

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-01190-7 - Native Title in Australia: An Ethnographic Perspective

Peter Sutton

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of Figures	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	xiii
Map	xxii
Chapter 1: Kinds of Rights in Country	1
Introduction	1
Degrees of connection versus kinds of rights	4
Core and contingent rights	12
The basic characteristics of Aboriginal country as property	21
Use of country, access to country	23
The right to exclude	25
What are rights?	26
Coexistent rights: the case of pastoralism	32
Chapter 2: Local Organisation Before the Land Claims Era	38
Howitt and Fison	39
Radcliffe-Brown	44
Contra Radcliffe-Brown	49

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-01190-7 - Native Title in Australia: An Ethnographic Perspective

Peter Sutton

Table of Contents

More information

viii

CONTENTS

Chapter 3: Aboriginal Country Groups	54
Indigenous country groups and the community of native title holders	54
Estates and estate sets	66
Linguistic identities and territories	75
Chapter 4: Atomism versus Collectivism	85
Meetings and fieldwork: starting research on a claim	87
Slicing the pie	88
The regional basis of local entitlements	89
Regions and ‘nations’	90
The anthropology of Aboriginal regions	92
Nineteenth- and early twentieth-century regional studies	94
The rejection of ‘nations’	97
Aboriginal ‘communities’	98
The assigning of titles	109
Chapter 5: Underlying and Proximate Customary Titles	111
Aboriginal Law and laws	112
Underlying titles and proximate entitlements	116
How autonomous can local land-owning groups or individuals be?	130
Chapter 6: The System Question	135
Introduction	135
The system question	137
The fluidity problem: The Western Desert versus the Rest?	140
Something of the times	144
Darwin fringe-dwellers	146
Rules versus action: the case of prescriptive marriage systems	148
North East Arnhem Land: patrifilial groups	151
No corporations versus corporations	153
Production, reproduction, repetition	158
The long view	159

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-01190-7 - Native Title in Australia: An Ethnographic Perspective

Peter Sutton

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS | ix

Chapter 7: Kinship, Filiation and Aboriginal Land Tenure	173
The kinship polity	173
Basic conventions and terminology	179
Technical terminology	187
Chapter 8: Families of Polity	206
Introduction	206
Post-classical Aboriginal social organisation	209
More on cognatic descent groups	219
Notes	232
References	253
Index	274