

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information

Index

Surnames: ‘Gladstone’ for John Gladstone and his wives, sons and daughters and for all his brothers; ‘Gladstones’ for his father (Thomas), mother (Nelly), grandfather and all his sisters.

Notable buildings, streets and establishments are arranged alphabetically under the names of the places in which they are located.

Italic figures refer to illustrations, statistical tables and tabulated information.

JG – John Gladstone; WEG – William Ewart Gladstone; WI – West Indies.

- Aberdeen, 45, 331, 340
 Aberdeen, Lord, 299, 371
 Abolition of Slavery Act (1833), 276
 Ackers, Joseph, 67
 Acland, Arthur, 220
 Acland, (Sir) Thomas, 220, 314
 Agnes (a servant at Seaforth House), 88, 127
 Albert, Prince (of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, consort of Queen Victoria), 295
 Alexander (JG’s oculist), 229, 285, 329, 371
 Allan and Stewart (corn merchants and bankers), 14, 16, 19, 43; and commercial crisis (1787–8), 19–20
 America, see United States
 American: Association, 51; Chamber of Commerce, 73 bis; traders, 50
 American War of Independence (1775–83), 10, 11, 13, 18, 22, 23, 25, 30, 43
 Amiens, Peace of (1802), 44, 45, 100
 Anglican Church (see also Church of England): in Ireland, 297, 306; in Scotland, 293–4
 Anglicanism: detached and unemotional, 242; ‘dry’ (of official Liverpool), 223; High, 129, 293, 294, 393, 394, 402; Low, see Evangelicalism; ‘Puseyism’ and ‘Puseyites’, 291, 393
 Anstice, Joseph, 220, 240, 296
 Anti-Corn Law League (f. 1839), 331, 333, 344, 346, 348, 355, 361
 Anti-Slavery Society (1787 and 1823), 29, 185, 235; Liverpool branch, 185, 193 apprenticeship system for freed slaves in West Indies, 273, 276, 318 bis, 319, 321, 323 bis
 Arbuthnot (Gillanders’ partner), 318, 341
 Arnold, Dr Thomas (headmaster of Rugby School, 1828–42), 213, 244
 Ashley, Lord (later Earl of Shaftesbury), 353; his factory legislation, 262, 272, 316; and WEG’s apparent lack of charitable activities, 399
 Aspinall, Alderman, 74
 Attwood, Thomas, 150–1, 151
 ‘Augustan Age’ in Scotland, 13, 62, 137
 Backhouse, John, 73, 99, 100, 101 ter, 146
 Bagehot, Walter, 399
 Balbegno (near Fasque, q.v.), 292, 360
 Baltic trade, 6, 11, 12, 13, 17, 18, 44, 52; in timber, 149
 Bank Act (1844), 350; suspended (1847), 359
 Bank of England, 110, 335; provincial branches of, 175
 Bank of Scotland, 20
 Barthomier, Monsieur (French master at Eton), 206, 212
 Bath (in Somerset), 61, 62, 284, 353
 Bathurst, Lord, 125, 187
 ‘Bedlam’ (Bethlehem Hospital for lunatics, in London), 301, 314
 Bengal, 121, 277, 317 bis, 318, 322, 325
 Berbice (in British Guiana), 74, 100
 Berwick-on-Tweed (parliamentary constituency), 156–7, 158, 179, 197, 343
 Bible, the (‘the scriptures’): in JG’s home, 85; and the British Constitution, 126; WEG’s reading of, 85, 96, 211, 400, 401; at Eton, 132; the literature of the Jews, 401; WEG’s common bond with dissenters, 402
 Biggar (in Lanarkshire), 3 bis and n(3), 4 ter, 6, 7, 10, 15, 54, 95; Free Operative Masonic Lodge, 4; Kirk, 4
 Birch, Joseph, 30, 47
 Birkbeck, Dr, 176
 Birley, W. H., 112, 120
 Biscoc, Robert, 219
 Blenheim Palace (near Woodstock, q.v.), 105
 Blundell, Charles (of Ince), 92, 328
 Board of Trade, 145, 332, 335, 345–51, 394
 Bolton, Colonel John, MP, 34, 65–6, 73, 81, 102, 123, 143–6 passim, 233, 274; personal details, 65; his residence in Liverpool, and Storrs estate (Windermere), 102; and Demerara, 195, 197; his death, 295

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Booth, Henry, 237
 Booth, Thomas, 14, 17, 30, 143, 361
 Borthwick, Peter, 269, 272
 Boscawen, Lord, 249
 Boydell, James, Junior, 314, 315, 353, 359 bis
 Bradley, William (portrait painter), 337
 Bradshaw, Jackson, 16, 20, 21, 35, 361; personal details, 17-18
 Bradshaw, R. H., 172
 Brazil, 52, 100, 115, 117, 120, 355; cotton from, 120
 Bridgewater Canal (Worsley-Manchester, opened 1761), 172, 174, 175
 Bright, John, 332, 333, 334
 Brighton, 163; Marine Hotel, 163; the Pavilion, 163
 Bristol, Lord, 250
 British Constitution, 110-12 passim, 155, 250, 298, 305; supported by Bible reading, 126; in Church and State, 390
 British Guiana (Berbice, Demerara and Essequibo; now Guyana): Governors of, 188, 194, 199, 323
 British Guiana Association, 187
 British West Indian planters, economic situation of (1833), 267; see also West Indies
 Brougham, Henry (later Lord Brougham and Vaux), 64-8 passim, 73, 157, 176, 261, 304, 324; personal details, 64, 65, 66
 Brown (WEG's nurse), 383
 Buccleuch, Duke of, 294, 327-8, 340 bis
 Bullin, Richard, 178
 Bulteel, Rev. Mr, 242, 251-2
 Bunsen, Baron, 310
 Burntisland-Granton ferry (Firth of Forth, 1844), 327, 340, 374
 Buxton, Fowell, 185, 186, 189, 235 bis, 251, 263, 275, 331
 Byng, Sir J., 112
 Byron, Lord, 148
 Calcutta: Board of Customs, 122; China Bazaar, 342; a Gladstone business in, 341, 342; indentured labour from, 321, 322; trade with, 122, 123, 181, 326, 380
 Calvinism (see also Evangelicalism), 85, 210, 217, 382, 384
 Cambridge: Union (debating society), 245; University, 94 bis, 253
 Canada, 149, 303, 313
 Candlish, Rev. Dr, 292, 337 bis
 Canning, Charles (son of George Canning), 209, 210 bis, 220, 239, 241, 243, 249, 283
 Canning, George, MP, 59-62 passim, 73-6 passim, 83, 93, 95, 122, 129, 167, 182, 210-12 passim, 247, 248, 250, 383, 387; personal details, 61, 62, 65, 158; in general election (1812), 64-70 passim; and East India Company, 71-2; and Mrs Gladstone's health, 87; opens Prince's Dock, Liverpool, 95; MP for Liverpool (1812-22), 99-108 passim; and Napoleon, 100 bis; and his children, 100; offers to resign his seat, 100; at Lisbon, 100-1; and Oxford University seat, 101-2; his advice to JG on a parliamentary constituency, 103; and reform of House of Commons, 103-4; and Liverpool charities, 107; his parliamentary interests, 109-18 passim; and democracy and despotism, 112, 114; and Queen Caroline and George IV, 113; and his Liverpool seat, 113; and Catholic Emancipation, q.v., 113; and trade with Far East, South America and West Indies, 114-16; President of India Board of Control, 115; and the U.S.A. 117; and Governor-Generalship of India, 143, 144; his farewell to Liverpool, 144, 145; as Foreign Secretary, 144, 147; his foreign policy, 146-8; and self-determination abroad and repression at home, 147; and French imperialism, 147; and Spanish-American colonies (independent), 147; Finlay on, 148-9; his faults, 157; JG and Finlay on, 157; becomes Prime Minister, 157-8; his 'neglect' of JG, 158; and memorials at Liverpool and Westminster, 159; and Duke of Newcastle, 160, 257; and anti-slavery, 185ff; Liverpool support for, as PM, 223; his death, 158, 210, 215
 Canning, Mrs George (later Lady Canning), 100, 107, 160, 210
 Canning Resolutions (on conditions and treatment of slaves, 1823), 156, 263
 'Canningites', 66, 67, 68, 71, 145, 160, 161, 178, 234, 236; and isolation (from Europe), 228; leaders of (cartoon), 67
 Canton, 316, 317
 Caroline, Queen, 90, 113
 Cartwright (a London dentist), 210
 Castlereagh, Lord, 60, 105, 111, 113, 114, 144 bis, 147
 Catholic Church (and Faith), Roman (see also Catholic Emancipation and Catholics, Roman), 85, 96, 214, 249-50, 256, 291, 354, 379
 Catholic Emancipation (see also Catholic Church and Catholics, Roman), 49, 60, 90, 102 bis, 114, 147, 157, 161, 211, 223, 242 bis, 285, 297, 305, 307, 387
 Catholic Relief Bill and Act (1829), 161

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Catholics, Roman (see also Catholic Church and Catholic Emancipation), 114; at Seaforth, 79; angry with WEG, 401
- Chalmers, Dr Thomas, 87, 127, 296–7; his treatise on urban Christian and economic policy, 127; and JG's charitable buildings at Leith, 292–3; his lectures on 'Church and State', 305; and JG and Patronage in Church of Scotland, 337; and secession, 337–8
- Charlotte, Princess, 90–1, 94
- Charrier, Rev. Mr, 46
- Chartists, 344, 346; 'monster rally' (April 1848), 362
- Chester, Bishop of, 79, 80
- China: indentured labour from, 322; and the Opium War, 313; trade with, 72, 116, 149, 227, 277, 282, 316–28 passim
- Chisholm, Dr Colin (JG's wife's uncle), 45
- Church of England (Anglican, q.v.; see also Anglicanism), 31, 46, 78, 189, 218, 223, 242, 249, 286, 291, 294, 297, 298, 306, 354, 387 bis; at Seaforth, 79–80; Articles of, 210; Creed of, 210; JG and WEG and, 293–4; the Oxford Movement (q.v.) in, 298; and the State, 305–6; and a spiritual revival, 389
- Church of Ireland, 297
- Church of Rome, see Catholic Church, Roman
- Church of Scotland (Presbyterian): General Assembly of, 306, 337; independence of, 306; patronage in, 292–3, 306, 337; and Trinity College, Glenalmond, 294; WEG and, 293
- Church Principles considered in their Results* (WEG, 1840), 313
- Church Reform (Ireland) Bill (1833), 297
- Clarence, Duke of (later William IV, q.v.), 160, 168
- Clarkson, 235
- classics, the: at Eton, 132; at Glasgow College, 137; at Oxford, 244, 388–91; Christianity and, 400–1; JG's views on, 130, 132; their influence on WEG, 244
- Cobbett, William, 144, 150, 192
- Cobden, Richard, 332, 333 bis, 348, 361, 367
- Cock, Simon, 73
- Codrington, Admiral, 160
- Combination Laws (1799), 105, 151
- Constitutional History* (Hallam), 212
- coolies from India (see also indentured labour), 288
- Corn Bill (1827), 160
- corn (foreign), duty on (1814), 76
- Corn Laws, 109–10, 150, 153, 183, 211, 332, 333, 346, 348–50 passim, 354, 367; repeal of, in 1846, 356, 357
- corn trade, see, 43, 150
- Cornwall (ship), 180
- Corporation Act, repeal of (1828), 298, 307
- Corrie, Edgar, 13–15, 30, 177, 361; personal details, 17, 18, 30; and Liverpool corn trade, 16–21 passim; and the partnership, 16, 35 bis
- Corrie, Gladstone and Bradshaw (partnership), 16–21 passim, 32, 35; Articles of (1787), 16; American adventure (1789–90), 22–6; and Claude Scott and Co. (syndicate), 22; a new partnership (1794), 35
- Corrie, Thomas, 183–4
- Cort, Frederick, 185–6, 188–90 passim, 194, bis, 199, 264
- cotton, 17, 44, 45, 59, 63 bis; Indian v. American, 73–4, 116–17, 149, 333, 334
- cotton industry, 13, 62, 63
- 'cottonocracy', 367
- Creevey, Thomas, 64, 66, 68 bis, 73, 261
- Crimean War (1854–6), 376 bis
- crises, financial: (1787–8), 19–20; (1825), 154–5; (1847), 359
- Cropper and Benson, 192
- Cropper, James, 30, 50, 51, 106, 126, 127, 143, 223, 224, 287, 391; his mother's influence, 127; and slavery in WI, 185, 190–2, 317; and indentured labour, 287, 317; his death, 295
- Cruden, Margaret, née Gladstones (JG's sister, widowed), 53, 54, 98
- Cuba, 117, 267, 355
- currency and banking, 150–1
- currency debate in Parliament, 110
- Currie, James (JG's physician), 30, 34 bis, 45, 60; personal details, 30
- Dalhousie, Lord, 243
- Dalry Mills (near Leith), 6, 20
- Demerara, 44–5, 50, 52, 74, 75, 78, 100, 117 bis, 120–6, 153, 171, 179, 190, 264, 318; estates (plantations) in, 45, 52, 124, 167; its prosperity, 124; hydraulic system, 124, 125, 265; planters attracted to, 124; slavery in, 124, 125, 156, 185–94, 198–200 (see also slavery); Bethel Chapel, 186, 188; rising of slaves in, 188, 235; Fiscals, 189, 194; legal arrangements on transfer from Holland to Britain (1803), 196; improvements in JG's estates, 264–6; condition and treatment of slaves in, 266–7; the planters, and government action towards abolition, 267; and market-price of slaves, 275; compensation for freed slaves, 320–1

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Denison (banker of Liverpool and London), 22
- Denison, John Evelyn, 233-4, 236 bis, 247
- Derby, Lord, 174 bis, 294
- Dhobah sugar works (Bengal), 317
- Dingwall (in Ross-shire), 39-40, 42, 45, 46, 53, 81, 95, 103, 179; JG's almshouses at, 291
- D'Israeli, Benjamin, 3
- Disraeli, Benjamin (later Earl of Beaconsfield), 215, 354, 370, 397, 402
- Disraeli, Sarah (Beaconsfield's sister), 397
- Dissenters' Chapels Bill (1844), 354
- Döllinger, Johann (German theologian), 352
- Douglas, Lady Frances (Harriet), 303, 304, 312
- Doyle (one of WEG's friends at Oxford), 220
- Duke of Buckinghamshire* (ship), 120
- Duke of Lancaster* (ship), 153, 323
- Dunbar, (Sir) George, 30, 31, 44
- Dundee election (1837), 285 bis
- D'Urban, Sir Benjamin, 199
- Dutch, the, 44, 99, 124; their colonies in South America, 74, 99, 100, 117, 124
- East India Company, 9, 29, 31, 34, 48, 49, 59-63 passim, 71-2, 116, 122, 143, 149, 277, 282, 317
- East Indies, trade with, 191 bis, 192, 317
- Ecclesiastical Polity, Laws of* (Hooker), 218
- Edinburgh, 137, 292, 303 bis; Atholl Crescent (No. 11), 282, 284, 296; 'Augustan Age' in, 13, 137; Chamber of Commerce, 116; New Town, 342; Queensferry Road, 296; Royal Circus (No. 25), 170; Royal Hotel, Princess Street, 94; University, 296; Sir Walter Scott memorial, 282
- Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, 340
- Edinburgh and Northern Railway, 340
- Edinburgh Roperie and Sailcloth Company of Leith, 10, 11, 20, 37, 123
- Edmonstone, Robert (planter), 124 bis, 137, 196
- electioneering expenses, 65, 103, 104, 156, 178 bis, 234 bis, 260, 358
- elections, parliamentary, see general elections
- Ellicombe, Rev. Mr, 139
- 'Enlightenment', the, 8, 214, 242, 243
- Episcopalians in Scotland, 293-4 passim
- Essequibo, 74, 100, 117, 195
- Eton College, 84, 87, 91, 95, 129 bis, 131, 137, 234, 347, 383, 386-8; paganism at, 129, 130, 132; masters of, 131; conditions and studies at, 131-9 passim, 201-16 passim, 390; 'dames', 132-5 passim; the classics at, 132, 390; flogging at, 135; 'pouching' the Headmaster, 139, 215; cost of Tom Gladstone at, 139; 'Montem', 139, 203, 214; typhus and scarlet fever at, 166, 206; fighting at (described by WEG), 203-2; 'Pop', see Literati Society; educational ideal, 211; 'Play', 213; under Keate, 213-14; and railways near, 283
- Eton Miscellany* (WEG's), 159, 170, 208-9, 210, 213, 215 bis, 296
- Evangelicalism and Evangelicals, 45, 78 bis, 79, 85, 86-7, 94, 125, 126, 129, 204, 210, 211, 240, 242 bis, 246, 286, 293, 296, 306, 375, 377, 385, 393; Calvinistic, 210, 217; and the classics, rationalism and science, 214; in Liverpool, 223; and Church of Scotland, 292; and slavery, 383; and ballroom dancing, 389
- Ewart, Peter, 219
- Ewart, William, Senior, 30, 31, 44, 45, 50, 55, 71, 72, 87, 143, 145 bis, 175; personal details, 30-1; JG's fourth son named after, 55
- Ewart, William, Junior, 224, 233-4, 236 bis, 247
- Ewarts, the, 60, 163, 233, 234, 373
- Exhibition, the Great (1851, in Hyde Park, London), 374, 402
- Eyre, Edward (Governor of Jamaica), 378
- Fallati, Dr, 352-3
- Farquhar, Caroline, 300-1, 312
- Farquhar, Lady, 300
- Farquhar, Sir Thomas, 300
- Farquhar, Walter, 300, 301
- Fasque (and Balfour, JG's estate in Kincardineshire), 222, 227, 230, 238 bis, 239, 284, 293, 296, 311, 312, 316, 342, 352, 353, 360, 389; the house and surroundings, and JG's improvements, 281-2; Helen at, 287-8, 363, 371-4 passim; JG's almshouses at, 291; and Free Church of Scotland, 338; St Andrew's chapel, 342-3, 360, 374
- Ferdinand III (Bourbon king of Spain), 147
- Ferry Bill and Act, 340 (see also Burntisland-Granton ferry)
- Fileen estates (in Demerara), 167 bis, 195-6, 198, 324, 346
- Fileen, Jonas (planter), 124, 126, 195-6, 324; his death, 126, 195
- Fileen, Judith Susannah, 196, 324
- Fileen, Paul Edward, 195, 196, 324
- Financial Reform Association, 361, 376, 377

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Finlay, Alexander, 316
- Finlay, Kirkman, 61, 62, 70, 74, 83, 120 bis, 137 bis, 138, 148, 208, 224, 238, 339; personal details, 62; on Huskisson, 148; on Canning, 148–9, 157; and free trade, 149; and home economic policy, 149; and Usury Laws, 150; and currency and banking, 150–1; and trade unions and the Combination Laws, 151; and labour unrest, 152–3; and commercial collapse, 155; and Cropper, 192; and WEG, 272, 296; and factory legislation, 272; his home (Castle Toward), 281; and Far Eastern trade, 316, 317; his death, 337
- Fleming, Lord, 3
- Foreign Trade, House of Lords Committee on (1821), 115–16
- Forth and Clyde Canal, 327, 339, 340
- Forth, Firth of: ferry across, 327, 340, 374
- Fortitude* (ship), 237
- France, 23, 24, 147, 148; British blockade of, 50, 52, 60; war against, 33, 34
- Fraser, James, 42, 55
- free trade, 116, 148, 149, 150, 267, 323, 358, 361; in corn, 150, 346, 356, 357
- 'freemen' (of Liverpool), status of, 28–9
- French Revolution (1789), 21, 24, 111, 147; spirit of, 228; and Italy, 255
- Gaisford, Dean (Dean of Christ Church College, Oxford), 242–3, 244
- Gascoyne, Colonel (later General) Isaac, MP, 34, 47, 48, 99, 100–1, 103, 143, 178; in general elections: (1812), 64, 67, 68, 69; (1831), 236
- Gaskell, James Milnes, 209, 210, 220, 240, 256, 387
- Gaskell, Mrs, 218, 387
- general elections: (1796), 34; (1802), 47; (1806), 48; (1807), 49; (1812), 59, 65–70, 99; (1816), 99; (1818), 99, 103; (1820), 99, 104; (1826), 154, 156; (1830–1), 227, 231, 233–4; (1832), 237–8; (1835), 229; (1837), 285; (1841), 331–2
- George IV (1820–30, formerly Prince Regent, q.v.), 113, 144 bis, 157, 223, 227, 231
- Georgetown (capital of British Guiana), 186, 195, 319
- Gillanders, F. M., 121, 122, 123, 181, 318, 341; personal details, 123
- Gillanders, Ogilvy and Company (Calcutta), 181, 182, 317, 318, 322, 323, 341, 342, 380
- Gladstone and Company, John (f. 1821), 121, 284, 286, 287 bis, 318, 320, 323, 326, 376
- Gladstone and Grant, John (partnership, f. 1812), 60, 120, 124; and a third partner, 120; slave compensation, 320
- Gladstone, Anne Mackenzie, née Robertson (JG's second wife): personal details, xii–xiii, 38, 40, 45–6, 84–9, 92, 95, 121, 122, 193, 381–2, 385; her ancestry, 38–9; and John Gladstone, 41; her marriage, 41, 55; and settlement, 42; Dingwall and Liverpool, 42; her first child (Anne), 45; and the Church of England, 46; her second and third children (Thomas and Robertson), 46; her fourth and fifth children (John Neilson and William Ewart), 54–5; in Bath, 61, 62; and general election (1812), 68; an Evangelical, 78 bis; her finances, 81; her sixth child (Helen Jane), 81; list of her children, 81; at Seaforth House, q.v., 82, 83, 84–9; her influence on John Gladstone, 86; in London, 88; her bastard half-brother, 40, 98; and slave-owning, 125; and JG's business affairs, 126, 193; her philanthropy, 126; and Dr Chalmers' praise, 128; and paganism at Eton, 130; and Tom at Eton, 133, 134, 135; on flogging, 135; and John Neilson and the Royal Navy, 135; and Canning, 144; on the Duke of Wellington, 161; and JG restless and ill, 162, 163; and servants at Seaforth House, 163; much strained and a permanent invalid, 168; and the 'sugar quarrel' 181; and a Scottish estate, 184; and Seton (a slave), 186; and JG's slaves, 197; and epidemics at Eton, 206; and Willy's (WEG's) career, 218–19, 246, 247, 253, 389–90; leaving Liverpool for Scotland, 222; seeking health at Leamington and elsewhere, 227 and n(1); and her doctors, 230; and Helen, 230 bis, 241; her daily routine, 230; and the Ewarts, 234; moves to Fasque, 238; and WEG and Holy Orders, 246, 247, 253; in Scotland, 281–2; her health improved, 284; another backstairs seduction, 284; and the deaths of her sister and brother-in-law, 284; her last illness and death, 284–5, 291, 300; her body to Fasque, 360
- Gladstone, Anne Mackenzie (JG's elder daughter), 45, 55, 66, 68, 88, 97, 145, 197, 246, 308, 395; birth, 45; personal details, 89–91; at Seaforth House, 82, 83; and Tom, 90, 91, 92, 132–3, 134, 168; and Willy (WEG), 93, 95, 167, 168, 170, 204, 207, 209, 217, 218, 220, 239, 241, 380–8 passim; and Helen, 97, 98, 164; and

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Gladstone, Anne Mackenzie (contd.)
 slave-owning, 125; and John Neilson, 135; her serious illness, 163-4; at Gloucester, 165-6; attempts to cure her, 166; a permanent invalid, 168, 172; and Dr Lizars's seton, 170; dying, and her sympathy for politicians, 170; her miniature, 171, 230; and JG's slaves, 193-4, 197, 275; and WEG's confirmation, and her own, 207; and WEG's Miscellany, 209 (see also Eton Miscellany); and Canning's death, 215; and baptism, God's grace and Calvinism, 217, 218; and WEG's career, 218; and Seaforth, 222; a 'saint', 288; and 'play-going', 301; her last days, death and funeral, 171, 220; her last words, 220; her body to Fasque, 360
- Gladstone, Anne Ramsden ('Peri', JG's niece), 164, 232
- Gladstone, Cape (in Greenland), 146
- Gladstone, Catherine, née Glynne (WEG's wife), 290 bis, 291, 294, 309-12 passim, 351, 363, 396; her marriage and honeymoon, 312; and WEG's 'lucubrations', 312; her first child, 313-14; and WEG at Hawarden and Fasque, 353, 358; and Lady Lincoln, 367; and Jessy's death, 370; with family to Italy, 370; her miscarriage, 370; and Helen (sister-in-law), 396-7
- Gladstone, David (JG's brother), 36, 232; personal details, 36; and the 'sugar quarrel' 181; joins Gillanders and Ogilvy, 181-2
- Gladstone family (JG's, see also under their names), 81, 86-7, 97; and their cousins, 98; JG as centre of, 98; and Wilberforce and anti-slavery, 118
- Gladstone fortune, the, 413-16
- Gladstone, Grant and Wilson, John (partnership, f. 1819), 121 bis, 153, 179, 180, 195
- Gladstone, Hay, Wyllie and Company (see also Gladstone, Wyllie and Co.), 341
- Gladstone, Helen Jane (JG's younger daughter), 81, 88, 91, 93, 97, 163, 165 bis, 257, 284, 294; birth, 81; personal details, 97; and Anne, 97, 98, 164; and Willy (WEG), 165, 166, 171, 207, 217-21 passim, 240-1, 251, 253, 278, 289-91, 296, 301, 307 bis, 308, 315, 330, 362, 363, 379, 388, 394-7 passim; her education, 166; and difficult home-life, 170-1; becomes an invalid, 171, 222; and religious questions, 218; and WEG's career, 218; seeking health 227 and n(1), 228; and her doctors, 230; 'an invalid in her own right', 230, 287-8; moves to Fasque, 238; in Scotland, 281, 282; and her mother's death, 285, 287; and Robertson's fiancée, 286; her trip to Ems, and Leon, 289-91; returns, better in health, 290-1; and Johnnie, 291; disappointed, becomes a recluse, 291; to Ems again, 291; and Dr Wiseman and Roman Catholicism, 291, 330; an opium (laudanum) addict, 326, 329, 377, 378; becomes a Roman Catholic, 330; takes to fasting, 338; at Baden-Baden, 351-2; and a family conclave, 352; under restraint, 352-3; getting worse, 362-4; and a convent at Leamington, 363; back to Fasque, 363; her miraculous cure, 363; finds a function, 363; and Robertson, 363; and Mary Ellen, 363-4; her share of JG's dispositions, 367, 368, 373; and JG's last years, 363, 371-4 passim; in Rome, 375, 377; her last testament, 375; and the Pope, 377; 'in care', 377; becomes a nun, 377, 378; more stable, 378; admires WEG, 379, 397; her political activities, 379; to the Continent again, 379; and WEG and the Infallibility Decree, 379; and Catherine, 396-7; her final collapse and death, 380
- Gladstone, Henry (Robertson's third son), 380
- Gladstone, Hugh (JG's brother), 46, 80, 98, 295
- Gladstone, James (JG's brother), 35, 36, 46, 295
- Gladstone, Jane, née Hall (JG's first wife), 32, 36, 41, 45, 381; personal details, 32-3; her death, 36
- Gladstone, Jessy (WEG's second daughter), 369
- Gladstone, Sir John, Baronet (1764-1851; 'Jack', formerly Gladstones: WEG's father), xi-xiii, xiv, 5; personal details, xi-xii, 11-12, 27, 41, 45, 50, 62, 97-8, 122, 140, 158, 178, 381-3; his family: daughters, see Gladstone: Anne and Helen; sons, see Gladstone: Thomas, Robertson, John Neilson and William Ewart; wives, see Gladstone: Anne and Jane; finances, 20, 32, 35, 44, 53, 54, 77-8, 179, 277, 289, 295, 313, 339, 357, 367-8, 368-9, 373, 413-16; health and physical disabilities, 162, 163, 285, 316, 329, 337, 363, 366, 371-4; residences: in Liverpool, see Rodney Street and Seaforth House; in London (Carlton Gardens and Carlton Terrace), see

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information*IndexGladstone, Sir John (contd.)

London; in Scotland: Edinburgh (Atholl Crescent and Royal Circus), see Edinburgh; Fasque, see Fasque

1764–1812: birth and education, 10; apprenticeship, 10–11; joins his father's business, 11; and sister Janet, 12; and business letters and pamphlets, 12; learns German and visits Germany and Baltic ports, 13; and Liverpool, q.v., 13–21; and Edgar Corrie (partnership), 14–15, 16–27, 43, 177, 224, 242; London, 15, 77, 82; corn-dealer (1787–9), 16–21; drops terminal 's' from his name, 16, 283; and Europe, 17, 22–3, 24; and his father's interference, 19; and commercial crisis (1787–8), 19–20; and corn stocks, 20; his home in Liverpool, 21, 27; his American adventure (1789–90), 22–6; his politics, 30, 32; and Cropper, 30, 185, 190–3, 224; and William Ewart, 30, 31; and town government of Liverpool, 31; and East India Company's monopoly, 31–2, 34; and the slave trade and slavery, 32, 36, 123, 125, 185–200 passim, 228, 235, 263–77, 320, 320–1; and the USA, 32; his assets and finances (1795), 32; ship owning and operating, 32, 35–6; his first wife, 32–3, 36; his house in Rodney Street, Liverpool, 33, 36, 37; and war with France, 34 bis, 59; a Commissioner for Income Tax, 34; and the new partnership, 33–4, 35; and Robert (brother), 35 ter, 36, 43, 121, 123; as insurer of ships, 35, 36, 44; his finances (1799), 35; and the firm, 35; and his other brothers, 35, 36 bis; and property investment (real estate), 35, 44, 52–3; his own ships, 35, 52; widowed (1798), 36, 38; and Anne Mackenzie Robertson, 38, 41; and her bastard half-brother, 40, 98; and the Robertson family, 41; his second marriage, 41, 55; and war with France and America, 43; and Goree warehouses burnt down, and Liverpool Fire Office, 44; shipping to Russia and the Baltic, 44; and semi-tropical produce, 44–5; and West Indian cotton and sugar, 45, 50–2, 123–6 passim, 194–8, 235, 264–6, 319, 325–6, 330, 331 (see also West Indian estates, JG's); and George Grant (partner), q.v., 45; his first daughter (Anne), 45; and Liverpool churches, 45–6; and Scots Kirk, 46; and Church of England, q.v., 46; his first and second sons (Thomas and Robertson), 46; general election (1802), 47; and

Whig-Radicals, 48; and political organisation, 48; and Roscoe, 49–50, 193, 224; more active in politics, 50, 51, 59ff; and U.S. Congress embargo on shipping, 50; and West Indies (especially Demerara, q.v.), 50–2; Chairman of West Indies Association (Liverpool), 51; and Liverpool Courier, 51; and the Americans, 51, 52, 74; his religion, 51, 78 (see also Evangelicalism); his fortune grows (1800–12), 53; his patrimony, 54; his father's death and funeral, 54; education of his children, 54, 129–40 passim; a patron of the arts, 54; his third and fourth sons (John Neilson and William Ewart), 54, 55

1812–1822: a critical year (1812), 59ff; and Canning, 61–2, 64, 99, 100–1, 143, 144, 147, 157, 158, 159, 223; and Kirkman Finlay, q.v., 61, 62, 155; his sons for Eton and Oxford, 61; and Orders-in-Council (1812), 62–3; and general election (1812), 65–70; and Bolton, 65, 66, 102; in a cartoon, 67; as 'commercial arbitrator', 71; a 'freeman of the city' (Liverpool), 71 (see also 28–9); and trade with India, 72, 115, 122, 181, 282, 316–28, 341; and Liverpool charities, 72; as a magistrate, 72–3; and Associated Bodies of Trade, 73; his first printed pamphlet, 73–4; and Lord Liverpool, 75; and the property (income) tax, 75–6; joins Paviers' Company (of London), 77; and sheriffdom of the City of London, 77; his fortune increasing, 77–8; and re-investment problems, 77; an Evangelical, 78 bis; and Liverpool schools and churches built by him, 78–80 passim; his second daughter (Helen), 81; list of his children, 81; and Helen, 81, 97–8, 287–8, 290–1, 330, 351–2, 362, 363; and landed gentry, 80, 82; his London house, 82; and his wife's influence, 86, 381; and Sabbatarianism, 86; and good living, 87; a good husband, 89; and his sons, 93 bis; as centre of the family, 98; aspires to be an MP, 99; and Backhouse, 101; seeking a constituency, 102–3; returned for Lancaster (1818), 104; and a 'secret ballot' 104; another election (1820), 104–5; considers Liverpool, selects Woodstock, 104–5; as MP, 82, 105–6; and Liverpool's needs, 106–7; and bridges at Runcorn and Conway, 106; and the Corn Laws, q.v., 109–10 and nn, 150, 355; and freedom of commerce, 110; and the currency question, 110;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information*IndexGladstone, Sir John, (contd.)

and the British Constitution, 110–12 passim; and Peterloo, 112, 113; and Queen Caroline's affair, 113; and Catholic Emancipation, q.v., 114; and Greece and Turkey, 114, 148; and trade with China, 116, 282, 316–28; and the prohibition of slavery, 117–18; the 'merchant prince', 119–28; his many interests, and prompt decisions, 119; progress of his partnership, 119–20; business reorganisation, 120–1; and new partnerships, 121; and Robert (a quarrel), 121, 123; an autocrat, 122; and Larkins, 122; and Thomas Ogilvy, 123; his estate ('Success') in Demerara, 123, 125, 126 (see also West Indian estates); his slaves there, 123; and his WI investments, 123–4; and expansion in Demerara, 124–5, 125–6; his business and his soul, 125; and slave-owning, 125; his charities, 126–7, 128; a notable philanthropist, 127; supported by Chalmers, 127–8; and St Andrew's school and 'free education', 128; and the education and careers of his sons, 129–40 passim; and the classics, 130, 132

1822–1830: his description of himself, 143; and Huskisson, 144, 145, 146, 148–50, 155, 160, 223, 232; and William Ewart's death, 145; Liverpool's appreciation, 145–6; and Scoresby's, 146; Canning's loyal supporter, 147; and self-determination abroad and political repression at home, 147; and Greek independence, 148; and American cotton, 149, 317; and protective tariffs, 149; and Navigation Acts, 150, 360–1; and currency and banking, interest rates and monetary policy, 150–1; and trade unions and the Combination Law, 151; and labour unrest, 152–3, 154; and commercial collapse (1825), 155; and Huskisson and Finlay, 155; and Woodstock, 155–6; and Berwick-on-Tweed, 156–7, 158; end of his parliamentary career, 157; and Liverpool support for Canning as PM, 157; frustration, 158; and Duke of Wellington, 161, 247–8; seeking a Scottish estate, 162, 183–4, 199; and Henry Joy, 162–3; seeks parliamentary seat for Tom, 170; and Anne's death, 170; and Liverpool docks, 172; and Liverpool–Manchester railway, 172–5, 233; and national finance and the bankers, 175; and Liverpool charities, 176–7; on educating the working classes, 176–7;

and Liverpool city politics, 177–9; his finances (1821–8), 179; and the 'sugar quarrel' 180–1; and cotton from India, 181; and Gillanders and Ogilvies, 182; his real home in Gloucester, 182; and a private bank, 182–3; land purchase in Scotland, 183–4; and Cropper, 185, 190–3, 224; his letter to William Cobbett, 192–3; increases WI investments, 194–8; and the abolitionists, 198–200; his 1,000 and more slaves, 198; and WEG's status at Oxford, 205; his own limited education, 212; and a place for WEG at Christ Church, Oxford, 216; and WEG's profession and career, 221; and purchase of Fasque (q.v.) estate (in Scotland), 222, 224; and Roscoe, Currie, Cropper and Rathbone, 224; 'southward to the spas', 224

1830–1833: and the state of Europe, 227–8; and the slavery question, 228; at Leamington, and elsewhere (1830–3), 229; and Dr Jephson, 229; electioneering (1830–1), 231; general election in Liverpool (1830), 233–4; and Sir Robert Peel, 233, 332–5; and the Ewarts, 234; and a seat in parliament again, 236; and Lord Sandon, 236, 261; and 'Reform', 236; and the Liverpool Standard, 237; and WEG at Newark and Tom at Portarlinton, 238; moves to Fasque, q.v., 238; and WEG and Holy Orders, 246–7; and WEG and 'Reform', 250; and WEG's Newark seat, 257; his influence over WEG's political career, 262; and emancipation of slaves, 263–77; his improvements in Demerara, 264–6; and protection of planters' interests, 272–7; and Abolition of Slavery Act (1833), 276; and indentured labour for WI, 276, 287, 288, 305, 321–5; and search for new fields for investment, 277, 282

1833–1851: 'Laird of Fasque and Balfour', 281ff; his improvements at Fasque, 281–2; and his Edinburgh house, 282; and Royal Bank of Scotland, 282, 342; and his wife's death, 285; a fall and a cataract, 285; contests Dundee (1837), 285; and Robertson's and Tom's marriages, 285–6; and Robertson's interest in trans-Atlantic steamships, 286–7; and uncle Divie and Jamaica, 287; his first grandchild, 288; his dispositions of his estate: (1838), 289; (1840), 295; and Helen and Leon, 290, 291; his philanthropy revived, 291, 291–2; his charitable buildings at Leith, and Dr Chalmers, 292–3; St Thomas's Church, Leith,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information*IndexGladstone, Sir John, (contd.)

292–3; and Trinity College, Glenalmond, 293–4; Liverpool Collegiate Institution, 294; St Thomas's Church, Toxteth Park, 294; his political optimism, 294–5; his brothers and friends dying, 295; and Church and State, 297–8; and WEG's wedding and honeymoon, 312; his allowances to his sons, 313; and WEG's ascendancy, 315; and India and China, 316–28; his physical disabilities, 316; avoids the opium trade, 317, 326; his compensation for freed slaves, 320, 320–1; selling WI estates, 325–6; investments in UK transport undertakings, 326–8, 339–41, 349; operation for cataract, 329; and Helen's conversion to Roman Catholicism, 330; winding up WI estates, 330; and sugar from WI and South America, 331; offered Aberdeen and Leith seats, 331–2; his advice to Peel, 332–5; his portrait by Bradley, 337; his deafness, 337; and Chalmers, 337–8; and the 'Seceders', 338; and Robertson's railway speculations, 341; and a Gladstone business in Calcutta, 341; building at St Andrews, 342; and a church for Fasque, 342–3; Berwick's offer, 343; and WEG's renown, 347; and sugar duties, 348; and Helen at Baden-Baden, 351–2; Peel's resignation, 354–5; and WEG as Colonial Secretary, 355; a baronet and armiger, 357; increases sons' allowances, 357; and WEG's and Tom's religious differences, 358; distrusts WEG, 358; and the Oak Farm liquidation, 359–60; his interest in Fasque, 360; and WEG and repeal of Navigation Acts, 360–1; angry with Peel, 361; and with WEG and Robertson, 361; and taxation, 361; and radicalism, 362; and Chartist rally (1848), 362; and America, 362; failing, 363; his first serious illness (1847), and decline (1849), 366; and public affairs, 367; and WEG's 'communism', 367; disperses half his estate to his children, 367–8; his finances (1850), 368–9; his family round him, 372; declining years, 371–4; codicils to his will, 373; and Sarah Ogilvy, 373; and WEG's complexity and wilfulness (independence), 391; and WEG's liberalism, 394; and his wives, 381–2; his death, 374; settlement of his estate, 375–6; his 'Polonius' letters to Tom at Eton (1820–2, conflated), 409–12 Gladstone, John and Robert (partnership, f. 1818), 120, 121

Gladstone, Captain John Neilson, RN (JG's third son), 54, 90, 91, 92, 97, 237, 295, 381; birth, 54; education, 129, 135; and the Royal Navy, 135–6; midshipman, posted to Sparrowhawk, 140, 156, 166; in Eastern Mediterranean, 166; the most robust of JG's sons, 168; his naval future assured, 168; his prospects, 205; at sea, 222; his allowance (1831), 231; and William (WEG), 240, 254; and a continental tour, 254–7 passim; a 'nomad', 282; placed on half-pay, 284; and a seat in parliament, 295; wins Walsall at by-election, 331; loses it at general election, 332; wins Ipswich, 335; loses Ipswich, 358; frustrated but content, 365; shoulders burden of JG, 366; his share of JG's dispositions, 367; and settlement of JG's estate, 375; a country gentleman and MP for Devizes, 375–6; his death, 376

Gladstone, Johnnie (son of Robertson G., JG's first grandson), 288, 291

Gladstone, Mary (WEG's daughter), 370

Gladstone, Mary Ellen, née Jones (Robertson's wife), 286, 336, 377; her first child, 288; and Helen (sister-in-law), 363–4; her ill-health, 365

Gladstone, Murray (JG's brother), 19, 35, 36, 44, 46, 53, 80; personal details, 36

Gladstone, Robert (JG's brother), 35 ter, 41–4 passim, 50, 71, 77, 98, 104–5, 112, 123 bis, 156, 181, 232, 341; and JG (partners), 43, 120, 121; married, 53; Chairman, Liverpool East India Association, 116; and JG (a quarrel), 121; forms separate business, 121–2, 181; and Thomas Ogilvy, 123; and David Ogilvy, 181; and Liverpool–Manchester railway, 174, 232; and the 'sugar quarrel', 181; his death, 284

Gladstone, Robertson (JG's second son), 46, 91 bis, 92, 97, 168, 214, 228, 231, 285, 295, 317; birth, 46; education, 129; 135–40 passim; at Eton, 135–8 passim; Glasgow College, 137–8, 139–40; joins JG in business, 140, 163; and repairs to ship, Duke of Lancaster, 153; his activities, 163; and ill health, 164; to go abroad, 168; his miniature, 168; in Italy, 168; Rome, 168–9; visiting JG's WI estates, 169, 171; his importance to the firm, 180; joins partnership, 180; and slavery, 194, 199–200; visits WI again, and USA and Canada, 199; his prospects, 205; and WEG's career, 219; remains in Liverpool to manage JG's business, 222 bis; his 'situation' and standing in Liverpool,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information*Index*Gladstone, Robertson (contd.)

- 229; and Liverpool election (1830), 234; and Liverpool Conservative Association, 237; and the Standard, 237, 260; and Asiatic cholera, 237; and William (WEG), 240, 248, 249; and Lord Sandon, 261; and the WI, 263; and production costs, 265–6; and JG's work for WI planters, 272–3, 274; on WEG's oratory, 276; and Abolition of Slavery Act (1833), 276; his home in Liverpool, 282; his engagement and marriage, 285–6, 301; and trans-Atlantic steamships, 286–7; his first child, 288; and politics, 295; his future, 316; and trade with Far East, 317, 318; to WI again, 318–19; his expenses criticised by JG, 319; refuses to stand for parliament, 335–6; a man of importance, 336; Mayor of Liverpool, 336 bis, 347 bis, 365; his poor health, 336; his politics changing, 336 bis; and Grand Junction Railway, 339, 349; and other railways, 341; again declines to stand for parliament, 358; and free trade and financial reform, 361; and Helen, 363; and JG's paternalism, 364–5; his personal development, 365, 378; and Cobden, 367; his share of JG's dispositions, 367–8; and settlement of JG's estate, 375; and WEG (intimate), 376; his radicalism, 376–7; President of Financial Reform Association, 376–7; and Unitarianism, 377, 380; confines his political activities to Liverpool, 378; and WEG for South Lancashire, 378; his wife's death, 378; admires WEG, 379, 397; his death, 380
- Gladstone, Stuart (JG's nephew), 136, 137 bis, 167; and the 'sugar quarrel', 181
- Gladstone, Thomas (JG's brother), 35, 46, 80
- Gladstone, Sir Thomas ('Tom', JG's eldest son), 89–93 passim, 97, 230 bis, 295; birth, 46; personal details, 92, 93, 138; and Anne, 90–2 passim, 132–3, 168; and his father (JG), 93; early education and a career, 129–40 passim; at Eton, 84, 87 bis, 130, 131–5, 138, 138–9, 201, 204, 215, 386; and John Neilson and the Royal Navy, 136; and Robertson and Willy (WEG) at Eton, 135, 138; at Christ Church, Oxford, 163, 164, 167, 204; his ill health, 164; his future planned, 167; at British Embassy in Paris, 167; and cousin Stuart, 167; his health deteriorating, 167, 169; to go abroad, 168; in Italy, 168–9; Rome, 168–9; ordered home for treatment, 170; recovers, 170; and slavery, 194; his prospects, 205; and WEG's career, 219; a trainee-barrister, 222, 231; living at Albany, London, 231, 282; his allowance (1831), 231; and Queensborough elections, 231, 235, 238; and Liverpool election, 234; and Portarlington election (1832), 238 bis, 258–9; and WEG, 240, 254; enters House of Commons (1833), 260–1; his maiden speech, 261; and the anti-slavery movement, 263; defends JG and MacLean in Parliament, 274; and a new parliamentary seat (Leicester), 283, 285; and his parliamentary future, 283, 284; his engagement and marriage, 285–6, 300; and WEG's ascendancy, 315; and alleged ill-treatment of indentured labour in WI, 325; defeated at Peterborough, 332; his infant daughter dies, 332; wins Peterborough, 335; unseated, 337; and WEG's religious activities, 347–8; and Helen at Baden-Baden, 352; and WEG's ritualism, 358; in 1849, 364; jealous of WEG's success, 364; his share of JG's dispositions, 367, 368; and settlement of JG's estate, 375; moves into Fasque, 375; his Evangelicalism, 375, 377–8; attempts to re-enter politics, 378; and Helen's death, 380; and Hallam, 388; his death, 380
- Gladstone, Rev. William (a collateral relative), 265 and n(1)
- Gladstone, William Ewart (1809–98; 'Willy', JG's fourth and youngest son; Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, 1868–74, 1880–5, 1886, 1892–4), xi, xiii–xiv
- 1809–1822: birth, baptism and godparents, 55; his Scottish ancestry, 38 and nn; personal details, 91–6 passim, 138, 168, 309, 344; early years and primary education, 93–7, 129–40 passim, 383–4; his first public speech (aet. 3), 70; sources of his religious commitment, 85; his 'isolation' in the family, 91, 92; his brightness at school, 93; and his parents, 93, 95, 381–7 passim; and his godparents, 93; powers of disputation, 93; early travels, 94; Edinburgh, 94, 170; London, 94, 95; Cambridge and Bristol 94; and Hannah More, Roscoe and the Wilberforces, 94; Lanarkshire, Biggar and Dingwall, 95; and Anne, 93, 95, 167, 168, 170, 204, 207, 209, 217, 218, 220, 239, 241, 380–8 passim; and Canning, 95; as raconteur, 95; his narrow escape

*IndexGladstone, William Ewart (contd.)

(aet. 8½), 96; his first poem, quoted, 96; his religious piety, 96–7; early reading, 97; teaching in Sunday school, 97; and Catholic Emancipation (aet. 11), 114, 207; and the Irish question and Greek freedom, 114; and John Neilson's fortitude, 136; at Eton, 97, 138, 164, 170, 201–16

1822–1830: and death of his namesake, 145; Berwick-on-Tweed election (1826), 156; his Eton Miscellany, q.v., 159, 170, 208–9, 213; and Canning's death, 159, 215; and Helen, 165, 166, 171, 207, 217–21 passim, 240–1, 251, 253, 278, 289–90, 291, 296, 301, 307 bis, 308, 315, 330, 362, 363, 379, 388, 394, 395, 396, 397; at Gloucester, 166–7; and John Neilson, 168; preparing for Oxford, 170; and the 'paper war' about slavery in WI, 192; and slavery, 194, 198, 387, 391; and 'Montem' (at Eton), 203, 214; his skill at versification, 203; his religion and spiritual difficulties, 204, 207, 210, 211, 215, 239–40, 253–7 passim; his 'motivation', 204; JG's hopes for, 205; his ability with words, 205; and the classics, 206, 208, 244; and 'liberal' subjects, 206; his diary (1825–95), 206; in Literati (debating) Society (at Eton), 206–7, 209–10; confirmation in Church of England, 207, 208; his Evangelicalism, 207; his adolescent sexuality, 207; and girls and women, 207, 387, 389, 395; and Arthur Hallam, 208, 210, 212, 220, 240, 296; and the proletariat, 208; his style in speech and writing (aet. 17), 209; his teeth, 210; and his mother's and Anne's illness, 210; and Sabbath observance, 210–11; and Swedenborgians, 211; on 'repentance' (aet. 15), 211; his studies, 211, 214; and politics, 211, 214; and JG's business and political affairs, 211–12; his first appearance in print, 212; and JG's limited education, 212; and his teachers, 212; 'sent up' for merit (three times), 204, 212; and Keate (headmaster of Eton), 213; and the Queen (Victoria) at Buckingham Palace, 213; his critical faculty, 211, 214; and Catholicism, 214; and Church and State, 215; effect of Eton on, 215; and his future career, 215, 218–19, 221, 388, 389–90; on leaving Eton, 215–16, 253; between Eton and Oxford (one year), 216–19, 388; at Wilmslow Rectory, 216–17; on mathematics and the classics, 216; visits

Manchester textile mills, 217; and the Gregs, 217; and 'predestination', 217; his researches in theology, 217–18; at Oxford (Christ Church), 219–20, 222, 237, 239–54, 244, 388–91; his Oxford friends, named, 220; and Evangelicalism, 207, 220, 240, 246; and Anne's death, 220–1, 239, 241; and the redemption of mankind, 220

1830–1833: and the nation's finances, 227; and the Monarchical Party in Europe, and the spirit of the French Revolution, 227–8; his allowance (1831), 231; and Huskisson's death, 232; and Liverpool election (1830), 233; as JG's amanuensis, 233; and a double first at Oxford, 237, 244, 245, 251, 252; and Liverpool Standard, 237; and Newark election (1832), 237–8; and Fasque, 239; and his brothers, 240; and Tom, 240, 254, 364; his economics (at Oxford), 241; and Charles Canning, 241; on religion at Oxford, 241; and an ideology, 241; and the Papacy, q.v., 214, 242 bis, 249 bis; and rationalism and philosophy, 243; deficiencies of education at Eton and Oxford, 243–4; and mathematics, 216, 244–5; and the Debating Society at Oxford (later Oxford Union, q.v.), 245, 247; and political discussion at Oxford, 245; 'beaten-up' at Oxford, 245; his career undecided, 246, 253; and Peel as MP for Liverpool, and the Liverpool election, 247; and Wellington, 247, 248; his supremacy in debate, 248–51; and a horse, 248; and the Ireland Scholarship, 248; and music, 249; and the 'Reform' issue, q.v., 249–51, 255; and anti-slavery, 251; his 'regularity and habits of application, 251; on leaving Oxford, 252–3; and dangers threatening Church and State, 253; his first railway journey, 253–4; a continental tour, 254–7; and the Vaudois community, 208, 209, 254; St Peter's, Rome, 254–5; and Italian liberalism, 255–6; becoming a High Anglican and anti-Papist, 256, 393; his self-mastery, 256–7; and Newcastle's offer of the Newark seat, 257; at Torquay, 257; and Leamington, 257–8; 260; and the fate of his father and family, 257–8; the Newark election, 238, 257, 258, 259–60, 285; and Duke of Newcastle, 257, 260; and Robertson's Standard, 260; enters House of Commons (1833), 260–1; his maiden speech, 261, 297; a pronounced Tory, 261–2; and anti-

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information*IndexGladstone, William Ewart (contd.)

slavery movement, 263–4; and Kirkman Finlay, 272, 296; defends planters' interests, 274–5, 276; his anomalous position, 277

1833–1851: his home in the Albany, London, 282; and at Fasque, 282; at Liverpool (1836), 283; his bright future, 284; and deaths of uncle Robert Gladstone and aunt Mary Nimmo, 284; at Dundee (1837), 285; two unsuccessful courtships, 286, 300–1, 303–4; and his brothers' fiancées, 286; and JG's indentured labour, 288–9; his book, State and Church, q.v., 289 bis; with Helen to Ems, 289–90; Italy, and Catherine Glynnne, 290; his marriage, 291, 312; a 'Puseyite', 291, 345; and Helen and Roman Catholicism, 291; on the Roman Church, 291; and the Church of England and church schools, 293–4; tipped for Prime Minister, 293; and James Hope, 293–4, 313, 347; and Trinity College, Glensalmond, 293–4; and education generally, 293–4; Fasque and Edinburgh, 296; and his friends' deaths, 296; and Dr Chalmers, 296–7; Liverpool freemen and Demerara slaves, 297; and Church-State relationships, 297; and Sabbath observance, 298; his religion, visions and prayers, 298–9; first ministerial appointment (1834), 299; Under-Secretary for the Colonies (1835), 299–300, 319–20; and Lord Aberdeen, 299; in Opposition, 300; his first and second wooings, 286, 300–1, 303–4; and 'Bedlam', 301, 314; his poetry, 301 bis; his parliamentary 'subjects', 301–2; committee work, 302; general political views, 302–3; and British colonial policy, 303, 313; his speech on apprenticeships for freed slaves, 304–5; and Chalmers on Church and State, 305 (see also State and Church); introspection, retrospection and melancholy, 307–8; plans for a religious order in the Church of England, 308, 314; in Italy, 308–10; a good observer, 308–9; Naples, Sicily and Mount Etna, 309; and the Pope's temporal government, 309; his third wooing, 309–11, 311; marriage and honeymoon, 291, 312; accepted by Glynnne and Lytteltons, 312–13; at Hawarden, 313; and Jamaica, 311; and his career (still vacillating), 313; and a second book, 313; and the Opium War, 313; his liberalism, 313; his first child, 313; and philanthropy, 314;

Millbank Penitentiary, 314; and prosti-tutes, 314, 389, 395; and Oak Farm iron-works, 314–15; his ascendancy in the family, 315; his activities at the Colonial Office, 320; and Helen's conversion to Roman Catholicism, 330; his second child, 330; and sugar from WI and South America, 331; and abolition of the slave trade, 331; supports John at Walsall, 331; his 'anti-Corn Law' speech, 331; wins again at Newark, 332; Vice-President of Board of Trade, 332, 335, 345–7; and Burnt-island ferry, 340; and Robertson's railway speculations, 341; and Sir Robert Peel, 344–56 passim; and the 'wages only' link, 344–5; his political ambitions, 345; Privy Councillor and Master of the Mint, 345; and the Corn Laws, 346; and income tax, 346; and Peel's budget (1842), 346; praised by Peel and Graham, 347; his portrait by Lucas, 347; President of Board of Trade, 347–51; his religious mission, 347–8; and Hope and Manning, 347; and his father (differences of political outlook), 348–9; and control of railway policy, 349; and other interests, 350; and bishops in North Wales, 350–1; and Maynooth College, 351; and the Vatican, 351; and educational matters, 351; and Helen in Baden-Baden, 351–2; and the Glynnne family business, 353; at Hawarden, 353; and Newman's conversion, 353; his moral and religious confusion, 354; and Irish Roman Catholics, Peel's Dissenters' Chapels Bill, Pusey's suspension and Ward's Ideal of a Christian Church, 354; his liberal views of religion, 354; and the 'infidel state', 354; and Manning, 354; Secretary of State for the Colonies (for six months), 355–6; and indentured labour, 355 and n(s); nominated and elected for Oxford University seat, 357, 358; his independence, 358, 391; and Oak Farm and Hawarden, 359–60; and repeal of Navigation Acts, 360; and Chartists (1848), 362; and Tom, 364; and the upbringing of his children, 365–6; Christmas (1848) at Fasque, 365–6; and national finance, 366; and Lady Lincoln and Lord Walpole, 366–7, 372; helps JG with his dispositions, 367; his share, 367–8; his calculation of JG's worth in 1850, 368–9; and the Gorham case, 369; his second daughter dies, 369–70; and foreign affairs, 370;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More information*IndexGladstone, William Ewart (contd.)

and Palmerston, 370 bis; and Disraeli, 370, 397; with wife and family to Italy, 370; and political prisoners in Naples, 370, 371; and Papal Aggression Bill (1850), 370; and a ministerial crisis (1850), 370-1; Catherine's letters delayed, 371; and Church questions, 371; and religious liberty, 371; and JG's last years, 372-4; and settlement of JG's estate, 375; and Robertson (intimate), 376; his business affairs, 376; Chancellor of the Exchequer, 376; and Crimean War, 376; a confirmed High Churchman, 378; his difficulties as MP for Oxford University, 378; MP for South Lancashire, 378; Prime Minister, 379, 380; admired by Robertson and Helen, 379, 397; his financial difficulties, 379; and Helen's 'apostasy', 379, 394, 396, 397; and her death, 380; and Wyllie, 380; his Midlothian campaign, 380; and the Irish Question, 380, 401

the making of, 381-404: his parents, 93, 381-7 passim; birth and early years, 383-4; brothers and sisters, 384, 388; at Rawson's school, Seaforth, 384; his Evangelical Calvinistic inheritance, 384-5, 394; and Roman Catholicism, 385; his thrift and charities, 385; at Eton, 386-8 (see also above); and Anne's illness, 380-8 passim; his adolescence and confirmation, 387; and women, 207, 387, 389, 395; early political views, 387-8; and his career, 215, 218-19, 221, 388, 389-90; between Eton and Oxford, 216-19, 388; at Oxford, 388-91 (see also above); and prostitutes, 314, 389, 395; and ballroom dancing, 389; and theology, 217-18, 389-90, 400; and the Church, 387, 389-90, 392, 393, 400; and politics, 390, 394; and Church and State, 390; and the Papacy, q.v., 390, 391, 394; and 'Reform' (of the franchise), 390-1, 401-2; his speech in Oxford Union, 391; and slavery, 194, 198, 387, 391; his idealism, 391-2, 402, 404; and the aristocracy, 392, 397; and his book, State and Church, q.v., 392, 393; his liberalism, 393, 394; and Puseyism and the Oxford Movement, 393; and sacramental religion, 256, 393; an Anglo-Catholic, 394, 402; and the colonies and Empire, 394; and Palmerston, 394, 399; and opium and the Chinese, 394; and Jews and Roman Catholics in England, 394; at the Board of Trade, 394; dependent upon, but not subservient to, JG, 395; and education of the masses, 395; and criminals and lunatics, 395; his courtships, 395-6; and his wife, 396; and Helen's 'apostasy', 379, 394, 396, 397; ideas derived from JG, 398-9; and self-determination (national), 398; and morality in international relations, 398; and the 'Public Law of Europe', 398, 399; and freedom of speech, 398; economics and his fiscal policy, 241, 398-9; and the national debt, 399; and charity, 399; attains stability, 399; his 'crusades', 400, 403; his three political periods, 400; and opposing parental influences, 400; and Christianity and the classics, 400-1; and science and scepticism, 401; and 'Vaticanism' and Papal Infallibility, 401; and Bulgarian Horrors (Atrocities), 401; and Ireland (Home Rule), 380, 401, 403; and extension of the franchise, 401-2; and the masses, 395, 402; and Nonconformists, 402; his 'charisma', 403; his political development, 403-4; his religious idealism, 404

Gladstone, William Henry (WEG's son), 313, 351

Gladstone, Wyllie and Company (see also Gladstone, Hay, Wyllie and Co.), 380

Gladstones, clan and associations of, 315

Gladstones' coat of arms, 167, 357

Gladstones, Helen, see Goalen, Helen

Gladstones, Rev. James (JG's uncle), 4 bis, 10

Gladstones, Janet, see Ogilvy, Janet

Gladstones, John (of Biggar, JG's grandfather), 3-4

Gladstones, Margaret, see Cruden, Margaret

Gladstones, Marion, see Watson, Marion

Gladstones, Mary, see Nimmo, Mary

Gladstones, Nelly, née Neilson (JG's mother, wife of Thomas Gladstones, q.v.), 5-7, 15, 53, 54; personal details, 19; and her children, 5-6, 6, 10, 46; and business affairs, 6, 7; and JG and Corrie, 19; and JG's first wife, 32, 33, 36; in old age, 37; her portrait by Raeburn, 37, 281; and JG's second marriage, 42; and food riots, 43; her death, 53

Gladstones, Thomas (JG's father), 3, 4-9, 10, 12, 14, 15, 18, 53, 125, 127, 212, 372, 381; personal details, 7-9, 11, 18, 20, 21, 40, 382; and corn and provision trade, 5, 6, 7; his marriage, 5; and children, 5-6, 6, 10, 46; and Dalry Mills, 6, 7; and Baltic grain, 6; and Greenland whalers,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Gladstones, Thomas (contd.)
 7; and oil of vitriol (sulphuric acid), 7 bis, 37; his business limitations and range of interests, 7; 'Gildbrother of Edinburgh', 7; his summer cottage, 7; and church affairs, 7-8; and religious study, preaching and devotion, 7-8, 21; three centres of his life, 8; his morality and outlook, 8-9, 11, 18; and the slave trade, 8; 'Elder of the Kirk', 9; his politics, 9; and Allan & Stewart, 14, 19, 20, 21; advice to his son (JG), 15, 18, 19 bis, 21 bis, 22, 54, 407-9; and JG and Corrie, 19, 22; and commercial crisis (1787-8), 19, 20; and financial worries, 20; risks he avoided, 20, 21, 22; on France, 21; and JG's prosperity, 21; and Corrie, 22; and JG's first wife, 32, 33, 36; and Robert, 3 bis, 5; and David, 36; and Thomas, 36; and relationships between JG and his brothers, 36; feels his age, 36-7; his portrait by Raeburn, 37, 281; and JG and the Robertsons, 41; and JG's second marriage, 42; and food riots, 43; his wife's death, 53; had recommended JG to restrict births, 54; his austerity, 87; old age, death and funeral, 54; his estate at death, 54; his 'Polonius' letter to JG (1787), 407-9
- Glasgow, 12, 53, 71, 74, 152, 187; Burghs (electoral divisions), 156; College, 53, 62, 137 bis, 214; cotton trade, 20; Grammar School, 62; tobacco trade, 23; University, 302
- Gledstones of Cocklaw, arms of, 167, 357
- Glenalmond: Trinity College, 293-4, 314, 351, 357; chapel of, 343
- Glenelg, Lord (Colonial Secretary), 288-9; and indentured labour and freed slaves, 288-9, 321, 323, 324
- Gloucester: Beaufort Buildings, 165; Canal, 179, 326; Sherburne House, 165
- Glynne, Catherine, see Gladstone, Catherine
- Glynne family, 290, 309 bis; iron works, 314-15, 353 (see also Oak Farm); financially embarrassed, 359, 360, 376
- Glynne, Lady, 310, 359
- Glynne, Mary (later Lady Lyttelton), 312
- Glynne, Sir Stephen, 290, 314, 332, 353, 359, 360, 370
- Goalen, Alexander (JG's brother-in-law), 53
- Goalen, Helen, née Gladstones (JG's sister), 53, 80
- Goalen, W. M. (JG's nephew), 181
- Goodall, Dr (headmaster and provost of Eton), 131 bis
- Gorham, Rev. George, 369
- Graham, Sir James, 347
- Grand Junction Railway, 314, 327, 339, 349
- Grant, George, 45, 55, 72, 77, 93, 119, 152, 153, 156, 163, 174, 179, 196, 228, 231, 234, 327; and India, 120, 121, 122; his engagement, 179-80
- Grant, Rev. Mr (of Calder, Nairn), 45
- Greece and the Greeks, 147, 147-8, 159, 166, 211, 223, 387
- Greek War of Independence (1821-7), 148, 159, 166, 387
- Greenland whalers, 7, 20
- Gregs, the (of Quarry Bank, near Manchester), 217
- Grey, Charles, Earl, 247, 269
- Hall, Jane, see Gladstone, Jane
- Hallam, Arthur, 208 bis, 210, 212, 220, 240, 313, 387 bis, 388; his death, 296
- Hallam, Henry (Whig historian), 212; works mentioned, 212
- Hamer estates (in Demerara), 124, 195 bis
- Hamer, Joseph (deceased), heirs of, 52, 195
- Harcourt, Colonel Francis, 309
- Hargreaves (miniature painter), 168, 171, 230
- Hawarden Castle, Flintshire, North Wales, 310, 311, 312, 353, 359, 360, 376, 379; estate revenue of (1840), 314
- Hawarden Church, 378
- Hawtrey, Dr E. C. (an Eton master), 202, 347
- Hay, Andrew, 322, 342
- Haynes, Lucy, 164
- Heath, William (WEG's tutor at Eton), 202
- Herbert, Charles (a Demerara fiscal), 189-90
- Herbert, Sidney, 220, 240, 243
- Heywood, Arthur, 48
- Heywood, B. A., 143
- Highlands of Scotland, families and customs of, 38-41
- Hobhouse, Sir John Cam, 321
- Holland (see also Dutch): her lost colonies, 74, 124; and Belgium, 227
- Holt, Miss: her boarding school, 46, 53
- Home Rule for Ireland (see also Ireland and Irish), 380, 401, 403
- Hooker, Richard (Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity), 218
- Hope, James (later Hope-Scott), 293-4, 307, 308, 313, 314, 342, 347, 351, 369; joins Roman Catholic Church, 371
- Hope, Samuel, 126
- Hope-Scott, James, see Hope, James
- Horner, Leonard, 117

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Horton, Robert Wilmot, 125
 Howick, Lord, 269, 273, 274
 Hume, Joseph, 152
 Hunt, 'Orator', 101, 112, 227
 Huskisson, William, 75, 100, 109, 117, 144, 145, 146, 168, 170, 182, 223, 247, 248; President of Board of Trade, 145; MP for Liverpool, 146-7, 178; his economic policy, 148, 149; JG and Finlay on, 148; and Navigation Laws (1823), 150; and Corn Laws, 150; and Usury Laws, 150; and trade unions, 151, 153, 154; and labour unrest, 153 bis, 154; and commercial collapse (1825), 155; his ill health, 155; after Canning's death, 159-60; Colonial Secretary, 160; and JG, 160; resigns, 160-1; and Duke of Wellington, 160-1, 168; and Liverpool docks, 172; and Liverpool-Manchester railway, 173-6 passim; and Liverpool Mechanics' Institute, 177; and anti-slavery, 185ff; and West Indies, 198; his death, 232
- Income (property) tax, 75-6, 334, 346, 398-9
 indentured labour: for Mauritius, 318; for West Indies, 276, 287, 288, 317, 321-5, 330, 355 and n(5)
 India (see also East India Company): as source of cotton, 63, 74, 77, 149, 333; general trade with, 63, 71, 115-16, 120, 122, 134, 181, 316-28 passim, 333; ships to and from (1814-17), numbers of, 116; shipping, 123; JG on improvements needed in, 333-4
 India: Board of Control, 101, 115, 321; Governor-Generalship, 143, 144, 282; Houses of Agency, 122; Office, 101
 Infallibility Decree (of the Papacy), 379
 Ireland, 17, 18, 114, 147, 238, 351, 387; access to (via Holyhead), 326; and Roman Catholic church, 354; Home Rule for, 380, 401, 403
 Irish: Coercion Bill (1833), 261; National Education System (in Liverpool), 336; Question, 380 (see also Ireland)
 Irvine: on miracles, 251
 Italy (see also Naples), 168, 237, 254-7, 289, 290; the Risorgimento, 255
- Jack (a slave), 186, 188
 Jamaica, 44, 75, 103, 125, 190; rising in, 378
 Jamaican Assemby (legislature), 103, 302, 311
 Jamaican estates (plantations), JG's, 196-8, 264, 273, 318, 326; conditions and treatment of slaves, 266-7; negro rebellion, 268; market-price of slaves, 275; compensation for freed slaves, 320-1
 James, William, 172, 173
 Jardine, George (logician), 137, 214
 Jephson, Dr (of Leamington), 169, 170, 171, 229-30, 230-1, 288, 336, 362-3
 Jewish Emancipation Bill, 358
 Jews and Parliament, 261, 394
John Shand (ship), 81
 Johnson, Rev. David, 7
 Jones, Hugh (banker), 286
 Jones, Rev. John (of St Andrew's Church, Liverpool), 79, 94, 220
 Jones, Commodore John Paul, 10
 Jones (a planter in WI), 124 bis, 126; his death, 126
 Jones estates (plantations) in Demerara, 124, 126, 195, 196, 198, 324
 Jones, Mary Ellen, see Gladstone, Mary Ellen
 Joy, Henry Hall, 32, 46, 87, 88, 93, 104, 133, 134, 135, 162, 203
 Joy, Rev. Mr, 32
- Kaye, Thomas, 51, 65
 Keate, Dr (headmaster of Eton), 131-4 passim, 139 bis, 170, 206, 215, 216, 283; personal details, 131; and WEG, 213; his policy, 213
 Keble, John, 298
Kelton (ship), 35
 Kemble, Fanny (actress), 231
 Kent: rick-burning and riots in (1830), 227
 King's College, London, 293
Kingsmill (ship), 72, 77
 Kinnaird, Arthur, 309
- Lancashire, Midlands, Birmingham and London railway link, 174, 175
 Lancashire, South: WEG, MP for, 378; cotton famine in, 402
 Lancaster (parliamentary constituency), 103; general election (1818), 104, 156
 Larkins, J. P., 122, 342
 Latin America (see also Brazil), 115, 147, 148, 154
 laudanum (a tincture of opium, q.v.), 230 bis, 288, 329, 352
 Law, John, 341
 Le Resouvenir (estate in Demerara), 186; Bethel Chapel, 186, 188
 Leamington Spa (Warwickshire), 227, 228, 264, 362, 363
 Learmonth (chairman of Edinburgh and Northern Railway), 340-1
 Lebeaume, Dr, 171
 Leicester (parliamentary constituency), 283, 285

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Leipzig, battle of (1813), 71, 99
- Leith (port of Edinburgh), 3 bis, 5 bis, 6, 10, 12, 15, 18, 20 bis, 21, 24, 27, 36 bis, 43, 46, 53, 54, 80, 98, 236, 332; Academy, 4; Coalhills, 6, 18; Dalry Mills, 6; St Thomas's Church, 292-3, 337; whaling syndicate, 7; described, 12-13; and commercial crisis (1787-8), 20; JG's charitable buildings at, 292; and Burntisland ferry, 340
- Letters to Lord Aberdeen* (WEG), 371
- Leviathan* (first train-ferry), 374
- Light, Governor Henry, 323, 325 bis
- Lincoln, Lady ('Suzie'), 301, 366, 367, 372
- Lincoln, Lord, 220, 249, 250, 251, 257, 283, 391
- Lisbon, 100, 101
- Liszt, the Abbé, 310
- Literati Society (later 'Pop') at Eton, 206-7, 209-10, 213; some members of, 209-10; advice on public speaking by Lady Canning, 210
- Litherland estate, Seaforth, near Liverpool, 52-3, 78, 80, 176; St Thomas's Church, 78 (see also Seaforth)
- Liverpool (see also Litherland, Seaforth and Toxteth Park), 12-15 passim, 16-21, 27-37, 45, 98 bis, 317; corn trade of, 14, 16-21; opened to wheat imports, 20; in the 1790s, 27-8; its parliamentary and local franchise, 28-9, 31; and national politics, 29-30; parliamentary elections, see general elections; Tory families of, 30; and war with France, 33; financial crisis in, 33; politics of (1802), 47, 49, 59; and the slave trade (q.v.) ending, 48; American merchants of, 49; unemployment and pauperism in, 52; 'United Committee' versus East India Co, 61; depressed (1812), 63; electioneering techniques (1812), 65-70; Canning, spokesman for (in House of Commons), 70; free traders, 72; rectors of, 79, 80; and general election (1820), 104; labour unrest in, 104-5, 112-13, 151, 152-4; JG's work for (as MP), 106; traders' interests in far distant countries, 114-15; improvements in, when Huskisson was MP, 146; docks, 51, 172, 326; JG's interest in, 172-9; canal system, 172; JG and the city government, 178; mayoral elections: (1821), 178; (1827), 178; general election (1830), 233-4; municipal elections (1841), 332; education in, 336-7; spreads along the Mersey, 379
- administrative bodies: Chamber of Commerce, 13; Common Council, 28, 73, 78; Common Hall, 177, 178; Corporation, 177, 336, 378; Customs House, 51, 146; Dock Committee, 336; Education Committee, 336; Town Council, 295, 336; Town Hall, 159
- charities: Auxiliary Bible Society (f. 1811), 126, 127; Bluecoat Hospital, 126; Ladies' Auxiliary Bible Society, 88, 107, 126, 127; Marine Bible Society, 127; Mariners' Church Society, 176; Mechanics' and Apprentices' Library, 176; Mechanics' Institute, 176-7, 223; Society for Bettering the Condition of the Poor in Liverpool (f. 1809), 72
- churches and chapels: Chapel for the Blind, 88; St Andrew's Episcopal Church, 78, 79, 80, 91, 94, 127, 176, 220, 360; St Mark's Church, 46; St Peter's Parish Church, 41, 55, 88; St Thomas's Church, Seaforth, see Seaforth; St Thomas's Church, Toxteth Park, 294; Scots Kirk, 31, 80, 176, 338; Unitarian Chapel, 30, 31, 36, 78
- commercial establishments: Bible Society Repository, 65; Chamber of Commerce, 13; Commercial Clerks' Society, 107; Dock Revenue, 337; docks, 51, 172, 326; Corn Exchange, 44, 51; East India Association, 116, 122; Exchange, 44, 82 bis (see also Royal Exchange below); Fire Office, 44; Gas Light Co., 78-9, 106; Goree warehouses, 35, 44; Herculaneum pottery, 81; Prince's Dock, 95; Royal Exchange, 51 (see also Exchange above); Ship Owners' Association, 337; Water Co., 106; West India Association, 51, 61, 73, 75, 191 and n(2), 263, 337
- hotels: King's Arms, 145, 157; Liverpool Arms, 71
- newspapers: Liverpool Chronicle, 283; Liverpool Courier and Commercial Advertiser (f. 1808), 51, 109, 143, 177, 190, 212; Liverpool Mercury, 63, 65, 111, 190, 220; Liverpool Standard, 237, 260, 376
- political associations, clubs and parties: Backbone Club, 66; Canning Club, 66, 67, 102, 109, 112, 144, 150, 261; Concentric Club, 66; Conservative Association, 237, 376; Operative Conservative Association, 283; Tradesmen's Conservative Association, 283; Radicals, 48 bis, 49, 64, 109, 113, 150, 154, 176, 178 bis, 185, 223; Tories, 49, 50, 63-6 passim, 160, 176-8 passim, 383; Whig-Radicals, 48, 59, 60, 64, 110, 113;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Liverpool (contd.)
 Whigs, 49, 50, 64–6 passim, 160, 177 bis, 178, 383
   schools: Caledonian School, 31; Collegiate Institution, 294, 347, 399; Female School of Industry, 72; St Andrew's School, 79, 128; St Thomas's School, Seaforth, see Seaforth social establishments: Lyceum News-room, 144; Millers' Club, 18
   various: Anti-Slavery Society (Liverpool branch), 185, 193, 224; Fire Office, 44; House of Correction, 88; Institution 337; Jacobins, 29–30, 32, 33; Literary and Philosophical Society, 176; Royal Institution, 94, 107–8, 139, 176 bis, 214; Volunteers (f. 1803), 65
 Liverpool Dock Acts: (1811), 71, 172; (1825), 172, 176
 Liverpool–Dublin steamships, 176
 Liverpool, Lord, 60, 75 bis, 100, 144, 147, 156, 157
 Liverpool–Manchester railway, 172–5, 179, 233, 253–4, 326, 327, 339, 349 bis; opening of (1830), 231–2
 Liverpool and Manchester Railway Company Bill, 155, 165, 174
 Liverpool and New York Steamship Company, 286
 Liverpool, Southport and Crosby Railway, 374
 Lizars, Dr, 170
 Loch, James, 174
 Locock, Dr, 230 and n(1), 288, 289, 329, 338
 Logic (Whately), 243
 London: the Albany (bachelor chambers, off Piccadilly), 222, 231, 282, 299; 'Bedlam', q.v., 301, 314; Berkeley Square, 311; Carlton Club, 289, 298, 353; Carlton Gardens (No. 6), 303, 312, 352, 359, 368; Carlton Terrace (No. 13), 312 and n(2); Grafton Street (No. 5), 82, 91, 94, 95; Hanover Square, 305; Inns of Court, 170, 298, 311; King's College, 293; Lincoln's Inn, 298, 311; Millbank Penitentiary, 314; Pall Mall, 289; St Paul's Cathedral, 94; University College, 231, 293; Westminster Abbey, 289; WEG in, 94, 95, 282
 London and Brighton Railway, 327
 London and North Western Railway, 339
 London Missionary Society, 187, 189, 194, 199 bis
 Lyttelton, George, Lord, 312 bis, 313, 314, 351, 359, 360
 McAdam, John Loudon, 71
 Macaulay, Thomas Babington, Lord, 309, 311, 324
 Macaulay, Zachary, 126
 McCosh, James, 338
 McCulloch, John, 231
 MacDonald, James (plantation manager), 264, 268
 McIntyre and Company (Calcutta), 123
 Mackenzie, Annie, see Robertson, Annie
 MacLean, John (JG's attorney in Demerara), 264, 265, 267, 268, 273 bis, 297; his death, 318
 MacLeod, Captain, RN, 135–6
 McPherson, Donald, 121
 Madeira, 321
 Malta, 321–2
 Malthus, Rev. Thomas Robert, 197
 Manchester, 70; cotton trade, 13, 14, 20; St Peter's Field riots ('Peterloo'), 112, 113
 Manners, Lord John, 332
 Manning, Henry Edward (later Cardinal Manning), 220, 309, 347, 351, 354, 369, 377; joins Roman Catholic Church, 371; Helen's legacy to, 375
 marine insurance, 35, 36
 Marlborough, Duke of, 105, 155–6, 166
 Maurice, Frederick Denison, 220
 Mauritius, 318
 Maynooth College (Roman Catholic seminary in Ireland), 351, 354
 medical treatment in early nineteenth century, 84
 Melbourne, Lord, 299, 311
 Melville, Lord, 168
 'Mercator' (JG's pseudonym), 109 nn(1 & 2), 177, 199, 237
 Merchant Vessels Apprenticeship Act (1823), 146
 Merewether, Serjeant (barrister), 231 bis
 Metternich, Count (Austrian Chancellor), 11, 114
 Millbank Penitentiary, London, 314
 Miller, Professor James, 363
 Milligan, Robertson and Company, 197
 Milne, John, 319
Miscellany, WEG's, see Eton Miscellany
 Molyneux, William, 178
 Montem (an Eton festival), 139, 203, 214
 Montrose, 317, 322, 348
Montrose Standard, 337–8, 360, 361, 367
 More, Hannah, 94; Sacred Dramas, 94
 Morton, Earl and Countess of, 303
 Moss, John (planter), 146, 169, 175 bis, 197, 268, 272, 273 bis, 314, 321, 322
 Moss, Miss (an invalid), 169; her treatment, 169–70

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Municipal Reform Act (1835), 178, 376
- Napier, Lord, 317 and n(3)
- Naples, Kingdom of, 309, 370, 398, 401
- Napoleon Bonaparte, 50, 52 ter, 60, 64, 65, 71, 98, 99–100, 111 ter, 135, 147; his abdication, 74, 94
- Navarino, battle of (1827), 159, 160
- Navigation Laws, 68, 150, 334, 360, 361, 367
- Neilson, Nelly, see Gladstones, Nelly
- Neilson, Walter (father of Nelly Gladstones, and JG's grandfather), 5, 7
- Newark: general elections at: (1832), 238, 257, 258, 259–60; (1835), 299; (1837), 285; (1841), 332; WEG ceases to re-present, 355
- Newcastle, Duke of, 160, 238, 251, 257, 259–60, 355, 391
- Newman, John Henry (later Cardinal Newman), 243, 244, 249, 298 bis; joins Roman Catholic Church, 353
- Nimmo, John (JG's brother-in-law), 53, 80, 137 bis, 138, 140
- Nimmo, Mary, née Gladstones (JG's sister), 37, 43, 137; her dowry, 54; her patrimony, 54; her death, 284
- Normanby, Lord, 325
- North Leith Kirk, 5, 7
- Nottingham (parliamentary constituency), 283
- Oak Farm (near Stourbridge, Staffordshire): Glynne's iron-works, 314–15, 353, 359, 372, 376, 395
- O'Connell, Daniel, 259
- Ogilvy, Alexander (JG's first employer), 10, 11
- Ogilvy and Gillanders (Liverpool), 181
- Ogilvy, David (JG's brother-in-law), 123, 181, 182
- Ogilvy, Janet, née Gladstones (JG's sister), 12, 53, 123
- Ogilvy, Sarah (JG's first love), 12, 373
- Ogilvy, Thomas, 123, 182
- oil of vitriol (sulphuric acid), 7 bis, 13, 14, 20, 37, 54
- 'Old Navigation', the (Mersey and Irwell Canal), 173 bis
- opium (see also laudanum), trade in, 313, 317, 326
- Opium War (1840–2), 313
- Orders-in-Council: on the blockade of France, 59, 62–3, 64, 69, 71; on indentured labour, 321, 324; on the slave trade, 44, 50, 267, 269, 324
- O'Reilly, Dr, 169, 209
- Oxford, City of, 201, 202
- Oxford colleges: Christ Church, 102 bis, 163, 205, 216, 219, 222, 234, 239–54; Oriel, 243, 244
- Oxford Movement (launched 1833), 298, 306, 310, 347, 393
- Oxford Union (formerly Debating Society), 245, 249, 255, 263, 391
- Oxford University, 129 ter, 137 bis, 167, 239–54, 383; and the Church of England, 298; Examination Statute (1801), 243; paganism at, 129; Pusey and Keble at, 298
- Oxford University (parliamentary constituency), 101–2, 357–8, 378, 402
- Palmerston, Lord, 313, 317, 326, 370 bis, 371, 398, 399
- Papacy, the, 85, 209, 242 bis, 249 bis, 256, 309, 371, 378, 379, 390, 391, 394, 401, 402
- Papal Aggression Bill and Act, 370, 371
- Papal Infallibility, 401 bis
- Parnell, Sir Henry, 285 bis
- Paviors' Company of London, 77
- Peel, Sir Robert, 102, 157, 159, 233, 247, 251, 252, 289, 293, 299 bis, 302, 311, 312, 388; JG advises, 332–5, 334 n(2); and WEG (1841–6), 344–56 passim; his budgets: (1842), 346; (1844), 348; praises WEG, 347; and a baronetcy for JG, 357; his death, 370
- 'Peel's Act' (1819, on gold standard), 110
- Pelham, Dr (a bishop), 207
- Pelham, Henry (fourth Duke of Newcastle), see Newcastle
- Peninsular War (1808–14), 60, 99, 111
- Perceval, Spencer, 60 bis, 63
- 'Peri', see Gladstone, Anne Ramsden
- Pernambuco, 52, 120
- Peterborough (parliamentary constituency), 332
- 'Peterloo' (St Peter's Field riots, 1819), 112, 113
- Phesdo (near Fasque), 342, 373
- Pitt, William, the Younger, 9, 29, 61, 64, 387; his political programme, 29; his income tax (1799), 34
- Place, Francis, 152
- Plumptre, Rev. (a Fellow of Eton College), 212, 214
- Plunket's Bill (for Catholic Emancipation), 90
- 'Polonius' letters: Thomas Gladstones to JG, 407–9; JG to Tom Gladstone, 409–12
- Pope, the, see Papacy

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Portarlington (parliamentary constituency in Ireland), 238, 258–9, 274, 283
- Porter, Thomas, 178
- Portland, Duke of, 233
- Portugal, 117; and Brazil, 52, 100, 115; and Napoleon, 52, 100; Prince Regent of, 100
- Portuguese colonies, trade with, 115
- Presbyterianism and Presbyterians (see also Church of Scotland), 51, 294
- Prince Consort, see Albert
- Prince Regent (1812–20, later George IV, q.v.), 90, 94
- Princeton University (in U.S.A.), 338
- Pritt, G., 173
- property (income) tax, 75–6, 334, 346
- prostitutes, WEG's compassion for, 314, 389, 395
- Pusey, Edward Bouverie, 298 bis; his 'suspension', 354
- Puseyism, 393
- Quakers (Society of Friends), 30 bis, 31, 185, 190, 192 bis, 272; business houses of, 22
- Quamina (a slave), 186, 188 bis
- Queen Anne's Bounty, 107
- Queensborough (parliamentary constituency in Kent), election at (1830), 231, 238, 260, 283
- Raffles, Rev. Mr, 46
- Railway Acts, WEG's: (1842), 349; (1844), 349–50
- 'Railway Mania' (c. 1830–50), 327, 341, 349
- Rainhill locomotive trials, 175
- Ramsay, Sir Alexander (and family), 281, 282
- Ramsay, Rev. E. B. (and Mrs Ramsay), 291, 293, 304 bis, 374
- Rathbone, William (IV), 30, 34 bis, 49, 50, 60, 177, 223, 224, 272
- Rathbone, William (V), 336
- Rathbones, the, 185, 223, 287
- Rawson, Mrs, 362–3, 373
- Rawson, Rev William (of St Thomas's Church, Seaforth), 79, 87, 92–3, 94, 107, 133, 214, 220, 373; his school, 82, 92–3, 97, 129, 131, 132, 384
- Reform Acts: (1832), xiv, 237, 257, 292, 402; (1884), 401
- Reform Bills: (1831–2), 227, 235, 236 bis, 237, 249, 285; (1866), 401; (1884), 401; House of Lords debates on (WEG present), 390; WEG opposes, 390–1
- Ricardo, David, 150, 152, 238
- Richard* (ship), 52
- Ripon, Lord, 345
- Robertson, Provost Andrew (of Dingwall, JG's father-in-law), 39–40, 179; personal details, 39, 40; his children, 40
- Robertson, Anne Mackenzie, see Gladstone, Anne Mackenzie (JG's second wife)
- Robertson, Annie, née Mackenzie (JG's mother-in-law), 38, 39, 53, 163; her children, 40; widowed, joins JG and Anne in Liverpool, 46; her death, 163; her vault, 220; re-interment, 360
- Robertson, Colin (JG's brother-in-law), 40, 53, 94; his two daughters, 46; and Jamaica, 196–7, 198
- Robertson, Colin (JG's nephew), 182, 197
- Robertson, Divie (JG's brother-in-law), 40, 41, 53, 94, 190, 216; and Jamaica, 196–7, 287, 320
- Robertson, Eliza (JG's niece), 197
- Robertson, Elizabeth (JG's sister-in-law), 40, 81, 163, 360
- Robertson, George (JG's brother-in-law), 40, 140
- Robertson, Johannah (JG's sister-in-law), 40, 53, 81, 163, 291, 362 bis
- Robertson, Mary (JG's sister-in-law), 40, 53
- Robertsons, the (of Dingwall), 313; clan associations of, 315
- Robinson, John (slater and plasterer), 154
- Robinson, Nicholas, 178
- Rodney Street, Liverpool, JG's home and property in, 33, 36, 37, 42, 44, 46 bis, 52, 53, 54, 60, 68, 71, 79, 80, 82, 94, 129, 179, 228, 373, 384; 'a Gladstone colony', 53; Canning's political speeches in, 69, 70; life at (unsettled), 80; scale of JG's household, 80, 389
- Rogers, Samuel (poet), 290
- Roman Catholic Church, see Catholic Church, Roman
- Roman Catholics, see Catholics, Roman
- Rome: English College (RC), 306; High Mass in St Peter's, 168; St Peter's 168, 254–5; WEG and Catherine in, 290, 309–10
- Romilly, Sir Samuel, 90
- Rosa, Salvatore (artist), 162
- Roscoe, William, 29, 30, 33, 34 bis, 48–50 passim, 52 bis, 59, 60 bis, 64, 68, 69, 94, 117, 177, 214, 224, 242; and anti-slavery 185, 193, 224; and Catholic Emancipation, 49; and the slave trade, 49; his bank, 108; his Italian primitives, 162
- Rothwell, Rev. Mr (rector of Seaforth parish), 79, 80
- Routh, John, 15

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Royal Bank of Scotland, 20, 328, 342
 Royal Naval College, Portsmouth, 136
 Royal Navy, 135; conditions in (1817-66), 135; and the slave trade, 331
 Rugby, Grammar School of (Rugby School, see also Arnold, Dr Thomas), 213
 Ruisdael, Jacob van (artist), 162
 Runcorn bridge, 106, 326
 Rupel (chairman of master-carpenters), 154
 Russell, Lord John, 355, 358, 370
 Russia (see also Baltic trade), 44, 60, 148; Czar (Emperor) of, 44, 114
- St Andrews (Fife, Scotland), 342
 St Augustine (A.D. 354-430), 298, 385
 St Domingo (WI), 44; slave rising in (1791), 44
 St Peter's Field (Manchester) riots (1819, 'Peterloo'), 112, 113
 Sandon, Joseph, 143, 172-3
 Sandon, Lord, 236, 261, 262, 272, 274
 Saunders, Rev. Mr (WEG's private tutor), 246, 252
 Scoresby, Captain William (Arctic explorer), 146, 176
 Scotland: Covenanting in, 4; Highlands of (families and customs), 38-41; Industrial Revolution in, 10; Primate of, 360; witch-burning in, 4
 Scotland, Eastern, 327, 340
 Scotland, Western: mineral railroads, 327, 339-40
 Scott and Company, Claude, 22
 Scott, Claude (later Sir Claude Scott), 15, 19, 22, 23
 Scott, Sir Samuel, 290
 Scott, Sir Walter: memorial in Edinburgh, 282
 Scottish Kirk, 9, 45, 46; in Liverpool, 31, 80, 176, 338
 Seaforth (near Liverpool), 78 ter, 95 bis, 122, 163, 222, 227, 282; cottages at, 81, 82; House, see Seaforth House; JG's estate developed, 360, 379; and taken over by WEG, 375; St Thomas's Church, 78, 79-80, 82, 91, 94, 95, 107, 127, 171, 176, 230, 374; St Thomas's School, 82, 92-3, 97, 129, 131, 132, 384; Village Benefit Club, 162
 Seaforth House, 80 bis, 82-9, 94, 95, 129, 144, 162, 168, 171, 220, 237, 253, 384; life at, 82-9, 389; improvements at, 162; to let, 224, 360, 373; garden produce from, 228; sold, 379
 Seaforth, Lady, 121
 Seaforth, Lord, 82
 Sefton, Duke of, 52, 174 bis
- Selwyn, George (Bishop of New Zealand, and of Lichfield), 208 bis
 Selwyn, Thomas, 296
 servants: JG's, 229; male, wages of (1830), 229 n(2)
 Seton (a slave), 186, 188 bis
 Shand, William, 103, 266
Sheffield Independent (newspaper), 331
 Shelley, Percy Bysshe, 245
 Shepherd, Rev. William, 111
 Sherriff (JG's factor at Fasque), 360
 Sherry, Mrs Rebecca (an Eton 'dame'), 133, 134 bis, 138, 201, 202, 204
 Simeon, Dr Charles (of Cambridge), 94
 Simson and Company, Charles, 121
 Simson estates (in Demerara), 121, 124, 195 bis
 Sinclair, Sir John, 78, 103, 110, 150-1, 229, 295, 318; his death, 295, 318
 Slave Code, the, 267, 268
 slave trade: movements against, 29, 34, 48, 75, 331; Orders-in-Council, 44, 50, 267, 269; Act abolishing (operative 1807), 49, 185; Lord Liverpool and, 60; Royal Navy and, 331 slavery, xi, xii, 13, 17, 27-32 passim, 44, 48, 228; in the West Indies, 123-5 passim, 156, 185-94, 198-200; abolition and prevention of, 29, 34, 48, 117, 185, 197, 200, 235, 251 (see also Buxton, F. and Wilberforce); anti-slavery movement, 29, 34, 48, 75, 331 slaves: emancipation of, 263-77; freed, compensation for, 320-1; manumission of, 186 bis, 187; risings of: in British Guiana, 188, 235; in Jamaica, 378; in St Domingo, 44
 Smith, Adam, 62
 Smith, Egerton, 65, 111
 Smith, Rev. John (missionary), 123, 186-90 passim, 194; his Bethel Chapel in Demerara, 186, 188
 Smith, Samuel (Dean of Christ Church, Oxford), 239, 243
 Smyth, Sir James Carmichael, 323
 Sollohub, Count Leon, 290-1
 Somerville, Alexander, 3, 4, 19
 Spa Fields mobs, 101
 Spain, 115, 117, 147 bis, 148, 355
 Spanish American colonies (independent), trade with, 115, 147
Sparrowhawk, HMS, 140, 165
 speculation and crises: (1787-8), 19-20; (1825), 154-5; (1847), 359
 Sporn (Helen's maid), 362
 Stafford, Lady, 103
 Stafford, Marquess of, 172, 173

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- Stafford (parliamentary constituency), 103
 Staffordshire potteries, 173
 Stanley, E. G. S. (later Lord Derby), 272–3, 274, 275
 Stanley, Lord, 289, 371
 Stansmore, Mrs (an Eton ‘dame’), 204
State and Church (WEG, 1837), 289 bis, 293, 305–13 passim, 324, 351, 392, 393, 403
 State, the, and the economy: interference, 110; JG on, 332–3
 Steamboat Act, 176
 Steel, Gladstones and Company, 7
 Steel, Dr Thomas, 7
 Stephen, James (a civil servant), 269, 275, 299
 Stephenson, George, 281
 Stewart, David, 34
 Stuart (JG’s attorney in Demerara), 322, 325, 330
 student unrest: at Eton, 133; at Glasgow, 140
 sugar: import duties on, 348, 350; from East Indies, 317; from West Indies, 44, 45, 59, 185–200 passim; production technology in Demerara, 124–5, 266
 sulphuric acid, see oil of vitriol
 Surinam (Dutch Guiana), 117
Susannah (ship), 35
- Tankerville* (ship), 24
 Tarleton, General, MP, 34, 47, 48
 taxation, direct and indirect, 361
 Taylor, Henry (a civil servant), 269
 Ten Hours Bill (1844), 350
 Test Act, repeal of (1828), 298, 307
Theodosia (ship), 180
 Thompson, George, 269, 272
 Thomson, John, 342
 Thornley (T.), 50
Times, The, 304, 311, 324, 341
 Tooke, Thomas, and free trade, 110
 Toxteth Park (near Liverpool): St Thomas’s Church, 294
 Trade Union Act (1825), 153, 154
 trade unions, 151
 Traill, Thomas Stewart, 176 bis, 224
 Trinity College, Glenalmond, see Glenalmond
 Troppau, Congress of (1820), 114
 tuberculosis, 164–5
 Turkey and the Turks (see also Greece and the Greeks and Greek War of Independence), 147, 148 bis, 159
 Turner, Rev. John Matthias (later Bishop of Calcutta), 216–17
 Turner, Mrs, 216, 217
- Turner, Thomas and John (bankers, of Gloucester), 182–3
- Unitarian Chapel, Renshaw Street, Liverpool, 30, 31, 36, 78
 Unitarianism and Unitarians, 27, 30, 31, 36, 51, 78, 210, 286, 377
 United States of America (see also American): and war with France, 59; Britain’s relations with, 63, 73, 74, 117; the Congress of, 50, 73; government of, 110; Hannah More on, 94; JG’s tour in (1790–1), 24–6; Liverpool Radicals and, 32; peace with, 74, 75
 Usury Laws, 150, 335
- Val d’Aosta (in Northern Italy), 208–9
 Vatican, the, 351, 401
 Vaudois (Waldenses), 208–9, 254
 Venice: St Mark’s Square, 168
 Victoria, Queen (1837–1901), 38, 213, 346, 367, 374; her coronation, 289; and marriage, 295
 Vienna, 296; Congress of (1815), 111
- Wainwright, William, 146
 Waldenses, see Vaudois
 Walpole, Lord, 366–7
 Walsall (Staffordshire), 331, 332
 Ward, W. G. (The Ideal of a Christian Church), 354
 Washington, George (first President of U.S.A. 1789–97), 8, 25
 Waterloo, battle of (1815): families of those killed at, 126
 Watson, Rev. John (JG’s brother-in-law), 53, 98
 Watson, Marion, née Gladstones (JG’s sister), 53, 98
 Wellington, Duke of, 60, 99, 146, 147 bis, 150 bis, 160 bis, 227 bis, 232, 236, 247–8, 324, 347, 362; Prime Minister, 159; and Huskisson, 160–1, 168
 West Indian estates (JG’s, and others’), 169, 175, 179, 185–200, 235; Anna Regina, 268, 273; Covenden, 195, 266; Edmonstone, 124 bis, 137; Endright, 195; Fair Prospect, 264, 320; Hampton Court, 121, 124, 195; Holland, 373; Lacovia, 373; Mon Repos, 195; Oxford, 264; Success, 59, 123, 125, 126, 185–200 passim, 273 bis, 319, 326; Vreedenhoop, 126, 195, 199 bis, 268, 273 bis, 274, 322, 325 ter, 330; Vreedenstein, 124, 196, 264, 322, 325; Wales, 124, 126, 195, 196, 264; Waller’s Delight, 195, 198; all of JG’s being wound up, 325–6, 330

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08277-8 - The Gladstones: A Family Biography, 1764-1851

S. G. Checkland

Index

More informationIndex

- West Indian trade and traders, 50, 65, 120, 223, 227
- West Indies (see also Demerara, Jamaica and St Domingo), 17, 18, 44, 50, 51, 52, 59–60, 63, 77, 81; deprived of fresh slaves, 117; general decline after 1807, 124, 125; Naval Station, 165
- Western Bank (of Scotland), 375
- Whately, Rev. Richard (later Archbishop of Dublin), 243, 252
- Whigs (parliamentary party): principal legislative and administrative acts of (1830–41), 344
- Wilberforce, Bishop, 293, 360
- Wilberforce family, 94
- Wilberforce, William, 84, 118, 185, 189, 190, 192, 194, 235
- William IV (1830–7), 179, 237, 283, 285, 299
- Wilmslow Rectory, Cheshire, 216
- Wilson, John, 120–1, 180
- Wilson, (master-carpenter and labour organiser, of Liverpool), 104–5, 153
- Wiseman, Rev. Dr N. P. S. (English Roman Catholic priest, later Cardinal Wiseman), 291, 306, 330, 338, 351, 363, 377; performs a miraculous cure on Helen, 363; Helen's legacy to, 375
- Woodstock (parliamentary constituency in Oxfordshire), 105, 155–6, 166
- Wordsworth, Dr Charles, 251, 351, 357, 360
- Wyllie, James, 380