QUICK REVIEW
Quick reviews begin each lesson in a fun, student-centred way. They are short activities which revise previously taught language and are designed to last about five or ten minutes. For more information on Reviewing and Recycling, see p.23.

Listening and Speaking

1  a  Focus students on Lisa and Tom in the photo. Elicit where they are (at a conference in a hotel). CD1  -  12 Play the recording. Students listen and read the conversation. I.
   PRONUNCIATION: Play the recording again, pausing after each phrase/sentence for students to practise. Check students understand the meaning of How are you? and I'm fine, and I'm OK, thanks.
   b  Demonstrate the conversation with a few confident students. Then ask students to practise the conversation with four other students, either by moving around the room or by talking to students sitting near them. Students should use their own names. Encourage students to do this without looking at their books if possible.

2  a  CD1  -  13 Focus students on Paolo, Bianca and Toshi in the photo. Play the recording. Students listen and read the conversation 2. Check students understand that Paolo is introducing Bianca to Toshi.
   PRONUNCIATION: Play the recording again, pausing after each phrase/sentence for students to practise. Check students understand that they can say either You too. or Nice to meet you too. You can also teach And you. as another possible response.
   b  Demonstrate the conversation with a few confident students. Then put students into groups and ask them to practise introducing one another. Alternatively, students can practise this conversation by moving around the room.

EXTRA IDEA
- If students know each other well, give them false identities of famous people on cards before they practise the conversation.

Vocabulary and Speaking

Countries and nationalities

3  a  Pre-teach country. Students then work on their own and tick the countries they know in the first column.

Check students know where each country is. Point out that all countries and nationalities are spelt with a capital letter. Also point out the use of the article the with the USA and the UK. The USA is often called the US, the States or America. Note that the UK refers to England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, whereas Great Britain or Britain refers to England, Scotland and Wales only.

b  Write on the board I'm from Brazil. I'm ... Elicit the missing word (Brazilian). Use this example to establish the difference between country and nationality.

Focus on the examples in the table in 3a. Students then fill in the missing letters in the nationalities column.

Students check answers in SB p128. Check they have noticed the spelling pattern in each section.

Point out that the third column in the table in 3a is a list of the languages spoken in these countries. Drill these words with the class.

Students take turns to tell each other where they are from and what nationality they are.

If your students are all from the same country, ask the questions to the whole class. In a multinational class, ask students to move around the room and find students from three different countries and three different nationalities.

EXTRA IDEA
- If students know each other well, give them false identities of famous people on cards before they practise the conversation.

Students work in pairs, student A and student B. Student B closes his/her book. Student A says a country from the list in 3a and student B says the nationality. After a few minutes, students swap roles.
Reading and Listening a Write on the board Where are you from? I'm from (the UK). Drill the question with the class, then practise with individual students.

Focus students on the rest of the people in the photo and pre-teach receptionist.

CD1 Play the recording. Students listen and fill in the countries in conversations 3, 4 and 5. Play the recording again if necessary.

b Students compare their answers in pairs.

EXTRA IDEA

Ask questions about conversations 3, 4 and 5 to check comprehension, for example conversation 3: What's his name? Where's he from? conversation 4: What are their names? What room are they in?

HELP WITH GRAMMAR

be (1): positive and Wh-questions

Help with Grammar sections help students to examine examples of language and discover the rules of meaning, form and use for themselves. Students should usually do the exercises on their own or in pairs, then check their answers in the Language Summaries. You can then check the main points with the whole class as necessary. In some shorter Help with sections, the Language Summary reference is given at the end of the section for reference only. In these cases we suggest students check their answers with you, rather than in the Language Summary. For more information on the face2face approach to Grammar, see p.20.

a-c Students do the exercises on their own or in pairs, then check in SB p129. Check answers with the class.

- a 're 3's 4's 5's 6're 7're
- Highlight that 'm is the contracted form of am, etc., and that contractions are very common in spoken English and informal writing. Encourage students always to use contracted forms when speaking.

- Check students understand the subject pronouns I, you, he, she, it, we, they and point out that you is both singular and plural in English.

- Highlight which part of be (am/are/is) goes with each subject pronoun.

- b 2's 3's 4's 5 are 6 are

- Highlight the word order in questions: question word + am/are/is+ subject + ... , and that 's in questions 2, 3 and 4 is the contracted form of is.

- Highlight that we don't contract are to 're in questions: Where are you from? not Where're you from?

EXTRA IDEA

Students practise the conversations in pairs. While they are working, monitor and check students pronounce the contractions correctly.

HELP WITH GRAMMAR

Subject pronouns and possessive adjectives

Students do the exercise on their own or in pairs. Check answers with the class.

- The possessive adjectives are: my, your, his, her, its, our, their.

- We use subject pronouns with verbs: I'm from Germany. They're both from Egypt, etc.

- We use possessive adjectives with nouns: my name, his book, etc.

- Point out that you and your are both singular and plural in English, and that we always use a capital I for the subject pronoun.

- Also highlight that verbs in English always need a subject: It's my book. not Is my book.

a Students work on their own and choose the correct words to complete the conversations. Encourage students to look at the word after each option. If the word is a noun, they should choose the possessive adjective.

b Students check their answers in pairs.
Point out that in phone numbers the digits are said individually and are grouped together in ‘chunks’ separated by pauses.

Students take turns to ask and answer questions about the missing information, then complete their cards. Remind them not to look at their partner’s cards.

c Finally, students check their answers and spelling with their partner.

Students write eight sentences saying where they, their teacher and two other students in the class come from and what nationality they are.

Put students into pairs, student A and student B. Student A turns to SB p104 and student B turns to SB p109.

Focus students on the example questions above the cards. Point out to students that when they ask or answer a question, they must use the correct subject pronoun, he or she, or possessive adjective (his or her).

Extra Practice 1A SB p115
Self-study DVD-ROM Lesson 1A
Workbook Lesson 1A p5

Quick review This activity reviews numbers 0–20. Put students in pairs, A and B. Students take turns to count from 0 to 20, student A starting with 0, then student B saying 1, etc. Check pronunciation of nought /nɔ/, three /θri/ and eight /eit/, and the stress on the -teen words (thirteen, fourteen, etc.). Remind students that we can say zero or nought for 0. When they have all got to 20, tell them to count backwards from 20 to 0 in the same way.

Focus students on the pictures A–D. Pre-teach phone number and point out the tip on how to say 0 and double digits in phone numbers.

Students work in pairs and see how many of the numbers they can say. While they are working, monitor and check pronunciation.

Play the recording. Students listen and check.

Play the recording again. Students listen and repeat the numbers. Check students pause between numbers at the appropriate places.

Drill the questions in the speech bubbles and point out that we often say It’s … before saying our phone number.

Students ask three other people for their phone numbers. They can invent numbers if they prefer.

Students should check they have written each number down correctly before moving on to the next person.

Students work in pairs and take turns to tell each other the numbers they wrote down in 2b.

Focus students on the example questions above the cards. Point out to students that when they ask or answer a question, they must use the correct subject pronoun, he or she, or possessive adjective (his or her).

Put students into pairs, student A and student B. Student A turns to SB p104 and student B turns to SB p109.

Focus students on the example questions above the cards. Point out to students that when they ask or answer a question, they must use the correct subject pronoun, he or she, or possessive adjective (his or her).

Focus students on the examples above the cards. Point out to students that when they ask or answer a question, they must use the correct subject pronoun, he or she, or possessive adjective (his or her).

Vocabulary and Speaking

Jobs

a Pre-teach the word job. Students work in pairs and say which of the jobs they know, then do the exercise in Vocabulary 1.2 SB p128.

Check answers with the whole class. Point out that a waiter is for men and a waitress is for women (although actor is now often used for both men and women).

Draw students’ attention to the first TIP and point out that only the main stress is shown in the vocabulary sections and Language Summaries. We feel this is the simplest and most effective way to make sure students put the main stress in the right place. For example, the main stress in sales assistant is on sales, not on the second syllable of assistant (which is also stressed). Highlight that we always use an article with jobs: I'm a doctor, not I'm doctor.

Draw students’ attention to the second TIP and point out that unemployed and retired are adjectives, and so don’t take a a or an. We say I'm unemployed, *not I am unemployed*.

b CD1 19 Pronunciation Play the recording. Students listen and repeat the words/phrases. Check students stress the words/phrases correctly. Highlight the pronunciation of manager /mændər, musician /mjuzɪʃən, lawyer /lɔrɪ, and builder /bɪldər.

a and an

Help with Vocabulary sections helps students to explore and understand how vocabulary works, and often focus on aspects of lexical grammar. Students should usually do the exercises on their own or in pairs, then check in the Language Summaries. Check the main points with the class as necessary. For more information on the face2face approach to Vocabulary, see p20.

4 Pre-teach consonant and vowel. Students work on their own and complete the rules by referring to the vocabulary in 3a. Check answers with the class.

- We use a with nouns that begin with a consonant sound.
- We use an with nouns that begin with a vowel sound.

5 Students work in pairs. Check answers with the class.

1 a 2 a 3 an 4 a 5 an 6 a

6 a Teach and drill the questions What's his job? and What's her job? and the answer He/She's an …. Students look at the pictures in 7a SB p128. Ask students to cover the words.

Put students into pairs. Students take turns to point to a picture and ask their partner what the person’s job is. Remind students of the phrase I can’t remember.

b Tell students that What’s your job? and What do you do? have the same meaning. Model and drill both questions. Students ask each other what their jobs are. Help students with any job words they need at this stage. Ask students to share interesting answers with the class.

Listening and Speaking

a Focus students on the photo and the lesson title. Ask where the people are (at the conference in the coffee break).

CD1 20 Play the recording. Students read, listen and fill in the gaps. Play the recording again if necessary. Check answers with the class.

1 engineer 2 doctor 3 musician 4 police officer 5 accountant

b Students work on their own or in pairs and match conversations 1–3 in 7a to the groups of people A–C in the photo. Check answers with the class.

EXTRA IDEA

- Students write questions about the conversations for example conversation 1: Are they from Canada? What does Jane do? conversation 2: Is Sally famous? conversation 3: Is she from Mexico? Then they ask and answer their questions in pairs.

HELP WITH GRAMMAR

be (2): negative, yes/no questions and short answers a–d Students do the exercises on their own or in pairs, then check in class as necessary SB p129. Check answers with the class.

- b I'm 2 aren't 3 isn't
- We make negatives of be with not. Not comes after the verb.
- Point out that aren’t is the contracted form of are not and isn’t is the contracted form of is not. Encourage students always to use the contracted forms in speaking and writing.
- We can say you've/well they aren't or you're nothing're not they're not, and he's/it isn't or he's not/she's not/it's not.
- c I'm 2 Is 3 Are; aren't
- Highlight the inverted word order in yes/no questions: he + subject + ….
- Point out that we don’t usually just answer these questions with Yes or No as this can sound impolite.
32
Real World asking for personal details; asking people to repeat things Vocabulary numbers 20–100
● We don’t use the contracted form in positive short answers: Yes, I am. not Yes, I’m.
● We don’t usually use the uncontracted form in negative short answers: No, I’m not. not No, I am not.
● For negative short answers we can say: No, you/ we/ they aren’t. or No, you’re not/ we’re not/ they’re not, and No, he/she/ it isn’t. or No, he’s not/ she’s not/ it’s not.

9 CD1 21 PRONUNCIATION Play the recording (SB p155). Students listen and repeat the sentences. Check students are pronouncing the contracted forms correctly. Students can also follow the stressed words in the Audio Script (SB p155).

10 Focus students on the photo and on the example question and answer in the speech bubbles. Students work in pairs to ask and answer about the people in the photo.

11 a Write I’m from (the UK). on the board (or another country if you are from the UK). Ask if this is true for you. Elicit the negative sentence I’m not from (your country). Students do the exercise on their own.

b Students compare sentences in groups. Ask students to share interesting sentences with the class.

b Check students understand that five of the pieces of information in pink are correct and five are wrong. Students work with their partners and take turns to ask and answer their questions. Students are not allowed to look at their partner’s guest list. Encourage students to use the correct short answers. Students should correct any wrong information on their version of the conference guest list.

c Finally, students work in pairs with another student from the same group and check their answers.

EXTRA IDEA
With a class of complete beginners, ask students to check their yes/no questions with a student from the same group before they work with their partner in 12b.

12 a Put students into pairs, student A and student B. Student As turn to SB p104 and student Bs turn to SB p109.

b Check students understand that five of the pieces of information in pink are correct and five are wrong. Students work with their partners and take turns to ask and answer their questions. Students are not allowed to look at their partner’s guest list. Encourage students to use the correct short answers. Students should correct any wrong information on their version of the conference guest list.

c Finally, students work in pairs with another student from the same group and check their answers.

● With a class of complete beginners, ask students to check their yes/no questions with a student from the same group before they work with their partner in 12b.

WRITING Students write a short conversation based on the conversations in 7a. The conversation should include information about their name, where they come from and what they do. Students write one conversation about themselves and one conversation about a partner, then swap papers and check the information.

FURTHER PRACTICE

Quick review
This activity reviews jobs. Students do the activity in pairs. Set a time limit of two minutes. Find out which pair has the most words and write them on the board. Ask students to spell any difficult words. Find out if other pairs have any different words and add them to the list.

What number is it?

a Start with a quick review of numbers 0–20. Students work in pairs and try to say the numbers, then check in VOCABULARY 1.4 SB p128.

Model and drill the numbers. Pay particular attention to the pronunciation of thirty /ˈɜːti/ and forty /ˈfɔrə/.
Hiring a car

HELP WITH LISTENING  Sentence stress (1)

Help with Listening sections are designed to help students understand natural spoken English. They often focus on phonological aspects of spoken English which make listening problematic for students. For more information on the face2face approach to listening, and the rationale behind the Help with Listening syllabus, see p.20.

This Help with Listening section introduces students to sentence stress and highlights that we stress the important words.

Focus students on the photo of Paul. Ask where he is (at a car hire office).

CD1  25 Play the recording. Students listen and notice the sentence stress in the questions.

Check students can hear that these words/syllables are said louder than other words/syllables. Use sentences 1–8 to highlight that we stress the important words in sentences (the words that carry the meaning).

Play the recording again. Students listen for the pronunciation of your /jɜː/ and and /ænd/.

Use sentences 1–8 to show how the sound of unstressed words often changes in sentences and that they are not pronounced as students might expect. Point out that the alternative way to say these words is called ‘weak forms’.

You may wish to highlight the schwa /ə/ in the weak forms of your and and. Note that the schwa is dealt with in detail in the Help with Pronunciation section at the end of unit 2, and that weak forms in general are dealt with at various points in the Help with Listening syllabus.

Focus students again on the photo of Paul. Ask where he is (at a car hire office).

CD1  26 Focus students on the sentences in 5 Play the video or audio recording (SB p.155).

Note that all the Real World videos can be found on the Teacher’s DVD (not the Self-Study DVD-ROM). For more information on using the Teacher’s DVD in class, see p.10. Students watch or listen to Paul’s conversation at the car hire office and tick the sentences in 5 when they hear them.

Focus students on the car hire form, then play the video or audio recording again. Students complete the form for Paul while they watch or listen to the conversation. Play the video or audio recording again if necessary.

Students check answers in pairs. Check answers with the class.

WHAT’S HER ADDRESS?

Focus students on the photo of Emma and Emma’s things 1–3. Students match the words to the things.

Check answers with the class.

Model and drill the words, paying particular attention to the pronunciation of business /ˈbiznis/.

1 a business card  2 a credit card  3 a mobile phone

Students work in pairs and take turns to say a number between 1 and 100. Ask a confident student to say the next three numbers.

Students work in pairs and take turns to say a number between 1 and 100. Their partners then say the next three numbers.

CD1  24 PRONUNCIATION Play the recording. Students listen and repeat the numbers. Check they are stressing the numbers correctly.

Demonstrate the activity by saying a number between 1 and 100. Ask a confident student to say the next three numbers.

Students work in pairs and take turns to say a number between 1 and 100. Their partners then say the next three numbers.

WHAT’S HER ADDRESS?

Focus students on the photo of Emma and Emma’s things 1–3. Students match the words to the things.

Check answers with the class.

Model and drill the words, paying particular attention to the pronunciation of business /ˈbiznis/.

1 a business card  2 a credit card  3 a mobile phone

Students work in pairs and take turns to say a number between 1 and 100. Ask a confident student to say the next three numbers.

Students work in pairs and take turns to say a number between 1 and 100. Their partners then say the next three numbers.
REAL WORLD
Asking people to repeat things

Real World sections introduce students to situational and functional language that they will need in real-world situations. Students should usually do the exercises on their own or in pairs, then check their answers in the Language Summaries.

a Set the context and establish the meaning of asking people to repeat things by saying something too quickly for the students to understand.

b Establish that intonation is very important in English and that the correct intonation pattern can help students sound polite. Say the sentences in turn with rising and flat intonation to demonstrate how a rising intonation makes you sound polite, and flat intonation makes you sound impolite or bored.

1 sorry 2 Could; again 3 repeat; please

VOCABULARY AND SKILLS

 loses

Plurals

Pre-teach plural, man, woman, child and person.

Students do 2a on their own or in pairs by referring to the words in the box.

Focus students on the picture and the title of the lesson. Establish the meaning of lost property. Ask students where the lost property room is (in the conference hotel).

Students work on their own or in pairs and match the words to the items in the picture. Check answers with the class.

Model and drill the words. Pay particular attention to the pronunciation of watches /'wɔtʃz/, radio /'reɪdiəʊ/, suitcases /sju:tɪˈkæz/, dresses /dresɪz/ and teeth /tiːθz/.

wallets 15 an MP3 player 17 a mobile 13 watches 14 an umbrella 10 bags 6 shoes 8 a camera 1 coats 3 a bike/bicycle 11 a radio 4

suitcases 9 a laptop 7 dresses 2 ID cards 16 false teeth 3

HELP WITH VOCABULARY

Plurals

To make most nouns plural we add -s: bags, wallets, suitcases, etc.

If the noun ends in -ch, -sh, -s, -ss, -x or -z, we add -es: watches, dresses, etc.

If the noun ends in consonant + y, we change -y to -ies: diaries, etc.

A few common nouns have irregular plural forms: men, women, children, people, teeth, etc.

Persons does exist but it is very formal. Point out that we use a plural verb form after people. We say British people are friendly, not British people is friendly.
Play the recording. Students listen and repeat the singular and plural words. Pay particular attention to the -es /ez/ endings in suitcases, watches and dresses, and the pronunciation of women /’wimin/, children /’tʃildrən/ and teeth /tθ/.

Students do the exercise on their own, then check their answers in pairs. Check answers with the class. Ask students how they think these plural forms are pronounced. Drill the plurals with the class, focusing on the extra /ɪ/ syllables in waitresses and addresses.

Tell students to cover the vocabulary box in 1 and the table in 2a. Say the number of two or three items in the picture and ask students to say what they are. Use the speech bubbles to remind students of the difference between It’s and They’re for singular and plural nouns.

Students work in pairs and take turns to test each other on the items in the picture.

Focus on the pictures A–D. Tell students that Eva works at the hotel. Explain that she isn’t an native English speaker and so she is asking how to say things in English.

Students work on their own and fill in the gaps in the conversations. Check answers with the class.

HELP WITH VOCABULARY

Students fill in the gaps in the table by referring back to pictures A–D in 6. Check answers with the class. Check the table with the class (see the table in VOCABULARY 1.7 in SB p129).

HELP WITH PRONUNCIATION

Word stress and syllables

Help with Pronunciation sections are designed to help students with aspects of pronunciation that are often problematic for learners of English. For tips on how to help students with pronunciation, see p22.

Focus students on the words and point out the word stress. Check students remember syllable by asking how many syllables there are in the words British and Japan (two syllables). Ask students how many syllables bicycle, computer and seventeen have (three syllables).

Play the recording. Check that students understand which syllable in each word is stressed. Play the recording again. Students listen and repeat the words. Check that students stress the correct syllable in each word.

Put students into pairs. Write new words on the board and mark the stress.

Write new words on the board and mark the stress. Check answers with the class. Check the table with the class (see the table in VOCABULARY 1.7 in SB p129).

• We use this and these to indicate something that is close to us,
• We use that and those to indicate something that is further away from us,
• We use this and that to refer to singular nouns and these and those to refer to plural nouns,
• Point out that we often use over there with that and those if something is a long way from us: What’s that over there!

Students do the exercise on their own.

Students compare words in pairs. While they are working, move around the room and help students with any problems. Finally, ask students to say one or two of their words. Check they stress the correct syllable in each word and praise good pronunciation.
Extra Practice and Progress Portfolio

The Extra Practice and Progress Portfolio sections provide further controlled practice of the language taught in the unit. This can be done in class, or students can do the exercises on their own for homework. There are exercises for each lesson (1A, 1B, etc.), which can also be done at the end of each lesson as ‘fillers’. For tips on Reviewing and Recycling, see p.23. Here are some ideas for exploiting the Extra Practice and Progress Portfolio section in class.

Make it a competition
- Ask students to do individual vocabulary exercises (word searches, anagrams, missing letters, etc.) in pairs or groups. Give students a time limit of two or three minutes. The pair or group with the correct answers wins. Alternatively, put students into pairs and ask them to complete the whole Extra Practice section. When checking their answers, give one point for each correct answer. The pair with the most points wins. You may wish to give the winners a small prize at the end of the lesson.

Word stress
- After any vocabulary exercise, ask students to mark the stress on the words. You can check the answers on the board, or students can check their answers in the Language Summaries.

Role play
- After students have completed a gap fill in a conversation, put students into pairs. Ask one student to be A and the other student to be B. Students can then role-play the conversation in pairs, then swap roles. You can also ask them to memorise the conversation, close their books and role-play the conversation again.

Personalisation
- Some exercises ask students to make questions with you. After checking the questions, put students in pairs. Ask each other their questions and give their own answers.

Extension
- After completing an exercise, ask students to write similar sentences about themselves, where they live, their family, etc. Students can then compare sentences in pairs and check their partner’s work.

continue2learn

There is a continue2learn section at the end of each unit. The Vocabulary, Grammar and Real World section highlights where students can review and practise the language they have learned in the unit. The Reading and Writing section directs students to the Reading and Writing Portfolio in the Elementary Workbook. This Portfolio contains 12 stand-alone reading and writing lessons that can be done either in class or at home. For more on the face2face approach to writing, see p.20.

- Focus students on the continue2learn section on SB p.15. Tell students that this section shows where they can practise the language from the unit.
- Ask students to turn to Extra Practice 1 and Progress Portfolio 1 on SB p.115. Students can do these exercises in class or for homework. For more information on this section, see p.9.
- Ask students to turn to Language Summary 1 on SB p.128. Remind students that the Language Summaries contain all the key language from the unit. If you are planning to give your students a Progress Test next class (see p.242), tell the class that the test will only contain language that is included in the Language Summary for the unit.
- If your students have the Elementary Workbook, ask them to look at WB p.5. Point out that there are practice exercises for each lesson in the Student’s Book.
- Point out that the face2face Self-study DVD-ROM contains practice exercises, drills, word lists, grammar references and tests. Encourage students to use this DVD-ROM at home to practise the language they have learned in the unit.
- If your students have the Elementary Workbook, you can ask them to look at the Reading and Writing Portfolio 1 WB p.64. You can either do this lesson in class, or ask students to do it at home.

information on the CEFR, see p14–p19.

Students work through the list of I can ... statements on their own and tick the things they feel they can do. They can refer to Language
Summary 1 if they wish.

Students can also work in pairs or groups and compare which statements they have ticked.

Students work on their own or in pairs or groups and decide which areas they need to study again.
Encourage students to use the Self-study DVD-ROM lessons 1A–D to help them improve in these areas. For photocopiable instructions for the Self-study DVD-ROM, see p11–p13.

There is also further practice on all key language taught in the Student’s Book in the face2face
