

Contents

Acknowledgments	page viii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Introduction
Committed Solitudes: Imagining Autonomy Otherwise	1
Stevens, Poetic Resistance, and Autonomy	12
Autonomy in Modernism and Beyond	20
1 The Politics of Aesthetic Separation: No Private Paradise	40
1.1 Lyric Distance and Intimacy	40
1.2 The Poet's Seclusion	46
1.3 The Plural in the Singular	55
2 Spaces of Autonomy: Relational Place-Making	65
2.1 Aesthetic Interiors: "What Manner of Building Shall We Build?"	65
2.2 Autonomy's Architectures	72
3 Community and Autonomy: "The Mode of Common Dreams"	94
3.1 The Collapse	96
3.2 Dance and a New Collective Life	102
3.3 The Poetic Imagination's Global Reach	119
3.4 Speaking to the Masses	128
4 Autonomy and Philosophy: "Reason's Constant Ruin"	139
4.1 Stevens' Wartime Inaesthetics	139
4.2 Logical Positivism and Resistance to Philosophy	162
Coda	170
Autonomy's "New Beginnings" and Spatiotemporal Expansions	170
Bibliography	179
Index	194