Index

adverse selection: with contingent liability systems, 107–9; pre-FDIC deposit insurance, 88–90
Akerlof, George A., 10
Aoki, Masahiko, 129
Ayr Bank collapse, 50, 56, 62
Bade, R., 29
Bagehot, Walter, 27
Banco de Desarrollo, Chile, 176
Bank Act (1900 revision), Canada, 76
Bank Charter Act (1844), United Kingdom, 52
Bank chartering, United States, 103 bank failures: Canada, 8; need to prevent, 25–6; in pre- and post-World War II Japan, 128, 140; reasons for, 8; role of fraud in, 10; United States and Canada (1870–80), 67–78; U.S. banking system, 8, 91–2
Bank Holding Company Act (1956), U.S., 120
Banking Act (1844), England, 44–5
Banking Act (1765), Scotland, 48–9
Banking Act (1933), United States: deposit insurance provisions, 87–8, 93; fragmentation of banking under, 211; repeal of double liability, 105; restrictions on commercial bank equity underwriting, 120
Bank Act (1935), United States: increase in amount insured, 93; repeal of double liability, 105 banking system: see also branch banking; universal banking: before central banks, 4; comparison of U.S. and Canadian (1870–1920), 71–8; comparison of U.S. and Canadian (1920–1980), 67–71; English compared to Scottish, 53–5; with limited liability, 106; as precursor of central bank, 24; role of central bank in, 24; role of German, 211; Scottish bank notes, 45–9; solvency problems, 8–9; with and without central bank, 37–8 banking system, Canada: bank failures and performance (1870–1920), 8, 65–6; pre-1920 instability, 76; stability and performance (1920–1980), 66–8 banking system, Japan: see also zaibatsu banks; firm–bank relationships, 128–30, 139; interwar, 134–6 Banking system, Scotland: exchange and clearing system, 49–52 banking system, Scotland: compared to English system, 53–5; note issue, 45–9; post-1862 limited liability, 102; pre-1862 unlimited liability, 101–2 banking system, United States: bank failures (1933), 91–2; compared to Canadian banking system (1920–1980), 67; contingent liability among national banks, 104–5; double liability experiment, 101, 103; dual, 66, 72; effect of regulation on, 85–6; national, 104; post-World War I consolidation, 123; real bills doctrine (nineteenth century), 86 bank notes: Ayr Bank overissue, 50, 56; free banking era in Scotland, 45–6; option clause, 46–9, 51; replacement by Federal Reserve notes in United States, 104–5; restraint of note growth in Scotland, 50–2; as Scottish bank liability, 102; Scottish clearing and exchange system, 49–52; Suffolk system of clearing and exchange, 50; as U.S. bank liability, 104; value of central bank, 25
Bank of England: established (1694), 24; formal control of Scotland’s free banking system (1844), 44–5; independence of, 4–5; as lender of last resort, 29; note issue dominance, 51–2; post-World War I independence, 31; responsibilities as central bank (ca. 1800), 29, 36–7; use of open market operations, 27–8
218

Index

Bank of France, 30
Bank of Japan, 135–6, 139
Bank of Scotland: currency issue by, 45; note issue and option clause, 46–9
Bank of the United States (First Bank), 206–7 bank panics: with branch banking in Canada, 73–8; contagion effect of nineteenth century bank runs, 8; interwar period in Japan, 128, 134–5, 155; nineteenth-century contagion effect, 8; preventing runs, 25–6; U.S. bank losses at time of, 72–3 Bank Rakyat Indonesia, 176 bank runs. See bank panics bankruptcy system, Japanese, 10, 132–4, 139 banks: competition from nonbanks, 2–3; in fractional reserve systems, 25–6; solvency problems, 8–9 banks, commercial: under banking Act (1933), 91; functions separate from central bank functions, 4; industrial lending in United States, 118; securities industry in U.S., 86–7; as U.S. depository institutions, 85–6 banks, developing countries: capital ratios, 18; equity ownership, 11; franchise value, 9–10; holding assets abroad, 9; incentives, diversifications, and supervision for, 11–12; recommended privatization, 20; risk diversification, 18–19 banks, state-owned: performance of, 13
Beard, Charles A., 206
Bencivenga, Valerie R., 11
Black, Clark G., 155, 159–60, 161, 162
Blyin, Martin R., 149, 150
bond market, U.S., 205–8, 212
Bonin, Hubert, 161
Bordo, Michael, 25, 26
Born, Karl Erich, 148, 154, 155, 157, 162 branch banking: Canada’s unlimited (1920–1980), 65, 70–1; free banking era in Scotland, 52–3; joint-stock banks in United Kingdom, 162; postal savings banks in Japan, 155; prohibition in United States, 8, 73, 86; stability with, 8; U.S. legislation permitting interstate (1994), 65; weakened barriers in United States, 87
Brewer, E., 121
British Linen Bank, 45
Brown, Roger, 142
Brussels Conference (1920), 30
Bubble Act (1720), England, 42 building societies: in developing countries, 175; Germany, 172; strong role in United Kingdom, 172; in United States and United Kingdom, 163–8, 170
Bu-Saba, Wald, 167
Cahill, J. R., 145, 146, 155, 157, 158, 159
call loan market, U.S., 75
Calomiris, Charles, 8, 9, 114, 115, 116, 118, 122, 123, 124
Cameron, R., 42
Capie, Forrest, 23, 29, 48, 78
capital formation, developing country, 107 capital markets: allocative inefficiency, 114–15; with bank cartelization in United Kingdom, 82; German, 118; role of pension funds in, 18; U.S., 211 capital ratios: before and after double liability period, 109; effect of holding lower, 9; with higher liability limits, 7–8
Caprio, Gerard Jr., 7, 9
Carlson, W. B., 123
Carpenter, R. E., 122 cartels, banking system, 82–3 central banks: See also Bank of England; Federal Reserve System, United States; established in United States (1913), 75; factors in becoming, 33; function of, 4, 25–6, 29–32; with gold standard interruption (1914), 30; growth in number of, 24–5, 31–2; independence, 4–5, 18, 34–40; Japan, 135–6, 139; as lender of last resort, 27–8; open market operations, 27–8
Chandler, A. D., 113
Checkland, S. G., 42 clearing system: clearingshouse in Tokyo (1891), 133; free banking era in Scotland, 49–51; nineteenth-century New England, 50
Cleary, Edmond J., 164 competition: bank note issue in Scotland, 45–8, 56–7, 102; in currency during Scottish free banking, 49; in post-1933 U.S. banking, 87
Congdon, T., 26
contingent liability system: advantages over limited liability, 105; effect on capital formation in developing countries, 107, 109–10; potential for developing countries, 101 cost of capital; firm: defined, 114; measures of, 115; shadow cost of internal and external capital, 114–15
Cowen, T., 42
credit cooperatives: central cooperative banks, 157–8; in developing countries, 175–6; in Europe, 160–1; in France, 161–2; function of, 14; future of, 15–16; in Germany, 156–61, 173; intent, 155–6; in Italy, 159–60; in socialist countries, 175; in United Kingdom and Ireland, 162–3, 173 credit system: free banking in Scotland, 54; zaibatsu banks in Japan, 130–2, 139
Index

credit unions: in developed countries, 168–9; in developing countries, 175; function and future of, 14–16; in Guatemala, 176 currency boards: drawbacks to, 33; in financial panic, 38–9; function of, 33 currency competition, Scotland, 49 currency zones, 40

Davis, Lance E., 149, 150, 151, 152 debt, public: Hamilton’s plan to fund U.S., 16, 212; influence on inflationary trends, 23–4; payment of U.S., 213
De Long, J. B., 120
Demirgüç-Kunt, Asli, 16
deposit insurance: adoption in Canada, 1967, 95; coexistence with double liability in United States, 101; demand for and opposition to, 90–1; disincentives to U.S. federal, 106; goal of U.S. federal, 1933, 101, 107; moral hazard issue, 94–5; pre-FDIC insurance systems, 87–90; in U.S. banking system, 87; U.S. pre-FDIC experimentation, 88–90
Deposit Insurance Act (1950), U.S., 93
Desjardins, Alphonse, 168 developing countries: see also financial systems, developing countries; banks holding assets abroad, 9; capital formation with contingent liability, 107; comparison of nineteenth-century Scotland with, 55–7; contingent and double liability effect in, 107; effect of politicized financial systems, 19–20; financial systems in, 141; savings allocation, 12; state-owned banks, 13; thrift deposit institutions in, 175 development banks: Japan, 129; performance of, 13
Diamond, D., 47
Dickson, P. G. M., 202 diversification: Canadian banks (1870–1920), 73–8; effect for banks and banking systems, 8–10; factors motivating, 15; in financial system reform, 3–4, 11–12; during free-bank era in Scotland, 59–60; of risk for developing countries, 18–19; twentieth-century U.S. banking, 86–7; U.S. unit banks (1870–1920), 74–8 double liability: abandonment of, 105; advantage in developing countries, 107; difference from unlimited liability, 104; effect of, 106–7; imposition in United States (1933), 109; preventing erosion of claim, 108–9; U.S. experiment, 7, 101, 103–5
Doyle, W. M., 119
Duncan, Henry, 147
Durand, Louis, 161
Dybvig, P., 47
economic performance: pre-1862 Scotland, 102; of Scotland during free-banking era, 54–5; United States in eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, 213
Elkin, W. A., 26
Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), 1974, United States, 192 exchange system: nineteenth-century New England, 50; Scottish free banking system, 49–51
Fazzari, S. M., 122
Federal Reserve System, United States: actions during bank crisis (1933), 91; creation (1913), 104; as independent institution, 30
Finagro, Ecuador, 176 finance, public: British influence on U.S., 213; in developing United States, 16, 203; to establish country’s creditworthiness, 212; role of Alexander Hamilton in U.S., 204–5 financial crises: developing and transitional economies, 1; England (1847, 1857, 1866), 29 financial systems: allocative efficiency, 114–18; attempts to reform, 1; central bank function in, 25–8; effect of politicized, 19–20; factors in stable, 12–13; lenders of last resort in, 26–8; lessons for reform, 3–5; lessons from earlier history, 18–20; problems of OECD countries, 1–2; public finance aspect of, 202; services of nonbanks, 2–3 financial systems, developing countries: lessons for development, 16; problems for, 16–17 financial systems, Japan: in interwar period, 134–6; pre-World War II era, 136–7; shocks in interwar period, 134 financial systems, United States: formation, 203–7; transfer and distribution functions, 85 firms: See also zaibatsu companies: cost of capital, 114; firm–bank relationship in Japan, 128–30, 139; Japanese bankruptcy system, 10, 132–4, 139; shadow cost differential between external and internal funds, 114–15 fiscal policy: See also debt, public; finance, public; taxation; relation to inflation, 23–4; revenue base, United States, 212–14
Fischer, S., 29
fraud: Canadian bank failures, 76; role in bank failure, 10
Index

Frazier, Patrick, 142 free banking: different meanings of, 6–7; Japan, 139; with limited liability, 7–8; Scotland, 6–7; in United States, 103–4 free banking era, Scotland: banks operating during, 45; branching, 52–3; cash credit overdraft system, 54; events during (1716–1845), 44; lessons from, 55–7; time frame of, 44 free-rider problem: with contingent liability, 107–8
Garber, Peter M., 205
German Agricultural Central Loan bank, 157
Gerschenkron, Alexander, 30
Glass, Carter, 91, 93
Glass–Steagall Act. See Banking Act (1933), United States
gold standard: discontinuation (1914), 30; in free-tank era in Scotland, 58–9
Golemba, Carter, 88
Goodhart, C. A. E., 28, 29 governments: of emerging independent countries, 31–2; monetary powers under U.S. Constitution, 204; problems of developing countries, 16–17
Graham, William, 49
Gramenee Bank, Bangladesh, 176, 178
Guinnane, Timothy W., 156, 157, 159, 162
Haas, Wilhelm, 156, 157
Hadley, Eleanor, 130
Hamilton, Alexander, 204–10, 212–14
Hannah, Leslie, 78
Hansen, R. S., 118
Hayek, F. A., 46
Himmelberg, C. P., 114, 122
Hindle, Tim, 142
Hoshi, Takeo, 132, 135
ing: for bank owners, 18; for developing country securities markets, 16; effect of distorted, 15; in financial system reform, 3–4, 11–12; in macroeconomic stability, 18; for moral hazard, 110; during Scottish free-banking era, 35; under U.S. contingent liability system, 105 independence: of Bank of France, 30; meaning for central bank, 28–32; relation to central bank’s control of inflation, 34 industrialization: bankruptcy system in Japan’s early, 132–4; role of zaibatsu in Japan, 130–2, 139–40 industrial revolution, second (1870–1913): cost of external finance for United States, 122–3; cost of financing by Germany and United States, 113–23 inflation: achieving control of, 32–3; causes of serious, 23; during free-bank era in Scotland, 58; role of central bank in control of, 22–3, 29, 34 information: in capital markets, 202; in growth of securities markets, 16, 19; with regulation, 202–3; in secondary securities market, 201
Inoue, Yabushita, 135
James, John A., 205
joint-stock banks, United Kingdom, 162
Jones, Charles P., 198, 199
Kauffman, George G., 55
Keeler, Michael C., 9, 103
keiretsu companies, 130
Kennedy, William P., 10
Kerr, A. W., 42
Keynes, John Maynard, 23
Kisch, C. H., 26
Klebaner, B. I., 103, 104
Krooss, Herman E., 149, 150
Kroszner, R. S., 42, 55, 57
Lamoreaux, Naomi R., 10, 119, 152, 153
Latimer, Murray W., 187 law of reflux, Scotland, 50 legislation: to establish central bank, 25; Japanese interwar period bank reform, 135–6; U.S. federal deposit insurance, 91–4, 101 lender of last resort: Canada and United States, 75; central bank as, 4, 27–8; definition, 26–7 lending. See credit system Levine, Ross, 11, 16 liability: See also double liability; limited liability; unlimited liability; implicit joint, 9; incentives in higher limits of, 7–8; structure of German credit cooperatives, 158–9 limited liability: advantages of contingent liability over, 105; free-bank era in Scotland, 56, 58, 102; German credit cooperatives, 158–9; post-1862 Scottish banking, 6, 102; U.K. banking system, 162 liquidity: management in German credit cooperative system, 159; of secondary securities markets, 201
Lombard Street (Bagehot), 27
Lovell, Michael, 27
Luzzatti, Luigi, 159–60
Macey, J. R., 106
macroeconomic policy: See also fiscal policy; to create stability, 18; role of central bank in, 25–8, 36
Index

markets, emerging, 53
Mayer, Colin, 134
Mendelson, M., 118, 124
Metcalfe, Ralph, 155, 159–6, 161, 162
Miller, G. P., 106
Mitsui Bank, 131–2
money market mutual funds, 99–100 moral hazard: of banking system with limited liability, 106; of contingency liability, 107–8; contingent liability system, 110; of federal deposit insurance, 94; limited liability banking systems, 106; in pre-FDIC deposit insurance, 88–90 Morikawa, Hidemasa, 130, 134
mortgage credit bank, France, 172
Munn, C. W., 42, 49

National Banking Act (1863), United States, 104 nationalization of central banks, 31 no-bank intermediaries: in developing countries, 12–13; role in providing financial services, 2–3 note issue. See bank notes

O’Connor, J. F. T., 105
Olmstead, Alan L., 148, 150, 152 open market operations, central bank, 27–8 option clause: demise of Scottish bank note, 61; in Scottish bank notes, 7–8, 46–9, 51
Packer, Frank, 129, 130, 133
Patrick, Hugh, 129, 131, 132
Payne, Peter L., 149, 152 pension funds: development of private, 17–18; as financial intermediaries, 17–18; historical development, 17; portability, 180–1; role in developing countries, 19 pension plans: defined contribution, 188–9; early noncontributory, 187–9; employer motives in offering, 181; of European railroads, 186; historical development in United States, 182–4; offered by large companies, 186–7; Pennsylvania Railroad, 185–6; of unions, 188
Perkin, M., 29
Perkins, Edwin, 203, 205
Petersen, B. C., 122
Petersen, M., 121
Plumtree, A. F. W., 31
Pollard, S., 31
Polonchek, J. A., 121
Ponzii finance, 4
portfolios, U.S. and Canadian banks (1920–1980), 70 postal giros, 142, 154
postal savings banks: in Africa and Asia, 175; function of, 13–14; future of, 15; interwar period in Japan, 134, 136, 138; in Japan, 154–5; in the Netherlands, 155n3; in Sweden, 155n3; in United Kingdom, 154, 172
price stability: as central bank function, 25; with central bank independence, 34–5; with rapid economic growth, 36; relation to inflation, 34–6
Radcliffe Committee, 31
Raff, D. M. G., 115, 118, 123, 124
Rafflenbeul, Friedrich W., 156–8
Railroad Retirement Act (1937), United States, 190
Rajan, R., 121
Ramirez, C. D., 120 regulation: by central bank, 28; effect of changes on thrift institutions, 174–5; effect on U.S. banking system, 85–6; free banking era in Scotland, 49–51; post-1933 U.S. banking rules, 87; U.S. federal deposit insurance, 91–4, 101; U.S. securities markets, 16 reputation: in banking, 33, 35; in Scottish banking system, 51 reserve pyramiding, 211 retirement, mandatory, 181 risk: for banks in developing countries, 12; under contingent liability systems, 109–10
Romer, Paul M., 10
Royal Bank of Scotland, 45–50
Ryser, Marc, 133
Samuelson, Paul, 181
Saunders, T., 103, 109
savings banks: Europe and United States, 144–5; in France, 148–9; in Germany, 145–7; socialist countries, 175; in United Kingdom, 147–8; in United States, 149–53
Sayers, R. S., 27
Schnadt, N., 29
Schulze-Delitzsch, Hermann, 156–8, 161
Schwartz, Anna J., 33 securities: new-issue, 201; in U.S. secondary trading market, 201, 211 Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), United States, 16, 202–3 securities markets: call loan financing in United States (1870–1920), 75; developing country, 16; development in United States, 11, 16, 207–9; factors in development of, 16; impact on economic development, 210; primary and secondary components, 201; role of, 201; supervision and regulation of, 19
Index

securities underwriting: costs in Germany and United States, 115–23; post–World War I changes in cost in United States, 123–4; role of banks in United States, 123 securitization, 174
seigniorage, note issuance system, 63–4 shadow cost, 114–15
Sheard, Paul, 129
Slovín, M. B., 121
Smith, Bruce D., 11
Smith, George D., 198, 209
Snowden, Kenneth A., 167
social security systems: Chilean experience, 176–7, 18; reform of, 17–18
Starr, Ross M., 11
Steagall, Henry, 90–1, 93 stock market: size of German, 211; size of U.S., 211
stockbrokers, South Africa, 176
Sumitomo Bank, 131
Summers, Lawrence, 9 supervision: by central bank, 28; in emerging market economies, 12; importance of, 19
Sushka, M. E., 121
Sylla, Richard, 198, 199, 205, 209 taxation: early U.S. tariff system, 205, 212–14; of German stock trading, 211; U.S. power to tax, 204–5
technological change, 174
Teranishi, Juro, 134, 135, 136
Thornton, Henry, 24, 29
three-tier thrift institutions: in Europe, 174; potential for developing countries, 178–9 thrift deposit institutions: in developing countries, 175–7; differences among, 171–5; factors in growth of, 169–70; forms of, 13–14; future of, 15; in OECD countries, 15; recent competition, 174; relevance for developing countries, 13–15, 175–7; three-tier structure in Europe, 174; types in Europe and United States, 141–4
tontine insurance, 184
Torrregrossa, P., 118
unit banking, United States, 126–7 universal banking: Central Europe, 30; defined, 113; drawbacks to, 11; German system, 10–11, 118–22; Japan, 138; major drawbacks, 11; promotion of bank diversification, 121–22 unlimited liability: case for, 6–7; difference from double liability, 104; effect of, 106; free-bank era in Scotland, 56, 58, 62, 101–2, 108; German credit cooperatives’ contributory, 158–9; pre-1862 Scottish banking system, 101–2

Vatter, Barbara, 152
Vaubel, R., 46
vesting, 180
Vittas, Dimitri, 142, 163, 167

Wachtel, P., 122
Wage and Salary Stabilization Act (1942), United States, 191 welfare capitalism, 184–92
White, E. N., 121, 123
White, L. H., 42, 101–2
wild cat banking, 104
Williamson, Samuel H., 188
Wilson, B., 103, 109
Wilson, Jack W., 198, 199
Winton, A., 107
Wollemborg, Leone, 160

Yabushita, Shiro, 135

zaibatsu banks: founding and independence, 130–1; lending policies, 131–2, 139–40; performance in interwar period, 135–6, 138, 140; as safe havens, 134 zaibatsu companies: differences among during interwar period, 134; Mitsubishi, 132; Mitsui, 132; origins and activities, 130; during World War I, 139
zaibatsu system, 130
Zervos, Sara, 11