

INDEX

- Abercrombie, N., 12, 151
 adaptation, 2, 3, 65, 66, 148, 151
 age differentiation, 17, 19, 71, 112;
 in burial, 105
 agency, human, 2, 4
 agriculture: adoption in western Europe, 52, 62, 63; cereal cultivation, 52, 119, 121;
 see also Jutland
 Aichbühl, long-houses at, 60
 alienation, 11, 12, 42–3, 44
 Althusser, L., 12, 13, 26;
 Althusserian structural-Marxism, 4
 American: architecture, 40, 42;
 Civil War, 33; eighteenth-century society, 26–7, 33–4;
 Revolution, 27, 33
 ancestors, 52, 64, 70, 71, 78, 81,
 82, 88, 102, 114, 115
 Anglo-Saxon migrations, 88–9
 Annapolis, Maryland, 26, 28, 29, 32, 33
 anthropology, 3, 8, 13, 39, 115;
 feminist, 94; Marxist, 70–1, 94, 95, 108, 111, 112
 archaeology: and analysis of contemporary societies, 4;
 as anthropology, 3; concern
 with agency and strategy, 4;
 concern with symbolism, 93;
 critique of dominant models
 in, 1–3; cultural approach, 53; ecological approach,
 54; historical, 4, 25–6, 51, 52, 53; ideological
 approach, 4, 148, 149–50;
 Marxist approach, 69;
 processual, 51, 52–3, 54,
 66; tendency to fetishism
 in, 3; see also ‘new archaeology’; structuralism
 architecture, 4, 137; as expression of ideology, 39–48;
 Georgian, 25, 26, 27, 43;
 ‘high-tech’, 43; historians
 of, 25; neo-vernacular, 47, 150; post-modernist, 42,
 43, 47; see also modernism;
 suburban housing
 Ariuşd, Transylvania, 60, 61
 Arran, chambered tombs on, 55
 art: and architecture, 41;
 Neolithic, 63; Palaeolithic cave, 66, 142; of small-scale
 societies, 142
 Art Deco, 41
 Art Nouveau, 41
 artifacts: archaeological fetishism in study of, 3; symbolic position held by, 4, 5, 66, 71, 150; see also deposition;
 material culture
 Asad, T., 95, 115
 astronomy, 26, 27, 64
 asymmetry: gender, 4, 8, 148; of growth and decline cycles,
 70; of human relationships,
 48, 139; of power, 7, 10,
 111, 122, 114, 115, 143, 148,
 150; of resources, 7, 8
 Australian aborigines, use of Churinga by, 150
 authoritarianism, 42, 43, 47
 authority, 5, 48
 Avebury, 96 (map), 98, 99, 100,
 101, 105 (fig.)
 Avnevig, Denmark, inhumation, 80
 axes: Arretton, 100, 106; battle, 103, 117, 126; context of deposition, 103 (fig.), 125;
 drawings of, 63; rock
 sources for, 99, 100, 103
 (fig.); at Wessex henge sites, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103
 Azande society, Sudan, 94, 95
 BAC, see Battle-Axe/Corded-
 Ware tradition
 Baringo district, Kenya, 62
 Barkaer site, 54, 64
 Barthes, R., 11
 Baruya Society, New Guinea, 70
 Battle-Axe/Corded-Ware tradition, Scania: burial
 practices, 125–6; ceramics, 119, 131, 134, 135; change
 from TRB to, 111, 117, 121, 142–4; site location and environment, 116–21
 Baudrillard, J., 12–13
 Bauhaus, 40, 41, 43
 Beaker, later Beaker/Urn periods,
 Wessex, 95–107
 behaviourism, 2, 3
 belief-systems, 38, 93, 94
 Biconical Urns, 103
 Biskupin, Poland, long-house, 56
 (fig.), 57
 Blekinge, Sweden, 121
 Bloch, M., 13, 42, 95, 101
 boats, as Iron Age votive offerings, 76, 87
 Bochum-Hiltrop, long-house, 57, 61
 bog: corpses, 75–6; deposits, 71–2, 75, 104, 149
 bones, animal, 61, 76, 78, 87, 101, 119–20
 bones, human, 2; selection and arrangement of, 53, 64, 65, 101, 125, 136–7, 139, 142
 boundaries, 122; in burial, 78, 99,

- boundaries (cont.)
 137; of henges, 99, 101;
 within Iron Age settlements, 72, 84; male/female, 22; between regions in prehistory, 96–7; between sacred and profane, 19, 99
- boundedness, concept of, 136,
 137, 142; see also Scanian
 pottery
- Bourdieu, P., 4, 8, 39, 93
- Braa, Jutland, bronze cauldron
 deposit, 77
- bracteates, gold, 87–8
- Britain: adoption of agriculture,
 52; causewayed enclosures,
 64, 65; long barrows, 54,
 55, 57, 58, 59; Neolithic houses, 59, 61, 63; studies
 of contemporary society, 12, 44; twentieth-century housing, 44–7; see also
 Wessex
- Brittany: burial mounds, 54, 55, 58, 59, 65; Neolithic
 pottery, 58–9, 61
- bronze, deposition of, 75, 81, 107
- Bronze Age, 72, 75; Later Bronze
 Age, Wessex, 95, 101, 102, 103–7
- brutalism (architecture), 40–1, 42
- Brzesko Kujawski, Poland, longhouses, 55, 56 (fig.), 57
- Burderop Down site, 104
- burial practices: assertion or denial of individual identity
 in, 98–9, 104–5, 125, 137,
 142; changes in, 80, 104–6,
 107, 117, 125–6, 150;
 collective, 64–5, 98–9;
 European Neolithic, 51–60,
 63–6; Iron Age Jutland, 78,
 80–2, 86, 88, 89; prestige
 systems and, 104–6, 107;
 Scanian Neolithic, 125–6;
 social differentiation in, 61, 71, 80, 104, 106; spatial segregation in, 78, 80, 82,
 99, 125, 136; Wessex,
 97–107 passim; see also
 bones, human; cremation;
 grave goods; inhumation
- Bygholm Norremark, long-house, 57
- Bylany, long-house, 61
- calendrical rites, 115, 116, 140
- capitalism: compared with non-capitalism, 69–70, 89;
 development of new kinds of, 38; ideology of time in, 26; impact of, on non-capitalist societies, 108;
 Marxist theory of, 9–13,
 69–70
- Carlshögen, Sweden, 125
- Carroll, Charles, 28; Carroll
 house, Annapolis, 29
- Carrowmore megalithic tomb,
 Ireland, 65
- cauldrons, deposition of, 77, 78, 79
 (fig.), 83 (fig.)
- causewayed enclosures, 64, 65, 96
 (map), 99, 101
- ‘Celtic’ graves, 80
- Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies (CCCS), 12, 13
- cereal impressions, 119, 141
- chambered tombs, 52, 53, 60, 63
- change, social, 3, 143, 144, 148; in
 Iron Age Jutland, 78, 82;
 relationship of symbolic
 and ritual practice to, 65, 66, 94–5; see also cyclical;
 revolutionary
- Channel Islands, tombs on, 59
- Chassey pottery, 58, 61, 63
- Chesapeake, U.S.A., 25
- Childe, V. Gordon, 53, 54, 60;
Scotland before the Scots, 69
- Chomsky, N., 25
- clan-based society, 18, 20; see also lineage systems
- Clark, J.G.D., 53, 54, 59, 65, 120
- class, 112; conflict, 5, 10, 11, 26;
 relationships in Iron Age Jutland, 72, 78, 81; working class consciousness, 12
- classical antiquity, eighteenth-century American interest
 in, 28, 33
- Clava passage graves, 55, 64
- coherence, 13, 14
- Collared Urns, 100, 103, 106
- communal: associations of megaliths, 64, 66, 97, 100, 106, 148; spirit of housing estates, 46, 47
- consciousness, transformation
 of, 11–12
- consumption: relationship of production to, 13, 69, 71, 88, 89, 90 (fig.); see also
 wealth
- contemporary societies, analysis
 of, 4, 5, 6, 8, 38, 150
- contradiction, 3, 4, 12, 148, 149,
 150; in eighteenth-century
 American society, 33, 34;
 between forces and
 relations of production,
 70–1; in modernist housing,
 47; between ritual practices,
 97; between structuring
 principles orientating form and nature of social relations, 111, 114, 116, 139, 149
- control: bureaucratic and technical, 38, 42, 44, 46; of resources, 7, 52, 53, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 113, 114; sources
 of, in small-scale societies, 112–14; of use of precedent,
 26; of women and reproduction, 61–3, 64, 66, 113
- council housing in Britain, 45, 46, 47
- Cranborne Chase ritual sites, 95, 103
- cremation: in Bronze Age Wessex, 98, 99, 104–5, 106, 107; in
 Iron Age Jutland, 78, 80,
 81–2, 86
- critical theory, 4, 25
- Crow–Omaha type kinship system, 101, 103–4
- culture, cultural: anthropological concept of, 8, 25; approach, 53; evolutionary theories,
 2; interaction between ecology and, 25, 65; practices and social relations, 94; see also material culture
- cyclical change: in Iron Age
 Jutland, 71–89; theories of, 69–71
- Dankirke, Jutland, long-house,
 80, 81
- Danubian culture: houses, 54, 59, 60; pottery, 58, 61
- data: eighteenth-century interest
 in collection of, 27–8, 33;
 relationship between
 theory and, 151
- De Stijl*, 40
- debt relationships, 70, 71, 78, 81, 89, 150
- decoration: Endo body, 20–1;
 importance in suburban housing, 45, 46; rejected by modernist architecture, 40, 41; of Swahili houses, 62;
see also pottery decoration
- Deiringsen-Ruploh, trapezoidal house at, 57
- Denmark: agriculture during TRB
 and BAC, 119–20; barrows,
 54, 55; see also Jutland
- deposition: changes in, 149; context of, 104, 149; of metal, 104, 106, 149; see
also bog; grave goods; lake;
 votive deposits
- Deutsche Werkbund, 40
- Deverel Rimbury culture, 103, 105
 (fig.), 106, 107
- diachronic analysis, 4, 111, 112, 147
- Diana pottery, 61, 63
- diffusionist theory, 3, 52, 53, 54,
 66; anti-diffusionist arguments, 52, 54
- directional symbolism, 122, 137,
 139; see also orientation
- discipline, 6, 42
- Dollerup, Jutland, burial at, 81, 84
 (fig.)
- dolmens: long-passaged, in Brittany, 55; Scanian TRB,
 117–19, 120, 122–6, 136–44
- dominance, 5, 13, 38, 93, 104, 112–16; architecture as expression of, 39, 43; male, 8, 17, 23–4, 63; opposition
 and alternatives to, 12, 14, 44, 94–5, 150–1
- dress fittings, Iron Age Jutland, 75, 78, 80, 81, 82, 86, 87, 88
- Durrington Walls site, 96 (map), 98, 99, 100, 101
- Earl’s Farm Down burials, 71,
 98–9, 105 (fig.)
- ecology, 25, 54, 65
- economic: base of power, 5, 8;
 crises and social change, 52,
 65, 69, 70, 71, 86, 88–9
- egalitarian: ideals, modernism as expression of, 43, 46, 47;
 social relations, 72, 112, 143, 148
- Ejsbøl, Jutland, 87
- elders’ role in hierarchical society, 112, 113, 114, 115, 142, 143
- Elsloo, Netherlands, LBK houses,
 54, 59 (fig.)
- empiricism, 3, 33, 151
- Enderupskov, Jutland, 86
- Endo, 17–24: pot assemblage, 18–24; sexual division of daily activities, 18; socialisation of children, 18, 19, 23, 24; use of broken pots,
 22–3; wedding ceremony,
 19–22
- ethnocentrism, 13, 108
- ethnographic analogy, 62
- exchange, 114, 139, 141; commodity, 9, 10, 70, 87;
 between living and supernatural, 70, 71, 78, 89, 114, 149, 150; marriage, 70, 89,
 113, 114
- exploitation, 7, 93, 112–14
- façade: of Neolithic long-houses
 and barrows, 56–7, 59, 61, 66; treatment of, in modern architecture, 39, 40, 41–2, 43, 45, 47
- fact-value dichotomy, 38
- Farre, Jutland, burials, 78, 86
- feasting, 70, 89, 100, 112, 114, 142
- feminist: anthropology, 94;
 critique, 8, 112
- fetishism: archaeological, 3;
 commodity, 9–10, 11, 12;
 labour, 13; machine, 41

Index

- figurines, Neolithic, 60, 62, 64, 65
 Fleming, A., 52, 66, 95, 122
 food: consumption, 75, 101–2;
 containers, 18–19, 62;
 debris, 100, 101; preparation, 18, 19, 20, 21, 62, 75
 force, coercion, 5, 6, 7, 14, 150
 form–function relationship, 41, 47, 60, 66
 formalism, 4, 40, 41, 42
 Foucault, M., 1, 5–7, 11, 42;
Discipline and Punish, 6
 France, 52, 58, 61, 65
 Frankfurt school, 7, 8, 38, 42, 43, 148
 Fredbjøft, Jutland, long-houses, 81
 Friedman, J., 70–1, 89, 114, 148, 150
 Friedrich, 97, 128
 Fritz, J., 137
 function, 148; form and, 41, 47, 60, 66; meaning and, 53, 64
 functionalism, 2, 3, 40, 41;
 ethnocentric, 13
 Funen, Denmark, 78, 86
 Funnel Neck Beaker tradition, see
 TRB
 ‘Fürstengraber’ inhumations, 80,
 81
 Fussell’s Lodge long barrow, 54,
 55 (fig.), 57
 Gallehus, Jutland, gold hoard
 from, 88
 gallery graves, 54, 55, 58, 59
 gardens, 26, 27; design of, 28, 29, 31–2; use of precedent in creation of, 29, 32, 33;
 wilderness, 34, 151; see also William Paca garden
 gender: asymmetry, 4, 8, 148;
 divisions, distinction,
 17–24, 71, 80, 82, 105,
 108n, 113, 148; relations,
 53, 61–2, 63, 66, 108n, 113, 139
 genealogy, and social status, 102, 104, 105–6, 148; see also
 ancestors
 Georgian order, 26–7, 29, 33, 34, 43
German Ideology, The (K. Marx and F. Engels), 11, 12
 Germanic ‘barbarian’ societies,
 72, 76, 88
 Germany, 40, 54, 55, 59, 80, 148
 Giddens, A., 4, 13, 101
 Gillhöög passage grave, 125, 129
 Ginderup, Jutland, Roman coin
 hoard from, 81
 Glasgow, high rise blocks in, 44
 Godelier, M., 13, 70
 gold: deposition in burials, 80, 81,
 86, 106, 107; hoards, 72,
 86–7, 88
 Gombrich, E., 142
 Goody, J., 62, 65, 66, 148
 Gower coefficient, 131
 grave goods: Bronze Age Wessex, 102, 104, 105, 106–7;
 European Neolithic, 53, 56;
 Iron Age Jutland, 71, 78, 79
 (fig.), 80–2, 83 (fig.), 86, 90
 (fig.); Swedish Neolithic,
 126, 142
 Grønbjerg, Jutland, long-houses,
 73, 76 (fig.)
 Grøntoft, Jutland, 72, 73 (fig.), 74
 (fig.), 75 (fig.), 76
 Grooved-ware complex, 97, 98,
 100–1, 103
 Gropius, Walter, 40, 41
 Grossgartach, Neolithic huts at, 58
 Gundestrup, silver cauldron from,
 78
 Habermas, J., 38, 46–7, 143, 148, 150
 Hadereslev, Jutland, 72, 82
 Hagestad, Scania, excavations at,
 117, 126, 129 (table)
 Hambleton Hill causewayed
 enclosure, 101
 Hansen, F., 126, 127
 Håslöv/Skegrie tombs, Scania,
 123–5
 Hembury ware, 63
 henge monuments, Wessex:
 distribution of, 95–7; as expression of collectivity and unity, 99–100; relationship between individual Beaker burials and, 97–8
 hierarchical society, 64, 66, 72, 73, 106, 112, 114, 143, 148
 high rise apartment blocks, 40, 44–5, 47
 Hindby Mosse, Sweden, 117, 119,
 125, 129 (fig.), 130
 Hindess, B., 70, 112
 Hindu society, 94
 Hirst, P.Q., 70, 112
 historical archaeology, 4, 25–6, 51, 52, 53
 Hjemsted, Jutland, inhumation cemetery at, 86
 Hjortspring, Jutland, 76
 Hodde, Jutland, Iron Age village,
 73, 74 (fig.), 75, 76 (fig.), 77
 (fig.), 81
 Hodder, Ian, 2, 100, 148, 149, 150, 151
 Hoedic, Brittany, 53, 59, 65
 Hög passage grave, 126, 129 (fig.)
 Holland, 40, 61, 64, 65
 houses, housing: African, 62;
 eighteenth-century
 American, 26, 29; see also
 council housing; Jutland (farmhouses); long-houses;
 modernism; suburban housing
 Hungary, 58, 61
 hypothetico-deductive method, 151
 ideology, concepts of, 8–14, 25, 37–9, 93, 94, 116, 148, 149
 Indian architecture, studies of, 39 individual, individuality: denial or assertion of, in burial
 practices, 98–9, 104–5, 125, 137, 142; individualist
 power, 5, 6, 7; relationship between supra-individual and, 48, 149–50; status in hierarchical societies, 106;
 in suburban housing, 45, 47
 Ingold, T., 62, 65, 66
 inheritance patterns: Endo, 18, 22, 23; Neolithic, 62, 63, 65, 66
 inhumation burial: Bronze Age
 Wessex, 98, 104–6, 150;
 cemeteries of central Europe, 52, 60; distinction
 between cremation and, 80,
 82; Iron Age Jutland, 80,
 81, 82, 86; Mesolithic, 65;
 Swedish Neolithic, 117, 125
 initiation ceremonies, 18, 19, 21, 114 inner/outer dichotomy, 63 institutions, 150; architecture of,
 42, 45; power exercised by,
 6
 intention, 3, 4, 43; in power
 relations, 6, 7
 interest: conflicts of, 5, 13–14, 148;
 ‘objective’ or ‘real’, 8
 Ireland, megalithic tombs, 65, 100
 Iron Age, Jutland, 69, 71–89;
 Celtic or Pre-Roman (PRIA), 71, 72–80; Older
 Roman (ORIA), 71, 80–2, 89; Younger Roman
 (YRIA), Older Germanic
 (OGIA), 71, 72, 82–8
 Iron Gates, long-houses at, 54
 Islam(ic): houses, 62; relationship between built environment and, 39
 ‘juridico-discursive’ conception of power, 5
 Jutland, Iron Age society in, 69,
 71–89; animal stalling, 72,
 73, 74, 75, 84; farmhouses, 72–5, 81, 82, 84–6; storage
 structures, 72, 73 (fig.), 75, 78, 84, 86, 90 (fig.); see also
 burial practices; pottery;
 privatisation; votive
 deposits
 Kachin tribal society, Burma, 70–1
 Karanovo, Bulgaria, long-houses at, 60
karma, doctrine of, 94
 Kastanjegården, Sweden,
 gravefield, 126
 Kenya: Baringo district, 62; see also Endo
 Kilham long barrow, 55 (fig.), 57
 kinship systems, 101, 104, 105,
 106; see also lineage systems
 Knardrup, Denmark, Neolithic houses at, 63
 knowledge: positivist conception of, 38, 151; relationship to
 power, 6, 7, 8, 113, 114,
 115, 116
 Körös pottery, 61
 Kraghede, Jutland, 78, 89n
 Krogsbølle, Funen, weapon
 deposit at, 77
 Kujavia, burial mounds at, 54, 59
 Kwakitul, wealth destruction
 among, 141
 labour: control of, 53, 61, 62, 63, 113; division of, 9, 18, 64, 112, 113; impact of new technology on status of, 12,
 38; Marxist theory of, 9–11, 13, 70, 112; relations in small-scale societies, 112– 13
 lake deposits, 71–2, 75, 82, 86–7, 88
 land: as limiting resource, 62, 66, 148; relationship between Neolithic sites and land-use patterns, 120–1; tenure,
 Iron Age, 72, 73
 Langaa, Funen, cremation grave
 at, 78, 89n
 Langley, Betty, New Principles of Gardening, 28, 29
 Larkin building, Buffalo, U.S.A., 42
 Larrain, J., 8, 12, 13
 law, precedent in, 28, 29, 32
 LBK: long-houses, 54, 56, 57, 59,
 60, 61; pottery, 61
 Le Corbusier, 40, 41, 42, 43
 Leach, E., 71
 left/right distinctions, 136–7, 139
 legitimization, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 38, 48; competitive display as instrument of, 71, 78, 82;
 crisis, 143–4; of modernist architecture, 40, 41; ritual
 as instrument of, 23, 93, 94, 101; of social order in small-scale lineage
 societies, 63, 64, 66, 111–16;
see also naturalisation
 Lengyel culture, 54, 57, 60
 Lepenski Vir, 52, 59

Index

- Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 3, 34, 64, 142, 150
- liberty, concept of, 10, 38, 46; contradictions in eighteenth-century American, 26, 33, 34
- lineage systems: asymmetrical power relationships in, 111–16; competitive consumption and indebtedness in, 70–1; social relations in European Neolithic, 53, 61–4, 66; see also clan-based society; kinship
- Liverpool, Kirkby estate, 44
- Lödde/Kävlinge group of tombs, Sweden, 128, 130, 131, 134 (fig.), 137 (fig.)
- long-houses, central European, 53–63, 66; similarities between long mounds of western Europe and, 54–60
- Lukács, Georg, 26, 148
- Lukes, S., 5, 7–8
- Mace-head complex, 100
- machine aesthetic, 40, 41, 43
- Malmer, M., 120
- Malta, megalithic temples of, 63, 65
- Manchester, Hulme estate, 44
- Mandel, E., 70, 148
- manipulation, 5, 7, 8, 13, 148; of space, 31–2, 33
- Marakwet tribe, 18; see also Endo
- Marlborough Downs ritual sites, 96, 98, 99, 100, 103
- marriage: in Endo society, 18, 19–22; exchange, 70, 89, 113
- Marx, Karl, Marxism, 4, 5, 8, 26, 38, 42, 69–70, 95; labour theory of value, 9–13, 148–9; Marxist anthropologists, 94, 108, 111, 112, 148
- Maryland, U.S.A., 25, 27, 28, 29, 32–3
- material culture: ideological approach to studies of, 4, 71, 149, 151; relationship between social practices and, 19, 24, 53, 62, 66, 93–4, 107; role in ideological legitimisation, 111, 112, 116, 137, 143, 149
- mathematisation, 3, 40
- Maumbury Rings, 96 (map), 99, 101
- meaning and function, dichotomy between, 53, 64
- megalithic tombs of Atlantic Europe, 54–60, 63–6; similarities between central European long-houses and, 54–6; social and ecological context of, 63–5
- megalithic tombs of Scania, Sweden, 116–42; ceramics deposited at, 126–42; location and environment, 117–21; mortuary practices at, 125–6; orientation of, 122–5
- megaliths: critique of main approaches to study of, 51–3; symbolism of, 53, 60, 63–4, 99, 122, 150; see also henge monuments, Wessex; megalithic tombs of Atlantic Europe; megalithic tombs of Scania
- Meillassoux, C., 52, 108, 112, 113
- Mesolithic burial, 52, 65
- metal items, deposition of, 100, 102, 104, 106, 149
- Michelsberg culture, 61, 63
- microchip technology, 12, 38, 40
- Mies van der Rohe, Ludwig, 41, 42
- Minissan programme, 131
- modernism, architectural, 39–48, 150
- Mølleparken Iron Age settlement, Jutland, 86
- Morris, William, 40, 41, 43
- Mount Pleasant henge, 96 (map), 98, 99, 100, 101, 107
- Mulberry Fields garden, 29, 32
- Mumford, L., 40, 41, 42
- Myrthue, Jutland, long-house, 81
- mystification, 10, 11, 12, 34, 38, 41, 45, 46, 47, 150
- naturalisation, 10, 14, 46, 47, 150; of inequalities in social order, 26–9, 31–4, 51, 63, 64, 94, 105, 114–15, 137
- nature: domination and control of, 38, 40, 43; segmentation and ordering of, 26, 27, 29, 31, 34
- nearest-neighbour analysis, 119, 123, 131
- Neolithic: long-houses, 54–63, 66; pottery, 61, 62, 63, 97, 100, 101, 126–42; tombs, 51–60, 63–6, 101–2, 116–42
- ‘new archaeology’, 2–3, 53, 149
- Niederwil, Switzerland, 60
- ‘normative fallacy’, 3
- Nørre Snede, Jutland, Iron Age village, 86
- Nydam, Jutland, boat deposit, 87
- objectification, 66, 150
- objectivity, 38, 40–1
- optical illusion, in garden planning, 32
- orientation: of Iron Age farm-houses, 72; of Neolithic long-houses and mounds, 55–6, 57 (fig.), 63, 64, 66; relationships of Scanian megalithic tombs, 117, 122–5, 137, 139; see also directional symbolism
- Orkney Neolithic, 54, 55, 58, 59, 60 (fig.), 64
- Ortner, S.B., 94, 106, 108
- Overbygaard, Jutland, 75
- Paca, William, 29, 31, 32–3, 34; Paca house, 29; see also William Paca garden
- Palaeolithic cave art, 66, 142
- ‘paleo-psychology’, 3
- Paris Basin, 54, 58, 59, 60, 61, 63
- passage graves, 54, 59; orientation of, 55, 64, 122–5; Scanian, 117–31 passim
- perspective: and division of cultural space and time, 33; in garden design, 29, 31–2
- Peterborough ware, 97, 100, 101, 103
- Pfyn culture, Switzerland, 60
- place, sense of, 121, 122
- plough: agriculture, Neolithic, 62, 63, 65, 120; as votive offering, Iron Age, 75, 78
- Poland, 54, 55, 59
- pollen analysis, 120–1
- pollution, notion of: Endo, 20, 21, 22–3; Hindu, 94
- population stress, 52, 65, 121
- positivism, 2, 11, 12, 38, 151
- Postoloprty, Czechoslovakia, 55, 56 (fig.), 57, 60, 61
- pottery: broken, 22, 127, 137, 139;; Endo use of, 17, 18–24; funerary, 58, 75, 130; of Iron Age Jutland, 73, 75, 80, 81–2, 86; production, Neolithic, 63; study of, 3, 4; vessel shape, 20, 82, 117, 134, 139–40, 141, 142; Wessex, 97, 98, 100, 101, 103, 106, 107; see also pottery decoration; Scanian pottery
- pottery decoration: classification of, 97, 128–30; Endo, 20–1; Iron Age Jutland, 82; similarity between Neolithic house and tomb decoration and, 53, 58–9, 61, 62–3, 64; see also Scanian pottery
- power: approaches to concept of, 5–8; legitimisation of, 111–16
- praxis, 7, 10, 13, 14, 39
- precedent, 150; in law, 29, 32; use of past as, 26, 27, 28, 29, 33
- prestige, 7, 94; in architecture, 43, 44; competing systems of, Wessex, 93, 100–7, 149; consumption of wealth as means of acquiring, 70, 89, 102, 104, 141, 142; control over items of, 113, 114
- privatisation, 27; of Iron Age agricultural property, Jutland, 69, 72, 78, 80
- processual archaeology, 51, 52–3, 54, 66
- production: relations of, 5, 9–10, 11, 38, 70–1, 112, 113; relationship to consumption, 13, 69, 71, 88, 89, 90 (fig.)
- Quanterness, Orkney, 59
- Ramshög, Sweden, 125, 140
- rational architecture, 40, 41, 42
- reification, 11, 150
- Renfrew, A.C., 52, 53, 66, 96, 97, 116
- representation: 4, 26, 38, 43, 94, 116, 148, 149; bourgeois, 9–10, 13; collective, 8, 150; misrepresentation, 32, 116, 143, 149
- reproduction, control of, 62, 63, 64, 66, 113
- resources: control of, 7, 52, 53, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 113, 114; relationship of power to, 7, 8
- revolutionary change, 27, 69, 71, 76, 78, 81, 89
- Riedsachsen, long-house, 60
- ring-cairns, 55
- rites of passage, 21, 115; see also initiation
- ritual, 94–5, 115–16, 137, 143; in Endo society, 19, 23; Neolithic, 61, 64, 65; subversive potential of, 94–5; in Wessex, 95–107; see also symbolism
- rock-cut tombs (hypogées), 58
- rock sources for stone artefacts, Wessex, 103
- role-playing, 2, 71, 89
- Roman Empire, barbarian attacks on, 82; imports into Denmark, 80, 81, 86, 88
- Ronan Point high-rise flats, 44
- Rössen culture: long-houses, 54, 57, 60; pottery, 61
- Rowlands, M.J., 101, 102, 103–4, 105
- rubbish, disposal of, 4, 22, 93, 149
- Rubin, L., 10, 11, 12
- Rugsted Lund Iron Age settlement, Jutland, 81
- Salisbury Plain sites, 95–6, 103
- sampling, 2, 3

- Sanctuary site, Wessex, 97, 98, 100, 101
- SBK, 54, 60
- Scandinavian Neolithic, 57, 59, 64, 65; see also Scania
- Scania, Sweden, middle Neolithic, 116–44; see also megalithic tombs of Scania; Scanian pottery
- Scanian pottery, 117, 119, 125, 126–42; BAC, 119, 131, 134, 135; bands, 130–1, 133 (fig.); bounded design, 129, 130, 131 (fig.), 135, 136 (fig.), 138, 141 (fig.), 142; classification system, 128–30; deposition, 126–7, 128 (fig.); differentiation between settlement and funerary, 130; infill categories (figs.), 134, 137, 138, 139, 140; triangles, 129, 130, 131, 132 (fig.), 134 (fig.), 138 (fig.), 140; unbounded design, 129, 130, 131 (fig.), 135
- science, 148; as key to modern society, 38, and modernism, 40; relationship between ideology and, 12
- Scilly Isles, 65
- segmentation, 26, 29, 32, 35
- semiotics, 3
- settlement pattern: Iron Age
 Jutland, 71, 72–5, 82, 84–6, 89; Neolithic, 61, 62, 65, 117; theory, 25; Wessex, 95
- Severn-Cotswold tombs, 54, 55, 57
- sexuality: cultural construction of, 94; relationship of power to, 6
- Shetland, Neolithic tombs, 55
- silver deposits, Jutland: in burials, 78, 81, 86; hoards, 88
- Skara Brae, Orkney, 58, 59, 61
- Skendleby long barrows, 57, 59
- Skibshøj, tomb at, 57
- slavery: in eighteenth-century Virginia, 26, 33, 34; in Iron Age Jutland, 87
- social action, 4, 8, 93, 94, 116, 143
- social conflict, 3, 4, 12, 89
- social historians, 25
- social order, 7, 8; legitimization of, 26, 27, 29, 33, 34, 63, 64, 66, 105, 111–16, 142, 143
- social relations, 26, 38, 48, 51, 61, 94, 101, 122, 149–50; asymmetrical, 48, 111–16, 139; see also dominance; egalitarian; exploitation; gender; production
- social strategies, 4, 6, 8, 43, 65, 148; of legitimization, 53, 63, 64, 115; material culture and, 62, 66, 71, 94, 137, 139, 149
- social theory, 4
- social unity, 143
- soil types, correlation between-megalithic tombs and, 65, 120
- SOM culture, 58 (fig.), 61
- Sønder Vilstrup, Jutland, 80, 89n
- Soudsky, B., 54, 55, 57, 60, 61, 73
- South Lodge Camp, 104
- Soviet architecture, 41, 43; ‘super-communes’, 42
- space: manipulation of, 31–2, 33; time and, 121–2; see also spatial organisation
- spatial organisation, 26, 929, 30, 39; in burials, 78, 99, 137; in ceramic design, 129–42; in Neolithic long-houses, 57–8, 60–1, 62, 63
- Spearman’s coefficient of rank-correlation, 126
- stability of society, 3, 143, 148; megaliths as symbols of, 65, 122
- stalled cairns, 59, 60 (fig.)
- statistical methodologies, computer aided, 3; see also data
- status, social, 71, 93–4, 113, 144, 115; see also prestige
- Stentinello pottery, 61
- Stockbridge Down site, 98, 105 (fig.)
- stone-axe trade, 101
- Stonehenge, 65, 96 (map), 97–8, 99, 100, 101, 106, 107
- Storegården site, Sweden, 126, 129 (fig.)
- Strömberg, M., 126
- structural-Marxism, 4
- structuralism, 3–4, 11, 13, 25, 44
- stylistic: differentiation, 75, 80; innovation at times of crisis, 86
- suburban housing, Britain, 44, 45–7
- supernatural, relationship between living and, 70, 71, 78, 89, 114, 149, 150
- surplus: economic, 9, 70–1, 73, 77, 78, 81, 87, 89, 112, 113, 114, 143; labour, 70, 112
- Swahili houses, 62
- Sweden, 65; see also Scania
- Sweezy, P.M., Theory of Capitalist Development, 70, 148
- swords, deposition of, Iron Age Jutland, 76–7, 79 (fig.), 80, 81, 83 (fig.), 87
- symbolic analysis, 25
- Symbolic and Structural Archaeology* (Ed. Hodder, I.), 2, 4, 151
- symbolism, 93–4, 115; of artifacts, 4, 5, 66, 71, 150; directional, 122, 137, 139; in Endo society, 19, 20–4; of megaliths, 53, 60, 63–4, 99, 122, 150; see also ritual
- symmetry, 26, 29, 139, 151; in ceramic design, 141 (fig.), 142; of kin relations, 114
- synchronic analysis, 4, 150
- technical control, 2, 38, 40, 42, 43, 46
- Terra Sigillata, 86
- territorial: aggression, 82; behaviour, 52, 66; markers, 52, 64
- Teviec, Brittany, 53, 59, 65
- textiles, deposition of, Iron Age Jutland, 78, 80, 81, 86
- Thiessen polygons, 96
- Thorny Down site, 104
- ‘three-dimensional’ conception of power (Lukes), 7–8
- time: perspective and, 32, 33; relationship of built form to representation of, 150; space and, 121–2
- Tisza pottery, 61
- Tombølgaard, Jutland, cremation at, 80
- Tongan kava ceremony, 143
- tradition, 47, 101, 105, 141, 150
- transformation, 12, 21, 23, 33, 70, 112, 114, 142, 148
- TRB culture: ceramics, 126–42; change to BAC from, 111, 117, 121, 142–4; chronology, 117; mortuary practices, 125; Netherlands, 61, 64; site location and environment, 117–21; social groups, 116; tombs, 121–5
- Tripolye, 60, 61
- Troelstrup long mound, 57
- Trollakisten dolmen, Sweden, 125, 129
- Turner, V., 94, 115
- universal time, 29, 32, 33
- value: Frankfurt school’s concept of, 38; Marx’s labour theory of, 9–13, 148
- variability: in archaeological record, 3, 51, 148, 149; social, 8
- Virginia, U.S.A.: eighteenth-century society, 25, 26–8, 34; folk housing, 39
- Vorbasse Iron Age settlement, Jutland, 78, 82, 84–6, 87
- votive deposits, Iron Age Jutland, 71, 73, 75–8 (79 (fig.)), 80, 83 (fig.), 86–8, 90 (fig.)
- wagon deposits, Iron Age Jutland, 78, 79 (fig.), 81, 83 (fig.)
- Washington, George, 29, 31
- wealth, consumption of, 69–89 passim, 104, 141, 142; see also debt relationships
- weapon deposits, Iron Age Jutland, 76–7, 78, 79 (fig.), 80, 81, 82, 83 (fig.), 86–7, 88 (fig.)
- Weber, Max, 38, 94
- Wessex, c. 2200–1400 bc, 93, 95–108; chronological and spatial relationships between henges and burials, 97–8; competing ritual complexes, 100–7; contradictions in ritual practices, 97; deposition of metalwork, 104, 106; ‘Wessex Culture’ graves, 103, 104, 106–7; see also henge monuments; pottery
- West Kennet Avenue, 99
- Whittle, A.W.R., 54, 65, 95, 98
- Willerby Wold, 57, 59
- William Paca garden, Annapolis, 29, 30 (fig.), 31, 32, 33, 34
- Williams, Raymond, 47
- Windmill Hill site, 96 (map), 99, 100, 101
- Wolfe, Tom, 40, 43, 46
- women: control of, 61–3, 64, 66, 113; power of, 22, 24
- Woodhenge, Wessex, 96 (map), 97, 98, 100, 101
- Wor Barrow, 64
- Zwenkau, Germany, long-houses, 56 (fig.), 57