

CONTENTS

Abbreviated references to Schenker's writings	page ix
Preface	xi
ARCHIVAL STUDIES
Levels of understanding: an introduction to Schenker's Nachlass Robert Kosovsky	3
When "Freier Satz" was part of Kontrapunkt : a preliminary report Hedi Siegel	12
Schenker's unpublished work with the music of Johannes Brahms Allen Cadwallader and William Pastille	26
ANALYTICAL STUDIES
C. P. E. Bach and the fine art of transposition Wayne Petty	49
Comedy and structure in Haydn's symphonies L. Poundie Burstein	67
"Symphonic breadth": structural style in Mozart's symphonies David Gagné	82
"Structural momentum" and closure in Chopin's Nocturne Op. 9, No. 2 John Rink	109
On the first movement of Sibelius's Fourth Symphony: a Schenkerian view Edward Laufer	127
Voice leading as drama in Wozzeck Arthur Maisel	160
Sequential expansion and Handelian phrase rhythm Channan Willner	192
Strange dimensions: regularity and irregularity in deep levels of rhythmic reduction Frank Samarotto	222
Diachronic transformation in a Schenkerian context: Brahms's Haydn Variations Timothy Jackson	239
	vii

Bass-line articulations of the Urlinie Eric Wen	276
Structure as foreground: “das Drama des Ursatzes” Carl Schachter	298
Index	315