

Contents

List of tables	page vii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction	xix
1 The distribution of international investment	i
Creditors and debtors	i
Direct foreign investment in Poland and the countries of the Little Entente	14
2 Foreign investment and international cartels in the economy of Czechoslovakia	30
1 Estimates of direct foreign investment in industry and banking of Czechoslovakia at the end of 1937	30
2 International cartels in the Czechoslovak economy 1929–38	54
3 Mining and metallurgy	62
1 Direct foreign investment in the mining and metallurgy industry in Czechoslovakia	62
2 The participation of the Czechoslovak iron and steel industry in international cartels, 1926–38	137

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-07396-7 - An Economic Background to Munich: International Business and Czechoslovakia 1918-1938

Alice Teichova

Table of Contents

More information

vi	CONTENTS
4	Mechanical and electrical engineering	189
	1 Longterm direct investments of foreign industrial combines and banks in the engineering and electrical industry in Czechoslovakia	189
	2 International cartels in the mechanical engineering and electrical industries in the Czechoslovak Republic	221
5	The chemical industry	277
	1 Chemical products, mineral and vegetable oils	279
	2 The influence of international cartels on the Czechoslovak chemical industry	312
6	Banking and longterm foreign loans	336
	1 Foreign investment in Czechoslovak banking before Munich	336
	2 Foreign longterm loans in Czechoslovakia before Munich	367
	Conclusion	377
	Sources consulted	383
	I List of abbreviations for archives used in this work	383
	II List of official publications	385
	III List of periodicals	386
	IV List of directories and business publications	388
	Bibliography	389
	Index	405