

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02920-9 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 12 - Human Intelligence,
(1a. 84-89)

Paul T. Durbin

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

- xi General Preface
- xix Editorial Notes
- xxi Introduction

QUESTION 84. HOW THE SOUL, WHILE JOINED TO THE BODY, KNOWS MATERIAL THINGS

- 5 Article 1. does the soul know material things through the intellect?
- 11 Article 2. does the soul know material things through its own essence?
- 17 Article 3. does the soul understand everything by means of innate species natural to it?
- 23 Article 4. do species come to the soul through the influence of subsistent immaterial forms?
- 29 Article 5. does the intellectual soul know material things in the divine ideas?
- 33 Article 6. is intellectual knowledge taken from sensible things?
- 39 Article 7. can the intellect, using only the species it has and not turning to sense images, actually understand?
- 43 Article 8. is intellectual discernment hindered when the senses are bound?

QUESTION 85. THE MODE AND ORDER OF UNDERSTANDING

- 49 Article 1. does our intellect understand material, corporeal realities by abstraction from sense images?
- 57 Article 2. do species abstracted from sense images stand in relation to our intellect as what is understood?
- 65 Article 3. do things that are more universal have priority in our intellectual knowledge?
- 71 Article 4. can we understand more than one thing at a time?
- 75 Article 5. does our intellect understand by combining and separating?
- 79 Article 6. can the intellect be in error?
- 83 Article 7. with respect to one and the same reality, can one man have a better understanding than another?
- 85 Article 8. does our intellect know the indivisible before the divisible?

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02920-9 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 12 - Human Intelligence,
(1a. 84-89)

Paul T. Durbin

Table of Contents

More informationQUESTION 86. WHAT OUR INTELLECT KNOWS WITH RESPECT TO MATERIAL REALITIES

- 91 Article 1. does our intellect know singulars ?
 93 Article 2. can our intellect know the infinite ?
 97 Article 3. does the intellect have knowledge of contingent things ?
 99 Article 4. does our intellect know the future ?

QUESTION 87. HOW THE INTELLECTUAL SOUL KNOWS ITSELF
AND THE THINGS IN IT

- 105 Article 1. does the intellectual soul know itself by its own essence ?
 111 Article 2. does our intellect know the habitual dispositions of the soul through their essences ?
 113 Article 3. does the intellect know its own acts ?
 117 Article 4. does the intellect understand acts of the will ?

QUESTION 88. HOW THE HUMAN SOUL KNOWS THINGS ABOVE IT

- 121 Article 1. can the human soul, in the present life, understand immaterial substances in themselves ?
 131 Article 2. can our intellect arrive at an understanding of im-material substances by way of the knowledge of material things ?
 133 Article 3. is God what is known first by the human intellect ?

QUESTION 89. THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE SOUL SEPARATED FROM THE BODY

- 137 Article 1. can the separated soul understand anything at all ?
 143 Article 2. does the separated soul understand immaterial substances ?
 147 Article 3. does the separated soul know all natural things ?
 149 Article 4. does the separated soul know singulars ?
 151 Article 5. does knowledge acquired here in a habitual way remain in the separated soul ?
 155 Article 6. does the use of knowledge acquired here remain in the separated soul ?
 159 Article 7. does the spatial distance impede the knowledge of the separated soul ?
 161 Article 8. do separated souls know what is happening here ?

APPENDICES

- 167 I. Ideas, Species, Images

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02920-9 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 12 - Human Intelligence,
(1a. 84-89)

Paul T. Durbin

Table of Contents

More information

170	2. The simple understanding of Quidditas
173	3. Complex Knowledge, The Second Act of the Mind
176	4. Reasoning: Demonstrative and Dialectical
179	5. Faith and Theological Knowledge
181	6. St Thomas and the History of Theories of Knowledge
185	7. Naive Realism
188	Glossary
197	Index