The Asian Journal of International Law is a publication of the Asian Society of International Law. It publishes peer-reviewed scholarly articles (8,000 to 12,000 words excluding footnotes) and book reviews (up to 1,000 words including footnotes) on public and private international law. The regional focus of the Journal is broadly conceived. Some articles may focus specifically on Asian issues; others will bring one of the many Asian perspectives to bear on issues of global concern. Still others will be of more general interest to scholars, practitioners, and policy-makers located in or working on Asia.

The Journal is published in English as a matter of practical convenience rather than political endorsement. English-language reviews of books in other languages are particularly welcomed. Abstracts of selected articles in other Asian languages will be posted on the Journal’s website.

The Journal is produced for the Asian Society of International Law by the National University of Singapore Faculty of Law and published by Cambridge University Press. For further information, visit www.AsianJIL.org.

1 SUBMISSIONS

Articles, views, and book reviews should be submitted in Microsoft Word via the Journal’s ScholarOne website. Please read the guidelines below BEFORE submitting your work. Once your work is ready for publication, please click here to go to the submission site http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ajl.

All articles are double-blind peer-reviewed. All submissions must be original and should not be under consideration for publication in any other forum.

2 PRESENTATION

2.1 Font

The abstract, indented quotations, and footnotes should be 10 point Times New Roman. All other text should be 12 point Times New Roman.

2.2 Titles

Contributions should have a title which is both concise and descriptive. Titles to articles should be centred in bold, italicised, and have title capitals.

2.3 Abstract

All articles should be accompanied by an abstract of no more than 150 words in 10 point Times New Roman; not italicised; and indented both left and right by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

2.4 Name and Autobiographical Notes

Contributors are requested to supply their full name in whatever convention they personally prefer, not necessarily adopting the first name followed by last name convention. Where a name is indicated as the author of an article or view, or in a citation, the surname/family name shall appear in all capitals. For example: Alan TAN, OWADA Hisashi, XUE Hanqin, B.S. CHIMNI. It is not necessary to capitalize the family name when referring to an individual in the text.

Autobiographical details should appear as the first footnote of each contribution [as an asterisk (*)], and include as separate sentences:

(i) the contributor’s professional qualification(s);
(ii) (in parentheses) the institution(s) at which they were earned or jurisdictions in which they apply;
(iii) current title and institutional affiliation.

Acknowledgements (if any) may also be included.

* Advocate & Solicitor (Singapore). Professor, Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore. I wish to thank A, B, and C for comments on an earlier draft.

2.5 Headings
The number of levels of headings should not normally exceed four.

- First-level headings should be centred. Type in large capitals. Precede by capitalized roman numerals, e.g., I, II, etc. Please note that it is the Journal’s style NOT to have the heading of “Introduction”.

  I. FIRST-LEVEL HEADING IN LARGE CAPITALS

- Second-level headings should be centred. Type with initial capitals for main words only and italicize. Preceded by capital letters, e.g., A, B, etc.

  A. Second-Level Heading in Italics

- Third-level headings should be flush left. Type with title capitals for the first word and proper names only and italicize. Precede by Arabic numbering, e.g., 1, 2, etc.

  1. Third-level heading in italics
• Fourth-level headings should be flush left. Type with title capitals for the first word and proper names only and italicize. Precede by lower-case letters in parentheses, e.g., (a), (b), etc. End with a colon and run into text.

(a)  Fourth-level headings in italics: [Run into text…]

2.6 Quotations

Quotations should be clearly indicated and it is vital that they are accurate.

• Where letters or words are replaced or inserted within a quotation, the replacement or inserted letters or words should be indicated in square brackets “[ ]”.

• Where words, phrases, or sentences are omitted within a quotation, the omission should be indicated by ellipses “…” . No indication of punctuation before or after the ellipsis is necessary.

• Where the quotation will run to more than forty words it should be typed as a separate paragraph in 10 point Times New Roman, left-indented and right-indented by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

• Double quotation marks should be inserted at the beginning and end of every quotation, but not when the entire quotation is indented.

• Single quotation marks should be used at the beginning and end of quotations within quotations enclosed by double quotation marks.

• Quotations of more than forty words within footnotes should be typed as a separate paragraph in 10 point Times New Roman, left-indented and right-indented by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

2.7 Paragraphs

The first paragraph of new sections should be flush left. Subsequent paragraphs should be left-indented by 0.25” or 0.5 cm.

2.8 Numbering and/or Bullets

Numbered lists should be in 12 point Times New Roman, left-indented by 0.25” or 0.5 cm, and in the format that follows:

1.  Point 1
2.  Point 2
3.  Point 3

Similarly, for bulleted lists:

• Point 1
• Point 2
2.9 Use of Capital Letters

Where reference is made to a specific office, organization, or body then capital letters should be used. Where the reference is general or non-specific then lower-case letters should be used. For example: “A court must decide the case before it. The International Court of Justice is no exception. The Court cannot reinterpret…”

Titles of cited works will be capitalized in “title case”. The following should therefore be capitalized: (i) the first word; (ii) if there is a subtitle, the first word of the subtitle; (iii) all other words in the title except articles (“the”, “a”, “an”), conjunctions (“and”, “but”, “or”, etc.), and prepositions of fewer than five letters (“on”, “with”, but “Amongst”, “Between”).

Where a title includes hyphenated words, the first element is always capitalized. The second element is capitalized if it is a proper noun or adjective, or if the words have equal weight. Thus “Anti-American”, “Multi-Polar”, and “Down-Time”, but “Re-imagining”, “Follow-up”, “Co-existence”.

2.10 Abbreviations and Contractions

A period should be used in conjunction with all abbreviations and contractions except in the case of proper names. Please also note that there should not be a gap between the periods. For example, “Company” is abbreviated to “Co.”, “exempli gratia” is abbreviated to “e.g.”, “free trade agreements” is abbreviated to “F.T.A.s”, and “Limited” is contracted to “Ltd.”, whereas the “United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization” is abbreviated to “UNESCO”, the “International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights” is abbreviated to “ICCPR”, and the “Reciprocal Enforcement of Commonwealth Judgments Act” is abbreviated to “RECJA”.

2.11 Spelling

British (as opposed to American) English will be used, with -ize rather than -ise. Thus “organization”, “prioritize”, etc. But note that some words must be spelled with -ise (advise, compromise, exercise, revise, supervise, etc.).

2.12 Foreign Words

Foreign words not currently absorbed into the English language should be italicized.

2.13 Lists

Lists of three or more items will use a comma before the last item. Thus “A, B, or C”; “D, E, and F” (not “A, B or C”).

2.14 Numbers

Number ranges use the shortest pronounceable form. Thus 48–9, 523–34, 1023–123, 203–4, but 10–11, 112–13.

2.15 Diagrams

Charges apply for all colour figures that appear in the print version of the journal. At the time of submission, contributors should clearly state whether their figures should appear in colour.
in the online version only, or whether they should appear in colour online and in the print version. There is no charge for including colour figures in the online version of the Journal but it must be clear that colour is needed to enhance the meaning of the figure, rather than simply being for aesthetic purposes. If you request colour figures in the printed version, you will be contacted by CCC-Rightslink who are acting on our behalf to collect Author Charges. Please follow their instructions in order to avoid any delay in the publication of your article.

2.16 Book Reviews

Book reviews have a 1000-word limit (including footnotes) and should be in 10 point Times New Roman. Footnotes should also be kept to a minimum. Reviewers should include all relevant information relating to the book reviewed. It should include the title of the book reviewed in italics, followed by the edition of the book being reviewed in parentheses “( )” if more than one edition has been published. This should be followed by the name(s) of the author(s)/editor(s) with surname/family name in all capitals.

The following publication information should also be included: place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, total number of pages inclusive of the index (separate subtotals for preliminary matter, the tables and main text should be provided where they are separately numbered), the type of binding (softcover/hardcover), and the price of the book.

For example:
Reform and Development of Private International Law: Essays in Honour of Sir Peter North edited by James FAWCETT.
Principles of Public International Law (6th ed.)
by Ian BROWNlie.

The byline should be flush right and the reviewer’s name be preceded by “reviewed by” in italics. The reviewer’s name should appear in the convention he/she prefers and the surname/family name typed in all capitals. For example: Alan TAN, OWADA Hisashi, XUE Hanqin, B.S. CHIMNI.

All book reviews should be submitted to the Book Review Editor, Prof Shirley Scott, and Associate Book Review Editor, Ms Lucia Oriana at AsianJILReviews@unsw.edu.au

The Constitutionalization of International Law
by Jan KLABBERS, Anne PETERS, and Geir ULFSTEIN.
