

INDEX

- acquisitions and mergers
  - hostile takeovers,
    - 37, 82, 100
  - Taiwan, 262
- agency conflict within dispersed
  - ownership structure, 9, 24, 28, 41, 56, 74, 97
- American Law Institute principles of corporate governance, 37
- ASEAN Economic Community (AEC), 6
- Asia
  - corporate governance,
    - see* corporate governance
  - cultural norms, 128
  - economic developments, 7*t. I.1*
  - economic integration, 6
  - economic rise, 4
  - economic rise after Financial Crisis, 5
  - independent directors, see independent directors in Asia
  - Japan's traditional board structure as role model, 1
  - jurisdictional surveys, 133
  - politico-economic diversity, 126
  - 'tiger economies', 5
- Asian Financial Crisis 1997
  - IMF reform programme in Korea, 184, 186
  - 'tiger economies' and, 5
- audit committees
  - European Union, 64
  - Hong Kong, 287
  - Korea, 185, 195
  - Taiwan, 245, 258
  - USA, 60
- Australia
  - about, 393
- Australian Securities Exchange Ltd (ASX)
  - first disclosure regime, 403
  - and Global Financial Crisis, 410
  - post-2003 disclosure regime, 407
- board of directors, 395
- Bosch Committee Report, 401
- HIH Insurance Ltd (HIH), collapse of, 434
- independent directors
  - about, 16
  - conclusions by current study, 428
  - case study, 434
  - definition of
    - independence, 414
  - development timeline, 497
  - research on, 422
- Bainbridge, Stephen, 42
- banking sector governance reform in Germany, 54
- Basel Committee on Banking Supervision
  - Principles for Enhancing Corporate Governance, 63, 70
- Berle-Means corporation, 9, 24, 41, 56

- board independence
  - academic criticism, 65
  - alternatives to independence, 80
  - challenges to, 73
  - concept of, 58, 88
  - criteria, 70
  - debate on, 352
  - dependence balanced with, 84
  - empirical evidence for
    - effectiveness, 76
  - functional understanding of, 82
  - improvement of, 83
  - improvement of board
    - performance, 68
  - independent directors, see independent directors
  - link with industry and ownership
    - structure, 73
  - regulatory impetus, 62
  - regulatory ‘obsession’ with, 66
  - varieties of, 89, 118, 119, 131
- board of directors
  - concept of board independence, 58
  - criticisms of board system
    - in US, 42
  - directors, see directors; independent directors
  - historical origins, 28
  - improvement of performance, 68
  - independence, see board independence
  - ‘monitoring model’, see ‘monitoring model’ of directors
  - regulatory impetus for
    - independence, 62
  - splitting of, 31
  - super-majority boards (USA), 1, 39, 57
- Cadbury Code of Best Practices (UK), 45
- Cadbury Report (UK), 44
- chartered companies, 28
- China
  - about, 13, 208
  - corporate governance
    - challenges, 209
  - double-board structure, 104
- economic success, 6
- government controlled companies (GCCs), 123
- independence of directors
  - analysis of regime, 232
  - controlling shareholder rights
    - restriction, 222
  - importance, 217
  - levels, 218
  - practice, 220
  - reform proposals, 221
  - regime for, 225
- independent directors
  - administrative penalties, 228, 453
  - adoption, 90, 208
  - appointment procedure
    - reform, 224
  - career backgrounds, 107
  - case study, 453
  - conclusions by current study, 239
  - development timeline, 488
  - effectiveness, 209
  - function, 111, 112, 113
  - independence, 217
  - introduction, 213
  - legal origins of regulatory regime, 121
  - liabilities, 227
  - mandatory legislation, 125
  - minority shareholder
    - nomination or appointment, 223
  - practice, 215
  - proportion of board, 108
  - remuneration, 235, 236, 237
  - stock exchange disciplinary
    - sanctions, 231
  - third party nomination or appointment, 222
  - US compared, 104
- Keda Group
  - CSRC penalties, 457
  - liability of independent
    - directors and statutory supervisors, 455
  - securities law violations by
    - insiders, 454

- listed company share structures, 210
- nomination committees, 222
- Securities Regulatory Commission, 208
- shareholders
  - controlling shareholder rights restriction, 222
  - minority shareholder nomination or appointment of directors, 223
- stock exchange disciplinary sanctions on directors, 231
- Combined Code (UK), 45
- comparative corporate law, implications from director diversity, 3
- 'comply-or-explain' model of corporate governance
  - European Union, 48
  - Germany, 52
  - Japan, 65, 122
  - Singapore, 107
  - United Kingdom, 2, 23, 44
- controlling shareholders, see corporate ownership
- corporate collapses and scandals
  - Australia, 434
  - China, 454
  - Japan, 79, 136, 143, 166, 167
  - Taiwan, 435
  - United States, 35, 38
- corporate governance
  - American Law Institute principles, 37
  - Asia developments, 7t. I.1
  - Basel Committee on Banking Supervision Principles, 63, 70
  - 'comply-or-explain' model, see 'comply-or-explain' model of corporate governance
  - convergence, 472
  - corporate governance indices, 131
  - European Commission Green Paper on Corporate Governance in Financial Institutions, 63
  - independent directors as 'good' governance measure, 96
  - in-depth jurisdiction-specific analysis, need for, 132
  - OECD Principles, 2, 22, 74
  - regulatory impetus for independence, 62
  - US reform in 1970s, 35
  - US reform post-2000, 38
- corporate governance code
  - Germany, 52, 71
  - Japan, 65
  - OECD, 75
  - Singapore, see Singapore
  - United Kingdom, 44, 45, 71, 74
- corporate ownership
  - and independent director variation, 119
  - Berle-Means corporation, 9, 24, 41, 56
  - controlling shareholders and independent directors, 98, 129
  - director-centric system (USA), 42
  - director-manager-centric system of company ownership, 42
  - dispersed ownership, see dispersed ownership
  - family firms
    - and director independence, 130
    - India, 358, 360
    - Singapore, 122, 326, 459, 460
  - government controlled companies (GCCs)
    - and director independence, 130
    - China, 123
    - Hong Kong, 123
    - India, 123, 359
  - link with board independence, 73
  - manager-centric system (USA), 41, 119
  - shareholder voting reform (Taiwan), 120
  - shareholder-centric system of company ownership (USA), 40
- cultural norms in Asia, 128

- directors
  - board, see board of directors
  - director-centric system of company ownership (USA), 42
  - director-manager-centric system of company ownership, 42
  - executive directors, rise of, 31
  - independent directors, see independent directors
  - inside directors in USA, 33
  - outside directors in Germany, 49
  - 'shirtsleeve' directors (USA), 33
- dispersed ownership
  - agency conflict with managers, 9, 24, 28, 41, 56, 74, 97
  - appointment of directors, 88
  - benefits of board independence for, 82
  - collective action problems, 39, 97
  - concentrated ownership
    - distinguished, 83
  - 'semi-dispersed' ownership, 43
- Dodd-Frank Act (USA), 39, 64
- Douglas, William O., 33
- Ease of Doing Business Index (World Bank), 96
- economic diversity in Asia, 126
- Eisenberg, Melvin, 36, 37
- Europe
  - joint-stock companies, 30
  - medieval guilds, 29
  - rise of independent directors, 43
- European Union
  - audit committees, 64
  - 'comply-or-explain' model of corporate governance, 48
- European Commission Green Paper on Corporate Governance in Financial Institutions, 63
- European Model Company Act (EMCA), 49
- independent directors
  - independence, 72
  - research on, 76, 77
  - rise, 2, 22, 23, 48
- family firms, see corporate ownership
- foreign investor influence, 123
- 'functional independence' concept, 82
- Germany
  - banking sector, 54
  - 'comply-or-explain' model of corporate governance, 52
- Corporate Governance Code, 52, 71
- employee representation on board, 85
- independent directors
  - competence requirement, 56
  - independence, 52, 71, 74, 81, 83
  - rise of, 49
- management board, 50
- outside directors, 49
- split boards structure, 32, 49
- supervisory board, 50
- Gilson, Ronald J., 69
- Global Financial Crisis
  - Australia, 410
  - Europe, 23
- independent director
  - shortcomings, 59
- United Kingdom, 46
- United States, 39, 64
- Gordon, Jeffrey, 70
- Greenbury Committee (UK), 45
- guilds, 28
- Hampel Committee (UK), 45
- Higgs Report (UK), 45
- Hong Kong
  - about, 14, 277
  - audit committees, 287
  - connected transactions and conflicts of interest regime, 289
- corporate law
  - reform, 292
  - regulatory regime, 278
- economic success, 5
- government controlled companies (GCCs), 123
- Hong Kong Stock Exchange, 277
- independent directors
  - adoption, 277
  - alternatives to, 305
  - analysis of regime, 298
  - audit committees, 287

- candidate quality, 302
- conclusions by current study, 308
- connected transactions and conflicts of interest, 289
- development timeline, 493
- duties, 286
- effectiveness, 300
- empirical evidence for effectiveness, 115
- function, 111
- identification of, 283
- legal origins of regulatory regime, 121
- legislation (text), 523
- minimum number requirement, 282, 300
- nomination committees, 289
- proportion of board, 109
- qualifications, 283
- regulatory regime, 281
- remuneration committees, 288
- studies on, 303
- US compared, 80
- Listing Rules
  - amendment, 292
  - independent directors rules, 281
- nomination committees, 289
- one-tier board structure, 106
- remuneration committees, 288
- hostile takeovers, see acquisitions and mergers
- independent directors
  - alternatives to independence, 80
  - American model, see United States
  - board independence, see board independence
  - board of directors, see board of directors
  - case studies discussion, 462
  - challenges to, 73
  - competence requirement, 56
  - and corporate governance convergence, 472
  - criticisms of, 59, 60
  - definition, 8, 24
  - empirical evidence for effectiveness, 76
  - European developments, 43
  - ‘functional independence’ concept, 82
  - and Global Financial Crisis, see Global Financial Crisis
  - historical origins, 28
  - in Asia, see independent directors in Asia
  - incentive structure, 79
  - independence criteria, 70
  - lessons from Western experience, 55
  - managerial-monitoring function, 97
  - OECD recommendations, 66
  - original concept, 1, 21, 22, 58, 59
  - purpose, 56
  - qualifications, 468
  - reasons for, 68
  - reliance on, 22
  - rise of, 1
  - theoretical framework, 58
  - UK developments, 43
  - US developments, 33
  - US model, see United States
- independent directors in Asia
  - adoption, 89
  - alternatives to, 124
  - and Anglo-American model equivalence assumption, 4
  - influence, 101
  - non-adoption, 102
  - thick conception, 104
  - thin conception, 102
- career backgrounds, 107
- case studies, 16, 431
- and comparative corporate law, 3
- and controlling shareholders, 98, 129
- convergence, 131
- and corporate governance indices, 131
- and cultural norms, 128
- current study content, 10
- current study geographic scope, 6
- current study lessons, 468

- independent directors in Asia (cont.)
  - development timelines, 485
  - divergence from Anglo-American model, 2, 95, 102, 476
  - diversity, 95, 102
  - diversity factors, 95, 118, 119
  - diversity implications, 131
  - diversity range, 95
  - empirical evidence for
    - effectiveness, 114
  - foreign investor influence, 123
  - forms, diversity of, 109
  - functions
    - diversity in actual functions, 114
    - diversity in expected functions, 110
    - expectations and practice as to, 102
  - future perspectives, 481
  - as 'good' corporate governance measure, 96
  - 'labels' of, 131
  - legal origins of regulatory regime, 121, 129
  - legislation (text), 499
  - national legislation relating to, text of, 499
  - non-use, 5
  - OECD report, 2, 22
  - origins in Anglo-American model, 97
  - proportion of board, 108
  - signalling role, 466
  - taxonomy, 89, see taxonomy of independent directors
  - theoretical framework, 19
  - varieties, 11, 93, 95, 131
- India
  - about, 15, 352
  - controlling shareholders
    - family groups, 360
    - family v non-family, 358
    - single v group, 357
    - state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 123, 359
  - economic success, 6
  - independence of directors
    - alternatives to independence, 387
    - corporate law reform, 372
    - features, 362
    - functional approach, 373
    - future prospects, 384
    - norms, 363
  - independent directors
    - adoption, 91
    - alternatives to, 387
    - appointment, 376, 385
    - balance of expertise and independence, 387
    - case study, 450
    - conclusions by current study, 388
    - current studies of, 369
    - development timeline, 496
    - empirical evidence for effectiveness, 366
    - function, 111
    - legal origins of regulatory regime, 121
    - legislation (text), 545
    - liability, 381
    - minority shareholder protection, 377
    - monitoring of specific transactions, 385
    - new regulator regime, 383
    - potential usefulness, 355
    - proportion of board, 109
    - qualifications, 374, 385
    - role, 377
    - role refinement, 386
    - stakeholder protection, 378
    - US compared, 80, 107
  - Maruti Suzuki India Limited (MSIL), independent director effectiveness, 450
  - nomination committees, 376
  - one-tier board structure, 106
  - state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 123, 359
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)
  - Korea reform programme, 126, 177, 184, 186
  - research on independent directors, 78
- Italy, director independence, 84

- Japan
  - about, 12, 135
  - board structures
    - Asahi Glass (traditional hybrid system), 444
    - background to comparison, 438
    - composition, 155
    - gradual approach to reform, 137
    - Sony ('American-style' system), 443
    - Toshiba ('American-style' hybrid system), 447
    - Toyota (traditional Japanese system), 441
    - traditional structure success, 1, 4
    - types, 105
  - Companies Act amendment (2014)
    - empirical evidence for impact, 151
    - government approach to reform, 166
    - mandatory outside director proposal, 136, 141, 150, 164, 169
    - political dynamics of reforms, 160
    - reasons for government intervention, 167
  - Companies Act Working Group
    - decision by unanimity, 162
    - discussions, 160
    - Olympus Scandal and, 166
    - opposition to mandatory outside director requirement, 164
  - corporate governance
    - 'comply-or-explain' model, 65, 122
    - reform post-2000, 137
  - Corporate Governance Code, 65
  - cross-shareholding networks, 124
  - economic success, 4
  - independent directors
    - absence, 80
    - adoption, 64, 135
    - adoption of American model, 103
    - appointment, 145
    - career backgrounds, 108
    - case study, 438
    - conclusions by current study, 173
    - conclusions from empirical studies, 156
    - development timeline, 485
    - effect on firm performance, 151
    - empirical evidence for effectiveness, 115, 151
    - function, 112, 113, 116
    - legal origins of regulatory regime, 121, 122
    - legislation (text), 499
    - mandatory outside director proposal, 141, 150, 164, 169
    - non-use, 4, 92
    - political dynamics of development, 127
    - progress
      - analysis and future of, 171
    - proportion of board, 109
    - resistance to adoption, 135
    - Stock Exchange support, 136, 139
    - US compared, 105, 107
  - joint-stock companies, 31
  - kansayaku* (statutory auditors)
    - independence, 80
    - strengthening of system, 135
    - supervisory role, 106, 124
  - Keidanren* (Japan Business Federation)
    - bargaining power, 163
    - opposition to mandatory outside director requirement, 161, 164
  - monitoring boards, 137
  - Olympus Scandal, 79, 136, 143, 166, 167
  - reforms after Companies Act amendment, 144
  - shareholding structures
    - changes, 145
    - cross-shareholding networks, 124
  - joint-stock companies, 29

- Keidanren* (Japan Business Federation), see Japan
- Korea
 about, 176
 Asian Financial Crisis 1997, 184
 audit committees, 195
 board structures, 106, 182
 corporate governance, 179
 corporate law, 178
 corporate sector composition, 179
 economic success, 5
 IMF reform programme, 126, 177, 184, 186
 independent directors
   adoption, 90
   audit committees, 195
   career backgrounds, 201
   conclusions by current study, 206
   current rules, 190
   development timeline, 487
   empirical evidence for effectiveness, 115
   function, 111, 112, 116
   historical context, 184, 188
   IMF reform programme requirement, 177, 185 impact on board monitoring, 198 impact on board practice, 196 independence requirements, 191
   legal origins of regulatory regime, 121
   legislation (text), 504
   mandatory legislation, 125, 177
   minimum number requirement, 190
   nomination committees, 195
   numbers of, 198
   proportion of board, 109
   role, 177
   US compared, 80, 107
   nomination committees, 195
   pyramid shareholding structures, 124
- Kraakman, Reinier, 69
- legal origins of regulatory regimes, 121
- management board (Germany), 50
- manager agency conflict with dispersed shareholders, 9, 24, 28, 41, 56, 74, 97
- manager-centric system of company ownership (USA), 41, 119
- medieval guilds, 28
- mergers. See acquisitions and mergers
- ‘monitoring model’ of directors
   adoption, 42–43, 137
   criticisms, 42–43
   rise, 36
   success, 37
- Nader, Ralph, 36
- New York Stock Exchange requirements for independent directors, 69, 71
- nomination committees
   China, 222
   Hong Kong, 289
   independent directors’ role, 464
   India, 376
   Korea, 195
   Taiwan, 258
- OECD
   Asian board nomination policies report, 2, 22
   Code of Governance, 75
   corporate governance principles, 2, 22, 74
   independent director recommendations, 66
- Olympus Scandal, see Japan
- outside directors, see independent directors; independent directors in Asia
- ownership, see corporate ownership
- Penn Central collapse (USA), 35
- political diversity in Asia, 126
- regulation
   impetus for board independence, 62
   ‘obsession’ with board independence, 66 regulatory impetus for board independence, 62

- regulatory ‘obsession’ with board independence, 66
- strategic corporate regulatory design, 321
- strategic regulatory signalling, 322, 340, 350
- risk committees (USA), 64
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act (USA), 39, 60
- shareholders, see corporate ownership
- signalling
  - by independent directors, 466
  - strategic regulatory signalling, 322, 340, 350
- Singapore
  - about, 15, 311
  - China Sky Chemical Fibre Co Ltd, 460
  - ‘comply-or-explain’ model of corporate governance, 107
  - Corporate Governance Code 2012
    - background, 313, 340
    - ‘independence’ defined, 342
    - strategic regulatory design, 345
  - corporate regulatory design, 321, 345
  - cultural norms, influence of, 128
  - economic success, 5
  - family firms, 122, 326, 459, 460
  - government-linked companies, 123, 125, 331, 458
  - independent directors
    - abandonment of American model, 313, 340
    - adoption, 90
    - adoption of American model, 103, 311, 325
    - adoption of UK model, 107
    - American model in
      - strategic regulatory design, 321
    - career backgrounds, 108
    - case study, 458
    - continuance of American model, 318
    - Corporate Governance Code 2012, 340
    - and cultural norms, 128
    - development timeline, 494
    - distinctiveness of Singapore regime, 349
    - family firms, 122, 326
    - function, 112, 113, 117
    - government-linked companies, 331
    - import of American model, 317
    - influence of American model, 314
    - legal origins of regulatory regime, 121
    - proportion of board, 109
    - US compared, 80
  - Minco, independent director case study, 460
  - one-tier board structure, 106
  - S-chip companies, 459, 460
  - strategic regulatory signalling, 322, 340, 350
  - Smith, Adam, 31
  - South Korea, see Korea
  - split boards structure (Germany), 49
  - stakeholder capitalism in USA, 34
  - state-owned enterprises (SOEs), see corporate ownership
  - strategic corporate regulatory design, see regulation
  - super-majority boards (USA), 1, 39, 57
  - supervisory board (Germany), 50
  - Taiwan
    - ABIT Computer Corporation (ABIT), collapse of
      - background, 435
      - role of independent directors and supervisors, 437
    - about, 241
    - audit committees, 245
    - board of directors
      - one-tier structure, 125
      - structure reform, 242, 243
    - corporate governance
      - foreign influences, 241
      - multiple structures, 256
      - regime, 243
    - corporate ownership, 259
    - directors’ liability
      - breaches of fiduciary duties, 265

- Taiwan (cont.)
- directors and officers liability
    - insurance, 268
  - false financial statements, 267
  - economic success, 5
  - independent directors
    - adoption, 241
    - career backgrounds, 254
    - case study, 435
    - conclusions by current study, 275
    - definition of independence, 271
    - development timeline, 490
    - empirical evidence for effectiveness, 248
    - executive remuneration
      - control, 261
    - function, 111, 112
    - in public companies, 248
    - legal origins of regulatory regime, 121
    - liabilities, 265
    - mandatory legislation, 125
    - merger and acquisition
      - control, 262
    - non-use, 92
    - proportion of board, 109
    - role, 260
    - self-dealing control, 264
    - social ties with controlling shareholders, 273
    - US compared, 80, 107
    - nomination committees, 258
    - shareholder voting reform, 120

Taiwan

    - board of directors
      - structure reform, 106
    - takeovers, see acquisitions and mergers
    - taxonomy of independent directors
      - about, 89
      - creation of, 129
      - diversity factors, 119
      - diversity implications, 131
      - diversity range, 95
      - foundation for, 118
      - 'labels', meaning of, 131

United Kingdom

    - Cadbury Code of Best Practices, 45
    - Cadbury Report, 44
    - Combined Code, 45
    - Combined Code (UK), 99
    - 'comply-or-explain' model of corporate governance, 2, 23, 44
    - Corporate Governance Code, 44, 45, 71, 74
    - corporate governance regulation, 44
    - executive directors, 31
    - Global Financial Crisis, 46
    - Greenbury Committee, 45
    - Hampel Committee, 45
    - Higgs Report, 45
    - hostile takeovers, 38, 100
    - independent directors
      - adoption of American model, 99
      - appointment, 85
      - competence requirement, 56
      - independence, 71, 74, 82, 83, 86
      - research on, 77
      - rise, 2, 22, 23, 43
    - joint-stock companies, 29, 31
    - medieval guilds, 29
    - monitoring board model, 44
    - non-executive directors, 32
    - shareholding structures, 43
    - US corporate governance compared, 43, 46, 47, 82, 100
    - Walker Report, 46, 62

United States

    - agency capitalism, 40
    - Berle-Means corporation, 9, 24, 41, 56
    - controlling shareholders, 98
    - corporate governance
      - American Law Institute principles, 37
      - reform in 1970s, 35
      - reform post-2000, 38
    - corporate scandals, 35, 38
    - criticisms of board system, 42
    - director-centric system of company ownership, 42
    - dispersed ownership, 9, 24, 28, 41, 56, 74, 97

- Dodd-Frank Act, 39, 64
- Global Financial Crisis, 39, 64
- hostile takeovers, 37, 100
- independent directors
  - adoption overseas, 312
  - and controlling shareholders, 98
  - developments, 33
  - early legislation, 33
  - independence, 57, 86
  - managerial-monitoring function, 97
  - New York Stock Exchange requirements, 69, 71
  - origin in US, 1, 22, 58, 59
  - proportion of board, 108
  - purpose, 56
  - research on, 76
  - rise of, 1, 23
  - thick conception, 104
  - thin conception, 102
- inside directors, 33
- joint-stock companies, 30
- lessons from independent director development, 55
- manager-centric system of company ownership, 41, 119
- ‘monitoring model’ of directors, 36, 37, 42–43, 97
- New York Stock Exchange
  - requirements
    - for independent directors, 69, 71
  - non-executive directors, 32
  - Penn Central collapse, 35
  - risk committees, 64
  - Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 39, 60
  - shareholders
    - controlling shareholders and independent directors, 98
    - shareholder-centric system of company ownership, 40
  - ‘shirtsleeve’ directors, 33
  - stakeholder capitalism, 34
  - super-majority boards, 1, 39, 57
  - UK corporate governance
    - compared, 43, 46, 47, 82, 100
  - Watergate scandal, 35
- varieties of independent directors, 11, 93, 95, 131
- Walker Report (UK), 46, 62
- Watergate scandal (USA), 35
- World Bank, Ease of Doing Business Index, 96