

Ancient Mesoamerica

Ancient Mesoamerica will publish primarily in English, but will also feature contributions in Spanish. All papers will have Spanish (or English) summaries as a regular feature to enhance scholarly communication. When preparing your contribution, please remember that Ancient Mesoamerica unifies several different fields from archaeology to ethnohistory, art history, and beyond. We also wish to reach nonspecialist readers. While some degree of technical language is often proper and necessary, jargon can always be avoided. Therefore, authors should strive for clear, lucid prose. The Editor will gladly discuss topics or contents of manuscripts prior to submission.

Manuscript Submission

All manuscripts should be submitted via Ancient Mesoamerica's online submission system, which can be found at:

<https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/atm>

An abstract of 150 words or less and a longer summary (1–2 double-spaced pages) of the paper in Spanish should be included. We do not permit the use of footnotes and endnotes except in very rare instances. Critical information should be included in the text. The order of manuscript elements should be as follows: title page, abstract, main text, Spanish summary, acknowledgments, references, tables, and figures. Tables and figures should be numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals.

Open Access Policies

Please visit Open Access Publishing at Cambridge for information on our open access policies, compliance with major funding bodies, and guidelines on depositing your manuscript in an institutional repository.

Peer Review Procedures

Each contribution will be reviewed by at least three, and some times as many as five, outside readers who will make recommendations to the Editors concerning revision of the manuscript, acceptance or rejection. Reviewers may choose to remain anonymous; in any case, The all reviewers' comments will be passed on to the authors.

Editorial Style

In general, follow American Antiquity style. The SAA Style Guide can be downloaded from <http://www.saa.org/Publications/StyleGuide/styFrame.html>. The treatment of accents differs from that in the SAA Style Guide, in that Ancient Mesoamerica uses accents only for names and place names of European origin, e.g. Monte Albán, El Baúl, but Teotihuacan, Mayapan. However, quoted and cited material should reflect the spellings in the original source (see reference to the Johnston paper below), and personal names should of course follow accepted spelling. Contributors are advised to peruse published volumes of the journal before submission to familiarize themselves with the style and format of the journal, including the treatment of subheadings, captions, and tables.

Citation and Reference Style

References should generally follow American Antiquity style (see above). Please note that “in press” or “in preparation” references should not be used. A date should be provided for all references, and references should clearly state where readers may obtain copies of unpublished manuscripts. Authors’ full first names, rather than initials, should be provided (note that this differs from American Antiquity style). Page numbers should be provided for all citations of specific data. Final Submission

After a contribution is accepted, the Editor will require a manuscript file in a common digital format, such as Rich Text Format (RTF), Word, or WordPerfect. Best practices for the production of digital manuscripts should be followed. Illustration files should be provided in ready-to-print, high-quality digital formats, according to the following basic guidelines:

Line drawings (including stippled drawings):

1200 dots per inch (dpi), bitmap (1-bit) color mode, TIF format

Alternative for line drawings:

Vector-based images may be submitted in Illustrator, EPS, or PDF format

Halftone drawings and photographs:

300 dpi, 8-bit grayscale color mode, TIF format

Dots per inch (dpi) values given are for images at final, printed size. In most cases, the size of image files will require that manuscript and images be written to CD or DVD media for final submission.

If you request colour figures in the printed version, you will be contacted by CCC-Rightslink who are acting on our behalf to collect Author Charges. Please follow their instructions in order to avoid any delay in the publication of your article.

Copyright and Offprints Policy

Contributors must complete the Transfer of Copyright Agreement form, available from the Editors, before their paper can be transmitted for production. Authors will receive PDF offprints from the Publisher, with the opportunity to order print offprints and complete copies of the issue at favorable rates.
