

CONTENTS

xiii Editorial Notes

xv Introduction

QUESTION 71. NATURE OF VICE AND SIN

- 3 Article 1. is vice contrary to virtue?
 7 Article 2. is vice contrary to nature?
 11 Article 3. is vice worse than vicious action?
 13 Article 4. can sin co-exist with virtue?
 17 Article 5. does every sin involve an action?
 21 Article 6. Augustine's definition of sin as 'a word, deed, or desire which is against the eternal law'.

QUESTION 72. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SINS

- 26 Article 1. are specific differences in sins established by reference to their objects?
 29 Article 2. are there differences between spiritual and carnal sins?
 33 Article 3. do sins differ in terms of their causes?
 37 Article 4. can differences be established in terms of the ones offended?
 41 Article 5. is guilt a valid basis for subdividing sins?
 45 Article 6. the difference between sins of omission and commission
 49 Article 7. should we distinguish between sins of thought, word and deed?
 51 Article 8. do sins differ specifically in terms of excess and defect?
 55 Article 9. do circumstances cause a specific difference in sins?

QUESTION 73. RELATIVE GRAVITY OF SINS

- 59 Article 1. are all sins connected?
 63 Article 2. are all sins equal?
 67 Article 3. is the gravity of sin determined by the object?
 69 Article 4. is the gravity of sins determined by the importance of the opposite virtues?
 73 Article 5. are carnal sins worse than spiritual sins?
 75 Article 6. do the causes of sin influence their gravity?
 79 Article 7. do circumstances increase the gravity of sin?
 81 Article 8. is the seriousness of sin affected by the amount of harm done?

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02933-9 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 25 - Sin, (1a2ae. 71-80)

John Fearon O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

- 87 Article 9. does the status of the person offended influence the gravity of sin?
 91 Article 10. does the importance of the sinner affect the gravity of the sin?

QUESTION 74. SINFULNESS AND ITS SUBJECT

- 95 Article 1. can sin be found in the will?
 97 Article 2. is sin found only in the will?
 101 Article 3. can sin be found in the sensual part of man's nature?
 103 Article 4. can mortal sin be found in the sensual part of man?
 105 Article 5. can sin be found in man's reason?
 109 Article 6. can a sin of lingering delight exist in man's reason?
 111 Article 7. is sinful consent to be found in that part of man's reason which deals with the universal?
 115 Article 8. can consent to delight be a mortal sin?
 121 Article 9. can venial sin be found in the part of man's reason which deals with the universal when it is directing lesser human faculties?
 125 Article 10. can venial sin be found in the part of man's reason which deals with the universal when directed to its proper object?

QUESTION 75. CAUSATION AND SIN

- 129 Article 1. does sin have a cause?
 133 Article 2. is the cause of sin internal?
 135 Article 3. is the cause of sin external?
 137 Article 4. can one sin be the cause of another?

QUESTION 76. IGNORANCE AS A CAUSE OF SIN

- 143 Article 1. does ignorance cause sin?
 147 Article 2. is ignorance sinful?
 149 Article 3. does ignorance excuse us completely from sin?
 153 Article 4. does ignorance lessen sin?

QUESTION 77. EMOTION AS A CAUSE OF SIN

- 159 Article 1. can an emotion of the sense appetite influence the will?
 161 Article 2. can emotion overcome the better judgment of reason?
 169 Article 3. should sin which arises from emotion be called a sin of weakness?
 171 Article 4. is self-love the cause of all sin?

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02933-9 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 25 - Sin, (1a2ae. 71-80)

John Fearon O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

- 173 Article 5. are concupiscence of the eye, concupiscence of the flesh and the pride of life rightfully described as the causes of sin?
- 177 Article 6. does emotion as a cause of sin lessen it?
- 181 Article 7. does emotion completely excuse one from sin?
- 185 Article 8. can sins which arise from emotion be serious sins?
- QUESTION 78. WILFUL MALICE AND SIN
- 189 Article 1. can anyone sin with resolute malice?
- 193 Article 2. does everyone who sins as a matter of habit sin with resolute malice?
- 195 Article 3. does one who sins with resolute malice sin from habit?
- 199 Article 4. does one who sins with resolute malice sin more seriously than the sinner moved by emotion?
- QUESTION 79. GOD'S RELATIONSHIP TO SIN
- 205 Article 1. is God a cause of sin?
- 209 Article 2. does the human action of sinning come from God?
- 211 Article 3. does God really blind man and harden his heart?
- 215 Article 4. when people are thus blinded or hardened in heart is this done for their salvation?
- QUESTION 80. THE DEVIL'S RELATIONSHIP TO SIN
- 219 Article 1. does the devil directly cause man to sin?
- 223 Article 2. can the devil lead man to sin by an inner stimulus?
- 225 Article 3. can the devil induce man to sin of necessity?
- 229 Article 4. do all sins come from diabolic suggestion?
- Appendices
- 233 1. Definition of Sin and Vice
- 237 2. The Differentiation of Sins
- 241 3. The Comparative Aspects of Sin
- 243 4. The Self as the Sinner
- 245 5. The Causes of Sin
- 247 6. Emotion and the Moral Agent
- 249 Glossary
- 257 Index