

Index

- Abdullah (King), 44 active executions, 208–9, 212–13
 age, individual vengefulness by, 68
 aggregation problems, in IR, 3–4, 18, 174–76
 “America Independent” (Freneau), 179
 American Revolutionary War
 revenge and nationalism in, 178–79 revenge and public support for, 33–34
 anti-revenge discourse, 2, 8, 167
 al-Assad, Bashar, 186
 audience costs, 162
 authoritarianism, support for war and, 14
 autocracies
 conflict behavior of, 162
 conflict initiation hypothesis in, 141, 154, 216–20
 democracies compared to, 4, 49, 170–74 institutional differences in, 162 relationship between death penalty and MIDs in, 154–55
 public support for war in, 9–10, 58–59
 selectorates in, 58–59
- Bacon, Francis, 28
 behavioral revolution, in IR, 3–4, 174–76
 beliefs, core values as, 30–31
 Bin Laden, Osama, 33–34, 95, 115, 196
 Bosnia, 121–24
 Burgoyne, John, 178
 Bush, George H. W., 5, 41, 109–10, 131
 Bush, George W., 5, 41–42, 106–18, 133–34, 199–204. See also Iraq War; presidential rhetoric
- capital punishment. See death penalty casualties civilian, 10–11, 49, 171, 189
 military, 10–11, 14, 49, 171
 CCES. See Cooperative Congressional Election Study
 Chechnya, terrorism in, 188–89
 China, nationalism in, 179–81
 civic organizations, as mechanism of cultural persistence, 54
 civil wars, 146
 revenge and the targeting of civilians in, 190
 in Afghanistan, 190–91
 in Iraq, 190–91
 in the Spanish Civil War, 190
 revenge as mobilizing tool in, 189–91
 in Afghanistan, 189–91
 in Iraq, 189–91
- Clinton, Bill, 45–48, 106, 118–30, 133–34, 204–5. See also North Atlantic Treaty Organization intervention in Kosovo; presidential rhetoric
 cluster confounding, 147–53 conflict behavior, variation among democracies in, 172–73
 conflict initiation hypothesis, 20, 48–59, 62–63, 164–65. See also militarized interstate disputes
 in autocracies, 141, 154, 216–20
 cross-national variation in vengefulness and, 137–43
 death penalty retention as measure of, 139–43

- conflict initiation hypothesis (cont.)
 retentionist democracies, 140–41
 VPM Survey, 137–39
 in democracies, 140–41, 150–52, 154, 156, 164–65, 216
 constraint, in democracies, 4, 9–14, 49–51, 62–64, 161–64, 173, 176–77
 Cooperative Congressional Election Study (CCES), 66–68, 94
 core value hypothesis, 18–19, 59–61, 65
 attitudes toward criminal justice in 1960s
 and, 73–76
 attitudes toward lethal police violence in the 1960s and, 72–73
 attitudes toward punitive violence, 66–71 cross-cultural validity of, 85–89. See also culture of honor
 in the American South, 85–87
 core values
 conceptualization of revenge as, 2, 8, 16–17, 23–33, 166–67
 cross national variation in, 51–56, 137–43, 173
 definition of, 23–25
 evidence for revenge as, 30, 65, 89–91
 influence on state behavior, 4–5, 11–14, 162–64, 172–76
 cost-benefit model, of support for war, 14–15
 criminal justice in 1960s, attitudes toward, 71–85
 core value hypothesis and, 71–72
 effect of revenge on, 77–78, 80
 Justifying Violence Survey and, 71–72
 control variables, 75–76
 dependent variables, 73–76
 measure of revenge, 74
 criminal justice system, in U.S., 182–85
 international assessment of, 184
 mass incarceration, 182–85
 partisan politics and, 182–84
 prison system abuses and, 184
 sentencing policy and, 183
 public endorsement of revenge and, 183–84
 public support of tough on crime approaches, 183–84
 culture
 mechanisms of persistence, 53–55
 public support for war influenced by, 12–13
 variation in core values across, 51–56, 172–74
 culture of honor, in the American South, 85–87
 European origins of, 86
 revenge as part of, 86–87
 death penalty
 cross-national variation in the legal status
 of, 139–43
 MIDs and, 149–57
 predictors of, 208
 individual support for correlates of, 115
 effect of war on, 159–60
 as a predictor of support for Iraq War, 116–18
 as a predictor of support for North Atlantic Treaty Organization
 intervention in Kosovo, 128
 presidential job approval and, 115–16
 as proxy for vengefulness, 106–7, 113, 125–26
 revenge as a justification for, 221
 vengefulness as a predictor of, 33–34, 66–69, 73–74, 76–79, 87
 the War on Terror and, 115–16
 intensity of, 210–11
 democracies
 autocracies compared to, 170–74
 conflict behavior, 172–73
 conflict initiation hypothesis in, 20,
 48–59, 62–63, 140–41, 161–65, 216
 coding criteria for, 143–44
 diversity of, 4–5, 170–74
 exceptionalism of, 11, 171
 influence of core values on the behavior
 of, 4, 11–14, 162–63, 171–72, 175–76
 MIDs in, 150–52, 154–55
 morality in, 173–74
 harm-based, 173–74
 retentionist, 140–41, 143–44, 206–7
 theories of war and, 10–14
 variation in constraint, 10, 12–14, 162–64, 172
 democratic exceptionalism, 11, 171–72
 democratic militarism, 12 democratic peace, 12–13, 145, 171, 173–74

- deterrence, death penalty retention influenced by, 208
- diversionary war, 162
- education, individual vengefulness by, 68
- elite-cues model, public support for war
 and, 14–15
- ethnic fractionalization, 145–46
- ethnocentrism, support for war and, 14
- executive ideology, 146
- experimental evidence, for the framing hypothesis, 101–6
 analysis of, 102–6
 design of, 101–2
 invasion experiment, 103
 results of, 102–6
- foreign policy, U.S., 181–86
 public support for military intervention, 185–86
 under Trump, 186
- framing, of public support for war, 35–39,
 56. See also Iraq War; North Atlantic Treaty Organization
 intervention in Kosovo impact on public opinion, 36
 as source of political power, 38
 value frames, 37–38
- framing hypothesis, 18–19, 61–62. See also public support evidence of, 93–94
 invasion experiment, 103
 punitive and non-punitive scenarios, 93–100
- framing of war, through presidential rhetoric, 106–34, 198–205. See also Iraq War; North Atlantic Treaty Organization intervention
 in Kosovo
- of the use of military force as punishment, 39–41. See also Iraq War; North Atlantic Treaty
 Organization intervention in Kosovo
- Freneau, Philip, 179
- Furman v. Georgia*, 115
- gender
 individual vengefulness by, 68
 support for war and, 14
- genocide, 187–91
 Gulf War, 33–34
- harm-based morality, 173–74
- homicides, 26
- Hussein, Saddam, 5, 41, 45, 107, 131–33.
See also Iraq War
 as perpetrator in Iraq War, 110–18
 removal from power, 41, 129
- ideology. See executive ideology; political ideology
- income inequality, 146
- individual vengefulness, 2, 7–10, 22–33
 by age, 67–68
 as a core value, 2, 8, 16–17, 23–33, 166–67
 by education level, 68
 by gender, 68
 by party identification, 68
 by political ideology, 68
 by race, 68
 support for war and, 8, 33–35
- international conflict, revenge as factor in,
 1–3, 166. See also militarized
 interstate disputes; war
- International Relations (IR). See also revenge
 aggregation problems in, 174–76 behavioral revolution in, 3–4, 174–76
 revenge in, 1, 5–7
- interpersonal aggression, 26–27
- invasion experiment, 103
- IR. See International Relations
- Iraq, civil war in, 190–91
- Iraq War
 background of, 107–8
 explicit justifications for, 42–44
 framing of, 41–44, 107–18
 acts of wrongdoing as part of, 109–10
 Hussein as perpetrator of, 110–18 presidential rhetoric and, 108–9, 199–204
 regime change as the goal of, 109–10
 neoconservatism and, 129
 public support for, 33–34, 41–44, 113
 predictors of, 117–18
 September 11 attacks and, 41, 110–18
 Islamic State (ISIS), 44
 Israel, in Second Lebanon War, 6
- justice. See self-help justice; wild justice
- Justifying Violence Survey (JVS), 71–72, 76

- Kant, Immanuel, 11, 14, 49–50
 al-Kasasbeh, Muath, 44
 Kerry, John, 115–16
 Kissinger, Henry, 15
 Kosovo. See North Atlantic Treaty Organization intervention in Kosovo leader-centric approaches, to revenge, 5 legitimization of violence model, 157 lethal police violence, attitudes toward, 71–85
 core value hypothesis and, 71–72
 effect of revenge on, 77–79
 Justifying Violence Survey and, 71–72
 control variables, 75–76
 dependent variables, 72–73
 measures of revenge, 74
 Liberman, Peter, 16–17, 33
 mass incarceration, in U.S., 182–85
 partisan politics and, 182–84
 prison system abuses and, 184
 sentencing policy and, 183
 McCrea, Jenny, 178–79
 militarized interstate disputes (MIDs), 143–61, 164
 analysis and results for, 147–61
 in autocracies, 154–55
 in democracies, 150–52, 154–55
 robustness checks for, 209–14
 control variables in analysis of, 144–47
 civil war, 146
 duration of democracy, 147
 ethnic fractionalization, 145–46
 executive ideology, 146
 income inequality, 146
 Political Terror Scale (PTS) score, 147
 timing of independence, 146
 initiation of, 143–44
 reverse causality and, 157–61
 Milošević, Slobodan, 44–48, 121–24
 morality
 in democracies, 173–74
 harm-based, 173–74
 public support for war and, 15–16
 nationalism, 178–81
 American Revolutionary War and, 178–79
 in China, 179–81
 neoconservatism, 129
 news coverage, support for war and, 71–85
 non-punitive scenarios, 99, 104
 classification of, 196–98
 North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) intervention in Kosovo.
 See also Milošević, Slobodan
 background of, 119–20
 framing of, 44–47, 119–30
 acts of wrongdoing as part of, 120
 Bosnia and, 121–24
 military goals of, 123–24
 Milošević and, 44–48, 121–24 perpetrator identification in, 121–24
 in presidential rhetoric, 106, 118–30, 198–205
 public support for, 125–30
 predictors of, 128
 Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (SFRY), 119
 nuclear proliferation, 162
 Palestine, terrorism in, 188
 party identification, individual vengefulness by, 68 political ideology
 individual vengefulness by, 68
 Political Terror Scale (PTS), 147
 post-conflict processes, 191–93 presidential rhetoric, framing of war and, 9–10, 35–39, 106–34
 for Iraq War, 106–18
 for NATO intervention in Kosovo, 106, 118–30
 prison system, in U.S., 181–82
 abuses in, 184
 mass incarceration in, 182–85
 public support, for use of military force, 2–3, 93–132
 in the American Revolutionary War, 33–34
 in autocracies, 58–59
 in cost-benefit model, 14–15
 cultural differences as factor in, 12–13
 in democracies, 2–3, 48–51
 in democratic exceptionalism literature, 49–50
 in elite-cues model, 14–15
 framing as influence on, 35–41. See also Iraq War; North Atlantic Treaty

- Organization intervention in Kosovo
 - in the Gulf War, 33–34
 - influence of national leaders on, 35–39
 - in invasion experiment, 102–6
 - in the Iraq War, 33–34, 41–44, 116–18
 - for NATO intervention in Kosovo, 127–30
 - in non-punitive scenarios, 99, 104
 - in punitive scenarios, 97, 104
 - revenge as source of, 33–35
 - in the Spanish-American War, 33–34
 - in the War on Terror, 33–34
 - in World War Two, 33–34
- punishment
 - consequentialist beliefs about, 23
 - non-consequentialist beliefs about, 23
- punitive scenarios, 94–97
 - classification of, 196–98
- punitive violence, attitudes toward, 66–71
 - CCES and, 66
 - control variables, 67–68
 - dependent variables, 66–67
 - wording of items, 195
 - measurement of revenge, 67
 - effect of revenge on, 68–71
- race, individual vengefulness by, 68
 - support of war and, 14
- recruitment, for terrorism, 188
- religion, 75–86
- retentionist democracies, 140–41, 143–44, 206–7. See also death penalty
- retribution, relationship with revenge, 29
- revenge. See also individual vengefulness
 - anti-revenge discourse, 2, 8, 167
 - capital punishment as, 29, 221
 - as cause of war, 57–58, 166
 - in civil wars, 189–91
 - as a core value, 2, 8, 16–17, 23–33, 166–67
 - cross-national variation in endorsement of, 3, 10, 51–56, 137–43
 - in cultures of honor, 86–87
 - death penalty retention and, 142, 208
 - empirical research on, 26–59
 - enduring rivalries and, 176–78
 - future research on, 186–87
 - genocide and, 187–91
 - homicides and, 26
 - in International Relations (IR), 1
 - interpersonal aggression and, 26–27
 - leader-centric approaches to, 5
 - nationalism and, 178–81
 - public support for war and, 33–35
 - retribution, relationship with, 29
 - rhetoric and, 33–48
 - as self-help justice, 27–28
 - social influence of, 27
 - state emotions approach to, 6–7
 - state violence and, 2
 - terrorism and, 187–91
 - third-party punishment and, 28–29
 - torture and, 29
 - in tribal warfare, 189
 - in U.S., criminal justice and, 29–31, 71–85, 183–84
 - as wild justice, 28
 - reverse causality, 157–61
 - rhetoric
 - presidential, in framing of war, 33–48, 106–32
 - for Iraq War, 106–18
 - for NATO intervention in Kosovo, 106, 118–30
 - Rugova, Ibrahim, 119
 - Second Lebanon War, 6
 - selectorates, in autocracies, 58–59
 - self-help justice, revenge as, 27–28
 - sentencing policies, in U.S., 183
 - September 11 attacks, 41–43, 111, 115–16
 - signaling resolve, 162
 - Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (SFRY), 119
 - Spanish-American War, 33–34
 - state emotions approach, to revenge, 6–7
 - state repression, terrorism as result of, 187
 - Stoic philosophy, 25
 - terminal core values, 29–31
 - terrorism
 - in Chechnya, 188–89
 - in Palestine, 188
 - Al-Qassam Brigades, 188
 - recruitment for, 188
 - revenge and, 187–91
 - September 11 attacks, 41–43, 111, 115–16
 - state repression as cause of, 187
 - Thatcher, Margaret, 43
 - third-party punishment, 28–29
 - torture, revenge and, 29

- tough on crime approach, in U.S. criminal justice system, 183–84
- tribal warfare, revenge and, 189
- Trump, Donald, 186
- trust, support for war and, 14
- United States (U.S.). See also American Revolutionary War; Gulf War; Iraq War; North Atlantic Treaty Organization intervention in Kosovo; Spanish-American War
- criminal justice system in, 181–85
- international assessment of, 184
- mass incarceration in, 182–85
- partisan politics and, 182–84
- prison system abuses and, 184
- sentencing policy and, 183
- public endorsement of revenge and, 183–84
- public support of tough on crime approaches, 183–84
- foreign policy of, 181–86
- public support for military intervention, 185–86
- under Trump, 186
- as world's policeman, 181–82
- value ambivalence, 25
- value frames, 37–38
- value resonance, 37–38
- vengefulness. See revenge
- Voice of the People Millennium (VPM) Survey, 137
- war. See also militarized interstate disputes; public support; specific wars
- bargaining model of, 57–58
- causes of, 57–58
- influence on death penalty support in the United States, 160
- legitimation of violence model, 157
- nationalism and, 178–81
- rivalries and, 176–78
- theories of democracy and, 10–14
- War on Terror, 33–34
- wild justice, revenge as, 28
- World War Two, 33–34
- world's policeman, U.S. as, 181–82