

Index

- abstraction, 3–5
- active transcendence, 38, 126
- Adams, John, 75
- Adorno, Theodor, 4, 10, 20–26, 53, 152
 - aesthetic theory, 24–26
 - artistic “shudder,” 25
 - collective voice in, 26
 - expression in, 25
 - “aporetic” materialism of, 22
 - capitalist rationality for, 23
 - on embodiment, 21–24
 - on experience, 21–22
 - in Frankfurt School, 59
 - on late capitalism, 23–24
 - on modernism, 24, 26
 - on post-vanguard condition, 26
 - somatic moment, 21
- The Adventures of the Dialectic* (Merleau-Ponty), 18
- aesthetic theory
 - of Adorno, 24–26
 - expression in, 25
 - embodiment and, 20–26
- Aesthetic Theory* (Adorno), 24–27
- African Americans
 - agency of, 122–123
 - American culture and, 122–123, 146
 - experience of, Ellison on, 118–119
 - as embodied, 127–128
 - invisibility as part of, 134–136
 - laughter as response to, 131–148
 - racism as part of, 127
 - Howe on, experience of, 113, 120
 - integration, politics of, 122–124
 - laughter for, 131–148
 - Pound and, 103
 - segregation and, 117, 123
- “Against the New Conformists” (Williams), 180
- agency
 - embodiment and, 11
 - political, and art, 7, 20
- Ahmed, Sarah, 133
- Althusser, Louis, 151, 212
 - structuralist Marxism and, 166–167
- “American Century,” 130
- American Dilemma* (Myrdal), 118
- “Anaphora” (Bishop), 49
- Anderson, Perry, 27–28, 150–151, 166, 192
- Angold, J. P., 97
- “aporetic” materialism, 22
- Arab Spring, 186
- “The Armadillo” (Bishop), 31
- Armstrong, Louis, 112, 126, 128–129, 208
 - in Invisible Man, 131–132
- Arnold, Matthew, 155
- ars poetica*, 34, 44, 50, 65. See also “The Monument”
- art
 - abstract, 3–5
 - collective voice in, 26
 - lived experience and, 1–3
 - oppositional agency of, 121
 - political agency of, 7, 20
 - social agency of, 7
 - social purpose of, 42, 53–55, 58–67, 111, 120–121
- artistic avant-garde, political avant-garde
 - interchange with, 6–7, 188
- Ashton, Jennifer, 32
- Attaway, William, 123
- Attidge, Derek, 35
- avant-garde. See also beyond avant-garde
 - collaboration and, 151–152, 162–163
 - Constructivism, 5–6, 151–152, 162
 - Dadaism, 5–6, 151–152, 162
 - development of, 178–179
 - Futurism, 151–152, 162
 - modernism and, 6–7
 - The Pisan Cantos* and, 59–60
 - political vanguard, relation to, 6–7, 188
 - Surrealism, 5, 151, 162
 - Williams on, 178–179, 215

- Baldwin, James, 109, 113
 critique of Wright, 113
 Howe's critique of, 113
 Balibar, Étienne, 63
 Barbaras, Renaud, 40
 Barnhisel, Gregory, 77
 Cold War modernism and, 110
 Beat writing, 3, 9, 59
The Beauty of a Social Problem (Michaels), 184
 Bellow, Saul, 114
 Benjamin, Walter, 34, 53, 182
 Berardi, Franco, 184
 Bergson, Henri, 56
 Bérubé, Michael, 184
 beyond avant-garde, 9, 26
bildungsroman, 139
 Bishop, Elizabeth, 1, 31, 73
 on art, social purpose of, 53–55, 58–67 common ground with Pound, E., 100
 Lowell and, 59, 64–65
 Moore and, 53–57, 60–61
 Stevens and, 51–56
 Bishop, Elizabeth, works of “Anaphora,” 49
 “The Armadillo,” 31
 embodiment in, 33
 aesthetics of, 51
 rhythm concept of, 35–44
 “The Fish,” 44
 “Florida,” 44
 interpretation in, 32
 lived experience in, 35
 modesty in, 60–62, 67
 “The Monument,” 34–51
 aesthetics of embodiment in, 51
 individual subjects in, 46, 50–51, 79
 lack of visual clarity in, 42–43, 47–48
 as modernist statement, 44–45
 noncoincidence and, 42, 46
 objects in, 45–46, 50–51, 58
 “The Moose,” 31
 “One Art,” 47
 opacity in, 34, 43–44
 perception in, 31–51, 55–56, 65–67
 constitutive, 43
 embodied, 31–51
 empathy in, 43
 noncoincident structure of, 41, 46
 object of, 41–43
 physical encounters in, 31–32 “Poem,” 65–67
 politics of modernism in, 51–58
 postwar society and, 58–64
 “Quai d'Orléans,” 31, 44
 revolt in poetry, 53–59
 rhythm in, 34
 discontinuity of, 36
 of embodiment, 35–44
 experience-time and, 36–37
 relational structure of, 37
 rhythmic looking in, 33–48
 sensing in, 32–33
 space in, 60–61, 67
 trust as concept in, 64–67
 value as concept in, 64–65 “Varick Street,” 63
 visual poetics of, 43
 “Black Boys and Native Sons” (Howe), 109, 113
 Black Lives Matter movement, 186
Black Skin, White Masks (Fanon), 133–134, 136
 Blanton, C. D., 76, 159
 Blasing, Mutlu Konuk, 61
Blood on the Forge (Attaway), 123
Blues People (Jones, L.), 122 bodily experience, 4–5. See also embodiment invisible body and, 12–14, 16, 134
 for Merleau-Ponty, 12–18, 93–95
 modernism and, 4–5
 negativity and, 16
 noncoincidence of, 40, 82
 objectification of, 3–4, 10, 37–38
 Olson on, 93–95
 postwar literary history and, 4–5
 as social, 17
 body, as concept. See also invisible body aesthetic experience and, 25 embodiment compared to, 4, 14–15
 Husserl on, 13
 as individualized, 16–17
 as object, 4, 14–15
 transfigured, 24
 body schema, 14–15
 body image compared to, 192
 Bolislavsky, Richard, 37
 Brancusi, Constantin, 74, 88–89
 Brecht, Bertolt, 53
 British New Left movement, 149–151, 153
 Buck-Morss, Susan, 21, 188
 Bürger, Peter, 7, 151
 Burnshaw, Stanley, 51–52
 Bush, Ronald, 70–71, 82, 87, 102, 200
 Butler, Judith, 186
 Cage, John, 1
 Caldwell, Erskine, 144
 Camus, Albert, 115
 capitalism. See also late capitalism cultural turn and, 149 global, postwar expansion of, 8
 idealism and, 22–23

- modernism and, 3–5, 26, 188
- postwar golden age of, 8
- racial, 125
- rationality and, 23
- vanguard party and, 6
- Cheng, Anne, 208–209
- Ciccariello-Maher, George, 136
- Clark, T. J., 8, 188
- Clifton, Todd, 141
- Cold War
 - liberalism, 124–125
 - modernism, 110
- Coleridge, William, 174–175
- collaboration, 152–153, 163
 - beyond avant-garde, 176–181
 - in avant-garde, 162–163
 - Ellison on, 125, 207
 - productive dissonance of, 163–164
 - specific senses of, 164
- common culture, in Great Britain, 161–162
 - Eliot as influence on, 159–161
 - Hoggart on, in popular literary texts, 157–159
 - minority culture, 155–157
 - unconscious dimension of, 164–165
 - Williams's conception of, 153–165, 178
 - working class culture as part of, 158
- Communist Party
 - Ellison and, 124–125, 129–130
 - rejection of Communism, 205
 - Lenin and, 6, 19
 - Marx and, 6
 - Thompson's arguments against, 154
 - "communitas," 67
- confessional poetry, 3, 59, 64
- consciousness
 - invisible body and, 12–14
 - in Invisible Man, 113–114, 119–120, 135–138
 - lived experience and, 4
- Constructivism, 5–6, 151–152, 162
- Coole, Diana, 20
- Costello, Bonnie, 32
- creativity, 174–175
- cultural Marxism, 150–151
- culturalism
 - Hoggart and, 158–159
 - Williams and, 152–153
 - working class culture, 158–159
- culture. See also common culture
 - African Americans and American culture, 122–123, 146
 - as concept, 149, 151, 152–165
 - Ellison on, 117–118
 - in The Long Revolution
 - definition of, Thompson on, 212
 - as new concept, 168
 - structuralist Marxism and, 173
 - structure of feeling and, 171–172
 - minority, 155–157
 - formation of, 152
 - political uses of, 155
 - working class, 158–159
- Culture and Society: 1780–1950* (Williams), 30, 153–156, 158–159, 177
- culture in, conception of, 160–161
- Eliot's influence on, 155
- political uses of culture in, 155
- "Culture of Modernism" (Howe), 115–117
- Dadaism, 5–6, 151–152, 162
- D'Arcy, Michael, 185
- de Man, Paul, 99
- Descartes, René
 - dualism and, 4, 37–38
 - invisible body and, 16–17
 - rationalism and, 16–17
- The Dolphin* (Lowell), 64
- Du Bois, W. E. B., 111, 122
 - in black radical tradition, 125
- dualism, 4, 37–38. See also body; idealism
- Eagleton, Terry, 150–151, 165–166
- Edwards, Brent Hayes, 125, 163
- Edwards, Henry Hudson, 102–103
- ego, in The Pisan Cantos, 91–92
- Eliot, T. S., 1, 80, 91, 97, 132, 153, 155, 159–160, 202
- Ellison, Ralph, 1, 107. See also Invisible Man
 - active transcendence, 127
 - on African American experience, 118–119
 - as embodied, 127–128
 - invisibility as part of, 134–136
 - laughter as response to, 131–145
 - racism as part of, 118–119, 127
 - black radical tradition and, 111–112, 125, 207
 - Cold War liberalism and, embrace of, 124–125
 - on collaboration, 125, 207
 - Communist Party and, 124–125, 129–130
 - rejection of, 205
 - on culture, 117–118
 - Howe and, 109, 111–112, 113–124
 - critique of, 113–120
 - individualism for, 112–113, 205
 - integrationist message, 122–124
 - on invisibility
 - in African American experience, 134–136
 - laughter and, 136
 - on laughter
 - African American experience and, 131–145
 - in African American music, 132

- Ellison, Ralph (cont.)
 invisibility and, 136
 laughing barrel, 144–145
 on liberal sociology, 118
 Marxism and, 123, 205
 on Native Son, 120–121
 on oppositional agency of art, 121
 on Parker, 127–129
 political agency and, 109–110, 117–121, 123–131
 Promethean themes for, 119–206
 on racialized subjectivity, 120–121
 on segregation, 117
 on social role of artist, 111, 120–121
 vanguardism for, 124
 Ellison, Ralph, works of. See also Invisible Man
 “Bird, Bird-Watching and Jazz,” 127–129
 “An Extravagance of Laughter,” 144–147
 Shadow and Act, 30, 109
 “Transition,” 123
 “The World and the Jug,” 109, 117–119, 121–122
 embodied subjectivity
 Adorno on, 22–23
 Bishop and, 56, 61
 Ellison and, 111, 119
 Merleau-Ponty on, 12–15
 in The Pisan Cantos, 90
 political agency and, 20
 as social, 16–17
 embodiment. See also Adorno, Theodor; invisible body; Merleau-Ponty, Maurice aesthetics of, 9, 20–26
 Adorno on, 24–26
 in “The Monument,” 51
 in African American performance, Ellison on, 126–127
 agency and, 11
 in Bishop’s works, 33
 aesthetics of, 51
 perception and, 32–61
 rhythm of, 35–44
 dialectical tradition and, 18
 dualism and, 3–4, 16
 idealism and, 22–23
 invisibility and, 15–16, 20, 22, 40, 42–43, 48, 57
 Merleau-Ponty on, 4, 11–17
 modern art and, 20–21
 motor intentionality and, 14–15
 noncoincident structure of, 40–41, 62
 as nonhierarchical universal, 16–17 object and, 22–23
 perception and, 33, 40
 in The Pisan Cantos
 of aesthetics, 71, 73, 81, 89
 historical dimension of, 72
 logic of, 57
 of memory, 88
 social dimension of, 72–88
 temporal experience and, 81–88
 as social dimension of experience, 16–21, 48–49, 56, 87–88, 112, 132–137, 168–169 empathy, in Bishop’s works, 43
 epidermal racial schema, 133–134, 136
 Esposito, Roberto, 67 experience. See also bodily experience; embodiment; lived experience Adorno on, 21–22
 as dynamic process, 126–127
 embodiment of, for African Americans, 127–128 experience-time, 36–37
 expression, for Adorno, 25
 Expressionism, 5
 “An Extravagance of Laughter” (Ellison), 144–147
 Fanon, Frantz, 107, 125, 136
 phenomenology for, 133–134
 on racism
 destructive nature of, 133–134
 epidermal racial schema, 133–134, 136
 on violence, 136–137
 fascism, 75. See also Mussolini, Benito; Pound, Ezra Fiction and the Reading Public (Leavis, Q. D.), 157–158
Fifth Decade of Cantos XLII-LI (Pound, E.), 75
 Filreis, Alan, 52
 “The Fish” (Bishop), 44
 “Florida” (Bishop), 44
 Foley, Barbara, 110, 205
 formalism. See political formalism
 Frankfurt School, 59
 Futurism, 5, 151–152, 162
 Gallagher, Catherine, 211–212
 Gallagher, Shaun, 214
 Genter, Robert, 205
 Goodman, Kevis, 214
 Gordon, Lewis, 136
 Greenberg, Clement, 3–5, 7, 26, 35, 115, 117
 Greenblatt, Stephen, 211–212
Guide to Kulchur (Pound, E.), 75
 Häggglund, Martin, 105
 Hall, Stuart, 150
 Hammer, Espen, 26
 Hardwick, Elizabeth, 64

Index

221

- Hartley, Daniel, 215
 Herd, David, 164, 214–215
 Herndon, Angelo, 123
 high-altitude thought, 39–40
 Hirschkop, Ken, 211
 Hoggart, Richard, 150, 154, 157–159. See also British New Left movement
 on culturalism
 in popular literary texts, 157–159
 working class culture, 158–159
 Howe, Irving, 28, 113–121
 critique of Baldwin and Ellison, 113–120
 Ellison and, 109, 111, 113–121
 critique of, 117–121
 on modernism, 115–116
 on oppositional agency of art, 113–116
 humanism. See socialist humanism
 Hungerford, Amy, 183
 Husserl, Edmund
 body, concept of, 13
 Merleau-Ponty and, 13–14, 191
 Olson and, 94
 phenomenology and, 13–14
 Hyman, Stanley, 126–127
- idealism
 capitalism and, 22–23, 93
 embodiment and, 22–23
 identitarian logic of, 22
 ideogrammic method, 75
 imagination. See primary imagination; secondary imagination
 intentionality. See motor intentionality intersubjectivity, invisible body and, 17
 invisibility. See also Invisible Man
 in African American experience, 134–136
 laughter and, 136–140
 invisible body, 12–20. See also embodiment bodily experience and, 12–14
 body schema, 14–15
 Cartesian dualism and, 16–17
 consciousness and, 12–14
 individual perspective and, 16–17
 intersubjectivity and, 17
 invisibility in Ellison's works and, 132–136 lived body, 15–16
 negativity in, 16
Invisible Man (Ellison), 30, 107–109, 112, 114, 131–144
 Armstrong in, 131–132
 bildungsroman and, 139
 Cold War liberalism and, 140, 143 consciousness in, 110, 135–138 criticism of, 109–110
 dialectical movement in, 141
 embodiment in, 134
 grandfather in, 142–143
 Howe on, 113–115
 individualism as theme in, 112–113, 143
 joke in, 139–141
 laughter in, 137–139
 utopian aspect of, 140–141
 political agency in, 119, 113–114, 141–144
 Izenberg, Oren, 10, 34
- Jackson, Virginia, 89, 92–93, 95. See also lyric reading
 James, C. L. R., 111, 122–123
 black radical movement tradition and, 125
 James, David, 183–184, 188
 Jameson, Fredric, 5, 188
 on late modernism, 5–6, 7, 26
 on modernism, ideology of, 8–9, 183
 Jarrell, Randall, 32
 Jay, Martin, 165
 Jefferson, Thomas, 75
 Johnson, George W., 132
 Johnson, Jack, 147, 149
 Jones, LeRoi, 122
 Jones, Paul, 215
- Kaprow, Allan, 1
 Kenner, Hugh, 72, 85, 90–91, 202
 “kinetic,” in poetry, 1, 82–83, 94
 Konstantinou, Lee, 209
- labor movements, 8
 Landes, Donald, 192
 Landor, Walter Savage, 106
 late capitalism
 Adorno on, 23–24
 postmodernism and, 5–6, 116
 late modernism, 5–6, 26, 45, 183–184
 laughing barrel joke, 145
 laughter
 in African American experience and, 131–148
 in African American music, 132
 invisibility and, 136
 in Invisible Man, 137–144
 laughing barrel, 145
 racism and, 136–137, 208
 utopian aspect of, in Ellison, 140–141
 Leavis, F. R., 155, 157. See also Scrutiny
 Leavis, Q. D., 157–158
 Lee, Richard, 150
 Lefort, Claude, 20
 Lenin, V. I., 6, 19
 liberalism, during Cold War, 124–125
 postwar consensus, 1, 5, 8
 Liu, Catharine, 184, 215

- lived experience
 art and, 1–3
 in Bishop's works, 35
 consciousness and, 4
 Locke, Alain, 109
 long modernism, 183
The Long Revolution (Williams), 30, 153, 165–176 creativity in, 174–175
 culture in definition of, 212
 as new concept, 168
 structuralist Marxism and, 173
 structure of feeling, 171–172
 experience in
 as active social process, 165–166, 178
 British labor movement and, 167
 as embodied, 168–170
 as limited, 166–167
 Longenbach, James, 195–196
 Lowell, Robert, 35, 59–60, 64–65, 202
 Luce, Henry, 130
 Lukács, Georg, 53
 lyric reading, 89, 92–93
 lyric subjectivity, in The Pisan Cantos, 70–72, 80, 93, 96
 Olson on, 95
 social alternative to, 95–96

 Macey, David, 133–134
 Makin, Peter, 82–83
 Malatesta, Sigismondo, 69–75, 106
 Malatesta Cantos (Pound), 69, 75
 Marx, Karl, 5–6
 Marxism, 159
 cultural, 150–151
 Ellison and, 123, 205
 Merleau-Ponty and, 192
 structuralist, 166–167, 173
 Western, 12, 21, 192
Marxism and Literature (Williams), 164, 170, 172
 “Modernism and the Modern” (Williams), 180
 Mass Observation, 52
 “Mass Society and Postmodern Fiction” (Howe), 116
 materialism. See “aporetic” materialism Maxwell, William, 124, 207
 McCarthyism, 115
 McGurl, Mark, 183
 memory, in The Pisan Cantos, 84–85, 87–88
 as embodied act, 88
 Merleau-Ponty, Maurice, 4, 9, 11–12. See also embodiment; invisible body
 active transcendence, 127
 ambiguity in, 119–120
 bodily experience for, 12–15, 93–95
 on embodiment, 12–20
 political agency and, 18–20
 Husserl and, 13–14
 on Leninist vanguard, 19
 Marxism and, 192
 on perception, 33, 37–41
 as embodied, 33, 38
 high-altitude thought, 39–40
 originality of depth, 38–39
 phenomenology of, 9–11, 190–192
 rediscovery method for, 27
 time in, 82–84
 on rhythm, 33–37
 Sartre and, 19–20, 120
 schema for, 192
 metamodernism, 183
 periodization and, 183–184
 Michaels, Walter Benn, 184
 Miller, Tyrus, 45
 Mills, C. Wright, 149
 minimalism, 3
 minority culture, 155–157
 formation of, 152
 Scrutiny and, 156–157
 modern art, embodiment and, 20–21, 24–25
 modernism
 Adorno on, 24, 26
 articulation of subjectivity and, 3–4
 beyond avant-garde, 9
 in Bishop's works, 51–58
 Cold War, 110
 the contemporary and, 182–183
 continuity of, 188
 dialectical conception of, 188
 Greenberg on, 3–4
 ideology of, 5, 8–9
 labor of negation for, 9
 late, 5–6, 45
 impasse of, 183
 logic of totality in, 201
 long, 183
 of Mass Observation, 52
 metamodernism, 183
 periodization of, 183–184
 new cycles of, 8–9
 political vanguardism and, 6–7 politics of, in 1930s, 51–58
 postmodernism and, 3–4
 post-vanguard crisis and, 8–9, 27–29, 184–185
 in postwar period, 27–30, 182–183
 privileging of consciousness in, 110
 repressed potentiality and, 26–27
 Williams on, 178–181
 avant-garde and, development of, 178–179, 215

- neo-vanguardism and, 179
modesty, in Bishop's works, 60–62, 67
"The Monument" (Bishop), 34–51
aesthetics of embodiment in, 51
individual subjects in, 46, 50–51, 79
lack of visual clarity in, 47–48
as modernist statement, 44–45
objects in, 45–46, 50–51, 58
Moore, Marianne, 35, 53–57, 60–61
Bishop's critique of, 53–57, 60–61
"The Moose" (Bishop), 31
motor intentionality, 14–15
Mulhern, Francis, 154
Mussolini, Benito, 62–63, 69, 75, 97
Myrdal, Gunnar, 118
- Nairn, Tom, 166
Native Son (Wright), 113–115
Ellison on, 120–121
Nealon, Christopher, 8, 203
Negative Dialectics (Adorno), 21–24
Negro Quarterly, 123
neo-avant-garde, 27, 73, 89, 96, 183
neoliberalism, 185–186
neo-vanguardism, 151–152, 179
New Criticism, 3, 5
ideology of modernism and, 5, 8
The Pisan Cantos and, 72–73, 89–91
Olson's challenge to, 91–93
postwar institutions and, 3, 5
New Left Review, 166–167
new materialisms, 12
Niedecker, Lorine, 52
Nieland, Justus, 11
Nilges, Mathias, 185
Noland, Carrie, 11, 136
North, Michael, 200
Notes Towards the Definition of Culture (Eliot), 153, 155, 159–160
- object
in Bishop's works, 41–43, 45–46, 50–51, 58
embodiment and, 13–15, 22
objectism, 93, 95
Occupy Wall Street movement, 186
The Odyssey (Homer), 81
Of Being Numerous (Izenberg), 10
Olson, Charles, 8–9, 27–28
on bodily experience, 93–95
"kinetic" in poetry, 94
objectism, 93, 95
on The Pisan Cantos, 70, 82, 91–93
challenge to New Critics, 91–93
ego in, 203
on lyric subjectivity, 95
projective reading of, 92–93
projective verse, 3, 47, 51
"One Art" (Bishop), 47
opacity
in Bishop's works, 34, 36, 44, 56
Merleau-Ponty on, 39
Oppen, George, 52
originality of depth, 38, 55
Orrom, Michael, 171
Osborne, Peter, 188
Owl's Clover (Stevens), 51–52
- Parker, Charlie, 127–129
Partisan Review, 113, 115
Parvulescu, Anca, 132, 143, 208
"peoples' century" (Ellison) 130 perception
in Bishop's works, 32–61
opacity of, 43
as direct engagement, 39
embodied, 33, 40
in Bishop's works, 32–61
Merleau-Ponty on, 33, 37–41
as embodied, 33
high-altitude thought and, 39–40 originality of depth and, 38–39
in modern philosophy, 37–38
"periplum," 81
Perloff, Marjorie, 202
Petacci, Carla, 97
phenomenology critical theory and, 12
embodiment and, 3, 11–12, 18
for Fanon, 133–134
Husserl and, 13–15
of Merleau-Ponty, 9–11, 12, 18, 20
rediscovery method, 27
time in, 84
new materialisms and, 12
Phenomenology of Perception (Merleau-Ponty), 18
Phillips, Siobhan, 64, 197
philosophy, modern, perception in, 37–38
The Pisan Cantos (Pound, E.), 10, 68–106
confession in, 70, 91, 99
Dantescan structure of, 73–77 direct presentation in, 77–78
early drafts of, 68
embodiment in
of aesthetics, 71, 73, 81, 89
of experience of time, 84–87
historical dimension of, 72
memory and, 84–88
social dimension of, 84, 87, 103
fascism and, 65, 99
incarceration as influence on, 69–71, 101–102

The Pisan Cantos (Pound, E.) (cont.)
 literary influences on, 69
 logic of totality in, 201
 lyric subjectivity in, 70, 96
 Olson on, 95
 social alternative to, 95–96
 lyricism in, 91
 memory in, 84–85, 87–88
 embodied acts of, 88
 as metaphysical conception of art, 75
 New Critics on, 89–90
 Olson's challenge to, 91–93
The Odyssey as influence on, 81
 Olson on, 72–73, 82, 91–92
 challenge to New Critics, 91–93
 ego in, 92
 on lyric subjectivity, 95
 projective reading of, 92–93
 Paradise themes in, 73–77
 “periplum” in, 81
 the personal in, 68–69
 phenomenalization of gods in, 106
 poetic subjectivity in, 68–73, 76, 83–84 postwar reception of, 96
 depoliticization and, 90–92
 lyric reading and, 91
 by New Critics, 89–90
 projective verse, 73, 91
 race and, as embodied, 103 reliance on transcription in, 78
 social dimension of, 72, 84, 86–88, 95, 100–106
 speech in, 80, 85, 98–104
 textual history of, reconstruction of, 70
The Pocket Book of Verse (Spreare), 78
 “Poem” (Bishop), 65–66
 Poggioli, Renato, 7, 214
 political formalism, 61
 political vanguard, artistic avant-garde,
 interchange with, 6–7, 188
Politics and Letters (Williams), 166–167, 177
Politics of Modernism (Williams), 178
 Popular Front, 125
 Posnock, Ross, 110, 204
 postmodernism
 as concept, limits of, 3–4, 183–185
 late capitalism and, 5–6 modernism shifting into, 3–4
 after World War II, 5
 post-vanguard crisis, 8–9, 27–29, 184–185
 postwar literary history, 3–7. See also Bishop, Elizabeth, works of; Ellison, Ralph; The Pisan Cantos
 bodily experience and, 4–5
 body concept and, 4–5

postwar literary history, post-vanguard crisis of agency and, 8–9, 27–29, 184–185
 postwar modernism, 27–30
 Pound, Dorothy, 62, 68, 96
 Pound, Ezra, 1, 4, 10, 28–29, 68–106. See also
 The Pisan Cantos
 Bishop and, 111
 fascism and, support of, 75
 heroization of Mussolini, 69, 75 incarceration of, 69–71
 mental breakdown of, 86
The Pound Era (Kenner), 72
Preface to Film (Orrom and Williams), 171 primary imagination, 174–175 productive dissonance, 163–164
 “projective verse,” 3, 5, 73, 91

 “Quai d’Orléans” (Bishop), 31, 44

 racial capitalism, 125 racism, Fanon on destructive nature of, 133–134
 epidermal racial schema, 133–134, 136
 Rasula, Jed, 77
 rationality, capitalist, 23
 realism.
 Invisible Man and, 113–115
 in The Cantos, 74–75
 socialist, 52, 113–115
 rhythm
 in Bishop's works, 34
 discontinuity of, 36
 embodiment and, 35–44, 71
 experience-time and, 36–37
 Olson on, 94
 physicality of, 126–127
 relational structure of, 37
 definitions of, 35–36
 Merleau-Ponty on, 33–37
 rhythmic looking, 33, 35–44, 46, 48, 55
 Roberts, John, 6–7, 26
 romanticism, 214–215
 Rosenbaum, Susan, 65
 Rudge, Olga, 76
 Russian Revolution, 5–6

 Samuels, Peggy, 55–56, 196–197
 Sartre, Jean-Paul, 19–20, 120
 Cartesianism of, 19
 ultrabolshevism and, 19
 Schaub, Thomas Hill, 110
 schema, 192
Scrutiny (Leavis, F. R.), 156–157 secondary imagination, 174
 segregation, 117, 123

Index

225

- sensation, 13–14, 21, 25, 32–34, 37, 172, 192
 Seshagiri, Urmila, 183–184
 Sewell, William, 212
Shadow and Act (Ellison), 30, 109
 Singh, Nikhil Pal, 111, 125
 Siraganian, Lisa, 32, 198
 socialist humanism, 169
 socialist realism, 113–115
 somatic moment, 21
 space, in Bishop's works, 53–61, 67, 196
 Speare, Henry, 78
 Spender, Stephen, 156
 Stasi, Paul, 87
 Stevens, Wallace, 28, 45, 51–56, 58. See also Owl's Clover
 Bishop's critique of, 55–56
 criticisms of, 52
 on subjectivity, 56
 Stevenson, Anne, 42–43
 Stewart, Susan, 48
 structuralist Marxism, 166–167, 173
Structure of Behavior (Merleau-Ponty), 18
 structure of feeling, 171–172
 subject, embodiment and, 22–23 subjectivity. See also embodiment;
 intersubjectivity
 in Bishop's works, 46, 50–51, 79
 embodied, 14–20, 22
 in Invisible Man, 111, 135
 modernism and, 3–4
 in The Pisan Cantos, 73
 race and, 119, 132–133
 Stevens' conception of, 56
 Williams on, 168–169
 Surrealism, 5–6, 151–152, 162

Le Testament (Villon), 56
 Thompson, E. P., 28, 150, 166, 212. See also British New Left movement
 arguments against Communist Party, 154 socialist humanism and, 169
 Till, Emmett, 103
 Till, Louis, 102–103
Tobacco Road (Caldwell), 144
 transfigured body, 24
 "Transition" (Ellison), 123
 Trotskyism, 115. See also Partisan Review trust, in Bishop's works, 64–67

 ultrabolshevism, 19
 the universal, in embodiment, 20–24
Uses of Literacy (Hoggart), 154, 157–158

 value, in Bishop's work, 64–65
 van Dyke, Henry, 78
 vanguardism, 5–7, 19, 73, 75, 150–151, 167, 178. See also avant-garde;
 neo-vanguardism; post-vanguard crisis
 for Ellison, 115–116, 123–124, 207
 modernism and, 5–7
 "Varick Street" (Bishop), 63
 Villon, Francois, 56 violence, 136–137

 Wallace, Henry, 130
 Warren, Kenneth, 205–206
The Waste Land (Eliot), 80
 Watts, Jerry Gafio, 204
 White, Gillian, 36, 60, 196–198
 Wilde, Oscar, 78
 Williams, Raymond, 1, 149–150, 164, 166–167, 170–172, 177–178, 180. See also Culture
 and Society: 1780-1950; The Long Revolution; Politics of Modernism Adorno and, 152
 in British New Left movement, 149–151, 153–154
 on collaboration, 152–153, 163
 beyond avant-garde, 176–181
 productive dissonance of, 163–164
 specific senses of, 164
 on common culture, in Great Britain, 161–162 conception of, 153–165, 178
 Eliot as influence on, 159–161
 minority culture, 155–157
 unconscious dimension of, 164–165
 working class culture as part of, 158
 contemporary cognitivism and, 214
 as cultural Marxist, 150–151
 on literature, 175
 on minority culture formation, 152
 on modernism, 178–181
 avant-garde and, development of, 178–179, 215
 on neo-vanguardism, 151–152, 179
 on political agency, and crisis, 176–177
 Wiskus, Jennifer, 40
 working class culture, 158–159
 "The World and the Jug" (Ellison), 109, 117–119, 121–122
 World War II, postmodernism as following, 5
 Wright, Richard, 109, 111, 113–115, 149
 in black radical tradition, 125
 European modernism and, 114

 Ziarek, Ewa, 24, 57, 61
 Zukofsky, Louis, 52