

Bulletin of SOAS

BSOAS spans all periods, from ancient times to the present day, of the cultures and civilizations of the Near and Middle East, South Asia, Central Asia, East Asia, South-East Asia and Africa. It publishes articles and shorter communications which are both scholarly and readable on the anthropology, history, religions and philosophies, literatures and languages, music, arts and archaeology, law and related studies of all these regions.

Article submission

Articles should be sent by email, preferably in .pdf format, to: bulletin@soas.ac.uk. Alternatively authors may mail two hard copies to: The Editorial Office, Bulletin of SOAS, SOAS, Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London WC1H 0XG. All submissions should be double-spaced, including notes and references, which should be given at the end of the article.

Submission of an article implies that it has not previously been published or accepted for publication elsewhere. Submissions are refereed by specialists in the field. The maximum length for a paper is 12,000 words including notes and bibliography; longer submissions will be returned to the author to be cut. Please supply an abstract of not more than 150 words summarizing the contents and findings of the paper. Spelling is British English.

References. The preferred style of reference is citation by author and date, e.g. Robinson (2000: 80) including a complete reference list giving full bibliographical details as follows:

Robinson, Chase F. 2000. Empire and Élites after the Muslim Conquest: The Transformation of Northern Mesopotamia. (Cambridge Studies in Islamic Civilization.) Cambridge: Cambridge University Press.

A clear system of abbreviations or other critical apparatus should be used for archival and manuscript sources.

The following system of references will also be accepted: a first footnote citation giving full bibliographical data, e.g. M. Boyce, Zoroastrianism: Its Antiquity and Constant Vigour (Columbia Lectures on Iranian Studies, 7, Costa Mesa: Mazda, 1992), 187. Thereafter by short title; op. cit. should be avoided and ibid. used only to refer to the reference immediately preceding.

Titles of books and journals are italicized with initial capitals. Citation by volume and part is in the following form: BSOAS 60/1, 1997, 231–9. Titles of articles are roman within double quotation marks.

Illustrations and scripts: line drawings, graphs, etc., should be supplied as good quality originals for scanning, or electronically. Authors are responsible for clearing copyright permissions and providing the acknowledgement line. Photos and non-roman scripts, including Chinese and Japanese characters, will only be accepted where they are essential to the text. Further details on non-roman scripts and characters are sent out on acceptance of papers; usually we are able to work with Unicode-compatible fonts.

Transliteration: diacritical marks must be given in full and consistently on all italicized transcriptions. More detailed guidelines on the romanization of various language groups are available from the editorial office.

Proofs

First proofs of articles and reviews are sent to authors as a .pdf email attachment and should be returned by the deadline given. Corrections should be limited to factual and typographical errors.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright to the School of Oriental and African Studies. This ensures that requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled efficiently and consistently and will also allow the article to be as widely disseminated as possible. In assigning copyright authors may use their own material in other publications provided that the journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication.

Offprints

Authors who return the form sent out with proofs will receive 25 offprints of their article free of charge and will have the opportunity to order further copies if they so wish. Authors will be able to download a .pdf file of their article on publication.
