3, 222–3
- Daily Yonder* digital news platform, 93, 95
- Data.gov site, 128
- Dawson, Michael C., 16
- day-to-day governance. See agencies, bureaucratizing participation
- de Blasio, Bill
 - participatory budgeting, 176
 - Public Engagement Unit, 158, 159, 160, 162
- deliberative democracy reforms
 - citizen audits contrasted, 192
 - as conventional reform, 15–17
 - “empowered deliberative democracy” initiatives, 181
 - participatory budgeting as, 181–2
- democracy
 - academic vs. on-the-ground, vii
 - antidemocracy attitudes, 22, 79
 - as balancing of political powers, 37, 48, 210, 222, See also balance of power

- democracy (cont.)
 as contest of interest groups, 49–51, See also
 political conflict
 crises of, 1–3, 222–3, See also crises of democracy
 “democratic backsliding,” 3–5, 10 empowerment for self-governance, 12, 24
 future of, 10, 205
 Madison institutional design, 25, 38, See also institutional design
 organized interests vs. mass public, 5,
See also organizing
 private interest as sentinel over public rights, 50
 public distrusted by government, 134, 143, 216
 public trust in, 11, 44, 47, 143 public trusted to govern, 22, 79 roadmap for reconstructing, 37, 49, See also roadmap
 threats to, 1–2, 3–5, 205
 unevenly distributed, 10
- Democratic National Committee
 (DNC), 88–9
- Democratic Party. See also Obama, Barack civil rights support, 58
 Clinton enforcing financial standards, 189 organized interest power magnified, 50
 organized labor aligning with, 50, 58
 privatization support, 121 Resistance movement relationship, 208
 urban–suburban partisan divide initiative, 90, 104–7
- deregulation. See regulatory bodies
- dialogue. See also political conflict
 Boston Mayor’s Office of New Urban
 Mechanics, 34, 153–5
 CFPB and grassroots constituencies, 146–8
 citizen audits, 192
 civility as democracy reform, 18
 deliberative democracy reforms, 15–17, 181, 192
 Farmers’ Alliance into Populist
 movement, 54
 movements engaging with institutions, 136–8
 New York City Mayor’s Public Engagement
 Unit, 158, 159–61
 online labor organizing, 29, 100–4
 online platforms for, 83–7
- participatory budgeting, 177, 181–2, See also
 participatory budgeting
 in policy design, vii–viii professional advocacy lacking, 63 public discourse of business interests, 64
 rural narratives to urban audiences, 95
 social media for political engagement, 84
 town halls electronically, 130
 Trump campaign and social taboos on race, 72
 voices of ordinary people gone, 69
 “We the People” online petition site, 133
- digital divide, 85, 94
- digital mobilizing. See also civic technology
 algorithmic code underpinning, 86
 autonomy required, 89
 community organizing sites, 29, 40 debate over online vs. offline, 40, 82–7
 Obama 2008 campaign, 87–9
 offline relationships supporting digital, 29, 85, 88–9, 95, 100, 158, 159–60, 213, 220
 online labor organizing, 29, 90, 99–104
 rural communities, 93–6
 “thin” digital organizing, 87–9, 91,
 213
- disintermediated democracy, 39
- dissemination of reform experimentation, 219
- Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (2010), 144
- Domestic Workers’ Alliance, 29
- Dominican Republic using participatory budgeting, 174
- Downing Street E-petitions, 130
- Downs, Anthony, 49
- Drutman, Lee, 67–8
- dues by members. See membership dues
- DuPont company creating American Liberty League, 76
- East Bay Alliance for a Sustainable Economy (EBASE), 196–8
- economic inequality. See also labor organizing, wealth concentration CFPB power shifting, 143
 CIO racial and economic inclusion, 58
 civic leadership development, 218
 class-based institutions empowering
 powerless, 25
 Community Reinvestment Act, 186–90
 Coworker.org members, 103

- deliberative democracy pitfall, 16 “deserving” poor, 70
 digital divide, 85, 94
 Faith in Texas progressive movement, 90, 104–7
 history of organizing, 53–6
 Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, 188
 Housing Innovation Lab, 34, 154–5
 Machiavelli restraining elites, 38
 New York City Mayor’s Public Engagement
 Unit, 158–60
 organizational power building, 51–3
 participatory budgeting, 173, 180
 political conflict necessary, 20
 political leaders wealthy, 7, 66
 political power and, 5–8 rise paralleling union losses, 61, 65
 rural communities, 91–6
 Starbucks baristas organizing, 28–30, 99–100
 as threat to democracy, 205
 War on Poverty power shifts, 138–40
 worker insecurity, 98–9
 Economic Opportunity Act (EOA; 1964), 138
 18 F office, 13, 33, 121, 152
 electoral system, 13, 25, 54
 engagement. See participation Environmental Protection Agency obstruction, 114
 exclusion from the system. See also gender exclusion, racial exclusion
 Boston Mayor’s Office of New Urban
 Mechanics, 33–5
 business lobbyist numbers vs. poor people, 66
 civic leadership development, 218
 civic power addressing, 12, 22, 24, 35, 210
 civic technology not addressing, 133–4 democracy as contest of interest groups, 49–51
 democracy as empowerment, 12, 24
 digital divide, 85, 94
 diverse government workforce, 167, 216
 financial regulatory insularity, 144 governance agencies against, 114–15, 164
 history of organizing, 53–4, 56–9
 New York City Mayor’s Public Engagement
 Unit, 158–60
 organizational power building, 51–3
 rural communities, 91–6
 as threat to democracy, 205
 exclusionary populism
 antidemocracy attitudes, 22
 Charlottesville white supremacist rally, 72, 205
 death toll, 72
 description of, 68–9
 funding, 76–9
 media support, 77–9 media–corporate power, 205
 organizing for, 68–76, 81
 political potency of, 74–6, 206
 product of deliberate power shifts, 48, 69, 79
 public trust in government, 11
 Tea Party movement, 68, 71–5
 Trump version, 1–2, 47, 68, 72, 205
 trust building among distrusting people, 213 expertise. See also skillsets of personnel emphasis in policy design, 18, 19–20, 38, 116, 119, 121
 Faber, Candace, 125
 Facebook, 77, 83, 85
 Fair Housing Act (1968), 186
 Faith in Texas (FIT) multiracial movement, 90, 104–7
 Farage, Nigel, 77
 Farmers’ Alliance, 54, 57
 farmworkers
 New Deal exclusions, 56, 59, 98
 United Farm Workers of America, 59
 Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA; 1972), 14
 federal agencies. See agencies
 Federal Reserve Bank, 187, 188 Federation of Organized Traders and Labor Unions, 55 fellowships for public service, 216–18
 Fields, James Alex, Jr., 205
 financial lender transparency, 186–90
 financial lending opacity, 190
 Financial Stability Oversight Council (FSOC), 144–6, 148–50
 financing. See funding
 First Amendment organization protections, 50
 FOIA. See Freedom of Information Act
 Fox News, 78, 93
 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA; 1967), 14, 116, 118
 Freedom Partners super PAC, 76
 funding
 alternative funding structures, 219

- funding (cont.)
 Boston Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics, 154, 156, 157
 building democratic capacity, 42, 218–21 business lobbying associations, 64–6
 campaign finance system, 5, 66, 83
 CFPB budget reductions, 149
 civic leadership development, 218
 of civic technology, 125 Code for America, 157, 167 conservative media, 77–9
 crowdsourcing public works projects, 14
 fellowships for public service, 216–18
 information technology expenditures, 126
 lack as participation obstacle, 143, 166
 membership dues, 53, 59, 61, 63
 New York City Mayor's Public Engagement Unit, 158 nineteenth century movements, 54
 Obama 2008 digital campaign, 87
 online small-dollar fundraising, 83
 organizing requiring, 213
 participatory budgeting, 172, See also participatory budgeting Philadelphia New Urban Mechanics Office, 156
 preemption of local initiatives, 221
 professionalized advocacy groups, 62
 public service fellowships, 216–18
 recommendations for funders, 218–21
 research support, 219, 221 right-wing movements, 76–9 training personnel, 167
 War on Poverty, 138, 139–40
 What Works Cities initiative, 153
- Fung, Archon, 181 future of democracy, 10, 205 future of labor organizing, 98–104
- Gaebler, Ted, 121
 Ganz, Marshall
 African-American political power, 57
 “bodyless heads” of advocacy groups, 62
 Resistance in Trump era, 208
 storytelling in Obama campaign, 87
 strategic capacity of organizations, 51–3
 United Farm Workers of America, 59
- gender exclusion
 chronic systemic exclusion, 9–10
 civic power for inclusion, 35
 democracy as empowerment, 12, 24
 exclusionary populism, 68–76
 governance agencies against, 114–15
 reinventing civil associations, 48
 as threat to democracy, 205
- General Services Administration (GSA)
 18 F office, 13, 33, 121, 152
 Technology Transformation Services, 121
- gentrification and community benefits agreements, 195–8
- Gettysburg Address, vii, 43–4 Gettysburg Project, vii, viii
 Gibson, William, 10
 Goldwater, Barry, 68, 74
- good governance ethos
 accountability reform, 115–20
 citizen audits contrasted, 190–1
 civic power contrasted, 24, 169
 civic technology as, 124 countervailing power alternative, 24–7 democracy as political engagement, 37
 description of, 19–20
 good governance reforms, 2, 18, 115–20, 206
 innovation offices, 33
 intermediary organizations removed, 39
 participatory budgeting contrasted, 182
 radical reform contrasted, 140, 142, 163
 Resistance durability and, 208
- governance authority and accountability, 36, 116, 164–5, 215 civic technology digital governance, 14
 collaborative or new governance, 26, 134–6, 181, 182
 culture change for civic power, 151, 160–2, 206, 210–11
 day-to-day against exclusion and inequality, 38, 114–15 democracy as empowerment for self-governance, 12, 24
 democratizing from within, 163–8, 216
 deregulation as reform, 115
 expertise in, 20, See also skillsets of personnel “good governance” reforms, 2, 18, See also good governance government of, by, and for the people, 43–4 “innovating government,” 120–4
 local level opportunities, 96, 114
 movements linked with, 30–3 privatization as reform, 115, 120–4
 public service fellowships, 216–18

- public trust in government, 11. See also trust
 recommendations for policymakers, 214–18
 reform overview, 113–16. See also reform responsiveness examples, 136–40, 146–8
 responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–8
 responsiveness to the people, 7, 13
 supporting participatory, 150–1, 163, 176–7 Government Accountability Office (GAO), 67 government information technology expenditures, 126
 Grassroots Innovation award, 68 grassroots movements. See movements, organizing, participation
- Hacker, Jacob, 50, 65
 Han, Hahrie, 52
 Harvard Business School's Leadership Fellows program, 217
 Haymarket Square riot, 55
 Hertel-Fernandez, Alexander, 67, 68
 Heyer, Heather, 205
 Hidalgo, Anne, 174
 hijacking democracy, 19
 history of organizing, 43, 53–9, 60–4
 organizational structure as key, 59–60
 Hochschild, Arlie Russell, 72 Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA; 1975), 186–8 housing
 community benefits agreements, 195–8
 Community Reinvestment Act, 186–90
 Fair Housing Act, 186
 Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, 186–8
 Housing Innovation Lab, 34, 154–5
 New York City Housing Fellows Program, 217
 Shack/Slum Dwellers International, 184
 human rights via participatory monitoring, 185 identity. See communal identities inclusive democracy building power and inclusive coalitions, 90–1 CIO racial and economic inclusion, 58
 civic leadership development, 218
 civic power for, 12, 22, 24, 35, 210. See also civic power dismantling of, 206
 diverse government workforce, 167, 216
 inclusive populism, 210–12
 multiracial progressive movement, 90, 104–7
 online labor organizing, 29, 90
 organizations building trust through, 213
 participatory budgeting as, 178–80, 182
 politics of place, 90, 91–7, 214
 Trump election as opportunity, 207–12
 Trump election versus, viii worker organizing, 90, 98–104. See also organizing income inequality. See economic inequality India
 panchayat reforms, 181
 right to information movement, 185 Indonesia using participatory budgeting, 174 industrialization and organizing, 54–9 inequality. See also economic inequality
 civic power addressing, 12, 22, 24
 civic technology because of, 125
 deliberative democracy pitfall, 16
 democracy as contest of interest groups, 49–51
 democracy as empowerment, 12, 16, 24
 governance agencies against, 114–15
 government data crunching, 131
 history of organizing, 53–9
 organizational power building, 51–3
 as organizational power problem, 60–4
 participatory budgeting, 180
 political conflict necessary, 20
 political leaders wealthy, 7, 66
 product of deliberate power shifts, 48
 rise paralleling union losses, 61, 65
 as threat to democracy, 205
 urban local governance, 96
 infrastructure. See also participatory budgeting BOS:311 app, 152
 Boston Community Investment Coalition, 189
 Boston Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 Boston StreetBump tool, 129
 civic technology tools, 129–30
 community benefits agreements, 195–8
 Community Reinvestment Act, 186–90
 New York City housing program, 217
 New York City Mayor's Public Engagement Unit, 158–62
 SeeClickFix issue reporting platform, 129–30
 Shack/Slum Dwellers International, 184
 What Works Cities initiative, 153

- innovation offices of government
 Boston Mayor's Office of New Urban
 Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 description of, 33, 152
 efficiency vs. engagement, 163–4
 Philadelphia New Urban Mechanics
 Office, 156
- institutional design. See also policy design authority with accountability, 36, 116, 164–5, 215
 Boston Mayor's Office of New Urban
 Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 CFPB grassroots engagement, 144, 146–50 citizen audits, 183–6, 190–4. See also participatory monitoring
 class-based institutions empowering
 powerless, 25
 Community Reinvestment Act, 188–90
 countervailing power within, 25, 37, 38, 210–11, 215
 for democratic balance of power, 37
 democratizing from within, 163–8, 216
 governance reform overview, 113–16
 history of, 43
 hooks and levers for engagement, 41, 113, 115, 136–8, 146–8
 institutionalized representation, 194–5
 key against inequality and exclusion, 114–15, 164
 Madison institutional design, 25, 38
 movements influencing federal policy, 136–8
 New York City Mayor's Public Engagement
 Unit, 158–62
 organizational structure as key, 59–60
 participation catalyzed by, 30–1, 33–5, 165 power balancing of, 25, 33, 170–1 power shifting made durable, 208
 recommendations for policymakers, 214–18
 as reform linchpin, 37–40 reinventing democratic institutions, 12, 210–11
 skillsets of personnel, 150–1, 155–7, 158–9, 160, 162, 167–8, 216, 217
 social movement interaction, 33
 visibility, 164, 165, 170, 215, 220
 wage boards, 198–200
 War on Poverty power shifts, 138–40
 institutionalized representation, 194–5
- interest group politics. See business interests,
labor organizing, lobbyists
- Interfaith Worker Justice, 200
 intermediary organizations, 39 Internet. See also digital mobilizing
 digital divide, 85, 94
 Internet of Things and public services, 129
- Jacob, Nigel, 152
 John Birch Society, 75, 76, 77
 Johnson, Lyndon, 139
- Karpf, David, 85, 132
 Kenya
 participatory budgeting, 174
 service delivery accountability, 185
- Knight Foundation, 125, 156
 Koch Industries, 76
 Koch, Charles G., 76–7
 Koch, David H., 76–7
 Koch, Fred C., 77
 Ku Klux Klan, 75
 Kushner, Jared, 122
 Kutch, Jess, 100–2
- labor organizing
 Air Traffic Controllers strike, 61
 black strikers abandoned by whites, 57
 business interests undermining, 6, 48, 65
 civic capacity via, 90 Democratic Party alignment, 50
 future of, 98–104
 history of, 53–6
 innovation needed, 35, 48
 lobbyist numbers vs. business, 66
 Oklahoma school teacher strikes, 207
 online platforms for, 29, 90, 99–104
 Pullman strike, 55
 racial exclusion, 56–8
 right to work laws, 32, 61, 98
 Starbucks baristas, 28–30, 99–100
 structural allocations of power, 31–3 “unbundled unions” for worker power, 99
 union membership numbers, 56, 60 unions losing membership, 60–4, 65, 69
 wage boards, 198–200
 Wisconsin union busting, 101
 worker insecurity, 98–9
 “A Ladder of Citizen Participation” (Arinstein), 35
 Landis, James M., 20 law enforcement accountability, 183 leadership

- autonomy, flexibility, and decentralization, 89
- Colored Farmers Alliance producing, 57
- Coworker.org building, 102–3
- Faith in Texas training, 105
- fellowships for public service, 216–18
- funding development, 219
- “good governance” reforms, 2, 18
- inability to develop, 62–4
- Leadership Fellows program, 217
- organizations building political power, 52, 59, 212–14
- participatory budgeting delegates, 177
- responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–8
- responsiveness to the people, 7, 13
- risk-taking willingness, 216, 219
- support of power shifting necessary, 166, 176–7, 216
- supporting participatory governance, 150–1, 163
- Tea Party, 73
- wealth class representation, 7, 66
- Lee, Caroline W., 181
- Lee, Robert E., 72
- lending disparities, 186–90
- Lessig, Lawrence, 86
- Levine, Peter, 87
- Liazos, Ariane, 57
- Libertarian Party candidate, 77
- Lincoln, Abraham, vii, 43–4
- lobbyists
 - business interest “public participation,” 17, 68, 181, 206
 - business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 - business numbers vs. labor, 66
 - campaign donation growth, 66
 - civic association political efficacy, 5
 - Financial Stability Oversight Council pressure, 148
 - Koch network, 76
 - Obama versus, 1
 - preemption of local policies, 106, 212, 221
 - professionalized advocacy groups, 62–4
 - public sector shrinking against, 67–8
 - regulatory agency obstruction, 114
 - subverting political system, 19
- local governance. See also agencies
 - Boston Mayor’s Office of New Urban Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 - civic technology expansion, 126
 - dissemination of reforms, 219
 - financial lender transparency, 186–90
 - India panchayat reforms, 181
 - innovative government test sites, 214
 - New York City Mayor’s Public Engagement Unit, 158–62
 - opportunities in, 96, 114
 - participatory budgeting, 172–81
 - participatory budgeting lessons, 181–3
 - participatory monitoring, 183–90
 - power shifting of institutions, 138–40
 - preemption by state legislatures, 106–7, 212, 221
 - privatization, 123
 - responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 195–8
 - responsiveness to the people, 7, 13
 - SeeClickFix issue reporting platform, 129–30
 - state wage boards, 198–200
 - technology as vulnerability, 221
 - town hall electronic platform, 130
 - urban–suburban coalition, 106–7
 - War on Poverty backlash, 139–40
- Machiavelli, 38
- Madison, James, 25–6
- March for Our Lives, 207
- March for Racial Justice, 208
- March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom, 58
- Martin, Trayvon, 23, 84
- Mayor’s Office of New Urban Mechanics (MONUM)
 - bureaucratizing participation, 151–7
 - designed for participation, 33–5, 151, 155–7
 - Harvard Leadership Fellowship, 217
 - Housing Innovation Lab, 34, 154–5
- Mayor’s Public Engagement Unit (PEU)
 - culture shift internally, 160–2
 - reaching out for participation, 158–60
- media. See also social media
 - Breitbart News, 77, 78–9
 - conservative media megaphone, 78–9
 - Coworker.org connecting with, 103
 - Daily Yonder digital news platform, 93, 95
 - exclusionary populism support, 77–9, 205
 - Facebook countering state-controlled, 83
 - Fox News, 78
 - radio conservatives vs. liberals, 78
 - rural community organizing, 93–6
- median-voter theorem, 49
- Medicare and racial disparities, 137

- Melish, Tara, 184
 membership dues of organizations
 history of organizing, 53
 organizations leveraging resources, 59
 professional advocacy groups, 63
 right to work laws and union dues, 61
 Menino, Thomas, 151, 152
 Mercer Family Foundation, 77
 Mercer, Rebekah, 77–8
 Mercer, Robert, 77–8
 #MeToo, 84
 Miller, Michelle, 101–2 minimum wage, 198–200
 minipublics, 15–17
 mobilizing
 business interest “public participation,” 17, 68, 181, 206
 Community Reinvestment Act, 188
 digital mobilizing, 29, 40, See also digital mobilizing hooks and levers to catalyze, 41, 113, 115, 136–8, 146–8, 212, See also participation impact importance, 212
 Montgomery bus boycott, 58
 organizations building power, 51–3, See also organizing Trump sparking, 207–8 monitoring. See participatory monitoring
 Montgomery bus boycott, 58
 MONUM. See Mayor’s Office of New Urban Mechanics
 Moore, Joe, 175
 Morozov, Evgeny, 85
 Movement for Black Lives (M4BL), 23
 participatory monitoring, 183
 movements. See also Civil Rights movement, organizing Arab Spring, 83
 backlashes, 64, 68–71, 74–5, 114, 116, 139–40
 Center for Rural Strategies, 90, 91–6 civic power description, 22–7
 civic technology movement, 124, 129–31, See also civic technology coalitions across identity groups, 82, 88–9, 97, 105, 114, 196, 210 common identities among members, 59, 63, See also communal identities connections among, 208
 consumer rights and CFPB, 146 funding right-wing, 76–9, See also funding governance linked with, 30–3, 136–8
 history of, 43, 54–9
 labor organizing, 98–104, See also labor organizing March for Our Lives, 207
 March for Racial Justice, 208
 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom, 58
 Movement for Black Lives, 23, 183
 MoveOn.org, 40, 88
 Occupy, 47, 83
 Office of Price Administration, 136
 organizational structure, 59–60 organizing for civic power, 28–30, 40–1, 59, See also organizing People’s Climate March, 208
 political opportunity structures, 28, 30, 41, 170
 politics of place, 90, 91–7, 214
 recent mobilizations, 47
 reinventing for civic power, 40
 Resistance in Trump era, 207–12
 Tea Party movement, 68, 71–5, 76, 208
 Women’s March, 207
 MoveOn.org, 40, 88
 Mulvaney, Mick, 149
 Murdoch, Rupert, 78
 mySociety civic technology organization, 124
 Nabatchi, Tina, 135, 181
 National Domestic Workers Alliance (NDWA), 29, 90, 98
 National Guestworker Alliance, 98
 National Labor Relations Act (1935), 56
 National Ocean and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), 128
 National Performance Review, 121
 National Rifle Association (NRA), 50, 75
 National Rural Assembly, 93, 94
 Navarro, Jannette, 28–9, 99–100
 NetGain Partnership, 219
 New America think tank, vii, viii–ix
 New Deal
 American Liberty League hostility to, 64, 76 domestic worker exclusions, 98 farmworker exclusions, 56, 59, 98 Landis as an architect of, 20 modern conservatism from, 74 organizing leading to, 48, 55, 56, 58
 new governance, 26, 134–6, 181, 182
 new public management (NPM), 120–4

- New Urban Mechanics. See Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics
- New York City
 Civic Hall, 127
 HPD-HDC Housing Fellows Program, 217
 Mayor's Public Engagement Unit, 158–62
 participatory budgeting, 176–81
- New York state wage board, 199–200
- Nixon, Richard, 68, 78
- norms of political behavior, 4, 72
- Noveck, Beth Simone, 20
- O'Leary, Rosemary, 181
- Oakland, California
 community benefits agreements, 196–8
 participatory budgeting, 175
- Obama for America (OFA), 13, 88–9
- Obama, Barack
 birth certificate, 72 campaign of 2008 digital revolution, 87–9
 e-petitions platform, 13, 130, 131–3
 government data machine readable, 128
 innovation offices, 33, 152
 Office of Public Engagement, 163
 racism of conservative opposition, 70, 72 revival of democracy, 1, 13–15
 technologists for expertise, 121
- Occupy movement, 47, 83
- Office of American Innovation, 122
- Office of Economic Opportunity, 139
- Office of Equal Health Opportunity, 137
- Office of Fair Lending and Equal Opportunity, 149
- Office of Price Administration, 136
- Office of Public Engagement, 163
- Office of Science and Technology Policy, 122
- Office of Social Innovation and Civic Participation, 13
- Oklahoma school teacher strikes, 207
- Omarova, Saule, 145
- Omidyar Network foundation, 125
- on-demand scheduling of workers, 28–30, 99–100
- online organizing. See digital mobilizing
- Open Government Initiative, 13
- Open Society Foundations, vii
- openness. See transparency
- organizing backlashes propelling, 64, 68–71, 74–5, 114
- Boston Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 civic associations having power, 5–7, 28, 30, 35–6, 54–5
 civic associations losing membership, 6, 60–4, 82
 civic associations proliferating, 62–4
 civic capacities via, 52, 59
 for civic power, 28–30, 40–1, 59, 212–14
See also civic power
 coalitions across identity groups, 82, 88–9, 97, 105, 114, 196, 210
 common identities among members, 59, 63,
See also communal identities community organizing required, 35, See also community organizing
 democracy as contest of interest groups, 49–51, See also political conflict democratizing force of, 53–9
 description of, 28–30
 exclusionary populism, 68–76, 81
 First Amendment protections, 50 funding of right-wing movements, 76–9,
See also funding
 governance authority and accountability, 36, 116, 164–5, 215
 history of, 43, 53–9, 60–4
 inequality diminishing power, 60–4 institutional context importance, 41, See also
 institutional design
 labor organizing for the future, 98–104, See also labor organizing
 membership dues, 53, 59, 61, 63
 movements linked with governance, 30–3, See also movements
 offline relationships supporting digital, 29, 85, 88–9, 95, 100, 158, 159–60, 213, 220
 online platforms for, 29
 organizational structure as key, 59–60
 “organized distrust” in action, 192–4,
See also participatory monitoring political parties magnifying power, 50 political power building, 51–3, See also political power professionalized advocacy, 62–4, 82–7, 91, 208
 recommendations for organizers, 212–14
 reinventing organizing strategies, 35, 40–1, 48, 212–14, See also roadmap

- organizing (cont.)
 Resistance in Trump era, 207–12
 resources required, 213. See also resources
 rural communities, 91–6, 214
 strategic capacity of organizations, 51–3
 suburban communities, 90, 104–7 support of participation, 213. See also participation
 “thin” digital organizing, 87–9, 91, 213
 “thin” organizing, 63, 82–7, 91, 133–4, 169, 210
 thinning of countervailing power, 205
 urban communities, 105–6, 195–8. See also
 urban community organizing
- Osborne, David, 121
 Osgood, Chris, 152, 157, 217
- Parks, Rosa, 58
- participation in democracy. See also dialogue active participant vs. passive recipient, 190
 bureaucratizing participation, 142–3,
See also bureaucratizing participation
 business interest “public participation,” 17, 68, 181, 206
 citizen input in rulemaking, 119 civic power reclaiming, 22–7, 35. See also civic power
 civic technology movement, 124, 129–31,
See also civic technology community organizing online platforms, 29, 40, 90. See also community organizing contestation as requirement, 171. See also
 political conflict
 deliberative democracy reforms, 15–17, 181–2
 early in policymaking process, 171. See also policy design financial grassroots engagement, 145–6 funding lack as obstacle, 143. See also
 funding
 hooks and levers to catalyze, 41, 113, 115, 136–8, 146–8, 212
 institutional design catalyzing, 30–1, 33–5, 38, 165. See also institutional design intermediary organization involvement, 39
 issue-specific appeals motivating, 96–7, 212
 local level opportunities, 96, 114
 Obama 2008 digital campaign, 87–9
 Obama administration, 13–14, 88–9
 offline relationships supporting digital, 29, 85, 88–9, 95, 100, 158, 159–60, 213, 220
- online community organizing platforms, 29, 40, 90
 online discussion platforms, 83 online petitions, 13, 130, 131–3
 organizations building political power, 51,
See also organizing participatory budgeting, 172. See also
 participatory budgeting
 public trust in government, 11, 214, 216,
See also trust
 responsiveness examples, 136–40, 146–8
 responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–8
 responsiveness to the people, 7, 13
 scaling up as problem, 17, 21
 social media for political engagement, 84–7,
See also social media structured participation required, 171 support of participation, 213
 supporting participatory governance, 150–1, 163, 176–7
 system-level disparities of power, 9–10, 21 thick participatory monitoring, 185 thick vs. thin, 171, 208
 trust as critical factor for, 214. See also trust
 urban local governance, 96
 War on Poverty backlash, 139–40
- participatory budgeting (PB) benefits of, 181–3
 Brazil, 172–4, 180
 description of, 172
 “empowered deliberative democracy,” 181
 institutionalization of, 180 international use, 174, 175 process of, 177–81
 US cities, 175–81
- participatory monitoring
 citizen audits, 183–6, 190–4
 community benefits agreements, 195–8
 Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 149
 financial lending opacity, 190
 financial lending transparency, 186–90 models of, 183–6 “organized distrust” in action, 192–4 power of, 148, 190–2
 state wage boards, 198–200
- partisan politics. See political conflict
- Partnership for Working Families (PFWF)
 civic capacity, 90, 91, 96–7
 Oakland community benefits agreement, 196–8
- Pateman, Carole, 27

- payday lending, 105–6, 149
 Peak Democracy open town hall platform, 130
 People's Action Network, 29, 92
 People's Climate March, 208
 Perriello, Tom, 217
 Personal Democracy Forum, 127
 Peru using participatory budgeting, 174
 petitions online, 13, 130, 131–3
 Philadelphia New Urban Mechanics
 Office, 156
 Philippines using participatory budgeting, 174
 Phillips-Fein, Kim, 74
 Pierson, Paul, 50, 65
 Pittsburgh Community Reinvestment
 Group, 189
 Pittsburgh United, 96
 police officer accountability, 183 policy design. See also institutional design behavioral insights for, 121
 Boston Mayor's Office of New Urban
 Mechanics, 33–5, 151–7, 217
 business power rise from, 64 business steering, 5–8, 65–8 citizen input, 34, 119, 136–8, 147–8, 153–5, 180
 citizens as policy co-producers, 131, 134
 Community Reinvestment Act, 188–90
 conflict reduction as democracy reform, 18–22
 deliberative democracy reforms, 15–17 dialogue toward, vii–viii. See also dialogue expertise emphasis, 18, 19–20, 38, 116, 119, 121 feedback loops against rollback, 170 “good governance” reforms. 2, 18. See also good governance
 hooks and levers for engagement, 41, 113, 115, 136–8, 146–8
 “innovating government,” 120–4
 institutional design catalyzing participation, 30–1. See also institutional design nineteenth century movements and, 54 nonpartisan analysis reductions, 67 organizing to influence, 49–52, 57–9.
 See also organizing participatory budgeting, 172. See also
 participatory budgeting
 participatory monitoring, 183–6. See also
 participatory monitoring participatory policy making, 181–3
 political opportunity structures, 28, 30, 41, 170
 privatizing government, 115, 120–4 public opinion influence on, 113. See also public opinion
 recommendations for policymakers, 214–18
 visibility and durability, 170
 voting influence on, 113
 wage boards, 198–200
 War on Poverty power shifts, 138–40
 wealthy steering, 5–8, 206 policymakers, recommendations for, 214–18 political agency. See political power political conflict. See also dialogue
 citizen audits, 192–4
 civic power managing, 24–7, 215
 democracy as political engagement, 37
 good governance contrasted, 19–22
 institutional design facilitating, 25, 37, 38, 171 organized interest group contests, 49–51
 participatory budgeting, 182
 participatory monitoring, 183–6
 reducing as democracy reform, 18–22
 rural narratives to urban audiences, 95
 scorched-earth as democratic backsliding, 3 political leadership. See leadership
 political opportunity structures, 28, 30, 41, 170 political organization. See organizing political parties. See also Democratic Party, Republican Party
 Libertarian candidate David Koch, 77
 organized interest power magnified, 50
 privatization supported by all, 121 Resistance movements, 208
 Tea Party, 68, 71–5, 76, 208
 urban–suburban partisan divide initiative, 90, 104–7 political power. See also civic power, power shifting autocratic power consolidation, 3
 business interest “public participation,” 17, 68, 181, 206
 business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 campaign finance system, 5, 66, 83
 civic technology not empowering, 131, 132–4 Colored Farmers Alliance, 57
 deliberative democracy pitfall, 16
 democracy as balancing, 37. See also balance of power
 democracy as empowerment, 12, 24
 economic inequality and, 5–8. See also economic inequality of exclusionary populism, 68–76
 good governance pitfall, 20–1

- political power (cont.)
 of movements, 28, See also movements
 organizational structure as key, 59–60 organizations building power, 51–3, See also organizing organizations needing alliances with, 213
 organized interest power magnified, 50
 organizing for African-American, 57–9 Partnership for Working Families' focus, 96 political efficacy waning, 11
 politics of place, 90, 91–7, 214
 public opinion chasing, 49
 recommendations for policymakers, 214–18
 status quo maintenance, 208
 structural allocations of, 31–3
 systemic exclusion, 9–10, See also exclusion
 War on Poverty backlash, 139–40
- political science business advocacy influence, 6–7 concentration of wealth vs. democracy, 8
 deliberative democracy, 15–17
 democracy as contest of interest groups, 49–51
 history of organizing, 53–9
 median-voter theorem, 49
 new governance, 26, 181, 182
 recommendations for scholars, 221–2
 research, 219, 221–2
- politics of place, 90, 91–7, 214
 Polletta, Francesca, 181
- populism. See also exclusionary populism
 Farmers' Alliance into Populist
 movement, 54
 inclusive populism, 210–12
 Populist racial exclusion, 56, 57
 us populism vs. them populism, 81
- Portugal using participatory budgeting, 174
- poverty. See economic inequality
- power. See political power
- power shifting
 business lobby power rise, 6–7, 48, 64–8, 206
 CIO shifting Democratic Party, 58
 civic power shifting participation, 24, 35, 206, 215
 collaborative or new governance, 26, 134–6, 181, 182
 Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 146–50
 copwatching participatory monitoring, 183 durable institutions from, 208
 exclusionary populism rise, 48, 69, 79 federal bureaucracies, 136–8
 financial lender transparency, 186–90
 Financial Stability Oversight Council
 creation, 145
 institutional design with power in mind, 25, 33, 170–1, See also institutional design
 leadership support for durability, 166, 176–7, 216
 local governance, 138–40 participatory budgeting, 183, See also participatory budgeting power balancing of institutional design, 25, 33, 170–1, See also balance of power
 responsiveness examples, 136–40, 146–8
 responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–8
 responsiveness to the people, 7, 13
 as risky, 216, 219
 state wage boards, 198–200
 War on Poverty, 138–40
- preemption of local policies, 106–7, 212, 221
- Presidential Innovation Fellow program, 121, 216
- Presidential Management Fellows program, 216
- private realms, 9
- privatization, 115–16, 120–4
- Professional Air Traffic Controllers Organization strike, 61
- professionalized advocacy limits of, 62–4
 Resistance durability and, 208
 “thin” organizing, 63, 82–7, 91
- Progressives, 43, 54–5, 56, 57
- Public Affairs Council Grassroots Innovation award, 68
- public engagement. See participation
- Public Engagement Unit (PEU), 158–62
- Public Engagement, Office of, 13
- public opinion
 mythical “center,” 49
 organizing to influence, 49–51, 57–9,
See also organizing
 policymaker influence, 113
 racial resentments, 71
 Trump supporter racial attitudes, 72 trust in democracy, 11, 44, 47, 143, See also trust
- public participation. See participation
- public sector shrinking, 67–8, 167
- public service fellowships, 216–18

- Pullman strike, 55
 Putnam, Lara, 208
 Putnam, Robert D., 18, 63
- racial exclusion. See also exclusionary populism
 chronic systemic exclusion, 9–10
 CIO racial and economic inclusion, 58
 civic power for inclusion, 35, See also civic power civil associations reinvented, 48
 “color blind” equality, 71
 Colored Farmers Alliance political advocacy, 57
 Community Reinvestment Act, 186–90
 Coworker.org members, 103
 deliberative democracy pitfall, 16
 democracy as empowerment, 12, 24
 diverse government workforce, 167, 216
 exclusionary populism, 68–76, See also exclusionary populism Faith in Texas progressive movement, 90, 104–7
 governance agencies against, 114–15, 164
 history of organizing, 53–4, 56–9
 Medicare shift to civil rights, 137
 Movement for Black Lives, 23, 183
 New Deal farmworker exclusions, 56 organizational power building, 51–3, See also organizing Reconstruction, 43
 rural initiatives, 92, 93
 as threat to democracy, 205
 urban–suburban partisan divide initiative, 90, 104–7
 War on Poverty power shifts, 138–40
- radical reform of democracy. See also roadmap achievable, 222–3 bureaucratizing participation, 142–3, See also bureaucratizing participation civic power, 12, 22, 169, 206, See also civic power collaborative or new governance, 26, 134–6, 181, 182
 dissemination of results, 219
 “empowered deliberative democracy,” 181
 good governance contrasted, 140, 142, 163 organizing strategies reinvented, 40–1, 212–14, See also organizing participation support, 213, See also participation participatory budgeting, 172, See also participatory budgeting participatory monitoring as, 183–90, See also participatory monitoring power shifting, 136–40, See also power shifting Resistance in Trump era, 207–12
 radio conservatives vs. liberals, 78
 Reagan, Ronald, 61
 recommendations for building civic power about, 212
 for funders, 218–21
 for organizers, 212–14
 for policymakers, 214–18
 for scholars, 221–2
 Reconstruction, 43, 56
 Recovery.gov accountability site, 131
 redistributive policies, 66, 172–4 reform of democracy. See also conventional reform, radical reform, roadmap
 dissemination of results, 219
 funder and advocate support, 42
 history of organizing, 53–9
 institutional design as linchpin, 37–40, See also institutional design intermediary organizations’ role, 39
 reinventing democratic institutions, 12
 to pre-Trump norms, 2 Regulations.gov commenting platform, 119 regulatory bodies anti-regulatory organizing, 64, 114
 bank mergers, 187, 188
 CFPB as bureaucratized participation, 143–50
 citizen auditing of, 184–5 civil servants leaving, 167
 collaborative or new governance, 26
 day-to-day governance, 41, 114–15
 deregulation as backlash, 116
 deregulation as reform, 115–16
 expertise-based, 20, 117, 119
 financial lender transparency, 186–90
 financial regulatory fragmentation, 145–6
 Financial Stability Oversight Council, 144–6
 good governance reforms, 115–20
 “interest representation” emerging, 116
 key against inequality and exclusion, 114–15, 164
 nineteenth century movements creating, 54
 privatization effects, 123
 public comments on regulations, 119

- regulatory bodies (cont.)
 regulators deferring to industry, 6, 7, 66, 67
 regulators manipulated by industry, 119 regulatory public defenders, 194–5
 responsiveness institutionalized, 140, 194–5
 state wage boards, 198–200
- Reimagining the Civic Commons Initiative, 219
- Reinventing Government* (Osborne & Gaebler), 121
- relationships. See communal identities
- Republican Party. See also Trump, Donald activity by Mercers, 77
 business alignment with, 6, 65
 CFPB to be dismantled, 143
 exclusionary populism, 68–76
 Fox News and Roger Ailes, 78
 National Rifle Association alignment with, 50
 organized interest power magnified, 50
 privatization support, 121
 Reagan and Air Traffic Controllers strike, 61
 Tea Party incorporated into, 208
 urban–suburban partisan divide initiative, 90, 104–7
- research
 dissemination of, 219
 recommendations to scholars, 221–2
- Resistance in Trump era, 207–12
- resources. See also funding citizen resource investment for power, 172 for implementing participation, 216
 organizing requiring, 213
 as participation support, 213
 participatory budgeting, 180
 personnel skillsets, 150–1, 155–7, 158–9, 160, 162, 167–8, 216, 217
 personnel training, 167–8
 recommendations for funders, 218–21
 for scholarship of power building, 221
- Restaurant Opportunities Centers United (ROC), 98
- revenue. See funding
- right to work laws, 32, 61, 98
- risk taking of power shifting, 216, 219
- roadmap for reconstructing democracy.
See also reform
 book layout, 37 contest between interest groups, 49. See also
 political conflict
- organizational power building, 51–3,
 212,
See also civic power, organizing recommendations for funders, 218–21,
See also funding
 recommendations for organizers, 212–14,
See also organizing
 recommendations for policymakers, 214–18,
See also institutional design, policy design
 recommendations for scholars, 221–2,
See also political science
- Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, 56, 58. See also
 New Deal
- Roosevelt, Theodore, 54
- rural community organizing, 91–6, 214
- RuralAmerica.org advocacy platform, 94, 95
- Schattschneider, E. E., 64
- scheduling workers, 28–30, 99–100
- scholars recommendations for, 221–2 research dissemination, 219
- Schwartz, Regina, 158, 159
- Seattle Civic Technology Advocate, 125
- SeeClickFix issue reporting platform, 129–30
- The Semisovereign People*
 (Schattschneider), 64
- separation of families at the border, 207
- Service Employees International Union (SEIU), 101
- Shack/Slum Dwellers International (SDI), 184
- shootings of African Americans, 23, 183
- Sifry, Micah L., 88, 124, 127
- Simonson, Jocelyn, 183
- Simpson, Erin, 124
- skillsets of personnel
 democratizing government from within,
 167–8, 216
 Harvard Leadership Fellowship, 217
 Mayor's Office of New Urban Mechanics, 155–7
 for participatory policymaking, 150–1
 Public Engagement Unit, 158–9, 160, 162
- Skocpol, Theda
 African-American political power, 57
 civic association emergence, 53
 professional advocacy groups, 63
 Resistance in Trump era, 208
 Tea Party, 73
- Smucker, Jonathan M., 52

- social media
 autonomy required, 89
 #BlackLivesMatter, 84
 civic technology movement, 14
 Coworker.org campaign, 103
 #MeToo, 84
 Movement for Black Lives, 23, 183
 on-the-ground organizing, 83, 85 political engagement via, 84–7 rationality in good governance, 18
 rural resources, 95
 social movements. See movements
 Social Security entrenched, 170
 South Korea using participatory budgeting, 174
 special interests. See business interests, labor organizing, lobbyists Starbucks
 barista on-demand scheduling, 28–30, 99–100
 barista visible tattoos, 103
 Coworker.org campaigns, 103
 state agencies. See agencies
 state legislatures
 American Legislative Exchange Council influence, 67
 preemption of local policies, 106–7, 212, 221
 privatization, 123
 technology as vulnerability, 221
 urban–suburban coalition pressuring, 106
 War on Poverty backlash, 139–40
 state wage boards, 198–200
 Stempeck, Matt, 124
 storytelling in Obama campaign, 87
 strategic capacity of organizations, 51–3
 strikes by labor
 Air Traffic Controllers strike, 61
 black strikers abandoned by whites, 57
 Oklahoma school teacher strikes, 207
 Pullman strike, 55
 Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 58
 suburban community organizing, 90, 104–7
 Sunstein, Cass R., 20
 Sustainable Development Goals (UN), vii
 Taft-Hartley Act (1947), 60–2
 Tani, Karen, 137
 Tarrow, Sidney, 28
 tattoos on Starbucks baristas, 103
 Tea Party movement
 exclusionary populism, 68, 71–5
 funding, 76
 organizational capacity, 73–5
 Republican party independence, 208 technology. See civic technology movement
 Technology Transformation Services, 121
 technology workers' coalitions, 103–4
 Teles, Steven, 67–8
 Texas progressive movement, 90, 104–7
 “thin” organizing, 63, 82–7, 91, 169
 “thin” digital organizing, 87–9, 91
 Tilly, Charles, 28
 Ton, Zeynep, 100
 town halls electronically, 130
 training of personnel, 167–8, 216 academics, 221
 transparency
 as accountability, 116–18
 agency authority plus, 116
 citizen audits, 183–6, 190–1
 civic technology movement, 14, 124, 128–9
 Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 146–8
 as democracy reform, 13–14, 18
 elite opinion makers using, 21
 financial lenders, 186–90
 good governance, 19, 116–18
 Obama administration, 13–14
 participatory budgeting, 172, 175, 179
 participatory monitoring, 185
 as radical reform in CFPB, 143–50
 Trump's lack of, 1
 travel ban protests, 207
 Trump, Donald
 Cambridge Analytica payment, 77
 CFPB to be dismantled, 143, 148, 149
 Community Reinvestment Act hostility, 190 “democratic backsliding,” 3–5
 deregulation, 167
 election as implausible, viii, 1 election as opportunity, 207
 exclusionary populism, 1–2, 47, 68, 72, 205
 information technology expenditures, 126
 Mercer introducing to advisers, 77
 norms violated, 4, 72
 Office of American Innovation, 122
 Resistance movement, 207–12 supporter demographics, 72 threats to democracy, 1–2, 3–5, 205
 “We the People” petition site, 13, 130, 131–3
 white supremacist encouragement, 1, 47, 205

- trust
- between academics and practitioners, 221
 - CFPB core mission, 147, 149
 - critical factor for civic engagement, 214
 - FOIA building distrust of government, 118
 - “organized distrust” of participatory monitoring, 192
 - public distrusted by government, 134, 143, 216
 - Public Engagement Unit building, 159
 - public trust in democracy, 11, 44, 47, 143
 - public trust in government, 11, 214, 216
 - rural community social cohesion, 214
 - shared vocabulary to build, 213
 - trust in “the people” to govern, 22, 79
- Tufekci, Zeynep, 85
- unions. See also labor organizing
- membership numbers, 56, 60
 - “unbundled unions” for worker power, 99
 - Wisconsin union busting, 101
- United Farm Workers of America, 59
- United Kingdom
- Brexit campaign, 77
 - Downing Street E-petitions, 130
 - Financial Services Authority, 145
- United Nations (UN) Sustainable Development Goals, vii
- United States Digital Service, 13, 33, 121, 152
- urban community organizing
- community benefits agreements, 195–8
 - disparities of power, 96
 - Partnership for Working Families, 90, 91, 96–7
 - payday lending campaign, 105–6
 - rural narratives to urban audiences, 95
 - urban–suburban partisan divide initiative, 90, 104–7
- visibility of an institution
- civic engagement effectiveness, 215
 - protection against rollback, 170
 - requirement for, 164, 165
 - technology risk of invisibility, 220
- votes and voting
- Cambridge Analytica on Facebook, 77
 - corporate pressure on employees, 68
 - electoral system, 13, 25, 54
 - issue-specific appeals motivating, 96–7, 212
 - lack of information vs. power imbalance, 191
 - median-voter theorem, 49
 - participatory budgeting, 174, 176, 178–9
 - Pittsburgh United voter engagement, 96
 - policy maker influence, 113
 - Trump supporter demographics, 72
 - urban–suburban partisan divide, 90, 104–7
- wages and state wage boards, 198–200
- Wagner Act (1935), 56
- Walker, Edward T., 181
- Walker, Scott, 101–2
- Walmart “Community Action Network,” 68
- Walter, Stephen, 153
- War on Poverty power shifts, 138–40
- “We the People” online petition site, 13, 130, 131–3
- wealth concentration
- checks and balances asymmetry, 8
 - electoral system corruption, 13
 - funding right-wing movements, 76–9
 - policy making steered by, 5–8, 206
 - political conflict necessary, 20
 - political leaders wealthy, 7, 66
 - as threat to democracy, 205
- welfare
- federal bureaucracy power shifting, 137–8
 - local power shifting, 138–40
- Weyrich, Paul, 67
- What Works Cities initiative, 153
- white supremacists. See also exclusionary populism
- in “golden era” of mass organizing, 56
 - rally in Charlottesville, 72, 205
 - Trump encouraging, 1, 47, 205
- William Penn Foundation, 156
- Williams, Kristie, 103
- Wisconsin
- union battles, 101–2
 - worker employment transitions, 181
- Women’s March, 207
- worker centers for support services, 98, 197, 200
- worker insecurity, 98–9. See also labor organizing
- employment transitions, 181
 - voting pressure, 68
 - work schedules, 28–30, 99–100
- World Bank on participatory budgeting, 172, 174
- Wright, Erik Olin, 181
- WRTP/BIG STEP (Wisconsin), 181
- Zimmerman, George, 84