

Contents

|   |                 |
|---|-----------------|
| List of Contributors   | page vii |
| 1 Free Will Skepticism in Law and Society: An OverviewGregg D. Caruso, Elizabeth Shaw, and Derk Pereboom | 1               |
| PART I ON THE PRACTICAL IMPLICATIONS OF FREE WILLSKEPTICISM: OPTIMISM VS. PESSIMISM                             |                 |
| 2 Free Will Denial and Deontological ConstraintsSaul Smilansky   | 27              |
| 3 Free Will Skepticism and Its Implications: An Argumentfor OptimismGregg D. Caruso                  | 43              |
| 4 Beyond the Retributive SystemBruce N. Waller   | 73              |
| PART II ALTERNATIVES TO RETRIBUTIVE PUNISHMENT  |                 |
| 5 Free Will Skepticism and Prevention of CrimeDerk Pereboom  | 99              |
| 6 Deontology and Deterrence for Free Will DeniersBenjamin Vilhauer                                       | 116             |
| 7 Free Will Skepticism, General Deterrence, and the“Use” ObjectionKevin J. Murtagh                   | 139             |

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| vi | Contents  |     |
|    | PART III FREE WILL SKEPTICISM AND THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM  | 159 |
| 8  | Fichte and Psychopathy: Criminal Justice Turned Upside DownMichael Louis Corrado            | 161 |
| 9  | Causality and Responsibility in Mentally Disordered OffendersJohn Callender                 | 177 |
| 10 | The Implications of Free Will Skepticism for Establishing Criminal LiabilityElizabeth Shaw  | 192 |
| 11 | Free Will Skepticism and Criminal Punishment: A Preliminary Ethical AnalysisFarah Focquaert | 207 |
|    | Index   | 237 |