Introduction

This collection of four complete practice tests comprises papers from the Cambridge English: First for Schools examination; students can practise these tests on their own or with the help of a teacher.

The Cambridge English: First for Schools examination is part of a suite of general English examinations produced by Cambridge English Language Assessment. This suite consists of five examinations that have similar characteristics but are designed for different levels of English language ability. Within the five levels, Cambridge English: First for Schools is at Level B2 in the Council of Europe’s Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, teaching, assessment. It has been accredited by Ofqual, the statutory regulatory authority in England, at Level 1 in the National Qualifications Framework. The Cambridge English: First for Schools examination is widely recognised in commerce and industry and in individual university faculties and other educational institutions.

Cambridge English: First for Schools follows the same format as Cambridge English: First and the level of the question papers is identical. The only difference is that the content and treatment of topics in Cambridge English: First for Schools have been particularly targeted at the interest and experience of school pupils. Cambridge English: First for Schools candidates who achieve Grade C or higher in the exam receive a Cambridge English: First for Schools certificate.

The structure of Cambridge English: First for Schools: an overview

The Cambridge English: First for Schools examination consists of four papers.

Reading and Use of English  1 hour 15 minutes
This paper consists of seven parts, with 52 questions. For Parts 1 to 4, the test contains texts with accompanying grammar and vocabulary tasks, and separate items with a grammar and vocabulary focus. For Parts 5 to 7, the test contains a range of texts and accompanying reading comprehension tasks.

Writing  1 hour 20 minutes
This paper consists of two parts which carry equal marks. In Part 1, which is compulsory, candidates have to write an essay of between 140 and 190 words, giving their opinion in response to a task. In Part 2, there are four tasks from which candidates choose one to write about. The range of tasks from which questions may be drawn includes an article, an email/letter, an essay, a review and a short story. The last question is based on a set text. In this part, candidates have to write between 140 and 190 words.

Listening  40 minutes (approximately)
This paper consists of four parts. Each part contains a recorded text or texts and some questions, including multiple-choice, sentence completion and multiple-matching. Each text is heard twice. There is a total of 30 questions.

Speaking  14 minutes
The Speaking test consists of four parts. The standard test format is two candidates and two examiners. One examiner takes part in the conversation while the other examiner listens. Both examiners give marks. Candidates will be given photographs and other visual and written materials to look at and talk about. Sometimes candidates will talk with the other candidate, sometimes with the examiner, and sometimes with both.
Introduction

Grading

Candidates will receive a score on the Cambridge English Scale for each of the four skills and Use of English. The average of these five scores gives the candidate’s overall Cambridge English Scale score for the exam. This determines what grade and CEFR level they achieve. All candidates receive a Statement of Results and candidates who pass the examination with Grade A, B or C also receive the First Certificate in English. Candidates who achieve Grade A receive the First Certificate in English stating that they demonstrated ability at Level C1. Candidates who achieve Grade B or C receive the First Certificate in English certificate stating that they demonstrated ability at Level B2. Candidates whose performance is below B2 level, but falls within Level B1, receive a Cambridge English certificate stating that they have demonstrated ability at Level B1. Candidates whose performance falls below Level B1 do not receive a certificate.
