

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02942-1 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 34 - Charity, (2a2ae. 23-33)

R. J. Batten O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xiii Editorial Notes

xv Introduction

QUESTION 23. THE NATURE OF CHARITY

- 5 Article 1. whether charity is a friendship
 9 Article 2. whether it is a creaturely reality in soul
 15 Article 3. whether it is a virtue
 19 Article 4. and specifically distinct
 21 Article 5. whether it is a single virtue
 23 Article 6. and sovereign among the virtues
 27 Article 7. whether there can be true virtue without it
 31 Article 8. whether it is the form of the virtues

QUESTION 24. THE SEAT OF CHARITY

- 35 Article 1. whether charity is seated in the will 37 Article 2. whether it is caused by man's previous acts or shed on him by God
 41 Article 3. whether it is given in proportion to his natural capacities
 45 Article 4. whether it can grow
 47 Article 5. whether by way of addition
 51 Article 6. whether by every act
 55 Article 7. whether without limit
 57 Article 8. whether charity can be perfect in this life
 61 Article 9. on its degrees
 63 Article 10. whether charity can grow less
 69 Article 11. whether once possessed it can be lost
 73 Article 12. and lost by one act of mortal sin

QUESTION 25. THE OBJECTS OF CHARITY

- 81 Article 1. whether charity is for loving God alone or our neighbour as well
 85 Article 2. whether it includes loving charity itself
 87 Article 3. and non-rational creatures

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02942-1 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 34 - Charity, (2a2ae. 23-33)

R. J. Batten O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

- 91 Article 4. is it possible to love oneself from charity
 93 Article 5. and one's own body
 95 Article 6. whether the love of charity extends to sinners
 101 Article 7. whether sinners love themselves
 105 Article 8. whether we should love our enemies out of charity
 107 Article 9. and show them marks of friendship
 109 Article 10. whether we should love the angels
 111 Article 11. and love the demons
 115 Article 12. a list of objects to be loved out of charity
- QUESTION 26. THE ORDER OF PRIORITIES IN CHARITY
- 119 Article 1. whether there is an order in charity
 121 Article 2. whether a man ought to love God more than his neighbour
 125 Article 3. and more than himself
 127 Article 4. and himself more than his neighbour
 131 Article 5. and his neighbour than his own body
 133 Article 6. and one neighbour more than another
 137 Article 7. and a better person more than one near to him
 141 Article 8. and a kinsman more than one united to him by other ties
 145 Article 9. and his son more than his father
 147 Article 10. and his mother more than his father
 149 Article 11. and his wife more than his father or mother
 153 Article 12. and a benefactor more than one to whom he has been a benefactor
 155 Article 13. whether these priorities remain in heaven
- QUESTION 27. THE CHIEF ACT OF CHARITY
- 161 Article 1. whether to love or be loved is more characteristic of charity
 165 Article 2. whether loving by charity is the same as goodwill
 167 Article 3. whether God is to be loved for his own sake
 171 Article 4. whether he can be loved directly in this life
 173 Article 5. whether he can be wholly loved
 175 Article 6. whether a measure is to be observed in loving God

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02942-1 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 34 - Charity, (2a2ae. 23-33)

R. J. Batten O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

- 179 Article 7. whether loving a friend or an enemy is better
 181 Article 8. whether loving God or our neighbour is better
- QUESTION 28. JOY
- 185 Article 1. whether joy is an effect of charity
 187 Article 2. whether such joy admits of sadness
 191 Article 3. whether it can be full
 193 Article 4. whether it is a virtue
- QUESTION 29. PEACE
- 197 Article 1. whether peace is the same as concord
 199 Article 2. whether all things seek peace
 203 Article 3. whether it is an effect of charity
 205 Article 4. whether it is a virtue
- QUESTION 30. MERCY
- 209 Article 1. whether the cause of mercy is some ill suffered by another 213 Article 2. on those to whom should be shown mercy
 215 Article 3. whether mercy is a virtue
 219 Article 4. and the greatest of the virtues
- QUESTION 31. KINDNESS
- 223 Article 1. whether kindness is an act of charity
 225 Article 2. whether we are bound to be kind to everyone
 229 Article 3. whether we should be kinder to those who are nearer
 233 Article 4. whether kindness is a special virtue
- QUESTION 32. ALMSGIVING
- 237 Article 1. whether almsgiving is an act of charity
 241 Article 2. on the different kinds of almsgiving
 245 Article 3. whether spiritual or corporal alms are the more important
 249 Article 4. whether corporal alms have a spiritual effect
 251 Article 5. whether almsgiving is commanded
 257 Article 6. whether alms should be given even by depriving ourselves of necessities
 259 Article 7. whether from what has been unjustly acquired

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02942-1 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 34 - Charity, (2a2ae. 23-33)

R. J. Batten O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

- 263 Article 8. on those who should give alms
 267 Article 9. on those to whom they should be given
 269 Article 10. on the mode of giving alms

QUESTION 33. FRATERNAL CORRECTION

- 275 Article 1. whether fraternal correction is an act of charity
 279 Article 2. whether it is a matter of command
 283 Article 3. whether the precept falls on all or only on those in authority
 285 Article 4. whether subjects are bound by the precept to correct their superiors
 289 Article 5. whether a wrongdoer can be corrected
 293 Article 6. whether one ought to correct when it will make matters worse
 295 Article 7. whether private correction should precede a public charge
 301 Article 8. whether witnesses should be called before laying a charge

APPENDICES

- 306 1. General Note
 307 2. Sources
 309 Glossary
 313 Index