

Journal of Pension Economics and Finance

Contributions

Contributions are welcomed from all countries. They should be written in English. The journal publishes original academic research papers on the economics and finance of pensions, retirement income and ageing. Papers from actuarial science, mathematics, statistics and other disciplines are welcome as long as there is a clear economics or finance context. Examples of subjects the journal will cover include: pensions and labour markets, the macro and micro economics of pensions, pension fund management, regulation of pensions, valuation of pension liabilities, corporate governance, political economy issues, financial planning for retirement and marketing of private pensions.

Manuscripts

All manuscripts must be submitted online via the website:

<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jpef>

Detailed instructions for submitting your manuscript online can be found at the submission website by clicking on the 'Instructions and Forms' link in the top right of the screen; and then clicking on the 'Author Submission Instructions' icon on the following page.

The Editor will acknowledge receipt of the manuscript, provide it with a manuscript reference number and assign it to reviewers. The reference number of the manuscript should be quoted in all correspondence with PEF Office and Publisher.

Manuscripts ordinarily should not exceed 35 pages in length. Manuscripts will be reviewed by the editors and by referees chosen by the editors.

Manuscripts are accepted for review on the understanding that the same work has not been and will not be published nor is presently submitted elsewhere. While under editorial review, it is the responsibility of the authors to keep the Editors informed about submissions, publication plans, and actual publication of related research or abstracts thereof in other outlets, including letters, journals, review publications, journals in other disciplines, conference proceedings, and published dissertations. It is further understood that all persons listed as authors have given their approval for the submission of the paper and that any person cited as a source of personal communication has approved such citation; written authorization may be required at the Editor's discretion. Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to publish material for which they do not own the copyright. Articles and other material published in Journal of Pension Economics and Finance represent the opinions of the authors and should not be construed to reflect the opinions of the Editors or their employers or the Publisher.

The LaTeX class file for the journal is available for download from our FTP site at <ftp://ftp.cup.cam.ac.uk/pub/texarchive/journals/latex/pef-cls/>

authors are encouraged to use it. If you experience any problems with the class file please contact our TeX support line at texsupport@techbooks.com

The journal does not print colour images, so all figures should be made black and white for reproduction.

Layout of manuscripts

Manuscripts should begin with an abstract of not more than 300 words. Every published paper is accompanied by a capsule review. A capsule review differs from an abstract in that provides a non-technical overview of the papers main conclusions to make it accessible to a broad audience. A capsule review can be written after acceptance.

References

The Harvard system of references should be used. Citations are by author's surname and year of publication, and may stand either as a noun phrase (e.g., "Diamond (1965)") or as a parenthetical note (e.g., "(Diamond 1965)"). List references at the end of the text in alphabetical order. A typical entry is: Diamond, P. (1965) National Debt in a Neoclassical Debt Model, Journal of Political Economy, 55 (December): 1126-1150.

Offprints

25 offprints of each article will be supplied free to each first named author. Extra offprints may be purchased from the publisher if ordered at proof stage.
