Present Continuous (I am doing)

A Study this example situation:

Sarah is in her car. She is on her way to work. She's driving to work. (= She is driving ...)

This means: she is driving now, at the time of speaking. The action is not finished.

am/is/are + -ing is the present continuous:

1	am	(=   'm )	driving
he/she/it	is	(= he 's , etc.)	working
we/you/they	are	(= we 're , etc.)	doing, etc.

- B I am doing something = I started doing it, and I haven't finished. I'm in the middle of doing it.
  - Please don't make so much noise. I'm trying to work. (not I try)
  - "Where's Mark?" "He's taking a shower." (not He takes a shower)
  - Let's go out now. It isn't raining anymore. (not It doesn't rain)
  - ☐ How's your new job? Are you enjoying it?
  - What's all that noise? What's going on? or What's happening?

Sometimes the action is not happening at the time of speaking. For example:

Steve is talking to a friend on the phone. He says:

I'm reading a really good book right now. It's about a man who ...

Steve says "I'm reading ..." but he is not reading the book at the time of speaking.

He means that he has started reading the book but has not finished it yet. He is in the middle of reading it.

Some more examples:

- Kate wants to work in Italy, so she's learning Italian.
   (but perhaps she isn't learning Italian at the time of speaking)
- O Some friends of mine are building their own house. They hope to finish it next summer.
- You can use the present continuous with today, this week, this year, etc. (periods around now):
  - A: You're working hard today. (not You work hard today)
    - B: Yes, I have a lot to do.
  - The company I work for isn't doing so well this year.

We use the present continuous when we talk about a change that has started to happen. We often use these verbs in this way:

getting changing increasing rising starting becoming improving growing falling beginning

- ☐ Is your English getting better? (not Does your English get better)
- The population of the world is increasing very fast. (not increases)
- At first I didn't like my job, but I'm starting to enjoy it now. (not I start)

Unit

Simple Past (I did)

Study this example:

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was an Austrian musician and composer. He lived from 1756 to 1791. He started composing at the age of five and wrote more than 600 pieces of music. He was only 35 years old when he died.

lived/started/wrote/was/died are all simple past.

В	Very often the simple past ends in -ed (regular verbs):  I work in a travel agency now. I worked in a department store before.  They invited us to their party, but we decided not to go.  The police stopped me on my way home last night.  Lauren passed her exam because she studied very hard.
	For spelling (sto pp ed, stud ied , etc.), see Appendix 6.
	But many verbs are irregular . The simple past does not end in -ed. For example:  write → wrote
	For a list of irregular verbs, see Appendix 1

In questions and negative sentences we use did/didn't + infinitive (enjoy/see/go, etc.):

I	enjoy ed		you	enjoy?		I		enjoy
she	saw	did	she	see?		she	didn't	see
they	went		they	go?		they		go
0	I enjoyed	,		,	•	odding?

- How many people did they invite to the wedding?
- I didn't buy anything because I didn't have any money.
- O "Did you go out?" "No, I didn't."

Sometimes do is the main verb in the sentence (did ... do / didn't do). For example:

- What did you do on the weekend? (not What did you on the weekend?)
- I didn't do anything. (not I didn't anything)

The past of be (am/is/are) is was/were: D

'	· · · · /
I/he/she/it	was/wasn't		was	I/he/she/it?
we/you/they	were/weren't		were	we/you/they?
	annoyed because ne weather good	•

☐ I wasn't hungry, so I didn't eat anything.

- Did you go out last night, or were you too tired?

☐ They weren't able to come because they were so busy.
