

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information

Index

Acemoglu, D., 49	change-makers active citizenship, 209–10	active citizenship, 209–10
actors for change, see change-makers	bottom-up, 195–97
Africa	in communities, 205–7
poverty in sub-Saharan Africa, 29f1.5	consumption choices, 205 welfare state in, 161–62	families, change through, 201–3 ageing population, 153–54	global grassroots, 198–201 agency theory, 130	grassroots as origin for, 195–97 alternatives, lack of, as false idea, 3-4	news and information, 207–8
Anglo-Saxon conception of the welfare	openness and adaptation, 210
state, 162-63	power to bring change, 194–95 animals, changing attitudes toward, 69-70	savings choices, 205
Anthropocene, 5–6, 5n3, 15	social experimenting, 197
anti-globalization narrative, 59–61	torch-bearers, 207–8
Apartheid scenario, 86–92	women, position of, 195
Asia	in workplaces, 203-4
inequality in, 29	China
welfare state in, 159-61	GDP per capita increase, 23-24
Atkinson, Dane, 196–97, 203–4	poverty reduction, 24
Atkinson, Tony, 56	welfare state in, 159-61
authoritarian scenario, 98-103	Chomsky, Noam, 194 automation, 48–50, 155–56, 167	"circle of respect and dignity," expansion of, 7 autonomous public organizations, 183	cities, 75
	authoritarian scenario, 101-2
Barkai, S., 134–35	urban design, 101-2, 206-7 belonging, 153	citizenship, 73-75
bottom-up change, 195–97	civil society, 70-72, 199-200
Brazil, 76	climate change,
Marco Civil da Internet, 185-86	impact on rich/poor countries, 39-40
Brundtland Report, 92	see also environment
budgeting, participatory, 182	commodification of everything, 142 common fate of humans, awareness of, 83 capitalism	Communist Manifesto, 108-9 alternatives to current variant of, 3-4	communities, change-makers in, 205-7 contemporary dominant type, 126-27	competition
Marxist view of, 108	versus cooperation, 119-21 private property, impact of lack of, 109-10	democratic/traditional profit, 110	corporations, 173-74
see also corporations	true, reinjection of, 143-44
Case, Anne, 117	conflicts
centralization of government, 147–48	current state of in the world, 36-37
global democracy, 190–91	small-scale, 22

227

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information 228 INDEX

> consensus-building mechanisms, importance of, 64 animals, changing attitudes toward, 69-70 consumption choices, 205 as central to understanding society, 65 control change and continuity in, 66 employment and, 116 changing images of society, 66-67 social relations, 121-23 civil society, rise of, 70-72 cooperation versus competition, 119-21 convergence of as fallacy, 80-81 cooperative sector, cross-cultural influences, 78-79 different, and human values, 78 social relations, 125 as third way, 112-13, 114 dynamics of 79 corporate social responsibility (CSR), 137-38 education, 83-84 corporations equality, inequality and difference, 72-77 active citizenship and, 209-10 ethnocentric bias, 78 alternative legal structures, 132 nature, changing perception of, 67-70 as "artificial individuals," 127-28 Dahl, Robert, 194 in a better society, 8-9 change-makers in, 203-4 data collection and processing, potential of, 14 contemporary features of, 127-28 Deaton, Angus, 117 criticisms of, 128-30 debate, revival of, 144 democratic/traditional, and decentralized social-democratic welfare competition, 173-74 state. 165-66 democratization of, 139-40, 196-97 see also emancipating state expansion of reach, 132-33 decolonization, 26-28 fiscal responsibility, 139 deliberative-participatory democracy, governance, 129-30, 209-10 182 - 83inequalities, contribution to, 135-36 democracy as legal entities, 127-28 autonomous public organizations, 183 legal jurisdictions, choice of by, 135 corporations, democratization of, 139-40 limited liability, 128-29, 131 corporations as threat to, 136-40 multinational, 133-36 debate, revival of, 144 origin of, 127 deliberative-participatory, 182-83 ownership and management, 127-28, 129-30 direct, 12-13, 180 political influence of, 137, 139, 176-78 global, 190-91 power and mobility of, 135 mini-publics, 182-83 reforming, 130-32, 139-40 representative, 180 shareholders, 129-30, 131-32 rich and poor preferences stakeholders, 129-30, 131-32 compared, 180-81 support for, 171-72 start-ups, incentives for, 143-44 state support for reform of, 173-75 trends in, 26-28 structural inequality, 138-39 see also emancipating state; politics taxation, 134, 135, 139, 152-53 democratization of corporations, 139-40, think-tanks/research funded by, 138 196-97 as threat to democracy, 136-40 developing countries as emancipating see also market economy; productive states, 10 diet in authoritarian scenario, 101 institutions corporatist conception of the welfare difference state, 163 dynamics of culture(s), 79 corruption education, 83-84 equality and inequality, 72-77 authoritarian scenario. 102 shared respect for, 80 lobbying and, 178-79 in politics, 177-78 digital divide, 53

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information

INDEX 229

dignity	market and government, both
"circle of respect and dignity," expansion	needed, 13–14 of, 7	minimum wage policy, 167 right to, 2–3	politics, infusion of throughout social status and, 122	society, 12–13 direct democracy, 12-13, 180	pre-distribution, 166-67
see also democracy; politics	realizing vision of, 14
distribution,	redistribution, reduction in, 11
Apartheid scenario, 86-92	rents, taxing, 169-70 emancipating state, 166-67	rights to power, status and global, change in, 30-31	knowledge, 10-11 globalization, impact of, 47	standard politics, transformation of, 12 market economy, 141-42	taxing of rents and externalities, 11-12
pre-distribution in emancipating	technology and, 11
state, 166-67	universal basic income, 168
redistribution in emancipating	emissions state, 11	greenhouse gas, 33-34
distrust in institutions, 60, 63-64	methane, 100-1 diversity, shared respect for, 80	employment automation in the workplace, 48-50, ecology	155–56, 167
rise in concerns about, 68-69	control and status, 116
see also environment	mortality rates and, 117 economic activities of families/firms, 115	and profit of multinational economic growth,	corporations, 133–35
authoritarian scenario, 99	shocks, 53-54
"end of history" scenario, 92-98	technology and, 48-52
education	"end of history" equality, 83–84	scenario, 92–98
as investment, 151–52	thesis, 3
electoral systems	environment
abstention from voting, 189–90	Apartheid scenario, 86-92
failures of, 186–88	authoritarian scenario, 98-103
France, 188	climate change, impact on rich/poor grading of candidates, 189	countries, 39–40
registration of voters, 189–90	development gaps between countries, 39-38
United Kingdom, 188	ecology, rise in concerns about, 68–69
United States, 186–88	emancipating state, 168–69
emancipating state	emissions, methane, 100-1 automation in the workplace, 167	"end of history" scenario, 92–98
data collection and processing,	externalities, management of, 168-69 potential of, 14	globalization and standards for, 47 developing countries, 10	greenhouse gas emissions, 33–34 environmental issues, 168–69	increased problems, 22 externalities, management of, 168-69	international cooperation, need for, 209 features and challenges, 166–70	international coordination of local free riding, prevention via taxes, 12	initiatives, 200 gig economy, 167–68	losses and pollution of natural globalization, 11, 14, 170	resources, 32–34
grassroots initiatives, 14	migration, degradation as leading to, 40
ideal of, 10	nationalism, impact on agreements, 41

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information 230 INDEX

environment (cont.)

natural resources, losses and pollution of. 32-34 nature, changing perception of, 67-70 rise in concerns about, 68-69 sustainability, equity and freedom, achieving, 6-7 sustainability as goal to be pursued, 85-86 temperatures rise, impact on rich/poor countries, 39-40 Environmental Protection Agency, 93 equal dignity, right to, 2-3 Apartheid scenario, 86-92 authoritarian scenario, 98-103 claims for by those deprived of, 79 cross-cultural influences, 78-79 and difference, 72-77 dynamics of culture(s), 79 education, 83-84 "end of history" scenario, 92-98 and freedom and environmental sustainability, achieving, 6-7 gender and, 76-77, 77f3.5 as goal to be pursued, 85-86 as legitimate, 65-66 promising future for, 81 resistance to, 80, 82 shared respect for difference, 80 social actors, need for to achieve, 77-78, 82-83 see also inequality Esping-Andersen, G., 162 ethical consumption and savings, 205 experimenting, social, 197 extinction, mass, threat of, 5-6, 14-15 false ideas politics and policy, salvation from, 5 social causes, traditional, as replaced, 4-5 "there is no alternative" as, 3-4 families bringing change through, 201-3 cooperation versus competition, 119-21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117-18 sexual orientation and, 202 financialization, 142-43, 144-45 firms, see corporations; productive institutions food in authoritarian scenario, 101 foreign direct investment (FDI), increase in, 44-45, 45f2.2 France, electoral system in, 188 free market economy, see market economy free riding, prevention via taxes, 12 freedom Apartheid scenario, 86-92 authoritarian scenario, 98-103 "end of history" scenario, 92-98 and equity and environmental sustainability, achieving, 6-7 as goal to be pursued, 85-86 future of the planet, Apartheid scenario, 86-92 authoritarian scenario, 98-103 "end of history" scenario, 92-98 goals, 85-86 warnings not predictions, scenarios as, 103 Gaward Kalinga, 206 GDP per capita, increase in, 23-24 gender bringing change through families, 201-3 equality and, 76-77, 77f3.5 families and, 202 Giddens, Anthony, 111 gig economy, 167-68 global democracy, 190-91 see also democracy; politics global distribution, change in, 30-31 global performance alarming trends and patterns, 28-37 progress since Second World War, 21 slow progress/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 successes, 23-28 globalization anti-globalization narrative, 59-61

as disruptive force, 43

convergence of culture(s) as fallacy, 80-81

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information

INDEX 23I

increase in goods and capital flows, 44-46	ideologies, death of, 1 inequality, growth in, 21–22	imaginaries, social and technological, 62 international travel, increase in, 47	immigration, 153–54
local context, importance of, 62–63	Incredible Edible, 206 market openness, increase in, 45-46	India migration, 47	development gap with US, 39–38
non-governmental organizations (NGOs),	GDP per capita increase, 24
199–200	Self-Employed Women Association not external force on society, 63	(SEWA), 199–200 populism and nationalism as targeting, 59	welfare state in, 159
reorientation toward human needs, 15	Indonesia, welfare state in, 159 social inclusion and, 7	inequalities taming, 43–44	taxation as reducing, 149 technology, connection between, 57–59	inequality goals	Anglo-Saxon conception of the welfare
Apartheid scenario, 86–92	state, 162–63
authoritarian scenario, 98–103	Apartheid scenario, 86–92
"end of history" scenario, 92–98	authoritarian scenario, 98–103 equity, 85–86	corporations' contribution to, 135–36
freedom, 85–86	corporatist conception of the welfare sustainability, 85–86	state, 163
sustainable development, 2, 14, 59, 64,	and difference, 72–77
81, 85–86	different conceptions of the welfare state, warnings not predictions, scenarios as, 103	162-63, 165 governance, corporate, 129–30, 209–10	dynamics of culture(s), 79 government	"end of history" scenario, 92–98 and market, both needed in emancipating	globalization, role of in, 59–61 state, 13–14	growth in, 21–22, 28–30
technology as concern of, 56	rising, 40–41
see also emancipating state; welfare state	structural, 138–39 welfare state, 149
grassroots initiatives,	welfare state and technological change, 61–62 information
DIY revolution, 16–17	circulation of, 122–23
emancipating state, 14 as global, 198–201	responsibility toward, 207–8 importance of, 7–8	shift in importance toward, 63
as origin for change, 195–97	institutional innovation, need to explore, 6
Great Transformation, The (Polanyi),	international government, 147–48
140, 146–47	global democracy, 190–91
greenhouse gas emissions, 33–34	see also globalization greemouse gas emissions, 60-04	International Panel on Social Progress, viii–ix health expenditure, 154–55	international travel, increase in, 47
Heckman, James, 151–52	internet, penetration of, 48–49 historical determinism as wrong, 103–4	internet) penetration of 10 15 history	jobs, control and status in, 116 animals, changing attitudes toward, 69–70	,, changing images of society, 66–67	Karasek, Robert, 116
civil society, rise of, 70–72	Korea, welfare state in, 159 equality, inequality and difference, 72–77	, nature, changing perception of, 67–70	labor in a market economy, 146 hope in the future, loss of, 1	labor usage, technology and, 48–52
÷ ' '	3, 3, ,

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information 232 INDEX

> land in a market economy, 146 new, impact of, 184-85 Latin America pervasiveness of in politics, 13, 185 role in politics, 183-85 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182-83 social media, 184-85 inequality in, 29 meritocracy, 64 Marco Civil da Internet, Brazil, 185-86 methane emissions, 100-1 welfare state in, 161 middle class, shrinking of, 60 legal jurisdictions, choice of by migration, 22, 34-35, 60, 153-54 Apartheid scenario, 90 corporations, 135 life expectancy, 25, 26f1.3 environmental degradation as leading to, 40 limited liability, principle of, 128-29, 131 globalization, 47 mini-publics, 182-83 by corporations, 137, 139, 177 minimum wage policy, 167 and corruption, 178-79 mobile phones, 48-49 reform of, 178-79 money regulation of, 178-80 corporate influence in politics, 137. local culture 139, 176-78 convergence of culture(s) as fallacy, 80-81 lobbying by corporations, 137, 139, 177 importance of, 62-63 in a market economy, 146 see also grassroots initiatives political campaign funding, 177 mortality rates, 117 Marco Civil da Internet, Brazil, 185-86 Mother Centers, 206 market economy multinational corporations, 133-36 alternatives to current variant of, 3-4 in a better society, 8-9 nation-states commodification of everything, 142 and differences among humans, 73-75 competition, true, reinjection of, 143-44 see also emancipating state; government; debate on boundaries of, 144 welfare state distribution of wealth, 141-42 nationalism, impact on environmental embedded in social mechanisms, 146-47 agreements, 41 "end of history" scenario, 92-98 natural resources, losses and pollution of, 32-34 families/firms, economic activities of, 115 nature, changing perception of, 67–70 financialization, 144-45 nobles and plebeians, past beliefs in, 66-67 and government, both needed in non-governmental organizations (NGOs), emancipating state, 13-14 71-72, 199-200 land, money, and labor, 146 non-profit organizations, 71-72 marketization, 140-42, 144 new form of democratic, 15-16 oligopolistic equilibrium, 141 oligopolistic equilibrium, 141 openness, increase in, 45-46 participatory budgeting, 182 partnerships, worker, 112-14 start-ups, incentives for, 143-44 see also corporations past, the Marx. Karl. 103 animals, changing attitudes toward, 69-70 Marxism, 108-9 changing images of society, 66-67 maternal mortality, 25, 26f1.3 civil society, rise of, 70-72 McCulloch, J.R., 129 equality, inequality, and difference, 72-77 Meade, James, 112-14 nature, changing perception of, 67-70 media pensions, 153 change-makers and, 207-8 per capita GDP, increase in, 23-24 as common good, 186 per capita income growth, 28 Marco Civil da Internet, Brazil, 185-86 pharmaceutical industry, 154-55

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information

INDEX 233

Piketty, T., 103, 152 Polanyi, Karl, 140, 146-47 polarization, in politics, 171 in society, 63-64 polity salvation from as false idea, 5 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209-10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176-78 corruption, 177-78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182-83 democracy, support for, 171-72 direct democracy, 190-91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178-80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183-86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173-75 socio-economic reforms and, 171-72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173-75 transparency in funding, 176-77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88-90 preferences compared to the rich, 180-81 and rich, growing gap between, 60-61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118-19 see also inequality population age profile, 31-32 authoritarian scenario, 99-100 growth, 30-31 hidden pattern of, 2928£1.5 reduction, 21, 24, 25f1.2 power for change, 194-95 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121-23 pre-distribution in emacipating state, 166-67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109-10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121-23 pre-distribution in emacipating state, 166-67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109-10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121-23 pre-distribution in emacipating state, 166-67 primary school compelition rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109-10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121-23 predistribution in emacipating state, 166-67 primary school compelition rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109-10 rights of wealth, 114 social	Philippines, welfare state in, 159	poverty polarization, in politics, 171 in society, 63–64 policy salvation from as false idea, 5 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 stransparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 sutonomous public dea, 5 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 pre-distribution in emancipating state, 166–67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 impact of lack of, 109–10 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 impact of lack of, 109–10 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 social relations, 121–23 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress pr	Piketty, T., 103, 152	hidden pattern of, 2928f1.5
in politics, 171 in society, 63–64 policy salvation from as false idea, 5 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 180-90 global democracy, 180-90 global democracy, 180-90 global democracy, 180-90 global democracy, 180-90 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 policis sactive citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation competition rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation competition rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 sprivate property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation convicties of, 115 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 seconomic activities of, 115 productive institutions cooperation private property impact of lack of, 109–10 sights of wea	Polanyi, Karl, 140, 146–47	reduction, 21, 24, 25f1.2
in society, 63–64 policy salvation from as false idea, 5 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 scoi-o-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 for change, 194–95 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 social relations, 121–23 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 successes, global, 23–28 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 166–67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–	polarization,	sub-Saharan Africa, 29f1.5
policy salvation from as false idea, 5 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 stransparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state, 106–67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 social robactor, 180–81 state support for 418 second world war, 21–23 state support for property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 second world War, 21–23 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100	± ,	power salvation from as false idea, 5 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 scoil-realtous, 121–23 pre-distribution in emancipating state, 166–67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 profits, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–22 see also change-makers property private, inpact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 profits, of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 profits, of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what hap	in society, 63–64	for change, 194–95 technology as concern of, 56 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 182–83 democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60-61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 policident in emancipating state, 166–67 primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since	policy	rights of wealth, 114 politics active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 primaty school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also charge-makers property impact of lack of, 109–10 social progress, 175–5 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution research funded by corpo	salvation from as false idea, 5	social relations, 121–23 active citizenship, 209–10 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 stransparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 private property impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 recommic activities of, 115 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 false sense	technology as concern of, 56	pre-distribution in emancipating state, 166-67 autonomous public organizations, 183 campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal so the slow of the sl	politics	primary school completion rate, 25, 26f1.3
campaign funding and lobbying, 177 central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 rights of wealth, 114 productive institutions cooperation versus competition, 119–21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also democracy, 180 see also democracy, 180 see also democracy, 180 see also charge-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 redistribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy, 180 see also democracy, 180 see also charge-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 reignerica	active citizenship, 209–10	private property central funding, allocation of, 178 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 182–83 democracy, 189 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 scoil progress and political progress, 173–75 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy iterior, 117 see also increase iterior, 18–8 see also democracy iterior, 118 see also democracy iter	autonomous public organizations, 183	impact of lack of, 109-10 citizen participation in political institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176-78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182-83 democracy, support for, 171-72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186-90 global democracy, 190-91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178-80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183-86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173-75 socio-economic reforms and, 171-72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173-75 transparency in funding, 176-77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88-90 preferences compared to the rich, 180-81 and rich, growing gap between, 60-61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118-19 see also inequality population age profile, 31-32 authoritarian scenario, 99-100 cooperation versus competition, 119-21 economic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117-18 reform of, 112-13 stakeholder-led, 118 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133-35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28-37 false sense of, 37-39 feedback effects, 39-41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 successes, global, 23-2-8 see also caprorations profit, 110, 133-35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28-37 false sense of, 37-39 feedback effects, 39-41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 successes, global, 23-2-8 see also corporations profit, 110, 133-35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28-37 false sense of, 37-39 feedback effects, 39-41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 successes, global, 23-2-8 see also caprorations profit, 100, 133-35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28-37 false sense of, 37-39 feedback effects, 39-41 since Second World War, 21-23 state support for reform of corporations, 173-75 public debt, 156-57 public debt, 156-57 public debt,	campaign funding and lobbying, 177	rights of wealth, 114 institutions, 16 corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 182–83 democracy, 1890–91 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 recommic activities of, 115 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy, 180 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Se	central funding, allocation of, 178	productive institutions corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176–78 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 importance of what happens in, 117–18 reform of, 112–13 stakcholder-led, 118 stakeholder-led, 118 see also corporations profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy	citizen participation in political	cooperation versus competition, 119-21 corruption, 177–78 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 scoi-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 refreences compared, 180–81 stakeholder-led, 118 starehor sale sale intens, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23 souccesses, global, 23–28 see a	institutions, 16	economic activities of, 115 debate on, revival of, 144 deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profite, 110, 133–35 profite, 110, 133–6 profite, 110, 133–35 profite, 110, 133–6 profite, 110, 133–35 profite, 110, 133–6 profite, 131–80 profite, 120, 131 profite democracy, 180 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also democracy, politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P.	corporations, influence of, 137, 139, 176-78	importance of what happens in, 117-18
deliberative-participatory democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, ilstening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 socia	corruption, 177–78 democracy, 182–83 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profit, 110, 133–35 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81	debate on, revival of, 144	stakeholder-led, 118 democracy, support for, 171–72 direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 progress alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 since Second World War, 21 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21–23 successes, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–	deliberative-participatory	see also corporations direct democracy, 180 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 alarming trends and patterns, 28–37 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21 slow/reveral since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21 slow/re	democracy, 182–83	profit, 110, 133–35 electoral systems, 186–90 global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 false sense of, 37–39 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World global democracy, 190–91 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 feedback effects, 39–41 since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second Peace also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialis	direct democracy, 180 healthy social context, need for, 175 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 silow/reversal since Second World War, 21 slow/reversal since Second World War, 21 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–1	electoral systems, 186-90 lobbying, 178–80 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 solvatives, global, 23–28 see also change-makers property private, impact of lack of, 109–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 recourties, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81	global democracy, 190–91 media, pervasiveness of in, 13 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 reciall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 media and, 183–86 polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 socialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rocialism and, 108–10 secialism and, 108–10 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81	lobbying, 178–80	slow/reversal since Second World War, 21-23
polarization, 171 representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81	· - representative democracy, 180 salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 socialism and, 108–10 such tites, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81	•	see also change-makers salvation from as false idea, 5 social progress and political progress, 173–75 progress, 183 progress, 173–75 progress, 183 progress, 173–75 progress, 173–18 progress, 173–75 progress, 173–75 progress, 173–75 progress, 173–18 progress, 173–18 progress, 173–75 progress, 173–18 progress, 173–75 progress, 173–18 progress, 183 progress, 193 pr social progress and political progress, 173–75 progress, 173–75 public organizations, autonomous, 183 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality public debt, 156–57 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81		private, impact of lack of, 109-10 progress, 173–75 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 public organizations, autonomous, 183 public organizations, autonomous, 183 public organizations, autonomous, 183 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 socio-economic reforms and, 171–72 standard, transformation of, 12 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor corporations, 173–75 reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 rainfall variability, impact on rich/poor countries, 39–40 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81		- standard, transformation of, 12 state support for reform of corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81		public organizations, autonomous, 183 state support for reform of countries, 39–40 corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 corporations, 173–75 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 Reagan, Ronald, 93 redistribution in emancipating state, 11 see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 transparency in funding, 176–77 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81		countries, 39–40 see also emancipating state poor, the Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 Apartheid scenario, description see also distribution rents, taxing of, 169–70 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 poor, the rents, taxing of, 169–70 Apartheid scenario, 88–90 representative democracy, 180 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 research funded by corporations, 138 treatment of, 118 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 voices of, listening to, 118–19 Restrepo, P., 49 see also inequality rich and poor population Apartheid scenario, 88–90 age profile, 31–32 growing gap between, 60–61 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 preferences compared, 180–81 Apartheid scenario, 88–90 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 representative democracy, 180 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 preferences compared to the rich, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 see also democracy; politics research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81 and rich, growing gap between, 60–61 treatment of, 118 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 research funded by corporations, 138 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81	=	= treatment of, 118 resources, conversion into power/status, 114 voices of, listening to, 118–19 Restrepo, P., 49 see also inequality rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 preferences compared, 180–81 voices of, listening to, 118–19 see also inequality rich and poor population age profile, 31–32 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 Restrepo, P., 49 rich and poor Apartheid scenario, 88–90 growing gap between, 60–61 preferences compared, 180–81		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · see also inequality rich and poor population Apartheid scenario, 88–90 age profile, 31–32 growing gap between, 60–61 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 preferences compared, 180–81 population Apartheid scenario, 88–90 age profile, 31–32 growing gap between, 60–61 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 preferences compared, 180–81 age profile, 31–32 growing gap between, 60–61 authoritarian scenario, 99–100 preferences compared, 180–81		_ authoritarian scenario, 99–100 preferences compared, 180–81
growth, 30–31 see also inequality		- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	growth, 30–31	see also inequality

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information 234 INDEX

rights of wealth, 114	power and control, 121–23
robots, 48–50	rules of the game, changing, 124
,	third way, 125
savings choices, 205	tools to navigate interactions, provision Scandinavian countries, 111–12, 163–65	of, 124
scenarios	wellbeing and, 119–21
Apartheid, 86–92	social status, authoritarian, 98–103	and dignity, 122
"end of history", 92–98	employment and, 116
as warning not predictions, 103	social trends, concrete experience and, 117–18
Self-Employed Women Association	socialism and property, 108-10
(SEWA) (India), 119, 199–200	society as repository of own
Sen, Amartya, 184	resources, 70–72
sexual harassment, 122	solidarity, 70–72, 153
sexual orientation, families and, 202	speculative financialization, 143
shareholders, corporations and,	stakeholders,
129–30, 131–32	corporations and, 129-30, 131-32
Siegrist, Johannes, 116	grassroots as origin for change, 195–97
Smith, Adam, 128	start-ups, incentives for, 143–44
social causes, traditional, replacement of as	state, see emancipating state; welfare state false idea, 4–5	status as right of wealth, 114
social change	structural inequality, 138-39 technology as driver of, 54	successes, global, 23–28
see also change-makers	sustainability social-democratic welfare state,	Apartheid scenario, 86–92 conception of, 163–65	authoritarian scenario, 98–103
decentralized, 165–66	emancipating state, 168–69
as option for a better society, 9–10	"end of history" scenario, 92–98
see also democracy; emancipating state;	as goal to be pursued, 85-86 politics	see also environment social enterprises	Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 2, social relations, 125	14, 59, 64, 81, 85–86
as third way, 112–13, 114
social experimenting, 197	taxation social inclusion,	automation wave, 167
globalization and, 7	carbon, 169 technology and, 7	as challenge for welfare state, 152-53 social layers, past beliefs in, 66-67	corporations, 134, 135, 139, 152-53 social media, 184-85	emancipatory state, 166-67
social progress	free riding, prevention via taxes, 12 and political progress, 173-75	global, 147
three steps toward, 107-8	havens, 135, 139
see also change-makers	inequalities reduction, 149 social protection scheme, 55	progressive, 111
social relations	rents and externalities, 11-12, 16, 169-70 cooperation versus competition, 119-21	technology fighting bad relations, 124	automation, 48-50, 155-56, 167 harmful, 121–24	choices as triggered by, 54 information, circulation of, 122-23	digital divide, 53 interactions influencing other	as disruptive force, 43 interactions, 123	as driver of social change, 54

Elisa Reis , Foreword by Amartya Sen Index More Information

INDEX 235

emancipating state, 11 employment and, 48-52, 53-54 globalization, connection between, 57-59 as government/policy concern, 56 inequality, growth in, 21-22 internet and mobile phones, 48-49 labor intensity of production, 49, 50f2.9 local context, importance of, 62-63 not external force on society, 63 predicted shifts, 51-53 reorientation toward human needs, 15 robots 48-50 social inclusion and, 7 taming, 43-44 use of for other than profit, 16 waves of change, 47-48 temperatures rise, impact on rich/poor countries, 39-40 terrorism, 22, 37, 37f1.12 Thailand, welfare state in, 159 Thatcher, Margaret, 3 Theorell, Töres, 116 "there is no alternative" as false idea, 3-4 think tanks funded by corporations, 138 third way cooperative sector, 112-13, 114 partnerships, 112-14 preparation of individuals for the market, 111 productive institutions, reform of, 112-13 Scandinavian countries, 111-12 social relations and, 125 welfare state as redistributive machine, 111 torch-bearers, 207-8 trade tariffs, decrease in, 45-46 transnational corporations, 133-36 transparency in funding of political activities, 176-77 United Kingdom

United Kingdom
electoral system, 188
GDP per capita increase, 23–24
United States
development gap with India, 39–38
electoral system, 186–88
inequality in, 29–30 universal basic income, 168 urban design, 206–7
authoritarian scenario, 101–2 urban life, expansion of, 75 van Benthem, A.A., 94–96 voices of the poor, listening to, 118–19 voluntary sector, 71–72 von Neumann, John, 57–59 voting, see electoral systems wage theft, 110 Weber, Max, 126 welfare state Africa 161-62 ageing population as challenge, 153-54 Anglo-Saxon conception of, 162-63 Asia, 159-61 automation in the workplace, 155-56 as catalyst for economic activity, 151-52 challenges for, 152-57 conceptions of, 162-65 corporatist conception of, 163 developing countries, 159-62 development of, 148-49 differences between countries, 156-57 education as investment, 151-52 and effects of technological change, 61-62 health expenditure as challenge, 154-55 inequality reduction, 149 investment flavor of activities, 151-52 Latin America, 161 pensions, 153 public debt as challenge, 156-57 as redistributive machine, 111 rollback of provisions and services, 149-51 social-democratic, as option for a better society, 9-10 social-democratic conception of, 163-65 and solidarity and belonging, 153 taxation as challenge, 152-53 see also emancipating state Who Governs? (Dahl), 194 Who Rules the World? (Chomsky), 194 women, bringing change through families, 201-3 Women in Informal Employment: Globalizing and Organizing (WIEGO), 199-200 workplaces automation in, 48-50, 155-56, 167 change-makers in, 203-4 democratization of, 139-40, 196-97 world government, 147-48

global democracy, 190-91