

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	page	xi
1. Introduction		1
2. The Federal Structure; Sources of the Law.		8
A. Federal and State Criminal Justice		8
1. The Federal System.		9
2. The Courts.		12
B. The Source of Laws and Rules That Govern Criminal Procedures		15
3. Investigation and Evidence-Gathering—The Participants		19
A. The Police.		19
B. The Prosecutor		21
C. The Judicial Function during an Investigation		22
D. The Defense Function during an Investigation.		22
4. Investigation and Evidence-Gathering—Procedures.		25
A. Pre-arrest and Post-arrest Investigations		25
B. Police Investigation without Judicial Intervention		29
C. Judicial Intervention in a Criminal Investigation		34
D. Use of the Grand Jury during an Investigation		38
5. Arrest and Pretrial Detention		41
6. The Decision to Prosecute, or Not		44
A. Prosecutorial Discretion		44

viii	Contents
B. The Grand Jury	45
C. The Indictment or Information	47
7. Joinder of Charges and Defendants	49
8. Venue.	51
9. Assistance of Counsel	52
A. The Right to Counsel	52
B. Self-Representation	54
C. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel	55
10. Trial Rights and Preparation for Trial	57
A. The Right to a Speedy Trial	57
B. The Right of Access to Information	58
1. Rule 16	59
2. 18 U.S.C. § 3500.	59
3. Brady and Giglio Material.	60
4. Discovery Rights of the Prosecutor	61
C. Other Pretrial Activity.	62
11. Alternative Outcomes.	64
A. Diversion	64
B. Dismissal.	65
C. Guilty Pleas	66
1. The Procedures	66
2. The Negotiations	70
D. Corporate Deferred and Non-prosecution Agreements.	74
12. Double Jeopardy	78
13. The Trial	80
A. The Role of the Judge	81
B. The Right to Trial by Jury	82
C. The Defendant's Right to Remain Silent.	84
D. Presumptions and Burdens of Proof	85
E. The Rules of Evidence and Exclusionary Rules	86
F. Structure of the Trial	88

Contents	ix
1. Opening Statement	88
2. Presentation of Evidence	88
3. Trial Motions	91
4. Closing Statements	93
5. Jury Instructions	94
6. Jury Deliberations and Verdict	95
G. Beyond a Reasonable Doubt Standard	98
H. The Effect of an Acquittal	98
I. The Jury's Role in Sentencing	99
J. The Public's and Victim's Rights	99
14. Sentencing	101
A. The Traditional Approach and the Role of Trial Judges	102
B. Legislative "Reform" of Sentencing	104
C. The Role of Prosecutors	105
D. The Role of Juries in Sentencing	108
E. Victims	109
F. The Role of Appellate Judges	109
15. Appeals	110
A. The Structure of Appellate Review	110
B. Appeals Prior to Trial	111
C. Appeals after Conviction—Procedures	113
D. Appeals after Conviction—Scope of Review	115
E. Appeals after Conviction—Sentencing	117
F. Appeals after Conviction—The Disposition by the Appellate Court	118
G. Collateral Review	119
16. Corporate Criminal Responsibility	122
17. Internal Corporate Investigations	125
A. Some Different Bases for an Internal Investigation	125
B. Some Pitfalls in Conducting an Internal Investigation	129
18. Professional Responsibility	133
A. Licensing Requirements	134
B. Ethical Duties—Generally	135

C. Ethical Duties—The Prosecution and the Defense Functions	139
D. Penalties	140
19. Conclusion	142
Bibliography	154
Index	162