

Contents

List of Figures	page vii
List of Tables	viii
List of Contributors	ix
Introduction	1
Miriam Jorgensen
PART I THE SETTING	9
1 Private Sector Economic Development in Indian Country	11
Robert J. Miller
2 Opportunities to Diversify: Reservation Workplaces and Job Numbers Compared to Nearby County Areas	37
Randall Akee, Elton Mykerezi, and Richard M. Todd
PART II POLICY BARRIERS AND POLICY NEEDS	65
3 The Challenges of American Indian Land Tenure and the Vastness of Entrepreneurial Potential	67
Jessica A. Shoemaker
4 Right-Sizing Use Rights: Navajo Land, Bureaucracy, and Home	82
Ezra Rosser
5 Access to Credit in Indian Country: The Promise of Secured Transaction Systems in Creating Strong Economies	97
Patrice H. Kunesh and Benjamin D. Horowitz

vi	Contents
6	Tribal Economic Resurgence: Reflections from a Tribal Economic Development Practitioner David Castillo	111
	PART III LEARNING FROM BUSINESS SCHOLARS	129
7	Becoming an Entrepreneur: Essentials for Any Environment Mark C. Maletz	131
8	Prototype, Validate, Pivot, Repeat: A Short, Short Course in Entrepreneurship Daniel Stewart	153
9	Supply Chain Management and Native American Entrepreneurs Stephanie L. Black and Deanna M. Kennedy	170
10	Mapping the Sustainable Development Goals onto Indian Nations Carla F. Fredericks	185
	PART IV FROM LEARNING TO DOING: EXAMPLES OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN INDIAN COUNTRY	195
11	Indigenous Arts Ecology – A New Investment Model for Indian Country Lori Lea Pourier	197
12	Native American Food Sovereignty and Youth Entrepreneurship Raymond Foxworth, Krystal Langholz, and Vena A-dae Romero-Briones	206
	Index	218