

Journal of Smoking Cessation

A journal of the Australian Association of Smoking Cessation Professionals (AASCP)

Journal of Smoking Cessation is the world's only publication devoted exclusively to the treatment of smoking cessation. The journal is targeted specifically to the area of smoking cessation at the "grass-roots" level, focusing on observational studies that have practical implications for those assisting smokers to quit. It is a high quality peer-reviewed publication with an international editorial board that has itself wide experience in the field of smoking cessation.

The editor encourages submissions of case studies, letters to the editor and short studies. A regular feature of the journal is a section entitled 'What the Research Says ... In One Line'. This feature enables busy clinicians to view a wide variety of publications and reviews about research. All authors should clearly state their funding sources, conflicts of interest and pharmaceutical industry support. This journal will not publish articles supported by funding from the tobacco industry.

Submission

All manuscripts should be submitted online via our new manuscript submission and tracking site, <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/josc>. Full instructions for electronic submission are available directly from this site. To facilitate rapid reviewing, communications for peer review will be electronic and authors will need to supply a current e-mail address when registering to use the system.

All articles are refereed. Papers submitted to the journal must not previously have been published nor submitted for publication to any other journal.

Articles may be submitted with a maximum of 8 author names listed per manuscript.

All submissions must be accompanied by the appropriate Statements as outlined below.

Format

Papers should be submitted via e-mail in Word or RTF format.

Cover letter

During submission you will be asked to provide a cover letter. Use this to explain why your manuscript should be published in the journal including a statement on what we already know about this topic and importantly, what this paper adds to what is already known. Authors may elaborate on any issues relating to our editorial policies in the Journal of Smoking Cessation in this letter.

Allowed paper types and word count limits

Editorial: 1500

Format

Papers should be submitted in Word or RTF format.

Abstract (max 250 words) (using the following sections):

Introduction - the context and purpose of the study;

Aims: what did the study intend to do

Methods - how the study was performed and analysis/statistical tests used;

Results/Findings - the main findings;

Conclusions - brief summary and potential implications. Please minimize the use of abbreviations and do not cite references in the abstract.

Trial registration - if reporting results of a controlled health care intervention; report randomized controlled trials follow the CONSORT extension for abstracts.

Critical appraisal tools – We suggest authors refer to appraisal tools, where applicable, to ensure you have incorporated all the necessary information in the reporting of studies. A repository of critical appraisal tools can be found at:

<http://www.equator-network.org/resource-centre/library-of-health-research-reporting/reporting-guidelines/>

Under the title of the article only the names and affiliations of the authors appear. Qualifications, present appointments, and postal and e-mail addresses should be given in a separate section on the front page labelled 'Address for correspondence'. A word count and suggested running head of no more than 50 characters including spaces should also be provided.

This should be the only section within the submission that contains information that could allow a reviewer to identify the author/s of the paper, and should be uploaded separately to the main text.

Acknowledgements

You may acknowledge individuals or organisations that provided advice, support (non-financial). Formal financial support and funding should be listed in the following section.

Financial Support

Please provide details of the sources of financial support for all authors, including grant numbers. For example, "This work was supported by the Medical research Council (grant number XXXXXXXX)". Multiple grant numbers should be separated by a comma and space, and where research was funded by more than one agency the different agencies should be separated by a semi-colon, with "and before the final funder. Grants held by different authors should be identified as belonging to individual authors by the authors' initials. For example, "This work was supported by the Wellcome Trust (A.B., grant numbers XXXX, YYYY), (C.D., grant number ZZZZ); the Natural Environment Research Council (E.F., grant number FFFF); and the National Institutes of Health (A.B., grant number GGGG), (E.F., grant number HHHH).

Where no specific funding has been provided for research, please provide the following statement: "This research received no specific grant from any funding agency, commercial or not-for-profit sectors."

Conflict of Interest

Please provide details of all known financial, professional and personal relationships with the potential to bias the work. Where no known conflicts of interest exist, please include the following statement: "None."

Ethical Standards

Where research involves human and/or animal experimentation, the following statements should be included (as applicable): "The authors assert that all procedures contributing to this work comply with the ethical standards of the relevant national and institutional committees on human experimentation and with the Helsinki Declaration of 1975, as revised in 2008." and "The authors assert that all procedures contributing to this work comply with the ethical standards of the relevant national and institutional guides on the care and use of laboratory animals."

Style

Contributions should follow the format and style described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed.). Spelling and punctuation should conform to The Macquarie Dictionary (4th ed.). For matters of style not covered in these two publications the Style Manual for Authors, Editors and Printers (6th ed.) should be consulted.

Documents should be double-spaced with minimum margins of 20 mm on the left and 35 mm on the right. Uncommon abbreviations and acronyms should be explained. Do not use underlining except to indicate italics. Full stops should not be used in abbreviations or acronyms (e.g., NSW).

Use single quotation marks to introduce a word or phrase used as an ironic comment, as slang, or which has been coined. Use quotation marks the first time the word or phrase is used; do not use them again. Do not use quotation marks to introduce a technical or key term. Instead, italicise the term.

Do not use any footnotes. Endnotes should be kept to a minimum and listed at the end of the text under the centred heading 'Endnotes'.

Tables should be at the end of the manuscript, not in the main text. Their approximate positions in the text should be indicated by the words, 'Insert Table X here'. Horizontal and vertical lines should be used sparingly.

To ensure optimum quality, please follow these guidelines when submitting artwork via e-mail or disk:

- Photographs, graphs and figures should be prepared to the correct size (max. width up to 120 mm) and each one supplied as an individual file, separate to the manuscript Word file. Include placement instructions in the Word document, such as 'Insert Figure 1 here'.
- Figures created in Microsoft Word or Powerpoint need to be saved as PDFs.
- Figures created in a drawing program such as Adobe Illustrator, CorelDRAW, Freehand, Microsoft Publisher or similar should be saved as EPS (encapsulated postscript) files.
- Figures created in Photoshop or with other photographic software should be saved as line art (artwork that has only text and lines, no shades of grey or blocks of colour) with a minimum resolution of 600 dpi and in TIF format. Minimum resolution for scanned graphics is 300 dpi for halftone work (e.g. photographs) and 600 dpi for line art, and these should also be in TIF format.
- Manuscripts that contain equations created with LaTeX or similar specialist software need to be supplied as a PDF file as well as a Microsoft Word document.
- Prior to sending artwork, the separate files of figures, graphs, illustrations, etc. should be printed by the author to test that the fonts have been embedded correctly and there is no distortion in the artwork (e.g., lines and fonts reproduce cleanly with no jagged lines or fuzzy edges), as any such faults cannot be corrected by the publisher.
- Preferred media for delivery: e-mail as attachments, Macintosh or PC floppy disk, Macintosh or PC Zip disk, CD-ROM. If your artwork does not meet these guidelines, it may be returned to you.

References and citations should follow the format and style described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed.).

Examples of citations are:

The theory was first propounded in 1970 (Larsen, 1971). Larsen (1971) was the first to propound the theory.

Examples of references are:

Authors are expected to check the accuracy of all references and citations in the manuscript before submission.

While manuscripts are subject to editing, the journal does not hold itself responsible for statements made by contributors.

Open Access

Authors have the option to publish their paper under a fully Open Access agreement, upon payment of a one-off Article Processing Charge. In this case, the final published Version of Record will be made freely available to all in perpetuity under a creative commons license, enabling its re-use and re-distribution. This Open Access option is only offered to authors upon acceptance of an article for publication.

Authors choosing the Open Access option are required to complete the Open Access License to Publish form, provided below. More information about Open Access, including the current Article Processing Charge, can be found on our website.

Copyright Forms

Upon acceptance of your paper, you will be required to fill in and return (to Cambridge Production) a copyright form, to be found on the Journal website at http://journals.cambridge.org/images/fileUpload/documents/JSC\_ctf.pdf

If you opt to publish your article via Open Access, you will be required to fill in and return the alternative copyright form, to be found on the Journal website at http://journals.cambridge.org/images/fileUpload/documents/JSC\_ctf\_oa.pdf

Author Language Services

Cambridge recommends that authors have their manuscripts checked by an English language native speaker before submission; this will ensure that submissions are judged at peer review exclusively on academic merit. We list a number of third-party services specialising in language editing and / or translation, and suggest that authors contact as appropriate. Use of any of these services is voluntary, and at the author's own expense.

Posting your Article on PubMed Central

If you have published your article via Open Access within JSC, the publisher will post your article on PubMed Central if the work was funded by relevant funders such as NIH, Wellcome and several others, detailed here (Method B on PMC submission guidelines). However, in all other cases, it is the responsibility of the author to post their article on PMC if they have received any NIH awards. Please click here to determine applicability.

Under Cambridge terms and conditions, you may submit the Accepted Manuscript version of your article to PubMed Central 6 months after the article has first been published online.

You may not post the published version (Version of Record) of your article on PubMed Central, unless you have published the article via Open Access. You may post the abstract only (in PDF or HTML format) no sooner than your article has been published online.

Please click here to follow NIH instructions on how to submit your accepted manuscript to PubMed Central, and follow Method C instructions.
