

CONTENTS

PREFACE	page ix
I. A FREE SOCIETY	I
1. Society and human nature 2. The 'good neighbour'
3. Definitions
II. THE CHURCH IN THE WORLD (I)	12
1. Various meanings of 'Church' 2. The ideal as a sanction for the institution
III. THE CHURCH IN THE WORLD (2)	19
1. The ideal as a challenge to the institution 2. The cross in human life 3. Catholicism and Protestantism
IV. STATE AND COMMUNITY	33
1. Various meanings of 'State' 2. Law and justice 3. Natural law 4. The Social Contract
V. THE WHOLE MAN	47
1. Totalitarianism true and false 2. Church, State and people 3. Christianity and other religions
VI. THE WHOLE COMMUNITY	57
1. Society past and present 2. The grace of ancestry 3. The claim of posterity
VII. THE RATIONALE OF PROGRESS	63
1. Victory and persuasion 2. The United Nations' Declaration of Human Rights
VIII. LIBERTY	72
1. The 'secular trinity' 2. Liberty an ethical concept. J. S. Mill and J. Fitzjames Stephen 3. Delegates or representatives? 4. From contract to status 5. Private vices, public virtues 6. Voluntary societies 7. The freedom of the institution. Revised Prayer Book of 1928. The Scottish Churches' case 8. Broadcasting 9. The Church and politics

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08169-6 - The State and the Church in a Free Society

A. Victor Murray

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

IX. THE STATE ESTABLISHMENT OF RELIGION	page 106
1. The issue of Establishment	2. The Catholic attitude
3. Churches in the United States and in Sweden	4. The Church of England
X. EQUALITY	115
1. The mirage of equality	2. Private property
3. Economic equality	4. Political equality
5. Equality and Liberty. De Tocqueville	6. Equality in education
7. Illustrations from social class, race and sex	8. The control of education
XI. FRATERNITY	149
1. The mirage of fraternity	2. The family as a pattern for politics
3. Biblical view of marriage and divorce	4. Conscience and the community
5. The myth of unity	6. International fraternity
APPENDIX I. The word 'catholic'	182
APPENDIX II. The case of the Bishop of Prato	183
INDEX	187