

INDEX

- Aboriginal rights, in Canada, 263–4, 274–6
- Alexy, Robert, 74–5
- analytical jurisprudence
- as constructivist theory, 169
 - in genealogical perspective, 164–74
 - international law and, 182
 - as legal tradition, development of, 187–8
 - limitations of, 171–3
 - Raz on, 168–74
 - aims of, 168–9
 - defense of, against competing views, 169–70
 - metaphysical properties of, 170–1
 - municipal legal systems and, 169
 - state law and, 172–4
 - transnational law and, 164–5
- Arendt, Hannah, 130
- Aristotle, on legal theory, 137
- authority
- law and, 202
 - legal instrumentalism and, 128–34
 - central authority and, 119
 - for civil rights, 130–1
 - domestic law and, 132–3
 - public authority and, 128–31
 - transnational law and, 132
 - legal non-positivism based on, 197–201
 - CIL and, 198–200
 - content-independence in, 198
 - novel sources of law and, 200–1
 - legal pluralism and, 28–33, 35, 179
 - juristic approach, 29–30
 - philosophical approach, 32
 - in rule systems, 31–2
 - sociological approach, 29
 - normative aspects of, 243–4
 - pluralist jurisprudence and, 359–62
 - political, 205–7
 - collectivist conception of, 206–7
 - Raz on, 243–4
 - Roughan on, 243–4
 - of Security Council, 152–3
 - social accounts of, 243–4
 - of state law, 149–50
- Berman, Paul, 103, 109, 279
- Borrows, John, 270–1, 284–5, 348–9
- British courts. See United Kingdom
- Canada. See also Indigenous law
- Aboriginal rights in, 263–4, 274–6
 - Indigenist movement in, 262–3
 - postcolonial jurisprudence in, 266–83
- Canon Law, 138
- Christianity, law and, 114
- Christie, Gordon, 284, 348–9
- CIL. See customary international law
- civil rights, legal instrumentalism and, 130–1
- CJEU. See Court of Justice of the European Union
- colonialism. See also postcolonial jurisprudence
- legal pluralism and, 261–6
 - reclamation of alternative history of, by Indigenous people, 270–1
- common law reasoning. See legal reasoning

- constitutional pluralism
 - academic literature on, 74–5
 - CJEU and, 81–5
 - Copernican turn in, 70
 - cosmopolitan constitutionalism and, 70
 - methodological monism and, 70–1
 - ECHR and, 81–5
 - ECtHR and, 81–5
 - EU law and, 66, 81
 - EU member state law and, 66, 81
 - global disorder of, 87–8
 - Kumm on, 69–70
 - legal officials and, 73–80
 - global disorder of, 81
 - municipal, 78–80
 - in norm-applying institutions, 75–6
 - in norm-creating institutions, 75–6
 - legal pluralism and, 71–3
 - MacCormick on, 66, 69, 71–3
 - methodological monism and, 67–71
 - problem of, 80–5
 - normative defense of, 69
 - in post-Westphalian era, 64, 80–1
 - Roughan on, 72
 - state sovereignty and, 64–5
 - suprastate and, 65–7, 71–3
 - bindingness and, 76–7
 - heterarchical relationships for legal orders, 68, 78
 - hierarchical relationships for legal orders, 67–8, 78
 - judicial actors in, 66–7
 - suprastate law and, 76–8, 88
 - EU member state law and, 79–80
 - supremacy doctrine and, 81–2
- constructivism, 169, 176
- contemporary legal practice. See legal reasoning
- contingency issues, in law concepts, 112–13
- cosmopolitan
 - constitutionalism, 70
 - methodological monism and, 70–1
 - logic, 53–9
 - The Cosmopolitan State* (Glenn), 53–9
 - in English Common Law, 58
 - in EU law, 56–7
- Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU), 74
 - constitutional pluralism and, 81–5
- Cover, Robert, 43, 253, 287–8
- critical legal pluralism, 253–4
- critical pluralism, 255
- customary international law (CIL), 193–7
 - authority-based legal non-positivism and, 198–200
 - in ICJ cases, 193–4
 - legal positivism and, 196
 - transparency requirements in, 194–5
- customary law, 180, 193–7
- Delmas-Marty, Mireille, 59, 109
- dialectical federalism, 60
- dialectical review, 62
- Dworkin, Ronald, 74–6, 118–19, 250
 - on international law, 181
 - theory of interpretation, 190
- ECHR. See European Convention on Human Rights
- ECtHR. See European Court of Human Rights
- Ehrlich, Eugen, 94, 175, 247–8, 306
- enacted law, 121–2
 - interactional law compared to, 122–3
- essentialism, in law, 39, 245
- EU. See European Union
- EU law. See European Union law
- EU member state law
 - constitutional pluralism and, 66, 81
 - EU law and, 22–3, 68–9, 81
 - external recognition of law and, 104–5
 - legal pluralism and, 22–3
 - MacCormick on, 68–9
 - suprastate law and, 79–80
- European Communities Act, 99

- European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)
 - constitutional pluralism and, 81–5
 - constitutionalisation of, 88
 - suprapositive values of, 85
- European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), 56–7
 - British courts and, 208–11
 - authority-based legal non-positivism and, 208–10
 - dispute resolution modalities, 210
 - HRA and, 208
 - legal positivism and, 211
 - reasoning about, 211
 - constitutional pluralism and, 81–5
 - functions of, 208
 - human rights cases at, 154
- European Court of Justice, 154
- European Treaty on Human Rights, 154
- European Union (EU)
 - MacCormick on, 41
 - relational imagination and, 44
- European Union (EU) law
 - cosmopolitan logic in, 56–7
 - EU member state law and, 22–3, 68–9, 81
 - legal philosophy of, 138
 - legal pluralism and
 - member states' law and, 22–3
 - WTO law and, 22–3
 - MacCormick on, 68–9
- external recognition of law, 97–9, 103–7
 - assessment of, 106–7
 - concept of law translated from, 105–6
 - constitutive role of, 107–10
 - international law and, 104–5
 - MacCormick on, 101–2
 - Montevideo Convention on the Rights and Duties of States 1933 and, 104–5
 - reciprocity of, 99–101
 - Roughan on, 110
 - state law and, 104–5
 - tertiary rules of, 109–10
- federalism. See dialectical federalism
- formalism, in law
 - chastened, 236
 - legal instrumentalism compared to, 118
- Friedland, Hal, 267–8, 284
- Fuller, Lon, 94, 116, 118–19, 302–3, 305–6
 - legal interactionism and, 121–2
 - on rule of law, 295
- genealogical perspective, on pluralist jurisprudence
 - analysis of, 188–91
 - for analytical jurisprudence, 164–74
 - through anthropological studies, 166–7
 - through historical studies, 166–7
 - of international law, 181–8
 - for legal institutions, 166
 - for legal pluralism, 174–81
 - international law compared to, 182
- methodological approach to, 164–8
- natural law and, 189–90
- positivism in, 189–90
- for transnational law, 188–9
- German Federal Constitutional Court (GFCC), 73, 186
- Giudice, Michael, 35–6, 111
- Glenn, Patrick, 53–9
- Global Administrative Law, 223
- global justice
 - basic structure of, 230
 - common concerns model, 227–8
 - concurrent interests model, 227, 229
 - defined, 216
 - global law compared to, 216–20
 - morally relevant global interconnectedness model and, 226–7
 - mutual responsibility model, 226–8
 - relevant constituencies of, 226
 - subject-matter of, 229–30
 - variety of, 226–30

- global law
 abstract-normative approaches to, 221–2
 collateral orientation of, 233–4, 237 compensatory orientation of, 234–5, 237–8 compositive orientation of, 233, 237–8
 constitutive orientation of, 231–2, 237 contingent orientation of, 235–7 convergence-promoting approaches to, 221–2 culpable orientation of, 236–7
 defined, 216
 divergence-accommodating approaches to, 222–3 functionally specific regimes and, 222 global justice compared to, 216–20
 globality of, 220
 humanity's law and, 222–3
 institutional pragmatism and, 217–18
 law of peace and, 222–3 law of recognition and, 223
 legal experts for, 225
 re-orientation of, 236–8
 unanchored idealism and, 218 value preferences and, 216–17
 variety of, 220–6
 global legal pluralism, 107–8
 relationality of law and, 110
 Gluckman-Bohannan debate, 268–9
 Griffiths, John, 98–9, 264, 277–8
- Halpin, Andrew, 34
 Hart, H. L. A., 24, 90–1, 142, 265.
 See also legal positivism external perspectives of legal pluralism and, 281–2 internal perspectives of legal pluralism and, 281–2
 on internal rules of recognition, 95–7
 Henderson, Sákéj, 262–3, 269, 286, 288
- human rights, 154
 international law and, 184–6
 pluralist jurisprudence and, genealogical perspective on, 184–6
 Human Rights Act (HRA), 208
- ICJ. See International Court of Justice imagination, 45–53. See also relational imagination cognition and travel, 45–8
 common law reasoning and, 48–53
 hypotheticals in, 50
 inconsistent distinctions in, 52
 legal fictions in, 50–1
 signalling in, 52
 diagrams and, 48
 sketches as, 48
 ethical history of, 48–9
 visualisation and, 48
- Indigenist movement. See also Aboriginal rights
 in Canada, 262–3
 modern state recognition and, 271–9
- Indigenous interventions, in pluralist jurisprudence, 283–92
 'making space' approach, 284, 289
- Indigenous law, 264–5
 Aboriginal rights under, 274–6
Accessing Justice and Reconciliation project, 284–5 accommodation strategy for, 273
 as choice of law model, 279–80
 deference and, 273–4
 delegation under, 273
 as fact, 279–83
 incorporation of, into state law, 274
 as intersocietal law, 278
 jurisdictional issues for, 276–8
 as law, 279–83
 methodological approach to, tools for, 285–7
 revitalisation of, 284–5
 strength of, 278
 translation strategy for, 272–3
 Two-Row Wampum model, 289–90

- institutions. See legal institutions
- interactional law, 180
 - enacted law and, 122–3
 - legal instrumentalism and, 120–5
- inter-institutional theory, of law, 35–6
- International Court of Justice (ICJ), 151–2
 - customary international law and, 193–4
 - legal positivism and, 193–4
- international law
 - analytical jurisprudence compared to, 182
- CIL, 193–7
 - in ICJ cases, 193–4
 - legal positivism and, 196
 - transparency requirements in, 194–5
- constitutionalisation of, 89
- development of, as legal philosophy, 181–2
- Dworkin on, 181
- external recognition of law and, 104–5
- genealogical perspective of, 181–8
 - scope of, 181–2
- human rights and, 184–6
- legal pluralism and, 23
 - comparisons between, 182
- legitimacy of, 183
- new philosophy of, 182
- pluralism under, 102
- private, 222
- public, 108
- state law and, 151–3, 156
- UN Security Council and, 152–3
- interpretation, theory of, 190
- Islamic law, 114
- jurispathic courts, 253
- jurispersuasion, 109, 279
- jurisprudence. See also analytical jurisprudence; monist jurisprudence; pluralist jurisprudence; postcolonial jurisprudence
 - expansion of, 3–4
 - municipal, 3
 - non-pluralist, academic scope of, 2–3
- Kant, Immanuel, 182
- Kelsen, Hans, 175, 247–8
- Krisch, Nico, 59–60, 103
- Kumm, Matthias, 69–70, 221–2
- language, legal pluralism influenced by, 178–9
 - translation issues and, 178–9
- law, as concept. See also EU member state law; external recognition of law; global law; international law; rule of law; state law
 - allopoietic aspect of, 91
 - analytical jurisprudence and, 168–74
 - asymmetric plurality of, 94
 - authority and, 202
 - autopoietic aspect of, 91
 - Canon Law, 138
 - Christianity and, 114
 - customary law, 180, 193–7
 - definitions of, 92–3
 - enacted, 121–2
 - interactional law compared to, 122–3
 - English common law, 58
 - essentialism in, 39, 245
 - flexibility of, 119–20
 - formalism in
 - chastened, 236
 - legal instrumentalism compared to, 118
 - geographical locatedness of, 246–50
 - interpretation of laws and, 252–3
 - plurality of legal systems and, 251–3
 - within social relationships, 247–8
 - immateriality of, 249
 - implicit, 94
 - incompatibility and plurality, 111
 - individual action in, 120–5
 - as institutionalised doctrine, 36–8

- law, as concept. (cont.)
 - interaction between legal systems, 93–4
 - inter-institutional theory of, 35–6
 - internal recognition of, 90–1, 95–7
 - law of recognition, 223
 - legal consciousness studies and, 253
 - legal ideals in, 122
 - legal orders and, 94–5
 - legal pluralism and, 33–6, 91–2, 97–9
 - as limitless, 239–46
 - natural law, 91, 180
 - objections to, 110–15
 - contingency issues, 112–13
 - incompatibility and, 111
 - possibility of law as, 110–12
 - to state centrism, 113–15
 - as performative, 254–7
 - mind-body distinctions for, 255
 - nature-culture distinctions for, 255
 - in physical form, 248–9
 - planning theory of, 164–5
 - private international, 222
 - procedural approach in identification of, 242
 - public international, 108
 - pure theory of law, 175
 - purposive action in, 120–5
 - as relational concept, 107–10
 - linkage rules in, 108–9
 - primary rules in, 108
 - relativity of, 109–10
 - secondary rules in, 108
 - tertiary rules in, 108
 - rules of recognition, 95–103. See also
 - external recognition of law
 - criterion of, 98–9
 - internal, 90–1, 95–7
 - linkage, 103, 109
 - non-state law and, 95–7
 - Scottish law, 138
 - Sharia law, 138, 180
 - as social practice, 166
 - sociological definitions of, 91
 - soft, 24
 - subject-matter in, 250–4
 - suprastate, 76–8, 88
 - EU member state law and, 79–80
 - transnational
 - analytical jurisprudence and, 164–5
 - historical definition of, 164–5
 - legal instrumentalism and, 132
 - pluralist jurisprudence and,
 - genealogical perspective on, 188–9
 - in UK, 100–1
 - universalism in, 35, 39
 - Western tradition of, 165
 - WTO law, 22–3
- lawyers
 - legal pluralism and, 24–8, 38–9
 - ad hoc resolution technique, 24–6
 - hierarchical ordering technique, 24–6
 - statist analogy technique, 24–7
 - ultimate monism technique, 24–6
 - legal theory for, 20–1
- legal institutions
 - legal pluralism and, 92
 - pluralist jurisprudence and,
 - genealogical perspective on, 166
 - under state law, 142–5
- legal officials
 - constitutional pluralism and, 73–80
 - global disorder of, 81
 - municipal, 78–80
 - in norm-applying institutions, 75–6
 - in norm-creating institutions, 75–6
- pluralist jurisprudence among, 362–5
- legal orders
 - in concept of law, 94–5
 - heterarchical relationships for, 68, 78
 - hierarchical relationships for, 67–8, 78
 - plurality of, 117
 - sequencing of questions in, 94–5
- legal philosophers, legal theory for, 20
- legal philosophy, 250
- legal pluralism, 21–4

- aspirational agendas for, 337–41
 - expectations as result of, 340–1
- authority claims and, 28–33,
 - 35, 179
 - juristic approach, 29–30
 - philosophical approach, 32
 - in rule systems, 31–2
 - sociological approach, 29
- in colonial contexts, 261–6
 - development of, 261–2
- constitutional pluralism and, 71–3
- critical, 253–4
- defined, 21–2, 91–2
- Delmas-Marty on, 109
- as ecological problem, 28
- elements of, 92
- EU law and
 - member states' law and, 22–3
 - WTO law and, 22–3
- external perspectives of, 281–2
- global, 107–8
 - relationality of law and, 110
- historical development of, 175
- institutional focus of, 92
- in integrated legal regimes, 22
 - in transnational networks, 23–4
- internal perspectives of, 281–2
- international law and, 23
 - comparisons between, 182
- interspectival, 288
- law concepts in, 33–6, 91–2, 97–9
 - inter-institutional theory, 35–6
 - universalism, 35
- lawyers and, 24–8, 38–9
 - ad hoc resolution technique,
 - 24–6
 - hierarchical ordering technique,
 - 24–6
 - statist analogy technique, 24–7
 - ultimate monism technique,
 - 24–6
- legal interactionism and, 122–3
- for legal sociologists, 22
- as legal tradition, development of,
 - 187–8
- in modern era, 71
- normative agendas for, 337–41
 - expectations as result of, 340–1
- politico-moral reasoning in, 211–14
- postcolonial jurisprudence and,
 - 261–2
- in practice, 180
- Roughan on, 30–1
- sociological aspect of, 92
- strong, 278
- Tamanaha on, 174–81
 - authority and, 179
 - language differences and,
 - connotations of, 178–9
 - in Micronesia, 175–6
 - theoretical limitations of, 175–6
 - as universal concept of law,
 - 177–9
- theoretical basis for, 347–8
- translation strategy, 272–3
- weak, 278
- legal positivism, 193–7
 - CIL and, 196
 - core tenets of, 195–6
 - defining tenets of, 197
 - in ECtHR cases, 211
 - formulations of, 197–8
 - in ICJ cases, 193–4
 - political authority and, 205–7
 - politico-moral reasoning and,
 - 211–14
 - Raz on, 201–4
- legal reasoning
 - common law, 48–53
 - defined, 52
 - doubt and, 52
 - hesitation and, 52
 - hypotheticals in, 50
 - inconsistent distinctions in, 52
 - legal fictions in, 50–1
 - signalling in, 52
 - conflict and indeterminacy models
 - and, 60–1
 - dialectical federalism and, 60
 - dialectical review and, 62
 - relational imagination in, 59–63
- legal sociologists
 - legal pluralism for, 22
 - legal theory for, 20
- legal systems, 145–7, 180. See also law
 - domain relativity in, 145

- legal systems (cont.)
 independence from legal constraints in, 146–7
 in Nazi regime, 189–90
 normative power of, 146
 plurality of, 93–4
 defined, 239
 geographical locatedness of law
 and, 251–3
 legitimacy
 of international law, 183
 of state law, 156–7
 perfect match thesis, 158–9
 state sovereignty and, 158–60
lex mercatoria, 180
 linkage rules, 103, 109
 living law, 24, 94
- MacCormick, Neil, 35–6, 40–2
 on constitutional pluralism, 66, 69, 71–3
 on EU law, relationship with state
 law, 68–9
 on external recognition of law, 101–2
 legal theory of, 100
 on pluralist jurisprudence, 41–2
 Malinowski, Bronisław, 261, 306
 Marxism, 167
 Melissaris, Emmanuel, 35, 243–5, 265
 Merry, Sally Engle, 240
 methodology
 cosmopolitan constitutionalism and,
 70–1
 monism and, 67–71
 problem of, 80–5
 monist jurisprudence, 3
 academic scope of, 2–3
 pluralist jurisprudence and, 4–5,
 329–33
 Montevideo Convention on the Rights and Duties of States 1933, 104–5
 Moore, Sally Falk, 304–5
 municipal jurisprudence, 3
 academic scope of, 2–3
 analytical jurisprudence and, 169
- Napoleon, Val, 267–8, 284
 natural law, 91, 180
 pluralist jurisprudence and,
 genealogical perspective on,
 189–90
- Plato, 171
 on legal theory, 137
 pluralism. See also constitutional pluralism; legal pluralism contestability of, 5–7
 critical, 255
 instability of, 5–7
 under international law, 102
 monist, 9, 86–7
 normative sources of, 343
 radical, 86, 102
 subject-oriented, 255
 unitary theory of, 5–6
 pluralist jurisprudence. See also genealogical perspective, on pluralist jurisprudence; legal positivism candidate theory for, 351–66
 decisiveness in, 357–9
 jurisdictional authority in,
 359–62
 jurisdictional constraints in, 353–7
 legal practices among officials, 362–5
 openness of law in, 353–7
 conceptual challenges for, 333–7
 human rights and, 184–6
 Indigenous interventions in, 283–92
 ‘making space’ approach, 284, 289
 MacCormick on, 41–2
 monist jurisprudence and, 4–5, 329–33
 practical challenges for, 333–7 pursuits of, 341–51
 coordination of, 349–51
 profile of, 341–8
 relational imagination and, 45
 plurality, of legal systems, 93–4. See also
 legal pluralism
 defined, 239
 Pogge, Thomas, 181–2
 mutual responsibility model, 227–8

- postcolonial jurisprudence. See also Indigenous law
 in Canada, 266–83
 Indigenist movement and, 262–3
 legal pluralism and, 261–2
 modern state recognition and, 271–9
 state recognition and, 264
 private international law, 222 private regulators, legal instrumentalism by, 132–4
- Rawls, John, 181
 law of peoples for, 233
- Raz, Joseph, 36, 97
 on analytical jurisprudence, 168–74
 aims of, 168–9
 defense of, against competing views, 169–70
 metaphysical properties of, 170–1
 municipal legal systems and, 169
 state law and, 172–4
 on law and authority, 202
 on legal non-positivism, criticism of, 201–4
 on legal positivism, 201–4
 on political authority, 205–7
 on rule of law, 295
- reciprocity, in external recognition of
 law, 99–101
- relational imagination, 53–63
 academic analysis of, 42–4
 by comparative legal historians, 42–3
 in contemporary legal practice, 59–63
 in conflict and indeterminacy models, 60–1
 in dialectical federalism, 60
 dialectical review and, 62
 cosmopolitan logic and, 53–9
 in English common law, 58
 in EU law, 56–7
 discordant parity and, 44
 in EU context, 44
 hermeneutic point of view, 41
 McCormick on, 40–2
 minimalism in, 59–60
 pluralist jurisprudence and, 45
- Roughan, Nicole, 30–1, 72
 on authority, 243–4
 on external recognition of law, 110
- rule of law
 anti-values of, 302–3
 applicability of, 296–7
 arbitrariness and, 318
 components of, 294–301
 formalisation of, 294
 Fuller on, 295
 geographical locatedness of, 298
 invocations of, 299
 location of, 294
 Raz on, 295
 social causality of, 304–16
 folk notions of, 307
 ‘law and’, 305–6
 legislation and, 310–12
 litigation and, 313–16 social fields, 306–10
 social powers and, 316–20
 sociology of, 320–1
 state law and, 316–20
 targets of, 294
 values of, 297–8, 300–4
 domains of, 302–3
- rule of recognition, 250
- Selznick, Philip, 118–19, 127, 304, 320–1, 323, 325
- Sharia law, 138, 180
- social contract theory, 182
- sociolegal positivism, 282
- soft law, 24
- sovereignty, of state law, 157–8
 for individuals, 159–60
 perfect match thesis and, 158–9
- state centrism, 113–15
- state law. See also EU member state law
 analytical jurisprudence and, 172–4
 authority of, 149–50
 as comprehensive legal system, 145–7
 domain relativity in, 145
 independence from legal constraints in, 146–7
 normative power of, 146
 responsibility of, 145

- state law. (cont.)
 - in France, 157
 - future trends in, 150–5
 - for individuals, 161–2
 - Harm Principle and, 158
 - historical development of, 147–50
 - Indigenous law incorporated into, 274
 - international law and, 151–3, 156
 - international organisations under, 151–3
 - legal institutions under, 142–5
 - legitimacy of, 156–7
 - perfect match thesis and, 158–9
 - state sovereignty and, 158–60
 - non-intervention principle in, 158
 - non-normative expressions in, 139
 - normative expressions in, 139
 - practice-based rules for, 138–42
 - content of, 139–41
 - normative assessment of, 141–2
 - personal attachments as factor in, 141, 144
 - regional organisations under, 154
 - rule of law and, 316–20
 - state sovereignty and, 157–8
 - for individuals, 159–60
 - legitimacy and, 158–60
 - perfect match thesis and, 158–9
 - theoretical approach to, 136–8
 - for Aristotle, 137
 - for Plato, 137
 - as theory, 155–8
- state sovereignty, constitutional
 - pluralism and, 64–5
- statist analogy technique, 24–7
- suprastate, constitutional pluralism
 - and, 65–7, 71–3
 - bindingness and, 76–7
 - heterarchical relationships for legal orders, 68, 78
 - hierarchical relationships for legal orders, 67–8, 78
 - judicial actors in, 66–7
- suprastate law, 76–8, 88
 - EU member state law and, 79–80
- supremacy doctrine, 81–2
- Tamanaha, Brian, 34, 240–1
 - criticism of legal instrumentalism, 125–6
 - description of law, 242–3
 - on legal pluralism, 174–81
 - authority and, 179
 - language differences for, 178–9
 - connotations of, 178–9
 - in Micronesia, 175–6
 - theoretical limitations of, 175–6
 - as universal concept of law, 177–9
- Teubner, Gunther, 223–4, 310
- transnational law
 - analytical jurisprudence and, 164–5
 - historical definition of, 164–5
 - legal instrumentalism and, 132
 - pluralist jurisprudence and,
 - genealogical perspective on, 188–9
- United Kingdom (UK)
 - court systems in, ECtHR overview of, 208–11
 - authority-based legal non-positivism and, 208–10
 - dispute resolution modalities, 210
 - HRA and, 208
 - legal positivism and, 211
 - reasoning about, 211
 - law in, 100–1
- universalism, in law, 35, 39
- von Daniels, Detlef, 103
 - on linkage rules, 103, 109
- Waldron, Jeremy, 129, 295–6
- Webber, Jeremy, 270–1
- Weber, Max, 29
- World Trade Organization (WTO) law,
 - EU law and, 22–3