SUCCESSION IN
THE MUSLIM FAMILY
Succession in the Muslim Family

N. J. COULSON

Professor of Oriental Laws, University of London

CAMBRIDGE
AT THE UNIVERSITY PRESS 1971
CONTENTS

Introduction
1 Family ties as grounds of inheritance  10
2 Priorities in inheritance  29
3 Primary heirs  40
4 Substitute heirs  52
5 Secondary heirs  65
6 Grandfather and collaterals in competition  79
7 Succession by the outer family  91
8 Inheritance in Shi'i law  108
9 Reforms in the traditional system of priorities  135
10 Dual relationships  164
11 Impediments to inheritance  172
12 Conditions of inheritance  195
13 Bequests  213
14 The limits of testamentary power  235
15 Death-sickness  259

Index

[v]