

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02915-5 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 7 - Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
(1a. 33-43)

T. C. O'Brien

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xiii Editorial Notes

xv Introduction

QUESTION 33. THE FATHER

- 3 Article 1. whether we may say that the Father is principle of the Son or of the Holy Spirit
- 7 Article 2. whether the name 'Father' is properly the name of a divine person
- 11 Article 3. whether in divinity the name 'Father' as a personal term has priority
- 17 Article 4. whether to be unbegotten is proper to the Father

QUESTION 34. THE NAME 'WORD'

- 25 Article 1. whether in the godhead 'Word' is a personal name
- 33 Article 2. whether 'Word' is a name proper to the Son
- 37 Article 3. whether a reference to creatures is implied in the name 'Word'

QUESTION 35. THE NAME 'IMAGE'

- 43 Article 1. whether in the godhead 'Image' is a personal name
- 45 Article 2. whether 'Image' is a name proper to the Son

QUESTION 36. THE NAME 'HOLY SPIRIT'

- 51 Article 1. whether this name 'Holy Spirit' is proper to any divine person
- 55 Article 2. whether the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Son
- 65 Article 3. whether the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father through the Son
- 71 Article 4. whether Father and Son are the one principle of the Holy Spirit

QUESTION 37. THE NAME 'LOVE'

- 79 Article 1. whether 'Love' is a name proper to the Holy Spirit
- 85 Article 2. whether Father and Son love each other by the Holy Spirit

QUESTION 38. THE NAME 'GIFT'

- 91 Article 1. whether 'Gift' is a personal name
- 95 Article 2. whether 'Gift' is a name proper to the Holy Spirit

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02915-5 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 7 - Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
(1a. 33-43)

T. C. O'Brien

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

QUESTION 39. THE PERSONS COMPARED TO THE ESSENCE

- 99 Article 1. whether in the godhead essence is the same as person 103 Article 2. whether we should say that the three persons are of one
 essence
 107 Article 3. whether essential names are predicated in the singular of the three persons 111 Article 4. whether essential, concrete names can have a person as their supposition
 119 Article 5. whether essential names, abstract in form, can have a person as their supposition
 123 Article 6. whether the persons can be predicates of concrete, essential names
 125 Article 7. whether appropriation of essential names to the persons is permissible
 129 Article 8. whether the holy doctors have correctly assigned essential attributes to the persons

QUESTION 40. THE PERSONS IN COMPARISON TO RELATIONS OR PROPERTIES

- 141 Article 1. whether relation and person are the same thing
 145 Article 2. whether the distinction of persons is through relations 149 Article 3. whether the hypostases still remain when by thought we isolate the relations from the persons 155 Article 4. whether the properties presuppose the characteristic acts

QUESTION 41. THE PERSONS COMPARED TO THE CHARACTERISTIC ACTS

- 159 Article 1. whether characteristic acts ought to be attributed to the persons
 163 Article 2. whether the characteristic acts are voluntary
 167 Article 3. whether the characteristic acts issue from some source 175 Article 4. whether in the divinity there is a power with respect to the characteristic acts
 177 Article 5. whether the power to beget means relation and not
 essence
 181 Article 6. whether more than one person can be the term of a characteristic act

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02915-5 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 7 - Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
(1a. 33-43)

T. C. O'Brien

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

QUESTION 42. THE DIVINE PERSONS' CO-EQUALITY AND LIKENESS

- 185 Article 1. whether co-equality has anything to do with the divinity, 191 Article 2. whether a person proceeding is co-eternal with his principle, the Son with the Father for example
197 Article 3. whether among the divine persons there is an order of nature
199 Article 4. whether the Son is the Father's equal in majesty
203 Article 5. whether the Son is present in the Father and vice versa
205 Article 6. whether the Son is the Father's equal in power

QUESTION 43. THE MISSION OF THE DIVINE PERSONS

- 209 Article 1. whether any divine person admits of being sent 211 Article 2. whether a mission is eternal or solely temporal 215 Article 3. whether the invisible mission of a divine person goes only with sanctifying grace 219 Article 4. whether the Father can rightly be said to be sent 221 Article 5. whether it belongs to the Son to be sent invisibly
225 Article 6. whether there is an unseen mission to all who share in grace
229 Article 7. whether it belongs to the Holy Spirit to be sent visibly 235 Article 8. whether a divine person is sent only by the one from whom he proceeds eternally

APPENDICES

- 239 1. The Divine Names
252 2. The Holy Spirit: Love
259 3. The Trinity, Mystery for Salvation
- 267 Glossary
275 Index