

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02968-1 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 60 - Penance, (3a. 84-90)

Reginald Masterson O.P. and T. C. O'Brien O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

xi	General Preface
xvii	Editorial Notes
xix	Introduction
2	Prologue
QUESTION 84. THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE
2	Article 1. is Penance a sacrament?
8	Article 2. are sins the proper matter of this sacrament?
10	Article 3. is the form of this sacrament 'I absolve you'?
18	Article 4. is the laying on of the priest's hands required for this sacrament?
20	Article 5. is this sacrament necessary for salvation?
24	Article 6. is Penance a 'second plank after shipwreck'?
28	Article 7. was it well for this sacrament to have been instituted in the New Law?
34	Article 8. ought Penance to last until the end of life?
36	Article 9. is it possible for penance to be continuous?
40	Article 10. should the sacrament of Penance be repeated?
QUESTION 85. THE VIRTUE OF PENITENCE
48	Article 1. is penitence a virtue?
50	Article 2. is penitence a special virtue?
54	Article 3. is the virtue of penitence a species of justice?
60	Article 4. is the will properly the seat of penitence?
62	Article 5. does fear originate penitence?
66	Article 6. is repentance first among the virtues?
QUESTION 86. THE EFFECT OF PENANCE
72	Article 1. are all sins removed through Penance?
76	Article 2. can sin be forgiven without Penance?
80	Article 3. can one sin be pardoned without another?
86	Article 4. does Penance take away fault but not the debt of punishment?
90	Article 5. once mortal sin has been remitted, are all of sin's after-effects taken away?
94	Article 6. is forgiveness of fault the effect of the virtue of penitence?
QUESTION 87. PARDON FOR VENIAL SINS
100	Article 1. can venial sin be pardoned without penance?
104	Article 2. is infusion of grace required for the forgiveness of venial sin?

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02968-1 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 60 - Penance, (3a. 84-90)

Reginald Masterson O.P. and T. C. O'Brien O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

- 108 Article 3. is venial sin taken away through the sprinkling of holy water, a bishop's blessing and the like?
 112 Article 4. can there be pardon for a venial sin while a mortal sin remains?

QUESTION 88. THE RETURN OF SINS ONCE FORGIVEN

- 116 Article 1. do sins forgiven return in virtue of subsequent sin?
 122 Article 2. do sins once forgiven return in virtue of the ungratefulness found especially in hatred of neighbour, apostasy from the faith, contempt for confession and regret over past repentance?
 128 Article 3. because of ingratitude in a later sin does there arise a degree of guilt equal to that of sin already pardoned?
 130 Article 4. is the ingratitude by which later sin brings about the return of sin previously forgiven a special sin?

QUESTION 89. VIRTUE REGAINED THROUGH PENANCE

- 134 Article 1. are virtues recovered through repentance?
 138 Article 2. after repentance does a person come back to a life of equal virtue?
 142 Article 3. is a person restored to his former dignity through repentance?
 148 Article 4. is it possible for works done in charity to become dead works?
 150 Article 5. are works deadened by sin revived through repentance?
 154 Article 6. are even dead works vitalized by reason of a later repentance?

QUESTION 90. THE PARTS OF PENANCE IN GENERAL

- 160 Article 1. should parts be assigned to Penance?
 162 Article 2. whether there is good reason for designating contrition, confession and satisfaction as the parts of Penance?
 166 Article 3. are the parts mentioned integral parts of Penance?
 170 Article 4. is there any reason for the division, penance before Baptism, penance for mortal sin, penance for venial sin?

Appendices

- 175 1. The Matter of the Sacrament of Penance
 180 2. The Virtue of Penitence
 185 3. The Sacramental Grace of Penance
 191 Glossary
 201 Index