

Contents

Acknowledgements	page vii
List of abbreviations	viii
1 Introduction: ideas of community and an Anglo-Saxon audience/readership	1
2 Hall and city, feasting and drinking: images of communal life	35
3 Hall and feasting in Beowulf	60
4 Hall and feasting: transformations and alternative perspectives	82
5 Personal in conflict with communal	104
6 The mythic landscape of Beowulf : sea, stronghold and wilderness	121
7 The dwelling-places of God's people: place and setting in biblical poetry	144
8 Places of trial and triumph in hagiographical poetry	168
9 Conclusion: community and power in later poetic and other texts	189
Bibliography	201
Index	207