CONTENTS

List of figures page x
General editors' preface xi
List of abbreviations xvii

Introduction: overview and research rationale 1

1. The normative and theoretical underpinnings of ASEAN compliance behaviour 12
1.1 The rise of norms and substantive dispute settlement and monitoring mechanisms 12
1.1.1 The codification of regional norms and the rise of formal dispute settlement mechanisms 16
1.1.2 Transformation into a rules-based organisation through the ASEAN Charter 31
1.2 Theoretical underpinnings of ASEAN compliance behaviour 36
1.2.1 Understanding ASEAN's increasing desire for compliance as part of general state behaviour 36
1.2.2 Key factors that affect ASEAN's compliance in different situations 45
1.2.3 Courts and compliance 49
1.2.4 Monitoring mechanisms: the key to better compliance 55

2. Dispute settlement mechanisms in ASEAN 58
2.1 Phases in the development of ASEAN dispute settlement mechanisms 58
2.1.1 The early phase: promotion of regional peace and security 58
CONTENTS

4.1.2 Include rules of procedure for third-party fact-finding 165
4.1.3 Include DSMs in specific non-economic agreements 166
4.1.4 Amend the 2004 Protocol 166

4.2 Recommendations on compliance monitoring mechanisms 166
4.2.1 Establish priorities regarding monitoring 168
4.2.2 Clarify compliance monitoring roles in a Rule of Procedure 169
4.2.3 Establish compliance monitoring processes for pre-Charter instruments 172
4.2.4 Clarify ASEAN member states’ reporting requirements 173
4.2.5 Clarify procedures for cases of non-compliance 174
4.2.6 Review existing compliance monitoring mechanisms 175
4.2.7 Institute unambiguous ASEAN law-making practices 175
4.2.8 Strengthen civil institutional infrastructure at the national level 176

Executive summary 178
Appendices 195
Bibliography 281
Index 296