

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02937-7 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 29 - The Old Law, (1a2ae. 98-105)

David Bourke and Arthur Littledale

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xii Editorial Notes

xiv Introduction

QUESTION 98. THE OLD LAW

- 2 Article 1. whether the Old Law was good
- 8 Article 2. whether the Old Law came from God
- 12 Article 3. whether the Old Law was given through the angels
- 16 Article 4. whether the Old Law should have been given to the Jewish People alone
- 20 Article 5. whether all men were obliged to keep the Old Law
- 24 Article 6. whether it was appropriate that the Old Law should have been given at the time of Moses

QUESTION 99. THE PRECEPTS OF THE OLD LAW

- 30 Article 1. whether only a single precept is contained in the Old Law
- 34 Article 2. whether the Old Law contains moral precepts
- 38 Article 3. whether the Old Law contains ceremonial precepts as well as moral ones
- 42 Article 4. whether in addition to the moral and ceremonial precepts there are also judicial precepts
- 46 Article 5. whether any other precepts are contained in the Old Law in addition to the moral, judicial and ceremonial ones
- 50 Article 6. whether the Old Law should have held out temporal promises and threats as an inducement to men to observe its precepts

QUESTION 100. THE MORAL PRECEPTS OF THE OLD LAW

- 56 Article 1. whether all the moral precepts of the Old Law come under the law of nature
- 60 Article 2. are the moral precepts of the Law concerned with all kinds of virtuous actions?
- 64 Article 3. are the moral precepts of the Old Law all reducible to the ten commandments?
- 66 Article 4. the classification of the precepts of the decalogue
- 72 Article 5. the enumeration of the precepts of the decalogue
- 80 Article 6. the order of the commandments

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02937-7 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 29 - The Old Law, (1a2ae. 98-105)

David Bourke and Arthur Littledale

Table of Contents

More information

- 84 Article 7. how the commandments are formulated
- 88 Article 8. are the precepts of the decalogue subject to dispensation?
- 94 Article 9. does the mode of practising the virtues come within the scope of the commandments?
- 98 Article 10. does charity as a general mode of action come under the prescriptions of divine Law?
- 102 Article 11. should the Law contain other moral precepts besides the decalogue?
- 108 Article 12. did the moral precepts of the Old Law work justification?

QUESTION 101. THE CEREMONIAL PRECEPTS IN THEMSELVES

- 112 Article 1. is the essence of the ceremonial precepts that they concern the worship of God?
- 116 Article 2. are the ceremonial precepts figurative?
- 120 Article 3. should there have been a number of ceremonial precepts?
- 124 Article 4. are the ceremonies of the Old Law aptly divided into sacrifices, sacred things, sacraments and observances?

QUESTION 102. THE CAUSES OF THE CEREMONIAL PRECEPTS

- 130 Article 1. did the ceremonial precepts have a cause?
- 132 Article 2. had the ceremonial precepts any literal cause, or only a figurative one?
- 136 Article 3. can a suitable reason be given for the ceremonies connected with sacrifices?
- 152 Article 4. can we find an adequate reason for the ceremonies connected with sacred things?
- 178 Article 5. can there be a suitable cause for the sacraments of the Old Law?
- 210 Article 6. had the ceremonial observances any reasonable ground?

QUESTION 103. THE DURATION OF THE CEREMONIAL PRECEPTS

- 230 Article 1. did the ceremonies of the Old Law exist before the Law?
- 234 Article 2. had the ceremonies of the Old Law any power of imparting justification at the time?
- 240 Article 3. did the ceremonies of the Old Law cease at the coming of Christ?

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02937-7 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 29 - The Old Law, (1a2ae. 98-105)

David Bourke and Arthur Littledale

Table of Contents

More information

- 244 Article 4. since the passion of Christ is it possible to observe the ceremonies of the Law without mortal sin?

QUESTION 104. THE JUDICIAL PRECEPTS

- 252 Article 1. are the judicial precepts those which regulate man's relations with his neighbour?
- 256 Article 2. were the judicial precepts figurative?
- 258 Article 3. do the judicial precepts of the Old Law bind in perpetuity?
- 262 Article 4. can the judicial precepts be divided into distinct groups?

QUESTION 105. THE REASON FOR THE JUDICIAL PRECEPTS

- 266 Article 1. were the provisions of the Old Law as regards rulers appropriate?
- 274 Article 2. were the judicial precepts about the inter-relationships of the people suitably framed?
- 294 Article 3. were the judicial precepts relating to foreigners appropriate?
- 302 Article 4. were the precepts of the Old Law regarding domestic affairs appropriate?
- 312 General Index
- 315 Index of Biblical References