

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02934-6 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 26 - Original Sin,
(1a2ae. 81-85)

T. C. O'Brien O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

- xi General Preface
- xvii Editorial Notes
- xix Introduction
- 2 Prologue

- Question 81. ORIGINAL SIN'S TRANSMISSION
- 4 Article 1. whether or not man's first sin passes by way of origin to posterity
- 12 Article 2. whether or not even other sins of the first parent or later parents are passed on to posterity
- 16 Article 3. whether or not the sin of the first parent passes by way of origin to all
- 20 Article 4. whether or not were somebody to be miraculously fashioned out of human flesh, he would contract original sin
- 22 Article 5. whether, had Adam not sinned, but Eve alone, their children would have contracted original sin

- QUESTION 82. ORIGINAL SIN AS TO ITS ESSENCE
- 28 Article 1. whether or not original sin is a habit
- 32 Article 2. whether or not there are many 'original sins' in one individual
- 36 Article 3. whether or not original sin is concupiscence
- 40 Article 4. whether or not original sin is equally in all

- QUESTION 83. ORIGINAL SIN AS TO ITS SUBJECT
- 44 Article 1. whether or not original sin is rather in the flesh than in the soul
- 50 Article 2. whether original sin is in the substance of the soul rather than in its powers
- 54 Article 3. whether or not original sin affects the will more than the other powers

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02934-6 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 26 - Original Sin,
(1a2ae. 81-85)

T. C. O'Brien O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

- 56 Article 4. whether or not certain powers of soul, namely the reproductive power, the concupiscible appetite and the sense of touch, are especially infected

QUESTION 84. SIN AS THE CAUSE OF SIN

- 60 Article 1. whether or not covetousness is the root of all sins
- 64 Article 2. whether or not pride is the beginning of all sin
- 68 Article 3. whether or not any special sins besides pride and avarice should be termed capital
- 72 Article 4. whether or not these seven capital sins are suitably listed

QUESTION 85 SIN'S DAMAGE TO THE GOOD OF NATURE

- 78 Article 1. whether or not sin diminishes the good of nature
- 84 Article 2. whether or not the whole good of nature can be taken away through sin
- 88 Article 3. whether or not the wounds resulting from sin are appropriately described as weakness, ignorance, malice and concupiscence
- 92 Article 4. whether or not the lack of proportion, species and order is the effect of sin
- 94 Article 5. whether or not death and other bodily ills are effects of sin
- 98 Article 6. whether or not death and similar evils are natural to man

Appendices

- 105 1. Attitudes toward Original Sin
- 110 2. Historical Outline
- 115 3. Thematic Conspectus of Catholic Teaching
- 121 4. The Old Testament
- 124 5. The New Testament
- 128 6. The Summa and Earlier Teaching
- 133 7. Sin Caused by Origin
- 144 8. Original Justice
- 154 9. Fallen Nature
- 163 Glossary
- 171 Index