

Contents

Foreword	page vii
Introduction	1
1 CRIMINALITY AND ITS SOCIAL MILIEU	6
The marginal milieus and criminality	6
Crime and punishment	12
Security and the town police	21
Legislation against vagabondage	29
2 THE SOURCES	44
The Châtelet	47
Seigneurial jurisdictions	53
Parlement and the royal chancellery	62
3 THE SOCIAL TOPOGRAPHY OF PARIS	66
The topography of poverty	68
The housing problem	78
The centres of crime	82
The sites of prostitution	87
4 THE CRIMINAL AND HIS GROUP	95
The thief	95
Criminal ties	109
5 CLERKS AND BOHEMIANS	135
The tonsure	136
The student milieu	147
Jongleurs and performers	159
6 CHARITY AND BEGGARS	167
The hospitals of Paris	169
Charity and its recipients	179
The beggars	192

vi	Contents
7	THE WORLD OF PROSTITUTION	211
	Legislation and social attitudes towards prostitution	212
	The prostitutes: categories and way of life	215
	Pimps and procuresses	228
	The world of prostitution and marginality	239
8	THE WORLD OF WORK AND THE WORLD OF CRIME	242
	Criminality and the world of work	243
	The role of migrations	253
	Traders and criminals	263
9	THE BOUNDARIES OF THE MARGINAL WORLD	270
	The general opinion: of no use to anyone	270
	Ways of life: factors which unite	276
	The crowd in social movements	288
	Conclusion	300
	Note on the original documents used for this work	310
	Index of persons and places	313