

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10020-5 - Politics and Trade in Mexico 1750-1821

Brian R. Hamnett

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	page vi
Archival abbreviations	vii
Weights, measures, and currency	viii
Introduction	i
1 Oaxaca—environment and trade	9
2 The struggle for control of trade	24
3 The problem of reform, 1768–1786	41
4 Reform and reality—the crisis of the subdelegations in the 1790s	56
5 The Gálvez Plan under fire, 1786–1804	72
6 Finance, trade, and the merchants, 1789–1808	95
7 The political crisis of 1808–1821	121
8 Conclusion—Oaxaca within the context of Mexican politics	148
Glossary of Personnel	156
Appendices: 1. Cochineal registration figures in the city of Oaxaca	169
2. Ten-year period registration figures, 1758–1826
3. Oaxaca cochineal dye (grana fina) exports on the fleets from Veracruz, 1760–1772
4. Cochineal trade at Cadiz, February 1783– November 1786
5. Cochineal of Oaxaca within the context of Spanish American trade in 1786 to the port of Cadiz
6. Export figures at the port of Veracruz, 1796–1821
7. Revenue and Expenditure of the Oaxaca treasury, 1790–1819
8. Table to illustrate the relationship between the Oaxaca merchants, and those of Mexico City and Veracruz, 1790–1800
9. Personnel involved in the Oaxaca Consolidation, years 1806, 1807, and 1808
10. Sums collected during the Consolidation in Oaxaca
11. Debts of the Oaxaca Treasury to the Pious Foundations, 1828
12. The Obrajes in Oaxaca
13. Oaxaca—Population estimates of the Intendancy and State
Sources and bibliography	190
Maps: 1. The Intendancy of Oaxaca, 1786–1821	198
2. Valley of Oaxaca
Index	200