

CONTENTS

List of tables	page vi
Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xi
PART I: GENERAL – THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK
1 Introduction	3
Appendix to Chapter 1	25
2 The economic policy of the Government of India	34
3 The record of aggregate private industrial investment in India, 1900–1939	68
4 Land and the supply of raw materials	93
Appendix to Chapter 4	115
5 The supply of unskilled labour	117
6 The supply of capital and entrepreneurship	157
PART II: STUDIES OF MAJOR INDUSTRIES
7 The development of the cotton-mill industry	219
8 Private investment in the jute industry	262
9 The growth of the iron and steel industry	291
10 The growth of private engineering firms	332
11 The cement industry	353
12 The growth of the sugar industry	359
13 The development of the Indian paper industry	391
14 British imperial policy and the spread of modern industry in India	420
Bibliography	445
Index	471