

Index

- Abenquid, 197
 Acadia, 98, 161, 183
 Adams, Eliphalet, 252, 253, 258
 Adams, William, 100
 Addington, Isaac, 169 adjectives for winter, 271, 287
 African Americans, 147, 151
 Acamenticus, 78, 79
 Albany, 109, 211, 212
 alcohol consumption by Native Americans, 73, 144, 146, 148–50
 alcohol regulations, 149 Algonquians, 125, 152, 267
 almanacs
 on Boston winters, 130, 131, 132, 155
 climate predictions and winter beliefs
 in, 79, 238, 239, 253, 259, 264
 scalp bounties celebrated in, 223
 Amerescoggin, 198, 227
 American Indians. See Native communities
 ammunition. See firearms
 Anderson, Virginia, 254
 Andover, 162, 167, 196, 197
 Andros, Edmund, 108, 112, 180, 181, 195
 Androscoggin River, 220, 229
 Androscoggins, 164
 Anglo-Wabanaki Wars. See also First
 Anglo-Wabanaki War
 Fourth (Dummer's War; 1722–25), 208, 212, 218–26, 228
 Second (King William's War; 1688–99), 9, 97, 129, 145, 146, 208. See also Wabanaki winter raids and winter
 subsistence
 Third (Queen Anne's War; 1703–13), 9, 10, 97, 146, 193, 206, 228, 230, 250.
 See also snowshoe men; Wabanaki
 winter raids and winter subsistence animal fats, 96, 272 animals. See specific animals
 Aporta, Claudio, 21, 38
 April, snow in, 260–62
 Arrowsic Island, 123
 Arruhawikwabemt, 218
 Asnehunt, 217
 Assacambuit, 167
 Assawompsett Pond, 101 astronomy and astrology, 131, 246, 272
 Awashonks, 101
 Ayres, Mark, 212

 Bachofner, Carol Willette, 281
 Back Bay, Boston, 102, 138, 139, 141
 Bane, Lewis, 223
 Bartholin, Thomas, De Nivis Usu Medico
 Observationes Variae (1661), 247, 249
 Bayley, Dan, 254
 bears, 44, 125, 174, 190
 beavers, 44, 179, 190, 227
 Becancour, 229
 Becon, Ephraim, 144
 Belknap, Jeremy, 120, 182
 Bellingham, Richard, 69 benefits of winter, 16, 233, 237, 245–46, 251–52

- Berwick, 164, 168, 209
 Beverly, Lenox, 182
 Biard, Pierre, 30, 267
 Big Dipper, 272
 Bigot, Jacques, 186
 Billings, Ebenezer, 257 birds, 239, 240. See also specific types
 Bissell, Nathaniel, 100
 Black Point, 204
 Block Island, 75
 Blood, Colonel, 114
 bloody snow, 158–59
 Blue Point, 125
 bobcats, 33, 44, 46
 Bomazeen, 197
 Boston, 128–57
 1680s, winters of, 131–34
 1690s, winters of, 134–37
 1697/8, winter of, 137–39, 154
 1699/1700, winter of, 140
 Back Bay, 102, 138, 139, 141 bodies of water in and around, winter navigation of, 133–34
 church services, difficulties attending, 134, 140
 colonial settlers' ruminations on nature of winters in, 154–57
 fasting, poor relief, and fears of famine, 137
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 114, 126
 fuel demands, 77, 79, 128, 141, 254
 fur trade and, 189 ice, falls and injuries on, 140 icy streets of, 128, 135
 light and darkness in winter, 130–31
 Native Americans in and around, 126, 128, 129, 144–45, 146
 Native attacks, fears of, 131, 147
 Sewall's Plum Island passage and, 152–54
 Shawmut peninsula, 141–43
 sleigh accidents, 140
 winter spaces of power and peril in, 128, 129. See also Boston Neck
 Boston Common, 117, 126, 156
 Boston Harbor, 66, 69, 78, 128, 130, 132,
 138. See also specific islands
 Boston Neck
 fortification of, 145
 winter accidents and deaths on, 128, 129, 133, 141–46, 147, 148, 150,
 151, 152
 Boston News-Letter, 11, 203, 221, 226, 231, 258
 Boucher, Pierre, 98
 bounties on scalps, 194, 216, 223–25, 231
 Bourque, Bruce, 37
 Boyle, Robert, New Experiments and Observations Touching Cold (1665), 246 Bradford, William, 61, 261, 277
 Bradley, Hannah, 170, 176
 Bradstreet, Anne, 251
 Tenth Muse Lately Sprung up in America (1650), 241
 Bradstreet, Simon, 100, 167, 196
 Bragdon, Kathleen, 269
 Brattle, William, 132
 Bridger, John, 9
 Bridgewater, 117
 Brookfield, 103
 Brooks, Lisa, 38, 113, 114, 117, 282, 283
 Brooks, Louis, 273
 Brown, Peter, 62
 Bruchac, Joseph, 275 bullets. See firearms Byles, Mather, 251
 Calloway, Colin, 125
 Cambridge, 110, 114, 118, 141 canoes and canoeing, 42, 100
 Canonchet, 105, 111, 117
 Cape Ann, 65
 Cape Cod, 59, 69, 71, 225
 Cape Porpoise, 162
 Captain Tom, 186, 188
 captives exchanging, 182
 experience compared to Europeans freely wintering with Native
 communities, 179–80
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 110, 112, 114, 121, 122, 125
 of snowshoe men, 204
 snowshoes and, 97, 171, 176, 177
 survival rates for, 179 Wabanaki raids, privations suffered and winter knowledge acquired in, 158, 159, 170–79, 219, 226
 women's experience of, 158, 172, 175–77
 Card, Francis, 122
 caribou, 21, 48, 279
 Casco Bay conference (1701), 188

- Casco, Treaty of (1678), 126
 Casco/Casco Bay, 158, 161, 168, 189, 209, 220
 Castine, Baron of, 122, 179 cattle. See livestock Causasenamont, Robin, 96
 Charles River, 66, 79, 113, 118, 138, 139
 Charlestown, 66, 114, 139
 Chelmsford, 114, 119
 Chenoo stories, 273
 Child, Ephraim, 254
 chioneuphores, 49
 chionophiles, 48
 chionophobes, 48, 83
 Christianity. See religion
 Chubb, Pasco, 197
 Church, Benjamin, 101, 161 church services, winter difficulties holding and attending, 134, 140, 252–53 clams, 40, 41, 64, 67, 83, 152
 Clap, Roger, 66, 67
 Clark, William, 115
 climate and climate change
 in Boston, 128
 colonial claims of climate amelioration, 89, 90, 237, 286
 continental climate of North America, 285
 Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War, fluctuations after, 226
 human-driven making of seasons versus, 15
 Late Maunder Minimum, 7
 Little Ice Age, 7, 15, 30, 37, 39, 48, 200, 274, 281, 290
 microclimates and microenvironments, 39, 47, 48, 269, 279, 285
 Native winter settlement patterns responding to, 54
 Native-colonial power balance and, 7, 11
 natural proxy data for tracking, 11, 286
 reputed ability of Native leaders to predict and influence, 96
 survance, modern appreciation of, 288–90 volcanic activity and, 11, 78, 101, 137
 in winter literature, 238–39
 written records of, 12–14
 climate history, survance as counterbalance to narratives and language of, 271, 281 clocks, in extreme cold, 245 clothing
 Native Americans, missionaries distributing wool coats to, 95 settler shortages of, 65, 87 Clough, Samuel, 130, 137, 138, 139, 156, 167, 254 coal, 255
 Cobbett, Thomas, Jr., 125
 Cocheco (Dover), 121, 133, 175
 Colchester, 217
 Coleburn, John, 144 colonial settlers, 56–90, 286. See also specific settlements
 adaptation to New England winters, 85–90 armed encounters with Native peoples, 63–65. See also specific wars; violence climate and Native-colonial power balance, 7, 11 cyclical process, overwintering as, 56 desire to emigrate or return to England, 84–85 effect on Native winter practices, 54
 environmental stresses caused by, 80–84
 expansion into Connecticut River valley, 73–74 first responders, indigenous, to colonists in trouble, 10, 57 missionary contacts with Native communities in winter, 93–96 Native responses, overwintering influenced by, 58–63, 64, 67
 “planting,” colonization imagined as, 2
 political activities affected by weather, 88 privations and difficulties of early days of, 65–69, 77–80 seasonal versus permanent occupation, 2, 57–58, 89 selective adaptation of Native winter practices, 10, 57 snowshoes, adaptation of (from 1703). See snowshoe men snowshoes, use/lack of use of (to 1703), 10, 96–97, 119, 160, 169, 212 traveling in winter, 67–69, 98–101, 135 understanding of winter, compared to Native communities, 2–3 winter literature produced by, 233–66. See also winter literature wintering or overwintering, concept of, 56–57

- colonial settlers (cont.)
 written records of, 12–14
 colonialism, settler, as concept, 2, 18, 56, 58, 77, 80, 81, 82, 89, 233, 234, 242,
 266, 269, 286, 290
 Concord, 74, 95, 96, 114
 Connecticut. See also specific towns expansion of colonial settlement into, 73–74
 in King Philip's War, 106
 livestock in, 74, 75
 Native auxiliaries from, 216
 Pequot War (1636–8), 75–77
 snowshoe men and, 201, 209, 211, 215
 Connecticut River, 47, 58, 73, 74, 100, 194, 229
 conservation laws, 257, 276
 continental climate of North America, 285
 control of the seasons, beings credited with, 20, 96
 Coote, Richard, Earl of Bellomont, 137, 188 corn. See maize
 Cornish, John, 140
 Cotton, John, Jr., 101, 135, 137, 138, 196
 Cotton, Josiah, 272
 Cotton, Rowland, 196
 couriers or messengers, indigenous, 57, 99, 183
 Cowkeeper, James, 150
 cows. See livestock Cronon, William, 46
 crows, 257
 crusted snow, snowshoeing on, 29
 curfews, 147, 149

 Damariscove Island, 63
 Dana, Carol, 278–79
 Danforth, John, 130
 Danforth, Samuel, 100
 Dartmouth, 103
 Dawnland/Dawnlanders, 17, 180
 decorative/tourist items, snowshoes as, 263 Dedham, 100, 144
 deer. See white-tailed deer Deer Island
 colonial settlement and, 69
 internment of allied Natives on, in King Philip's War, 104, 109–11, 117, 127
 in King Philip's War, 99

 Deerfield
 colonial settlement in, 10
 Wabanaki winter raid on, 162,
 168–70, 176, 177, 178, 193, 204, 209, 211
 warnings of impending attack, 199
 Demos, John, 252
 Denys, Nicholas
 on fur trapping, 44, 45 on Native relocation/travel during winter, 38
 on snowshoe hares, 49
 on snowshoeing, 24, 25, 26, 29 devotional texts about winter, 233 on benefits of winter, 251–52
 future without winter, hopes of, 251
 Mather, Cotton. The Christian Philosopher (1721), 249
 Mather, Cotton, *Seasonable Thoughts
 upon Mortality* (1712), 250
 Mather, Cotton, Winter Meditations
 (1693), 234, 241–50
 Mather, Cotton, Winter Piety (1712), 249, 250
 purpose of, 234
 sermons, 249–50
 settler responses to, 252 diplomacy. See also treaties colonial treachery in course of, 197
 First Anglo-Wabanaki War, peace talks and negotiations in, 117, 121, 122, 123, 124
 Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War, peace treaty for, 226
 guns, ammunition, and powder, Wabanaki negotiations aimed at obtaining, 181
 seasonal encounters and, 19, 181
 seasonal mobility and access to hunting grounds, in peace negotiations of 1699–1702, 186–90
 “starvation,” Wabanaki diplomatic view
 of, 180–81
 winter truces, arranging, 182–84, 184
 disease. See also specific types of disease,
 e.g. smallpox; health issues among early colonial settlers, 61
 in Boston, 138
 cold air viewed as combating, 245, 252
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 117

- in Native communities, 6, 41
 - Wabanaki winter raids (1690s-1700s)
 - and, 159, 167, 184, 186
- dispossession, 80
- divine providence. See providence
- dogs
 - deer killed by, 257
 - for hunting, 45, 53
 - towing sleds, 172
- Dorchester, 66, 67, 73, 74, 253
- Dover (Cocheco), 121, 133, 175
- Drew, Thomas, wife of, 176
- drought, 15, 238
- Dudley, Joseph
 - on Boston winters, 141
 - on corresponding in winter, 256
 - in King Philip's War, 93, 108
 - snowshoe men and, 193, 194, 201-3, 205-11, 214, 215, 216, 219, 220, 222, 226, 228, 230
 - on Wabanaki winter raids, 190
- Dudley, Paul, 27, 232, 256
- Dudley, Thomas, 61, 66, 234
- Dummer, Jeremiah, 140
- Dummer, Shubael, 220
- Dummer, William, 219-21, 222, 225, 227
- Dummer's War. See Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War
- Dunstable, 194
- Duxbury, 269
- eagles, 257
- Eames, Thomas, 111
- Easton, John, 102
- Eckstorm, Fannie Hardy, 27, 34
- Eel River, 115
- eels, 39, 41, 64, 264
- Egeremet, 197
- Eliot, John, 93, 95, 96, 119, 146
- end of winter, settler hopes/predictions for, 259-62, 287
- English colonists. See colonial settlers
- Etchemin River/people, 274
- Evans, John, 172
- executions, 75, 81, 126, 145, 205, 218
- exotic birds dying in New England winters, 240
- eyeball's resistance to freezing, 262
- Fairfield Swamp attack (1637), 75, 77
- Falmouth, 161
- fasting and fast days, 137, 238, 244, 259, 287
- Fenner, Arthur, 105
- firearms
 - First Anglo-Wabanaki War, Native protests against English attempts to control access to weapons in, 120
 - malfunctioning in New England winters, 240
 - scarcity for Native Americans in wartime, 192
 - Wabanaki negotiations for bullets, guns, and powder, 181, 187, 189
- firewood
 - Boston, fuel demands in, 77, 79, 128, 141, 254
 - colonial cities, flow into, 254
 - colonial settlers and need for, 77, 79, 81-82
 - in Native communities, 47
 - Wabanaki winter raids of 1690s-1700s interfering with procurement of, 166
- First Anglo-Wabanaki War (in northern New England; 1675-8), 91-127. See also King Philip's War (in southern New England)
- captives in, 110, 112, 114, 121, 122, 125
- colonial responses to, 91
- English military strategy and effects (winter of 1675/6), 92, 106-9
- English military strategy and effects (winter of 1676/7), 122, 123-24
- French-Indian alliance, threat of, 120, 122, 124-25
- indigenous responses to, 91
- Native military strategy and effects (winter of 1675/6), 111-17
- outcomes of, 126
- peace talks and negotiations, 117, 121, 122, 123, 124
- physical injuries sustained by English in winter missions, 121
- places of Native winter safety in, 104, 108, 118-20, 125
- snowshoes in, 92
- statement of Wabanaki sovereignty, 124
- Treaty of Casco (1678) ending, 126
- weaknesses and limitations of colonists in winter and, 93-101
- winter skills, colonial lack of, 208

- First Anglo-Wabanaki War (cont.)
 winter used as buffer by Native Americans during, 7 winter-based prosecution of, 103–8 first responders, indigenous, 69–73
 first snow, 1, 38, 58, 155, 199, 237
 first winters, 3, 56, 58, 62, 66, 261, 268, 277, 281
 fishers (animal), 33, 50, 257
 Flavel, John, 241
 Floyd, John, 198
 food and hunger. See also specific foodstuffs and food animals; hunting and trapping animal fats, dietary importance of, 272 captives in Wabanaki raids of 1690s–1700s on, 170–79 familiar food, hunger experienced as lack of, 176, 178
 fasting and fast days, 137, 238, 244, 259, 287
 foraging in winter, 42, 174, 176
 seasonal foods, 264
 shortages facilitating Wabanaki raids, 159, 167 “starvation,” Wabanaki diplomatic view of, 180–81 “starving time” accounts, 56, 268
 foot injuries, 121, 177 footwear shrinking in New England winters, 240 foraging in winter, 42, 174, 176
 Foster, John, 239
 Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War (Dummer’s War; 1722–25), 208, 212, 218–26, 228 foxes, 33, 44, 190, 255, 257
 freeze-up, 1, 2, 87
 freezing point, freshwater versus saltwater, 38, 84 freezing rain, 140
 French
 First Anglo-Wabanaki War, threat of Indian-French alliance in, 120, 122, 124–25
 Ryswick, Treaty of (1697), 186
 in Second and Third Anglo-Wabanaki Wars, 161, 164, 165, 168
 snowshoes, use of, 6, 35, 97–98, 199
 Wabanaki winter hunting season, respect for, 185
 Fresh Pond, 140
 frost, Native American terms for, 271
 frostbite, 69, 70, 77, 173, 178, 236, 253
 frostfish, 21, 39, 64, 67, 118, 264, 280–81
 frozen ink, 234, 236, 242, 253
 fuel and fuel shortages. See firewood; coal
 fur trapping and fur trade availability/depletion of wildlife by
 eighteenth century, 190–92, 227
 Boston, Wabanaki 1701 negotiations to trade furs with, 189 colonial understanding of, 6
 interwar renewal of, 229 Native winter fur trapping, 3, 36, 43–45 relocation to interior in winter due to, 36 Third Anglo-Wabanaki War affecting, 203 future of winter, 288–90
 future without winter, colonial hopes of, 251
 Gage, Josiah, 215
 Gardiner, Lion, 76
 Garrett, Richard, 69, 70
 Gaspé peninsula, 174
 gender. See also snowshoe men captivity, women’s experience of, 158, 172, 175–77 church services in winter, women’s attendance at, 134, 140, 252–53 maize, women processing Wabanaki winter stores of, 37, 59 shellfish, Native winter gathering of, 151
 snowshoes, gendered tasks associated with, 25 Wabanaki masculinity, associated with hunting and fighting, 182 winter freezing deaths and, 150–52
 Gerrish, Sarah, 175
 Gidney, Bartholomew, 198
 Gillam, Benjamin, 130
 Gluskabe (Wabanaki culture hero), 20, 22, 50
 goats, 79. See also livestock
 Goddard, Ives, 269
 Goodman, John, 62
 Goodwin, Mehetabel, 175
 Gookin, Daniel, 93, 109, 110, 111, 116, 118, 119, 123

- Gorges, Sir Ferdinando, 88
 Gorges, Robert, 65
 Gorges, Thomas
 on early colonial experience of winter, 78, 79, 84, 85, 87, 88
 on snowshoes, 96
 Great Migration, 66
 Great Peace of Montreal (1701), 187
 Great Snow of 1717, 234, 256–59, 263, 287 great snows, 101, 133, 269
 Great Swamp, 256
 Great Swamp massacre (1675), 201
 Great White Hare story, 49
 Green, Joseph, 199
 Grew, Nehemiah, 247
 Grey Lock (Wawanolewat), 230
 Groton, 114, 161, 254
 groundnuts, 43, 64, 67, 114, 176
 growing season, 6, 12, 159
 guns and gunpowder. See firearms Gyles, John, 170, 172, 173–75, 177, 185
- Hadley, 97, 117
 Halifax, 117
 Hallam, Nicholas, 217
 Hampton, 99
 hares or rabbits. See snowshoe hares
 Harmon, Johnson, 212, 220, 222, 227
 Hartford, 74
 Hartford, Treaty of (1638), 75, 81
 Harvard College, 130, 140
 Harvy, Thomas, 212
 Hassanamesit, 93, 103, 113
 Hatfield, 104, 117
 Hathorne, William, 122
 Haverhill, 162, 166, 167, 168, 176, 196, 198, 209
 hawks, 257
 hay, 74, 83, 103, 105, 114, 116, 138, 154
 health issues. See also disease animal and vegetable fat used by Indians as protection against cold, 96 cold air viewed as promoting health, 245, 252
 colonial interest in indigenous remedies for winter illnesses, 86
 frostbite, indigenous treatment of, 173, 178
 shin injuries, indigenous treatment of, 177
 snowshoe men, health of, 203, 222–23
- Heath, Joseph, 212, 220, 232
 hemlock trees, 45
 Hempstead, Joshua, 253, 254, 256, 258
 Hertel de la Fresnière, Joseph-François, 164
 Hilton, Winthrop, 193, 194, 202, 219, 222, 230
 Hoosic, 109
 Hope Hood, 164
 horses, 83, 97, 128, 184, 258
 Hubbard, William, 106, 108, 110, 119, 124, 271
 Hull, Hannah, 130
 Hull, John, 87, 102, 103, 106, 130, 240, 259 hunger. See food and hunger hunting and trapping
 availability/depletion of wildlife by
 eighteenth century, 190–92, 227
 colonial understanding of, 6
 as Native winter activity, 45–46, 48–54, 174–75
 peace negotiations of 1699–1702, seasonal mobility and access to
 hunting grounds in, 186–90
 recreational hunting of foxes and wolves, 255
 snowshoe men affecting winter
 subsistence activities, 226, 228–32
 snowshoe men entering winter hunting grounds, 194
 in snowshoes, 34, 50, 53, 160–61
 Wabanaki masculinity associated with, 182 winter truces allowing for, arranging, 182–84
 hunting season, 185, 188
 hypothermia, 88, 129, 132, 144, 148, 172
- ice. See also stable ice and snow falls and injuries on, in Boston, 140 Native American terms for, 271
 snowshoes and, 32
 ice bridges on St. Lawrence River, 12 icy harbors, preventing transatlantic trade, 87. See also specific harbors icy streets of Boston, 128, 135 idleness in winter, 88, 233, 234, 244
 Ile St. Croix, 58 improvement, 2, 56, 91, 249, 261

- indentured servitude and slavery, 75, 117, 126, 129, 146, 250
 independence, winter as season of, 3, 22, 183, 195, 218 Indians/indigenous peoples. See Native communities ink, frozen, 234, 236, 242, 253
 Ipswich, 71
- Johnson, Edward, 74, 78, 85, 89
 Josselyn, John
 Account of Two Voyages to New England (1674), 97 medical responses to winter exposure, 86 on moose hunting, 52, 53
 on snow buntings, 239
 on snowshoes and snowshoeing, 27, 29, 30, 35, 97
 winter knowledge, beliefs, and predictions of, 238, 239
 Jurin, James, 256
- Kahnawake Mohawks, 168, 187
 Kattenanit, Job, 110
 K'chi-punahmaquot, 280
 Kennebec River, 58, 123, 182, 229
 Kennebecs, 28, 96, 123, 190, 197, 228
 Kepler, Johannes, 246
 King Philip. See Metacom
 King Philip's War (in southern New England; 1675-8), 91-127. See also First Anglo-Wabanaki War (in northern New England)
 Boston Neck, fortification of, 145 internment of allied Natives (winter of 1675/6), 104, 109-11, 117, 127 Narragansett fort massacre, 106-9, 117, 127, 201 originating incident, death of John Sassamon as, 101-3 spring of 1676, shift in power in, 117 survival of allied Natives (winter of 1676/7), 118
 urban spaces used to control Indian movements in, 146
- Lake Champlain, 125, 178
 Lake, Thomas, 124
 Lake Winnepesaukee, 187, 194
 Lancaster, 110, 112
 Landon, Daniel, 121
- language and terminology
 frost, ice, and snow, Native terms for, 271 seasons, valued as good or bad, 38, 239, 271, 287
 snowshoes, as English term, 96, 206
 snowshoes, Native terminology associated with, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29, 33
 winter and winter phenomena, settler versus indigenous terms for, 271-72
 "year" and "winter," relationship between, 1, 277
- Late Maunder Minimum, 7
 Le Clercq, Chrétien on beaver trapping, 45
 on frostfish, 39
 on Native counting of years by winters, 278
 on snowshoes, 28, 30, 31, 32, 34, 35
 leisure and recreation, winter as season of, 234, 266
- Lemire, Beverly, 98
 Leverett, John, 104
 Little Ice Age, 7, 15, 30, 37, 39, 48, 200, 274, 281, 290
- livestock
 Connecticut settlements seeking better land for, 74, 75 die-offs of, 138, 154, 257
 environmental stresses caused by, 82
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 105, 112, 115-16
 vulnerabilities in cold winter weather, 160
 in Wabanaki raids of 1690s to early 1700s, 165, 168, 184
- Livingston, John, 179, 213
 logging. See timber
 London, Jack, 268
 Lovewell, John, 223, 224-25
 Ludlow, Roger, 73
 Lyman, Richard, 74
 Lynn, 238
 lynx, 48, 50, 273
- Machias, 120
 Madoasquarbet, 96
 Madockawando, 165, 180, 185, 186
 Magnus, Olaus, History of the Northern Peoples (1555/1658), 242, 249
 Mahomet, 217

- Maine. See also specific towns
 after First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 126
 coasts of, 40
 colonial settlement in, 58, 78, 79, 84
 maize (corn)
 Deer Island internees' loss of, 109
 Native cultivation of, 59, 63
 Native winter stores of, 37, 59, 111, 114, 120 settler adaptation to eating, 57 settler destruction/theft of Native supplies, 59, 64, 107 settlers feeding livestock with, 84, 105 trading with, 65, 67
 Malemet, 230
 Maliseets, 42, 173, 185, 273, 279
 Marblehead, 148, 196
 Marlborough, 103
 Marshfield, 101
 martens, 33, 38, 46, 190
 Martha's Vineyard (Noepe), 150, 225
 Massachusetts Indians
 as first responders, 71
 in King Philip's War, 104
 snowshoes, familiarity with, 218
 underwood burnt before first snow by, 237
 Wabanaki winter lands, temporary refuge in, 7
 Wessagusett settlement hostilities against, 64–65
 Massachusetts. See also specific towns;
 Plymouth Colony
 deer hunting ban after Great Snow of 1717, 257
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 106
 Massachusetts Bay settlement, 58, 66
 snowshoe men of, 198, 201, 209, 210, 215, 218, 221
 Massachusetts Bay, 41, 77, 79
 Massapeage, 217
 Massasoit, 61, 63, 101
 Masta, Henry Lorne, 274, 275 masts, 166, 202, 232 Mather, Cotton
 on bloody snow, 158–59
 on Boston winters, 137, 138, 155, 157
 on captives, 171, 172, 175–77
The Christian Philosopher: A Collection of the Best Discoveries in Nature with Religious Improvements (1721), 249
Decennium Luctuosum (1699), 9, 155
Duodecennium Luctuosum (1714), 206 European scientific writings about winter, Mather influenced by, 246–47
 on First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 126
 heaven, on no winter in, 251
 on human eyeball's resistance to freezing, 262 Humiliations Followed with Deliverances (1697), 159
 on leisure for beholding winter's beauty, 266 Magnalia Christi Americana (1702), 159 on snowshoe men, 230
 on Wabanaki raids of 1690s and early 1700s, 164, 184, 186, 192, 196
 on winter hearth fires (1702), 249
Winter Meditations, Directions How to employ the Leisure of the Winter (1693), 234, 241–50
Winter Piety (1712), 249, 250
 Mather, Increase
 on Boston winters, 131, 138
 on captives, 170
An Essay for the Recording of Illustrious Providences (1684), 126
 on First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 99, 103, 106, 111, 120, 124
 on Wabanaki raids of 1690s and early 1700s, 167, 168
 on war in Europe, 157
 winter literature of, 251, 252
 Mattachunannamo, 102
 Mattahando, 123
 Maud/Matilda (queen of England), 248
 Maverick, Samuel, 88
 May, John, 252, 254
 Mayflower (vessel), 277
 Maynard, Sharon I., 277 measles, 250
 Meddybemps Lake, 283
 Medembeseck, 221, 223
 Medfield, 113
 medicine and health. See disease; health issues Medockscenecasis, 174
 men. See gender Mendon, 103
 Menimesit, 108, 110, 111, 112
 mental aberrations in response to winter isolation, 88

- Merrimack River, 194, 229
 messengers or couriers, indigenous, 57, 99, 183
 Metacom (King Philip), 101, 102, 103, 105, 108, 109, 111, 117
 Miantonomi, 80–81, 82
 microclimates and microenvironments, 39,
 47, 48, 269, 279, 285
 Middleborough, 103
 Mi'kmaq, 42, 190
 mink, 190, 257
 Minor, Manasseh, 199, 217, 252, 255
 Minor, Thomas, 99, 100
 misery, winter as season of, 229
 missionary contacts with Native
 communities in winter, 93–96
 mobility, seasonal. See traveling in winter Mogg Heigon, 120, 122, 125
 Mohawks, 98, 108, 111, 123. See also
 Kahnawake Mohawks
 Mohegans, 5, 106, 216, 218
 Monhegan Island, 79
 Monoco, 112, 113, 114
 Montauks, 80
 Montreal, 161
 Monts, Sieur de, 58
 moose, 21, 44, 52–54, 160, 161, 190, 227, 279
 Morrison, Kenneth, 273
 Morton, John, 121
 Mosely, Samuel, 103
 mosquitoes, 105
 Moxis, 180
 mudflats, 21, 40, 64, 83, 141
 mussels, 41, 64, 67, 84
 Mystic, 68, 75, 77
 Mystic River, 139

 Nantucket, 225
 Narragansett Bay settlement, 58, 104
 Narragansett fort massacre, in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 106–9, 117, 127, 201
 Narragansetts
 environmental stresses caused by colonists and, 82, 83
 as first responders, 72
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 92, 103, 105, 106–9, 111, 112, 113, 115, 117
 fishing and shellfish gathering in winter, 38, 41

 Miantonomi, proposed rebellion of (early 1640s), 80–81, 82
 place names, 280
 snow viewed as possessing power by, 38 traveling to winter grounds, 35 Wabanaki winter lands, temporary refuge in, 7
 wampum, winter manufacture of, 38
 winter season for, 5
 Nashaway, 95
 Natick, 93, 110, 113, 146, 218
 Native auxiliaries/allies, 117, 216–18, 225 Native communities, 20–55, 286. See also specific nations, e.g. Pequots affected by colonial presence, 54 animal husbandry in, 115
 armed encounters with colonial settlers, 63–65. See also violence and war;
 specific wars
 in Boston, 126, 128, 129, 144–45, 146
 colonial overwintering influenced by, 58–63, 64, 67
 conifer stands, use of, 47–48 contemporary persistence of survivance
 among, 275–82
 deaths of Native American travelers from cold, 73
 environmental stresses caused by colonists, awareness of, 80–84
 first responders, indigenous, to colonists in trouble, 10, 57
 foraging in winter, 42
 fur trapping, 3, 36, 43–45
 hunting in winter, 45–46, 48–54 importance of cold-weather activities, 18, 21
 medical practices of, 86
 missionary contacts with, in winter, 93–96
 scope of peoples covered, 17 sharing knowledge and resources, 53 snowshoes used by, 22–35. See also snowshoes
 spatial knowledge of, 46–47 survivance of, 18, 267–84. See also
 survivance
 terms for frost, ice, and snow, 271 traveling/relocating in winter, 21, 35–38, 54
 understanding of winter, compared to colonials, 1–11

- waters and waterways in winter, 38–42
 winter home sites, 47
 Naumkeag (Salem), 58, 65
 Nausets, 59, 61
 Ned, Francis or Josiah, 269
 negotiations. See treaties; diplomacy Nemasket, 101
 Neponset River, 64, 100
New England Courant, 254
 “New England’s Annoyances” (c. 1643), 240
 New France, 97–98, 161
 New Hampshire. See also specific towns
 snowshoe men of, 198, 201, 202, 209, 211, 214, 215, 218
 New Harbor, 189
 New London, 151, 217, 253, 254, 256, 258
 New Roxbury, 187
 Newbury, 153
 Newhall, Joseph, 144
 Newichewannock, 122, 164
 Newman, Noah, 113
 Newton, 118
 Newtown, 74, 253
 Niantics, 5, 75, 216
 Nicholls, Richard, 100
 Nicolar, Joseph, 23, 27, 277
 Nipmucs
 in King Philip’s War, 92, 103, 104, 108, 110–14, 116
 Wabanaki winter lands, temporary refuge in, 7
 Noepe (Martha’s Vineyard), 150, 225
 Nonantum, 93
 Nor’easters, 78
 Norridgewock, 28, 158, 202, 215, 218, 220, 221, 228
 Northampton, 115
 northwest winds, 238 Norwich, 217
 nostalgic accounts of winter, 234, 263–66

 Odanak, 229
 ogemakw or snowshoe tree (white ash), 25, 275
 Oldham, John, 73, 75
 Opechancanough, 63
 origin of winter, 23, 272
 Ossipee, 119, 122
 otter, 190

 Ousanmihoues Ekesambamet, 197
 overwintering or wintering, concept of, 56–57 Oweneco, 217
 oxen, 33, 78, 128, 166, 202, 232, 254
 Oyster River, 161, 204
 oysters, 41, 64

 Packer, Thomas, 212
 Paine, Thomas, 253
 Pammokhauwut, 269
 Pamola, 274
 Papanomscut, 280
 Partridge, Samuel, 168, 169, 200
 Pascattaway, 189
 Passaconaway, 96
 Passamaquoddies, 21, 30, 48, 50, 279, 280
 Patuckson, 102
 Paul, Mikhu, 20th Century Pow Wow Playland (2012), 278
 Pawtuxet, 111
 peace talks and negotiations. See treaties diplomacy
 Peboamauk Falls, 282
 Pemaquid, 79, 122, 123, 161, 173, 180, 197
 Pemaquid, Treaty of (1693), 184
 Pemberton, Ebenezer, 253
 Pendleton, Bryan, 99
 Penhallow, Samuel, 202, 204, 209, 212, 221, 223, 228
 Pennacook/Pennacooks, 71, 96, 103, 118, 119, 121, 187
 Penobscot River, 182, 183, 189
 Penobscot/Penobscots
 on Big Dipper, 272
 in Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War, 228
 fur trading, 190
 as guides, 179
 snowshoe men and, 221, 232
 snowshoes and snowshoeing, 23, 26, 31, 34
 in Wanabaki raids of 1690s and early 1700s, 165
 Pequot War (1636–8), 75–77
 Pequots
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 106
 as Native auxiliaries, 216, 218 pigs foraging for shellfish, resentment of, 83
 wampum, winter manufacture of, 38
 winter season for, 5

- Perpooduck, 162
 Perry, Michael, 135
 Peskeomskut, 117
 pests and pest control, 105, 255–56
 Peter, Hugh, 77, 87
 Pickett, Nicholas, 121
 Pierce, Michael, 115
 pigs, 81, 82, 83–84. See also livestock
 Pigwacket/Pigwackets, 119, 193, 194, 222, 263
 Pike, John, 133, 137, 162, 167, 199
 pine trees, 86, 166, 276
 Piscataqua River, 78, 99
 Piscataqua, Treaty of (1676), 122
 Plaisted, Mary, 175, 176
 “planting,” colonization imagined as, 2
 planting season, 65
 Plum Island, 68, 152–54
 Plymouth colony
 commemorations of, 264
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 106
 settlement at, 58, 61–63, 64, 65 trial for death of John Sassamon at, 101–3
 Pocumtucs, 103
 poor relief in winter, 137, 248
 Popham Colony, 58
 Popponesset, 280
 porcupine quills, 45
 porcupines, 43, 45, 179
 Port Royal, 58
 Pory, John, 63
 power Boston, winter spaces of power and peril in, 128, 129
 colonial recognition of Indians’ winter
 power, 75
 season of power, winter as, 3, 160–61, 162–64
 seasonal balances of, 11, 63, 194, 285
 seasonal dispersal as exercise of, 54–55 snow viewed by Narragansetts as possessing, 38
 snowshoe men in peacetime, lapse in projection of power by, 226, 229–30 snowshoe patrols, balance of power in Northeast shifted by, 194
 powwows, 95
 Pratt, Phineas, 65
 Pray, Mary, 105, 106
 praying towns, 93, 113, 119
 Preble, Abraham, Jr., 227 promotional texts, winter in, 236–37, 238, 243 providence (divine) captives appealing to, 174, 175, 178 climate amelioration attributed to, 89 Native assistance versus, 68, 69, 71, 72
 snowpack’s protection of soil as sign
 of, 246
 winter ordained by, 247, 251, 259
 Providence (place), 85, 105
 Pullen Point, 77, 79
 Punkapog, 93
 Pynchon, John, 99, 104, 196, 198, 236
 Quananapohit, James, 110–11
 Quebec, 161, 188
 rabbit snow, 273
 rabbits or hares. See snowshoe hares raccoons, 43, 125, 190, 257 rackets, 97, 110, 120. See also snowshoes rain, 30, 140, 148, 223, 237, 241, 272
 Rand, Silas, 24, 25, 27, 29, 33, 272
 raquettes, 97, 120. See also snowshoes Rasles, Sébastien, 28, 29 rattlesnakes, 105
 Reade, William, 240
 recreation and leisure, winter as season of, 234, 266
 recreational hunting of foxes and wolves, 255 Rehoboth, 103
 reinvented seasons, 13, 234 religion. See also devotional texts about winter; providence
 church services, winter difficulties holding and attending, 134, 140, 252–53
 fasting and fast days, 137, 238, 244, 259, 287
 Great Snow of 1717, religious responses to, 259
 missionary contacts with Native
 communities in winter, 93–96
 theodicy, winter cold as within concept
 of, 246
 Wabanakis, Catholic spiritual practices adopted by, 97
 Rhode Island
 coasts of, 40

deer conservation in, 80
 early settlement in, 96
 in King Philip's War, 105
 snowshoe men and, 201
 rotten ice, 259
 routes into interior, building of, 232
 Rowlandson, Mary, 112–13, 115
 Roxbury, 100, 114
 Royal Society, London, 247, 249, 256
 ruffed grouse, 54
 Ryan, Rachel, 152
 Ryswick, Treaty of (1697), 186

 Saco, 162, 168, 197, 209
 Saco River, 194, 205, 229
 Sakonnets, 101
 Salem (Naumkeag), 58, 65
 Salisbury, 199
 Salmon Falls, 162, 164, 171, 196
 Saltonstall, Nathaniel, 198
 Saltonstall, Richard, 137, 200
 Samoset, 63
 Sassamon, John, 101–3
 Savage, Thomas, 112
 Savageau, Cheryl, 24, 268, 275–77
 Mother/Land (2006), 267
 sawmills, 87, 166
 Saybrook, 75–76
 Sayward, Joseph, 221, 227, 232
 scalp bounties, 194, 216, 223–25, 231
 Schenectady, 196
 Scituate, 117
 Scottow, Joshua, 139
 scurvy, 66
 seals, 21, 42, 190
 seasonal encounters, 19, 181
 seasonal foods, 264
 seasonal mobility. See traveling in winter seasons colonial settlers, seasonal versus permanent occupation by, 2, 57–58, 89
 control of the seasons, beings credited
 with, 20, 96
 growing season, 6, 12, 159
 human-driven making of seasons versus
 climate and climate change, 15
 hunting season, 185, 188
 independence, winter as season of, 3, 22, 183, 195, 218
 leisure and recreation, winter as season
 of, 234, 266

misery, winter as season of, 229
 of the past, 264
 planting season, 65
 power, seasonal balances of, 11, 63, 194, 285
 power, seasonal dispersal as exercise of, 54–55
 power, winter as seasons of, 3, 160–61, 162–64
 reinvented, 13, 234
 shipping season, 37, 87, 130
 storytelling, winter as season of, 22
 trade, winter as season of, 14, 37, 54 “unseasonable” weather, 73, 260, 261
 valued as good or bad, 38, 239, 271, 287 want, winter as season of, 11, 195, 228–29
 of war and violence, 65, 91, 103
 Second Anglo-Wabanaki War (King William's War; 1688–99), 9, 97, 129,
 145, 146, 208. See also Wabanaki
 winter raids and winter subsistence servants, 57, 67, 68, 78, 129, 147, 250.
 See also slavery and indentured servitude
 settler colonialism, as concept, 2, 18, 56, 58, 77, 80, 81, 82, 89, 233, 234, 242, 266, 269, 286, 290
 settlers, colonial. See colonial settlers Sewall, Samuel
 on Boston winters, 129–30, 130, 131– 37, 139–41, 144, 148, 154–55, 199
 on church services in winter, 134, 140, 253 on colonial settlement in New England, 9, 10
 end of winter, hopes/predictions for, 260–62, 287
 on firewood delivery, 254
 “My Verses upon New Century”, 156
 Phaenomena quaedam Apocalyptica (1697), 152, 154
 on Plum Island, 152–54
 on sleigh travel, 140, 255
 on timber stands in interior, 232 Sewall, Samuel, Jr., 135
 shamanic activities, 95
 Shawmut peninsula, Boston, 141–43 sheep, 83, 154. See also livestock Sheepscot, 166

- Sheepscot John, 189
 shellfish. See also specific types colonial settlers collecting and eating, 64, 264
 Native winter gathering of, 21, 40, 41, 143, 151, 152
 pigs foraging for, 81, 83
 snowshoe men patrols and, 204
 Shepard, Thomas, 93
 shipping season, 37, 87, 130
 shipwrecks, 59, 69, 248
 Shrimpton, Samuel, 109, 139
 Shute, Samuel, 218, 259
 Siebert, Frank, 96
 Sill, Joseph, 122
 Sinkwawah, Simon, 218
 slavery and indentured servitude, 75, 117, 126, 129, 146, 250
 sleds, 83, 87, 126, 138, 144, 166, 172, 216, 222, 252, 254
 sleighs, sleigh travel, and sleigh accidents, 140, 255
 smallpox, 66, 157, 167
 snow. See also stable ice and snow bloody, 158–59
 as connective surface, 38
 crusted snow, snowshoeing on, 29
 first snow, 1, 38, 58, 155, 199, 237
 great snows, 101, 133, 269
 microclimates and, 39, 47, 48, 269, 279, 285
 Native American terms for, 271 power, viewed by Narragansetts as possessing, 38
 rabbit snow, 273
 soil insulated by, 6, 42, 237, 245, 252
 woolen, 249, 252
 snow buntings or snowbirds, 239
 snow conditions and snowshoeing, 29–32 snow depths, 30, 119, 139, 169, 171, 257 snow shadows, 47
 snow shovels and snow shoveling, 128, 252, 255
 snowdrifts, 141, 168, 274
 snowpack, 2, 12, 29, 46, 47, 51, 53, 146, 226, 237, 246, 257. See also stable ice and snow
 snowshoe hares, 21, 43, 44, 48–51, 273 snowshoe line, 3, 5
 snowshoe men, 193–232
 balance of power, snowshoe patrols shifting, 194
 as collective military identity, 206–8 colonial understanding of Wabanaki tactics and, 196–97 cultural shift in colonial approach to winter and, 200–202, 226
 defined, 193
 former captives' use of winter knowledge, 219, 226
 in Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War, 208, 212, 218–26, 228
 frontier fighting of 1740s and, 226
 health of, 203, 222–23
 Indian manufacture of snowshoes for, 211 initial winter patrols, establishing, 201–3
 journals and reports of, 219–21 making, acquisition, and maintenance of snowshoes by, 208–10, 211–15, 226 mild and wet winters, problems of,
 220–21, 223
 Native allies in winter, scarcity of, 216–18, 225
 peacetime, lapse in projection of power during, 226, 229–30
 precedents for, 195
 private use of snowshoes by patrolmen, 212–14
 routes into interior, building of, 232 scalp bounties taken by, 216, 223–25, 231 settlement of veterans in interior, 231 significance and results of patrols by, 230–32
 strategies used by, 210–11
 success in disrupting Wabanaki winter
 raids and winter subsistence, 203–6
 in Third Anglo-Wabanaki War, 193– 218, 228, 230
 timber operations and, 202, 232
 use of snowshoes, compared to Native American use, 215–16
 Wabanaki winter activities, colonial responses to, 197–200
 Wabanaki winter lands, entering, 194, 219 Wabanaki winter subsistence affected
 by, 226, 228–32
 winter knowledge acquired by, 223, 225 snowshoe paths, 33, 54

- snowshoe tree or ogemakw (white ash), 25, 275
- snowshoes, 22–35
 broken, 30, 214
 captives and, 97, 171, 176, 177 centrality to winter living, 15 conditions, adapting to, 29–32 confiscated in wartime, 110
 design and designers of, 24 different types of, 24, 28, 29, 31–32 English adaptation to (from 1703). See
 snowshoe men
 as English term, 96, 206
 English use/lack of use of (to 1703), 10, 96–97, 119, 160, 169, 212
 environmental and political context, 54 for family members, 24, 28, 33, 215
 in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 92
 frames of, 25–26
 French use of, 6, 35, 97–98, 199
 gendered tasks associated with, 25
 Gluskabe/Woodchuck stories about, 20, 22, 24
 Great Snow of 1717 and colonial use
 of, 258
 hunting and trapping in, 34, 50, 53, 160–61 indigenous technology for, 20, 21, 22–28
 lacing of, 26
 Native terminology associated with, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29, 33 needles for making, 22, 24, 26, 274 netting or cording of, 26 origin of, 23
 pace of travel by, 32
 prices of, 97, 210, 212, 213, 214
 prints left by, 34
 raiding parties aided by, 160–61 removal on entering dwelling, 173 season of power, rendering winter as, 160–61
 silence/sound of, 31
 size of, 28
 southern New England Indians' lack of familiarity with, 218 survivance and, 274–75
 tracks of, 34
 trivialization of winter and reduction to decorative and tourist items, 263 tufting of, 27, 31
 walking in, 28–29, 30, 33, 177 winter knowledge, accumulation of, 34
 snowsnake, 282
 snowstorms, 47, 50, 71, 77, 83, 106, 144, 196, 238, 253, 257, 261, 274,
See also Great Snow of 1717; great snows snowy owls, 239
 Soctomah, Donald, 30, 31, 50, 280–81, 283
 soil, insulated by snow, 6, 42, 237, 245, 252 Sokokis, 164
 spatial knowledge, 46–47
 Speck, Frank, 26, 49, 272, 278, 282
 Spectacle Island, 77 Springfield, 103, 197
 spruce trees, 47, 48, 51
 Spurwink, 162
 Squakheag, 108
 St. John River, 182, 183, 185, 189
 St. Lawrence River, 12, 17, 118, 164, 205, 229, 275
 stable ice and snow
 Native communities' exploitation of, 2, 7, 15, 21, 35, 36, 46
 snowshoe men making use of, 201
 Wabanaki raids taking place in, 160, 196 Standish, Miles, 65
 star, sighting of Indian in, 131 starvation. See food and hunger “starving time” accounts, 56, 268
 Stockwell, Quentin, 125
 Stonington, 99, 100, 217
 storytelling, winter as season of, 22
 Stoughton, William, 138, 167, 196, 197 subsistence. See Wabanaki winter raids and winter subsistence. See survivance
 Sudbury, 117, 137
 survivance, 18, 267–84
 climate history, as counterbalance to narratives and language of, 271 compared to settler accounts of survival, 268 contemporary Native communities and, 275–82
 defined, 268
 early Native American accounts of, 269 modern appreciation of, 288–90
 seasons, valued as good or bad, 38, 239, 271, 287
 snowshoes and, 274–75

- survivance (cont.)
 stories about winter and, 272, 273
 terms for winter and winter phenomena, settler versus indigenous, 271–72
 winter dawn and, 276–77 “year” and “winter,” relationship between, 1, 277
- Swansea, 100
- Swarton, Hannah, 158, 170, 172, 176, 178
- Symonds, Samuel, 123
- Tantaquidgeon, Gladys, 151, 268
- Taunton, 103
- Tay, Isaiah, 132
- Taylor, Edward, 101
- terminology. See language and terminology
- thanksgiving days, 63, 238
- thaws, 111, 134
- theodicy, winter cold as within concept
 of, 246
- Third Anglo-Wabanaki War (Queen Anne’s War; 1703–13), 9, 10, 97, 146, 193, 206, 228, 230, 250. See also snowshoe men; Wabanaki winter
 raids and winter subsistence
- Thrush, Coll, 146
- tides, in winter, 134
- timber, 81–82, 166, 202, 232
- Tobias, 102
- Tompson, Benjamin, “On a Fortification at Boston Begun by Women” (1676), 145
- Totoson, 115
- tourist/decorative items, snowshoes as, 263
- tracks and tracking animals, 5, 43, 44, 45, 48, 50, 81, 227, 255, 282
 humans, 105, 113, 159, 175, 205, 224, 225 snowshoe tracks, 34
- trade. See also fur trapping and fur trade Native peoples in Boston for purposes
 of, 147, 148
 porcupine quills as trade items, 45
 shipping season, 37, 87, 130
 winter as season of, 14, 37, 54
- trapping. See hunting and trapping. See
 fur trapping and fur trade
- traveling in winter. See also snowshoes by colonial settlers, 67–69, 98–101, 135
 by Native communities, 21, 35–38, 54
- peace negotiations of 1699–1702,
 seasonal mobility and access to
 hunting grounds in, 186–90
 shipping season, limits on, 37, 130 sleighs, sleigh travel, and sleigh accidents, 140, 255
- Travis, Daniel, 223
- treaties
 Casco, Treaty of (1678), 126
 in Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War (1725), 226
 Great Peace of Montreal (1701), 187
 Hartford, Treaty of (1638), 75, 81
 Pemaquid, Treaty of (1693), 184
 Piscataqua, Treaty of (1676), 122
 Ryswick, Treaty of (1697), 186
 in Second Anglo-Wabanaki War (1698/9), 186
- trees. See also specific types; firewood;
 timber
 colonial tree felling practices, 81–82
 conifer stands in winter, Native use of, 47–48
 freezing rain damaging, 140
- trivialization of winter, 233, 263, 264
- Tuckapawillin, Joseph, 113
- Tuckerman, John, 253
- Tulley, John, 155, 239
- turkeys, 41, 80
- Tyng, Eleazar, 223, 227
- Tyng, Jonathan, 213, 215
- Tyng, William, 215, 231
- Uncas, Ben, 264
- underwood burnt before first snow, 237
- ungulates, 15, 52, 155, 160. See also specific types
- “unseasonable” weather, 73, 260, 261
- Usher, John, 198, 202, 210
- vernal bias, 13, 286
- Vetch, Samuel, 208
- Vetromile, Eugene, 30, 228–29, 272, 274
- Villebon, Joseph Robineau de, 183, 185
- Vincent, Philip, 75
- Vines, Richard, 58, 85
- violence and war. See also King Philip’s War; First Anglo-Wabanaki War;
 snowshoe men; Wabanaki winter
 raids and winter subsistence
 early armed encounters of settlers and Native Americans, 59, 62, 63–65

- Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War
 (Dummer's War; 1722-25), 208, 212, 218-26, 228
 frontiers, settlement of veterans on, 231 masculinity of Wabanakis, dependent
 on hunting and fighting, 182
 Miantonomi, proposed rebellion of (early 1640s), 80-81, 82
 Pequot War (1636-8), 75-77
 scalp bounties, 194, 216, 223-25, 231
 seasons of war, changing concepts of,
 91, 103
 Second Anglo-Wabanaki War (King William's War; 1688-99), 9, 97, 129,
 145, 146, 208. See also Wabanaki
 winter raids and winter subsistence
 Third Anglo-Wabanaki War (Queen
 Anne's War; 1703-13), 9, 10, 97, 146, 193, 206, 228, 230, 250. See also Wabanaki winter raids and winter
 subsistence; snowshoe men
 winter as season of, 65
 Vizenor, Gerald, 268 volcanic activity, climate effects of, 11, 78, 101, 137
 vultures, 257
- Wabanaki Confederacy, 187
 Wabanaki winter raids and winter subsistence (1690s-1700s), 158-92
 in 1689/90, 164-65, 196
 in 1690/1, 167
 in 1691/2, 165
 in 1696/7, 166, 196
 in 1697/8, 167, 196
 in 1703/4, 168-70
 attritional strategies used in, 159-60
 availability/depletion of wildlife by
 eighteenth century, 190-92
 captives' experience compared to that of Europeans traveling freely with Native communities, 179-80 captives, privations suffered and winter knowledge acquired by, 158, 159, 170-79, 219, 226
 colonial responses to, 197-200. See also
 snowshoe men
 diseases and food shortages, 159, 167, 184, 186
 effects of raiding on Wabanaki
 subsistence activities, 184-86
 guns, bullets, and powder, negotiations for, 181, 187, 189
 male warriors, disproportionate loss
 of, 185
 masculinity of Wabanakis, dependent
 on hunting and fighting, 182 season of power, Wabanakis using winter as, 160-61, 162-64
 seasonal mobility and access to hunting
 grounds, in peace negotiations of 1699-1702, 186-90 stable, deep snow, raids planned for period of, 196
 "starvation," Wabanaki diplomatic view
 of, 180-81
 timber business and firewood procurement, interfering with, 166 warm-weather attacks, English and Wabanaki, 161
 winter truces, arranging, 182-84, 184
 Wabanakis. See also First Anglo-Wabanaki War; Native communities;
 Penobscot/Penobscots
 Androscoggins, 164
 Catholic spiritual practices adopted
 by, 97
 Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War, 208, 212, 218-26, 228
 Gluskabe (Wabanaki culture hero), 20, 22
 Great White Hare story, 49
 as guides in winter, 179-80
 on hospitality and drunkenness, 149 influence on colonial settlement, 58
 Kennebecs, 28, 96, 123, 190, 197, 228
 Maliseets, 42, 173, 185, 273, 279
 masculinity, associated with hunting and fighting, 182
 Mi'kmaqs, 42, 190
 Passamaquoddies, 21, 30, 48, 50, 279, 280
 Pennacook/Pennacooks, 71, 96, 103,
 118, 119, 121, 187
 Pigwacket/Pigwackets, 119, 193, 194,
 222, 263
 Second Anglo-Wabanaki War, 9, 97, 129, 145, 146, 208
 snowshoe men affecting winter
 subsistence activities of, 226, 228-32 snowshoes made as decorative/tourist items by, 263
 Sokokis, 164

- Wabanakis (cont.)
 territory of, 125
 Third Anglo-Wabanaki War, 9, 10, 97, 146, 193, 206, 228, 230, 250.
See also Wabanaki winter raids and winter subsistence; snowshoe men “year” and “winter” as same word, 1, 277
 Waldron, Richard, 105, 121, 123
 Walley, John, 198
 Wallingford, 131
 Wamesit, 93, 119
 Wampanoags
 as first responders, 69, 71, 72
 in Fourth Anglo-Wabanaki War, 225
 in King Philip’s War, 92, 101, 103, 105, 112, 115, 116
 place names, 280
 Plymouth, relationship with colonist settling at, 61–63
 underwood burnt before first snow by,
 237 Wabanaki winter lands, temporary
 refuge in, 7
 winter season for, 5
 Wampapaquan, 102
 wampum, 38, 57
 Wanalancet, 118, 119, 124
 Wanerson, 204
 Wangunks, 73
 want, winter as season of, 11, 195, 228–29
 war. See violence and war Warwick, 111, 115
 waterfowl, 41
 Watertown, 67, 73, 114
 Watt-Cloutier, Sheila, 289
 Wawanolewat (Grey Lock), 230 Way, George, 258
 Webb, William, 258
 Wells, 161, 162, 182, 188, 222
 Wessagusett, 64–65, 65
 West, John, 195
 Westbrook, Thomas, 220, 221, 223, 232
 Weston, Thomas, 64
 Wethersfield, 73, 75, 76
 Weymouth, 88, 113
 whales and whaling, 21, 41, 225
 Wheelwright, Samuel, 222
 white ash tree (ogemakw or snowshoe tree), 25, 275
 White, John, 212
 Whitehead, Ruth, 31
 white-tailed deer
 colonial settlement and environmental decline of, 80–81
 deer yards, allied Native access to, in First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 118
 Native hunting of, 21, 44, 51, 114 vulnerabilities in harsh winter weather, 161 winter kills of, 99, 155, 257
 Whiting, William, 170
 Wickford, 107
 wildlife, availability/depletion of, by eighteenth century, 190–92, 227. See also specific types of wildlife Willard, Samuel, 119
 Williams, Eunice, 172
 Williams, John, 10, 170, 172, 177–78, 199 Williams, Roger
 on climate, 238
 colonial settlement of New England
 and, 41, 72, 82, 84, 96
 on First Anglo-Wabanaki War, 99, 105, 116
 Williams, Stephen, 170, 172, 177, 178
 Williams, William, 253
 Windsor, 73, 100
 Winslow, Edward, 64
 Winslow, Josiah, 101, 111
 winter
 adjectives for, 271, 287
 benefits of, 16, 233, 237, 245–46, 251–52 end of, settler hopes/predictions for, 259–62, 287
 first winters, 3, 56, 58, 62, 66, 261, 268, 277, 281
 future of, 288–90
 future without winter, colonial hopes
 of, 251
 nostalgic accounts of, 234, 263–66
 origin of, 23, 272
 storytelling, as season of, 22
 tides in, 134
 trade, as season of, 14, 37, 54
 trivialization of, 233, 263, 264 want, as season of, 11, 195, 228–29 war, as season of, 65
 winter dawn, 276–77

- winter ecology, concept of, 6, 18, 129, 283, 287
 Winter Harbor, 162
 winter in colonial Northeast, 1–19, 285–90
 in Boston, 128–57. See also Boston colonial versus Native understandings of, 1–11. See also colonial settlers; Native communities; specific settlements historical political ecology, utilizing questions and methods of, 15–19 literature of, 233–66. See also winter literature
 natural proxy data for tracking, 11
 patterns of seasonal experience, focus on, 18 survival of, 18, 267–84. See also survival
 war and. See First Anglo-Wabanaki War King Philip's War; snowshoe men; Wabanaki winter raids and winter subsistence
 written records of, 12–14
 Winter, John, 79, 84
 winter lands
 colonial settlers and, 58, 59, 81, 89, 90
 extent of, 183
 First Anglo-Wabanaki War and, 125
 snowshoe men entering, 194, 219. See also snowshoe men as used by Native communities, 6, 7, 11, 15, 21, 35, 37, 54, 55 winter literature, 233–66. See also almanacs; devotional texts about winter appreciations of winter in, 233 complaints about New England winters in, 240–41 of diarists and letter writers, 252–62 difficulties of writing in winter, 234, 256
 end of winter, hopes/predictions for, 259–62
 on European items not faring well in New England winters, 240 European scientific writings about winter, 246–47
 frozen ink, 234, 236, 242, 253
 future without winter, hopes of, 251
 Great Snow of 1717, reminiscences of, 234, 256–59, 263 lack of sustained attention to winter in writing before eighteenth century, 234–36 leisure and recreation, winter recounted as season of, 234, 266
 Mather, Cotton, Seasonable Thoughts upon Mortality (1712), 250
 Mather, Cotton, Winter Meditations (1693), 234, 241–50
 Mather, Cotton, Winter Piety (1712), 249, 250
 Native Americans eliminated from, 234, 242, 245
 nostalgic accounts of winter, 234, 263–66
 promotional texts, 236–37, 238, 243 secular/scientific texts, 234, 246–47
 on warfare in winter, 248–49 winter knowledge, beliefs, and climate predictions displayed in, 237–39, 245–46 winter skies, 130–31, 135, 239
 wintering or overwintering, concept of, 56–57
 winter-kill events, 79, 80, 99, 138, 154, 257
 Winthrop, Fitz-John, 201, 216, 256
 Winthrop, John (governor) on clothing needs, 87 on Connecticut settlement and livestock provision, 74, 75, 83 on hard winters, 77, 79
 snowshoes and, 96
 on travel disasters in winter, 67, 68, 69, 71, 72, 77, 78, 79
 Winthrop, John (rescuer of Jeremiah Dummer), 140
 Winthrop, John, Jr., 78, 97
 Winthrop, Waitstill, 138, 189
 Wituwamet, 65
 wolves, 3, 44, 95, 255
 women. See gender Wood, William
 on alcohol consumption by Native Americans, 73, 148 on birds of Northeast, 239 on early settler life, 73, 82, 89 on firearms in New England winters, 240

- Wood, William (cont.)
 - on Native American terms for frost, ice, and snow, 271
 - on Native communities, 40, 44, 51
 - on northwest wind, 238
- Woodchuck (grandmother of Gluskabe), 20, 24
- woodchucks, 190
- woolen snow, 249, 252
- Worcester, 209
- writing in and about winter. See winter literature
- “year” and “winter,” relationship between, 1, 277
- York, 162, 165, 183
- York, John, 176