

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

INDEX

'B' means Bolivia or Bolivian, 'LA' means Latin America, 'P' means Partido.

- Acción Socialista Beta Gama* (ASBG), 212-13, 216-17
- AEP, see Asociación de Ex-Prisioneros agregados, 7; sin tierra (foresters), 160n.
- agriculture, 4-5, 16, 160-6, 206; decline in, 45; collectivization of (advocated), 284; economic retardation of (1950), 394, 398; ownership of cultivated land, 394-5
- Aguirre Gainsborg, José, 154; personal details, 196n., 295; on Genuinos, 194; co-director of POR, 196; his policies, 207; and Beta Gama, 212, 217; and Bloque Socialista, 232n.; attacked by moderate socialists, 255; and POR, 295-6, 351; his death, 296
- Alianza Nacional Democrática* (AND), 345, 347, 349-50
- altiplano* (see also Andean highlands), 3, 4; Chilean capitalists and, 12, 13; mining industry, q.v., 13; capital pours into, 16, 42; Indian unrest on, 29, 69; political party plotting on, 109, 183; latifundias of, 161; fincas of, 164-6
- Álvarez, Moisés, 96, 97, 124, 148, 217, 224
- Álvarez, Waldo, 142, 155, 224-6, 281, 288; B's first minister of labour, 232, 233, 236-7; his radical reforms, 241; and syndicalization, 243; attacked by Partido Centralista, 252; ousted by Toro, 253; his position and achievements, 254-5; his successor, 255-7; and a labour code, 273; Código Busch and, 312; jailed, 356
- Alvéstegui, David, 53; exiled, 54; and Zamora, 58n.; resigns from cabinet, 82-3; in Bustamante's government, 115; in Sorzano's cabinet, 185
- Ampuero, M. L. Dick, 95, 123
- Anaya, Ricardo, 94, 99, 154, 207, 281; president of FUB, 101n.; a Grupo leader, 211, 255; in Toro's ministry, 236, 243; and syndicalization, 243; and ANPOS, 254n.; in congress, 332, 374; and PIR, 338-9, 353; and Catavi issue, 361, 362; and MNR, 371, 399
- AND, see Alianza Nacional Democrática
- Andean highlands (see also altiplano), 1, 3, 5, 13
- Andes* (political group), 204, 211, 212
- ANDES (Asociación Nacional de Ex-Combatientes Socialistas), 246
- Andrade, Víctor, 212
- ANPOS, see Asociación Nacional Permanente de Organizaciones Sindicales
- anti-clericalism, 100, 134, 284, 301, 342
- Anze Matienzo, Eduardo, 350-1, 354
- Aramayo, Carlos Salinas, 293, 326, 353, 357, 366
- Aramayo, Carlos Víctor (see also Partido Centralista), 34n., 72, 185, 187, 275; and Toro government, 252, 253
- Aramayo family, 34n., 71-2, 192, 399, 400; their tin interests and the revolution, 403
- Aramayo, Félix Avelino, 34n., 72
- Aramayo, José Avelino, 17, 34n., 110, 119
- Arce, Aniceto, 15, 17-18, 21, 26-8, 59, 84
- Arce, battle of, 176
- Argentina: Marxism in, 74, 191; railroads, 84, 355; university reform movement (1917), 98; Standard Oil's pipeline into, 153, 217, 218, 261-2; and peace overtures, 186; chancellor of, 187; foreign capital in, 193; B deserters seek refuge in, 196
- Argüedas, Alcides, 26, 111, 154; personal details, 294; his Pueblo enfermo, 192; and cholos, 193; on deputies to 1938 convention, 281n.; a party leader, 294; his programme, 294; and Concordancia, 305, 306, 327;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Argüedas, (cont.)
 minister of agriculture and immigration, 334
 army, the (see also officer corps and Chaco War): archaic, reformed by Arce, 27; and constitutional government, 58; becomes involved in politics, 68; and Siles, 86, 88-9; to be modernized, 102; supports Siles, 109; used by Siles against Indians, strikers and radical elements, 112; in politics, 114; 'Porfirian' tendencies in, 138; and prospects of war with Paraguay, 152-3; German training of, 173n.; its unpreparedness and inefficiency in 1932, 173-4; and Salamanca's government, 174-5; Kundt C. in C., 177-8, 180-1, 369; Peñaranda C. in C., 180; its losses under Kundt, 180-1; checkmates Salamanca, 182; seizes and releases Salamanca, 184; caste system in, 187; supports Tejada Sorzano, 200; CSB and, 214, 216; takes over government (May 1936), 227, 228; its own internal revolution, 228-9; and politics, 228-9; will 'go it alone', 238; political ideology of, 245-6; and RADEPA, q.v., 247, 367, 368; still politically dominant, 274-5; after Busch's death, 323-4; and Bilbao Rioja's exile, 328; political divisions in, 329; and Peñaranda régime, 366-7, 368; controls the nation, 368; conference of generals, 368; begins revolt (Dec. 1943), 368 (see also Villarroel); fails to govern, 381, 382; major civilian attack on, 383; supports régime (1939 et seq.), 390; in presidential elections (1951), 400; its leadership declines, 400; surrenders to revolutionaries (1952), 401; temporarily abolished, 404; reinstated, and becomes political arbiter (1964), 406; its political position and supporters, 406-7; its powerful national political role, 408
 Arze, José Antonio, 94, 99, 195, 207, 211, 254n.; and syndicalization, 243; exiled, 295; and the presidency, 329, 331-2, 400; since his expulsion by Toro, 330; returns, 331; and FIB, FUB, FPP, etc., 331; and the far left, 336; his PIR, q.v., 338-9; in exile, protests against Peñaranda's tour, 360; elected to congress, 374; attempt to assassinate him, 374
 ASBG, see Acción Socialista Beta Gama
 Asociación de Ex-Prisioneros (AEP), 246, 247; its manifesto, 247-8; demands an investigation, 248-9, 250
 Asociación de Industriales de Bolivia, 137n.
 Asociación de Industriales Mineros, 251
 Asociación Nacional de Ex-Combatientes Socialistas (ANDES), 246
 Asociación Nacional Permanente de Organizaciones Sindicales (ANPOS), 241, 254, 257
 Atacama, 3, 4; desert, 11, 12
 ayllu, the, 67
 Aymara Indians, 7, 187, 188-9, 242, 304, 379
 Ayoroa, Lieut.-Colonel José, 114-15
 Balcázar, Juan Manuel, 284, 355, 363, 366
 Baldivieso, Enrique, 90-2, 154; minister of public instruction, 185, 210; and CSB, 213; and PS, q.v., 217; and Elío, 220; and Saavedra, 220, 221, 222; and Tejada Sorzano, 221-2; and the army, 228; minister of foreign affairs, 231, 233ff.; his aims and policies, 233-4; opposition to, 237; resigns party leadership, 239; removed from government, 240; and 'socialists', 246, 263; in Busch's government, 268, 274; and the vice-presidency, 277, 282n.; on the constitutional convention (1938), 281; and Beta Gama, 295; under house arrest, 323; at Busch's funeral, 324; his Socialists, 336, 353; ideologically uncommitted, 353; in Villarroel's cabinet, 373
 Ballivián, General Hugo, 400
 Banco: Central, 93, 104, 137, 149, 319; Mercantil, 35, 103, 136; Minero, 240, 319; de la Nación Boliviana, 44, 45, 47, 79, 104
 Bandera Roja (party newspaper), 97
 Baptista, Mariano (the old 'magician'), 15, 18-24 passim; and Liberal party, 27; and economic development, 27; his achievements, 27-8; and Salamanca, 128
 Barrientos, General René, 406n, 407n.
 Belmonte, Captain (later Major) Elias, 292, 293, 347-50, 367n., 370

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Belmonte Pool, Waldo 258, 306, 327, 360
- Beni (department) 3, 27, 28, 186, 303, 344; rubber, 27, 28
- Beta Gama* (political group, see also ASBG), 203-4, 211-12, 217, 295; its new title, 212
- Bilbao Rioja, General Bernardino, 323, 324; personal details, 326, 327; moving to left, 326; and LEC and other socialist groups, 326-7; and Cochabamba, 327; and Concordancia, 327; kidnapped and exiled, 328; his show-down, 367
- Blanco Galindo, Colonel (later General) Carlos, 89, 102, 111, 114, 116-17
- Bloque Intelectual Obrero 'Avance'*, 204, 213, 217
- Bloque Socialista de Izquierda*, 217, 226, 232n.
- Bolívar, Simón, 1, 289n.
- Bolivia (political group), 204, 211, 212
- Bolivia Grande*, 203-4
- Boquerón: battle of, 171-3, 247; fort, 106
- Buenos Aires, 53, 58n., 65, 84; boundary commission, 102; peace talks and terms, 201, 232, 238, 308
- Busch, Major (later Colonel) Germán, 186, 226; personal details, 229, 230n., 316, 318-19, 320n.; with Toro, takes over government, 227, 228, 229; remains head of EMG, 231; and strikers, 232; and Saavedra, 238, 273; his manifesto (21 June 1936) and programme, 238-9; and difficulties, 239; and Baldovino, 239; his influence, 257, 259, 265-6; proposes to resign from EMG, 259-60; ousts Toro, 264, 265; Jefe Supremo of veterans' organizations, 264-5; his rise, 267-91; his change of policy, 267, 268; and Standard Oil, 267-8; his installation speech, 268; and traditional parties, 268-71; a reactionary (?), 269-70; and Marof, 271; and the presidency, 272, 274; his leftist orientation, 273, 278; and his cabinets, 273, 274; depends on army, 274; and constitutional convention (1938), 273-4, 276, 281n., 291, 292; and FUS, 276-7; and PRSA, 277; and Toro's revolt, 277; and press criticism, 281n.; elected president, 282n.; resumes initiative, 292; his vacillation and diffidence, 292-4; dismisses cabinet, 293; and political radicalism, 294; and students' congress, 302; and UDS, 302; and PO, 303-4; and Gosálvez, 304; and internal problems, 307; and reformist elements, 307; and Mendoza López and Schulze, 307; and Jewish immigration (1938), 307; establishes dictatorship (April 1939), 309; his explanation and manifesto, 309-11; his policies, 311-12; and Concordancia, 310, 311, 327; his social legislation (Código Busch, q.v.), 314; and tin production industry (decree), 314-16; his radio address (10 June 1939), 315-16; and private property, 315; his illusions, 316, 318-19; his speech at public rally (14 June 1939), 316-18; and Hochschild, 318; and Banco Minero, 319; his frustrations, 319; his death, 320-3 passim, 325; his posthumous honours, 324
- Byrne scheme (for controlling tin production), 148-9
- Calle, La* (party newspaper), 239, 336; becomes national socialist, 336; and PSI, 336; and German press, 337, 350; closed down, 347, 368; reopened, 348; and B's support of North America in World War II, 350; and Villarreal, 369; its 'group' in MNR, 372; official organ of Villarreal's government, 372
- Calvo, Carlos, 115, 219
- Calvo, Luis, 139, 183
- Camacho, Colonel Eliodoro (see also Liberal party), 14, 19-24 passim, 27; his principles and slogan, 15n., 23, 46, 64, 294; his Programa (quoted), 20; and Pando, 28
- Cámara de Comercio*, 137n.
- Campero, General Narciso, 14-15, 20-1
- campesinos*, see peasantry
- Cañada Strongest, battle of, 182
- Cañada Tarija, battle of, 181
- candidatura única*, 115
- Canelas, Demetrio, 88, 136, 141; minister of finance, 136-7; attacked and resigns, 140, 170; and Liberals, 170; minister of government, 176;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Canelas, Demetrio (cont.) and Salamanca, 183, 184; arrested, 221; leader of Genuinos, 258, 275; and Viera, 258; and 'political normalization', 275; and Concordancia, 306, 311, 327; and Catavi issue, 358, 362-3; and P. Zilveti Arce, 362
- Carandaití, battle of, 182
- Carrasco, José, 53, 111
- Catavi, miners' strikes and massacres at, 355-9, 360-6, 389-90, 407
- caudillaje*, traditional, 113
- caudillismo* and caudillos, 11, 12-13, 25-26, 40, 68, 114, 127, 165, 204, 205, 230, 244, 271, 304, 305
- CDC, see Comunidad Democrática Cristiana
- Célula (Partido) Socialista Revolucionaria (CSR)*, 125, 211, 212, 263-4, 307
- Centralista group (and others), 251 (see also Partido Centralista)
- Céspedes, Augusto, 91-2, 289; on Siles, 113; in Chaco War, 188; and La Calle, 239, 336; on duties of constitutional convention, and on Bolivian politics, 282-3; and effects of convention resolutions later, 286; after Busch's death, 323; and Bilbao Rioja, 327; and MNR, 337; in Villarroel's cabinet, 372; forced to resign, 372-3
- Chaco border dispute, 102, 105-6, 108, 111-12, 134-5, 145, 149-50, 153
- Chaco Boreal, 102, 187
- Chaco, Gran, 102, 134-5; settlement of Jews in, 308
- Chaco War (1932-36, v. Paraguay), 160-98; events leading to, 94, 126, 130, 146, 150-59; causes of, 153, 154n., 194; general support for, 154; opponents of, rounded up and dealt with, 154-5; mobilization for, 155; B's initial successes, 155-6; Salamanca and EMG, 157-8; the objective (uncertain), 158; responsibility for, disputed, 155-9; official start of (Aug. 1932), 169; progress of, 171-87 passim (see also battles by name); B's communications chaotic, 171; B's losses in, 178n., 187, 196; battle for oilfields, 182-3, 185, 186, 196; end of, and results, 187, 297; reasons for B's defeat, 187-9, 196, 197; consequences of, social and political, 189-97, 202-9, 232, 233, 284, 321, 332; novels about, 189-90; and radical propaganda, 190-7; punishments for misconduct in, 197-8; AEP and, 247, 248; Standard Oil and Argentina, 261-2; regionalism and, 303; and tin industry, 314
- Chile, 11-19 passim, 41, 55; war against (1879-84), 13-14, 18, 28, 40; truce with, 22; peace protocol, 27; peace treaty with (1904), 42, 46, 128; labour movements in, 62, 74; and Tacna-Arica area, 102; exile group in, 195
- cholos*, 7-10 passim, 60; defined, 7; urban, 51, 68, 69, 207; Indian, 167; and Chaco War, 190; blamed for historical evils, 193
- Chuquisaca, 1, 183; lagoon, see Laguna church, the: and the state, 20, 22, 100, 134, 301; and Indians, 90-1, 256; attacked by radicals, 284, 301
- 'civil war' (Aug.-Sept. 1949), 390-1, 398
- class structure up to 1930 (see also social system), 167-9
- COB, see Confederación Obrera Boliviana
- Cobija (port), 4
- Cochabamba, 43, 146n.; Salamanca and, 51, 52, 109, 127, 129, 201; light industry, 59; labour federations, 62; first student congress at, 99; falls to revolutionaries, 111; communists in, 123; FOT, 242; PSE, 263; Bilbao Rioja at, 327; FIB, 330-1; and PIR, 339, 342; military school at, 367
- Cochabamba valley, 10, 34, 242, 369
- Código Busch, 312-14
- Código del Trabajo (see also labour codes), 273, 312-14
- Colegio Militar (La Paz), 111, 181, 197, 328, 369
- colonato system, 160-6, 207, 338
- colonos*, 7, 8, 9, 112n., 242, 379; life of, 160-6
- COMIBOL (government tin company), 405
- Comité Permanente de Mineros*, 314
- comités de desertores*, 191
- communications, 3-6 passim, 17, 26, 28, 213; modern, 29; increased, 59, 60; and Marconi Co., 112
- communism and communists, 95-8 passim, 122-4 passim; definition of, 123n.; Salamanca and, 138, 146; in

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- communism and communists (cont.)
 Oruro, 142; and Tupac Amaru's manifesto, 144; and Cañada Tarija disaster, 181n.; 'communist nationalists', 191; Zalles and, 221; and FIB, 330; and MNR, 339-40; and PIR (alleged), 361-2
 Communist International, 74, 123, 124, 323, 339-40, 361
 Communist Parties of LA meeting at Montevideo (1928), 123
 Communist party, 123
 communist: plot (1927), 97; propaganda (1931), danger of, 131-2
Compañie Aramayo de Mines en Bolivie, 120n., 403
Compañía Huanchaca de Bolivia, 17-18; miners' strike at, 71
Compañía Minera Unificada del Cerro de Potosí, 119n., 142, 403
Compañía Recuadadora, 112
Comunidad Democrática Cristiana (CDC) 408n.
comunidad land-holdings (see also Indians), 7-8, 70
 Conciliation, Act of (Sept. 1929), 106
Concordancia, 305-6; a political turning-point, 306, 321; Busch and, 310, 311, 327; Quintanilla, and 324-5, 327-8, 329, 332-3; and Bilbao Rioja, 327, 329; and Peñaranda for presidency, 329; FIB and, 330; in 1940, 332; gains presidency but loses congress, 334; and Peñaranda, 334; and congress, 335; and MNR, 335-6; breaking up, 343-4; revived, 344-5; dominates government, 346
Confederación de Ferrovianos, 375
Confederación Obrera Boliviana, 406, 407
Confederación de las Repúblicas Socialistas de América Latina, 212-13, 300
Confederación Sindical Latino Americana (CSL), 122, 123, 276
Confederación Sindical de Trabajadores de Bolivia (CSTB), 256, 264, 270, 375, 386
Confederación (Partido) Socialista Boliviana (CSB), 211, 212, 212-20 passim, 246, 307; see also Partido Socialista Boliviano
Confederación de Trabajadores de Bolivia (CTB), 224
 Confederation of Latin American Socialist Republics, 212-13, 300
 Congreso de Córdoba, 195, 295
Congreso Nacional de Trabajadores: Primer, 75; Segundo, 97; Tercero, 97
 Congress of University Students, Fourth National, 298-302
Consejo de Economía Nacional, 117
Consejo Nacional de Educación, 240n conservatism, 19-20 (see also 'Conservative Oligarchy' and Conservative party)
 'Conservative Oligarchy', 21-4, 29-30, 36, 58, 101
 Conservative party (Partido Conservador), 15, 16, 22, 37, 85, 142; in power (1884-99), 21-30, 38, 40; principles of, 22; collapse of, 29; achievements of, 29-30; former members of, 46, 47; and PUR, 47n.
 constitutional amendments: proposed, 49, 116, 117; opposed, 116
 Constitutional Commission (1880), 18, 19, 38
 constitutional convention (May 1938), 272-4 passim, 278, 280-91, 292, 302, 314; opposition to, 280-1; and 'social constitutionalism', q.v., 281; its 'mandate', 281; Céspedes' advice, 282-3, 286; proposals (see also 281n.): on capital and labour, 287; on church property, 284-5; on culture, 287; on the family, 287; on foreign enterprises, 285; on the Indian problem, 289-90; on land reform, 289-90; on the mining industry, 286; on the peasantry, 289-90; on the press, 281; on private property, 283-4; on social constitutionalism, 281ff.; on social justice and welfare for all, 286-8; on state control of national economy, 286; on a welfare state, 288; general considerations: its aims, 287-8; groups and personalities, 288-90; Busch and, 281n., 291, 292; its impact, 291, 295; and PO, 303; abolished, 325
 Constitutional Reform Commission (1936), 253, 259, 270 constitutions of Bolivia, 280; 1878, 18-19; 1880 (with modifications), 116, 270, 278, 280, 291; 1938, see constitutional convention; later, 291; 1945, 380; 1952, 403ff.
Convención Nacional (1938), see constitutional convention
Convención Nacional de Estudiantes Bolivianos, Primera, 99-101

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- cost of living, variations in, 347n., 387, 398
 'Council of Ten', 97
 crisis, international (Acre, 1890), 33, 38
 CSB, see Confederación Socialista Boliviana
 CSL, see Confederación Sindical Latino Americana
 CSR, see Célula Socialista Revolucionaria
 CSTB, see Confederación Sindical de Trabajadores de Bolivia
 CTB, see Confederación de Trabajadores de Bolivia
 Cuenca, Colonel, 355, 363
 'Cultural Régime', 287
- Daza, General Hilarión, 14, 18, 19
Defensa Obrera (labour newspaper), 62
 de la Torre, Haya, 110, 126
 Democratic party (Partido Democrático), 21, 23, 27
Departamento General de Trabajo, 254 de Ugarte, Rafael, 115, 183, 184, 200, 222
Día, El (party newspaper), 356
Diario, El (party newspaper), 53; on political parties in conflict (July 1920), 64; its editor, 83, 88; confiscated, 111; Salamanca interviewed by, 121; and Genuinos, 138; on Salamanca and a national government, 138, 141; and Chaco War, 170; some of its staff exiled, 177; and military dictatorship, 201; on Salamanca, 201-2; T. M. Elío interviewed by, 220; and Toro's military government, 231; and W. Álvarez, 232n., 252; and syndicalization, 243; and AEP's demand for a war-responsibility tribunal, 249; and constitutional convention (1938), 280, 281; and German news sources, 350
 Díaz Machicao, Porfirio, 146n., 154, 188, 196
 Díez de Medina, Eduardo, 88, 187, 312
 Díez de Medina, Fernando, 190
Dirección General de Consumos Nacionales, 241
Dirección General de Trabajo, 254n.
- economy of the republic (see also finances and taxation): stagnation, 3-6, 10, 12, 16-18; and silver industry, 16-18, 31; and tin, 31-6; expansion, 29; thriving, 44; depressions, 45, 59n., 63, 68, 107-8; during World War I, 52, 58-9; crisis (1926-8), 102-5; under Bustamante, 117-18, 120; under Salamanca, 121, 133-41, 148-9; and Chaco War, 149, 223-5, 241, 253; improvement under Toro, 264n.; Palacios and, 293; under Peñaranda, 335; before the revolution, 391, 394-8; and after, 403-5 education, 59-60, 61, 392-3
 Eguino Zaballa, Félix, 124, 284
 El Carmen, battle of, 184, 197 elections, free, 48-9, 54, 57, 83, 354 electorate (see also franchise), 168
 Elío, Tomás Manuel, 55n., 62, 105, 141; in Bustamante's government, 115; in Tejada Sorzano's government, 185; and peace commission, 186, 187; new head of Liberal party, 219, 220 (see also 105, 141); interviewed by El Diario, 220; and elections (1936), 220-1; in exile, returning, 269
 EMG, see Estado Mayor General
empleados (white-collar workers), 143, 169, 378, 393, 398 employment in 1950 (by industries etc.), 394
enganche contracts, 313
 Escalier, José María, 53-8 passim, 64-8 passim, 88, 94, 102; to Argentine embassy, 106; and presidential election, 108; and an all-party slate, 115; and economy, 121; his death, 304n.
 Espada, Joaquín, 181, 182, 183, 269, 344
 Estado Mayor General (EMG), 134, 145-57 passim, 171-5 passim, 181-3 passim; and recruiting, 155; its dispute with Salamanca, 157-8, 159; its memorandum on functions of government and military, 157-8; Baldovico and, 222; Busch and, 259-60; Quintanilla and, 323
 Estenssoro, José R., 66, 82
Estrella de Hierro group, 305, 374 exports, 32, 33, 45, 52, 58-9, 71, 107, 285, 347n., 396, 397
Falange Socialista Boliviana, 301, 302, 342n., 383
 fascism and fascists: in B, 300, 301, 340,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- fascism and fascists (cont.)
 372, 373, 374, 385; Italian, 206, 207, 235, 243, 244
- FDA, see Frente Democrático Antifascista
- Federación de Artes Gráficas, 124, 141
- Federación Central de Mineros de Uncia, 81
- Federación de Estudiantes, 139
- Federación Ferroviaria de Oruro, 62, 63, 75, 76, 349
- Federación Obrera Internacional (FOI), 62
- Federación Obrera de la Paz, 61, 62, 72
- Federación Obrera Local (FOL), 122, 177, 226, 241
- Federación Obrera del Trabajo (FOT), 62, 146; and taxi drivers, 75; and CSL, 122; leaders of La Paz branch, 124; calls for general strike, 133; and ley de defensa social, 139; and new exchange rates, and miners, 148; destroyed in cities (Nov. 1933), 177; La Paz branch reorganized, 224; its 19-point petition, 225, 226; and LEC, PRS, PS, Bloque Socialista and anarchists, 226; and general strike movement, 226; and Toro government and a ministry of labour, 232; and ANPOS, 241; and Quechua colonos, 242; Álvarez and, 254, 255; Aguirre Gainsborg and, 295
- Federación Sindical de Trabajadores Mineros de Bolivia (FSTMB), 375-6; its aims, 376, and MNR, 384, 385; its ideology, 384; and PIR, 385, 399; and civilian junta, 386; and POR 387; and dismissals, 388-9; leaders exiled, 389-90; and Revolución Restaurada, 406n.; destroyed 407
- Federación Universitaria Boliviana (FUB), 99-100, 101n.; statutes and programme of, 99-100; preferred Russian to fascist dictatorship, 100; its first president, 101n.; rejuvenated (Dec. 1939), 298, 302; its fourth national congress, 298; its Organic Statute and Programme of Principles, 298, its 'fundamental declarations', 298-9, its programme, 299-302; and Arze for presidency, 329, 331
- Federación Universitaria de La Paz, 90-1
- federalism and federalists, 29, 37-40 passim, 67, 100
- Fernández Alonso, Sergio, 18, 28, 29
- feudalism, 160-8, 192, 194, 279, 300-1; 'democratic', 385
- FIB, see Frente de Izquierda Boliviana
- finances (see also economy and taxation), 72, 77-8, 103, 117-18, 133-41, 148-9, 218, 241, 253, 274, 293, 346
- fincas (landed estates), 161-6 passim
- Finot, Enrique, 92, 193, 240, 346
- Fiscal Commission, Permanent, 79, 80, 117n.
- FOI, see Federación Obrera Internacional
- FOL, see Federación Obrera Local
- forasteros (or agregados) sin tierra, 7, 160n.
- fórmula: Kellogg, 102; única, 138
- Fortín: Arce, 176; Boquerón, 171; Mariscal Santa Cruz, 147, 150, 154, 156, 159
- FOT, see Federación Obrera del Trabajo
- franchise, the, 167-8, 244, 404, 407
- FRB, see Frente de la Revolución Boliviana
- Frente Democrático Antifascista (FDA), 381
- Frente Institucional Socialista, 264
- Frente de Izquierda Boliviano, 330-1
- Frente Popular de Potosí, 306-7, 331
- Frente de la Revolución Boliviana (FRB), 408n.
- Frente Único Socialista (FUS), 276-7, 278
- Frente Unido de Beni y Pando, 345
- Frentes de explotados, 301
- Frentes Populares, 256, 288, 289
- Frías, Tomás (party leader), 13, 26
- FSB, see Falange Socialista Boliviana
- FSTMB, see Federación Sindical de Trabajadores Mineros de Bolivia
- FUB, see Federación Universitaria Boliviana
- Fuero Sindical, 378
- FUS, see Frente Único Socialista
- generación del Chaco, 189
- Genuino Republican Party, see Partido Republicano Genuino
- golpes de estado: Toro's, 230; Busch's, 238, 239, 240
- Gosálvez, Gabriel, 231, 268, 269, 273, 274, 288; and Antipersonalistas, 302, 304, 353; leaves B for Italy, 304, 306; ideologically uncommitted, 353
- Gran Chaco, see Chaco
- Gran Cruzada Nacional Pro-Indio, 90-1
- Great Depression, the, 107-8
- gremios, 75
- Grupo Ariel, 204, 213

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- Grupo de Cochabamba* (RADEPA, q.v.), 370
Grupo Henri Barbusse, 204, 213
Grupo de Izquierda, 204, 211-13 passim, 236, 255, 288, 330
Grupo Oriental, 288
Grupo Orientalista, 303
Grupo (Revolucionario) Tupac Amaru, 125-6, 143-5, 194-5, 213
 Guachalla, Luis Fernando, 43, 92, 135, 277
 guano, 12, 16
 Guaqui (town), 43, 164, 165
 Guaraní offensives, 180, 181, 182
Guardia Republicana, 65, 84n.
 Guevara Arze, Walter, 281, 284, 289, 290n., 296, 319; and Villarroel's government, 372, 373, 374n.
 Gutiérrez Granier, Federico (financier), 222, 251, 268; minister of finance, 268-72 passim; resigns, 273; his role in cabinet, 292
 Gutiérrez Guerra, José, 53, 54, 55-8, 63
 Gutiérrez, José María, 151, 306
 Guzmán, Augusto, 92, 264
- hacendados*, white, 7-8, 10, 34-5, 65, 165-8 passim
haciendas, 161n., 166
 Hertzog, Dr Enrique, 221, 306, 344, 368, 374, 388, 389
 Hinojosa, Roberto, 95, 109, 110, 111-21, 125
 Hochschild, Mauricio, 119, 142, 257, 308, 318, 374, 403
 'hombre símbolo' (Salamanca, q.v.), 127, 179, 194
 Huancavelica mercury mines, 2
 Huanchaca silver mines, 17-18, 35
- Ichazo, Colonel (later General) Antenor, 323, 326, 328, 367, 368 immigration (of Jews), 307-8, 335 imperialism: of capitalists, 300-1, 337, 339, 364, 385; North American, 348, 351, 385; of USA, 100-1, 299-300, 399 imports, 59n., 164, 223, 347n.; of food, 164, 396 independence, Bolivian (1825), 1
 Indian Congress, First National, 379; government decrees resulting from, 379-80
 'Indian Problem', the (see also Indians), 70, 192, 236, 289-90, 300-1, 378
 Indians (see also Indian Problem, Aymara and Quechua), 6-10, 144; exploited, 7-9; campesinos, see peasantry; colonos, see colonos; comunidades (free), 8-9, 61, 69, 73, 160, 163-7 passim, 284, 289, 290, 379; hacienda, 166; landless estate labourers, 8, 69, 161; migrate to cities, 9, 242-3; the ayllu, 67; rebel, 69, 112, 125; Saavedra and, 70; POS and, 73; integration of, 90-1, 99; FUB and, 99; votes for, 110; Siles and, 112; incited to violence, 125; and Chaco War, 155, 188, 241-2; Marof and, 192-3; had lost freedom and lands, 192; and post-war political groups, 207, 235; CSB and, 216; veterans of the war, 241-2; and sindicatos campesinos, 242; constitutional role of, 279; FIB and 330; MNR-RADEPA and, 379; and the revolution (1952), 402, 407
indigenismo and indigenista, 50, 90n., 96, 101, 144, 191, 192, 279, 339-40 industries, various, see under names of products industry (see also agriculture and mining): light, 59, 60, 396; manufacturing, 59n., 396 inflation (see also cost of living), 218, 241, 253, 346-7, 398, 404, 492
 Ingenieros, José, 98, 126 intellectuals and intelligentsia, 25-6, 29; general, 83, 91-4 passim, 98, 121, 124, 143, 167, 196, 254, 289; middle class, 93; exiled by Siles, 125; and Marxist literature, 126; demonstrations by (1931), 142; support Chaco War, 154; key, rounded up (July 1932), 154-5; in and after Chaco War, 189, 190, 197-8; CSB and, 213; radical, 236
 intimidation, see violence
 Iturralde, Abel, 66, 78, 82, 83
 Iturralde Chinel, Fernando, 337, 347
 Iturralde Chinel, Luis, 212, 217
Izquierda Boliviana (in Chile), 195, 211
- Jewish immigrants, 307-8, 335, 337; defrauded, 308
 Jewish imperialists, Wall Street, 337
juventud, la, 89-90

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Kellogg, Frank B. (US Secretary of State), 102, 106
- Kemmerer Mission (USA), 103-4, 105
- Koning memorandum, 41-2
- Korean War (1950-1), 400
- Kundt, General Hans, 109, 111, 173-4, 180; personal details, 173; C. in C. of armies, 177-8, 180-1; and Salamanca, 178; discredited and dismissed, 178, 230; and Toro, 229; replaced by Peñaranda, 229n.
- Labour, agricultural, unpaid, 160-6 passim
- labour codes (códigos, see also Código del Trabajo), 93, 100; CSB's proposed, 216; Busch's, 273, 355, 362
- labour, corvée, 8
- labour decrees, revolutionary (1952), 403
- labour leaders, 73, 74, 124, 364, 374, 375
- labour movements, 60-3; under Villazón, 61-2; first May Day parade, 61; federations, 61-2 (see also under names); first national trade union, 62; strikes, see strikes; right to strike, 65; arbitration, 65; Saavedra and, 65, 70-1; progress of, 72-6; and a national labour federation, 75; railroad leadership in, 75; and General Strike (1922), 75-6; first large-scale victory, 75; and European ideas, 82; political awareness of, 122; international affiliation, 122-3; Salamanca and, 133, 141; conversion to revolutionary programmes, 143; in 1932, 144-5; and Chaco dispute, 146, 177; temporarily destroyed, 177; support Tejada Sorzano, 200; after the war, 224-7; and leftist political parties, 225-6; and military coup (May 1936), 227n.; and Toro, 232-3, 265, 267; support Álvarez, 254; and reform, 298; and Código Busch, 312; under Toro and Busch, 322; PIR and, 341; press their demands (1941-2), 351; and Peñaranda, 355; and Catavi massacre 357
- Labour Party (Partido Laborista, q.v.), 96-7
- Laguna Chuquisaca, 147-59 passim, 171, 181
- laissez faire*, 36, 49, 70, 127, 132, 193, 280, 288
- land-holding and land ownership systems, 7-10, 69, 165, 394-6, 395
- land reform decrees (1953), 403-4
- land reforms proposed: for Indians, 90n., 91n., 100; general (1938), 284, 289-90
- Lanza, Colonel (later General) José L., 174, 175, 180, 184
- La Paz, 43, 51, 164; importance of, 28; population of, 4n., 28n., 59, 243n., 391-3; and Sucre (rivals), 28-9; Montes and, 40; University of, 40; Salamanca and, 48, 52, 183; light industry in, 59; Pando murdered near, 53; trade unionism at, 61-2; Republican revolt at, 63; Saavedra and, 65, 67, 68; and POS, see Partido Obrero Socialista; under curfew, 75, 76, municipal council dissolved (Jan. 1923), 83n.; in general election (May 1923), 83n.; revolt in, 84n.; and Buenos Aires rail link, 84; student meeting at, 91; revolutionaries at, 92; newspapers of, and Partido Nacionalista, 92, 108; Kemmerer mission in, 103; student riots in, 111; and FOL, 122; communists in, 123n.; FOL workers and police fight in, 142; prefect of, and 'state of siege', 148; international appeal from (30 July 1932), 154; Quintanilla in, 151, 175; Liberals at, 170; riots in, 173, 176; demonstration at (27 July 1935), 200; PN convention at, 210; general strikes in, 226; Toro and, 231; PS and, 237; Viera and, 263; LEC at, 264; national convention in (May 1938), 273-4, 275; FOT and, 295; press of, and PO, 303; after Busch's death, 323; Busch's funeral at, 324; socialist mass demonstrations (Oct. 1939), 327; first national Indian congress at, 379; hunger march in (Feb. 1952), 400-1
- La Paz Labour Federation, 61, 62, 72
- Lara, Jesús (a sergeant), 188, 196
- Lara, Julio (labour leader), 255, 258
- La Salvadora tin mine, 35, 81n.
- Las Canchas, massacre at, 380
- latifundia system (and latifundismo), 7, 10, 144, 161, 207, 235, 301, 338, 379, 385
- latifundias, 99, 110, 125, 160, 195, 284, 289, 290

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- latifundistas*, 69, 91, 112n., 161, 206, 395-6, 404, 405
- Latin American solidarity, 100-1
- La Torre, see de la Torre
- 'law of union rights', 378
- League of Nations, 54, 72, 102, 185, 186
- LEC, see Legión de Ex-Combatientes
- Lechín, Juan, 374-6 passim, 383, 387-9 passim, 405, 406
- leftist fronts, popular, 256
- leftists (for definition, see overrun footnote on p. 124), 124-6 passim, 141-6 passim, 195, 240, 254, 277, 288-9; and Chaco War, 154-5, 177, 203; opportunity and expansion, 155, 177; after the war, 203, 205, 206, 234; moderate, 207, 234; and a new political group, 211; and labour movement, q.v., 225-6; radical, 236; under Busch, 271-2, 294-5; dominant, 276; at constitutional convention (1938), 283; in state of flux, 306; spread of, 321; and Quintanilla, 329; and FIB, 330; and MNR, 337; success in 1942 elections, 354
- Legión de Ex-Combatientes* (LEC), 208-11 passim; its charter, 209; Liberals and, 217; and FOT, 226; represents majority of veterans, 246; votes Busch Jefe Supremo, 264-5; political status of, 270; and national convention (1938), 272; and coming elections, and Busch for president, 274; and FUS, 276; and Baldovieso for vice-president, 277; and UDS, 302; Bilbao Rioja and, 326-7
- Legión de Ex-Combatientes Nacional Socialistas* (LENC), 246
- legitimacy (of governments), 202-3, 205
- LENC, see Legión de Ex-Combatientes Nacional Socialistas
- Levering, Richmond (New York), contract, 78, 261
- ley de defensa social*, 139, 141, 142
- Leyton, Vicente, 306, 311, 326
- Liberal Era, 31-63
- liberalism (see also Liberal party), 19-22 passim, 64, 70, 82, 92; Camacho on, 20; era of, 31-63, 68n., 69; and free Indians, 70; and individualism, 92; Salamanca's, 128, 130
- Liberal party (Partido Liberal, see also liberalism), 15-16, 19-21, Camacho's Programa, quoted, 20; programme of (1885), 20n., 49; in opposition, 21-2, 28; and 1888 elections, 23; uprisings of, 26, 27, 28; gains control of congress, 27; its national convention (1894), 28; and capital city dispute, 29; comes to power (1899), 29; in power, 31-63, 68; principles of, 36-7, 46, 49; and federalism, 37-8; first ordinary congress, 38; split in, 39; unopposed (1904-14), 39; Ismael Montes leads, 40, 41; and Guachalla, 43; and PUR, 47n.; first opposition party to (1914), 48; and Montes' political groupings, 50; its 'gangs' or 'clubs', 51; its newspaper, 53; and the presidency, 53, 56; and free elections, 54; strength of (1918), 54; divisions in, 55-6; and patinista group, 56, 57; mobs, 57; and the army, 58; and trade unionism, 61, 63; defeated, but its work survived, 63, 65; composition of, 64; reviving, 66, 76; tranquillity under, 68, 69; and Saavedra, 70, 82; and labour movement, 76; opposes Saavedra, 82; members exiled and sequestered, 83; Siles and, 91, 105, 107; more exiles, 107; in presidential elections (1930), 115, 116; and constitutional amendments, 116; landslide victory for (1931), 121; its first congress (1899), 128; and Salamanca, 131, 133, 134, 138-41, 159, 169, 170-1, 176; and Canelas, 136-7, 170, 176; and finance, 137; and one-party government, 138; and Republican Socialists, 179, 219, 222; and Tejada Sorzano, 184, 185; restored to power, 199ff.; Beta Gama and, 204; and CSB, 217-19; and Standard Oil, 217-18; and inflation, 218; fears tradicionalista label, 220; and 1936 elections, 221; and socialists, 222; and Baldovieso and the army, 222; and general strikes and labour agitation, 226-7; and Toro's military government, 231; and Busch, 269; and H. Montes, 277; and anti-clericalism, 284; elects new leader (Sept. 1938), 294; and Genuinos, 343; and PURS, 345; in May elections (1942), 353-4; and Catavi vote of censure, 365
- liga de defensa social*, 142
- literacy and illiteracy, 8, 10, 60, 167-9,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- literacy and illiteracy (cont.)
 191, 364; before the revolution, 391, 392; and the franchise, 404
- littoral region, 11–16 passim, 54–5, 56, 101–2
- Llallagua (town), 35, 384; mines, 81n., 355
- Llallagua-Catavi (Mar. 1946), 384
- localism (see also regionalism), 10
- Logia Abaroa (of RADEPA), 370
- Logia Mariscal Santa Cruz (of RADEPA), 367, 368, 369n., 371
- Lora, Guillermo, 351, 352, 374, 384; his Tesis, 384–5
- Los Cruceros, battle of, 29
- Loza, Enrique G., 73, 95, 96, 109, 124, 224
- ‘Magician’, the old, see Baptista, Mariano
- Magruder Commission (on workers’ living standards), 363
- Mariátegui, José Carlos, 101n., 126, 192, 279, 289, 340
- Marof, Tristán (Gustavo A. Navarro), 72n., 95, 97, 207, 293; his syndicalism, 191–7; and Indians, 192–3; and Chaco War, 194–5; in exile, 212, 271; and POR, 295–6; founds PSOB, 296–7, 302; his ‘credo’, 297; his proposals, 298; in congress, 332; attacks MNR, 348, 349
- Marxism, Marxists and Marxian socialism: workers’ parties and, 72; in LA, 74; younger generation and, 90; Marof and Hinojosa, 95; among university youth, 99; and radicalism, 101; translations, 126; intellectuals and, 126; Bolivian, 126–7, 191, 192, 207, 212; and Grupo Tupac Amaru manifesto, 144; Marof foments, 191; in FUB, 299, 302; FSB and, 301n.; middle classes and, 321, 322; FIB and, 330; MNR and, 340; PIR and, 342; in POR, 401
- materialism, historical, 98, 99
- Medina, see Díez de Medina
- Medinacelli, Carlos, 99, 281
- Melgarejo, Mariano, 12–13, 14
- Mendizábal, Angel, 360, 363
- Mendoza López, Alberto, 94, 124, 217, 296, 327
- Mendoza López, Vicente, 259, 263, 264, 270, 293, 307
- mercury, 2
- mestizos, 9, 167, 188, 189, 192, 197n.
- Mexico, 86, 99, 260, 402; constitution of (1917), 100, 278, 290n.
- middle classes (see also empleados and obreros), 9, 34–5, 51, 60, 167; Saavedra and, 65, 68, 70–1, 72, 207; ideology of, 93; intellectuals, see intellectuals; urban, 168–9, 207–8; political importance of, 208, 321–2, 332; and MNR, 338, 376, 384–8, 398; after Villarroel, 382; and POR, 383; and PIR, 384; and PURS, 389; and inflation, 398, 404; and post-revolution army, 406; and peasants, 408
- militarism, 10–11, 12–13
- mineral resources (see also mining), 1–4, 13; control of, 192
- Miners’ Association, 268
- mine workers (see also FSTMB and MNR): congresses, 375–6, 384; and MNR and POR, 386–7; and dismissals (1947), 388–9, 389n.; and US tin purchases, 400
- mining industry (see also mineral resources), 13, 16–18 passim; heavy, 60; unionization in, 61; taxation of, 80, 81, nationalization of, 100; unemployment in, 117; and Chaco War, 153; without trade unions in 1930, 167; attacked in constitutional convention (1938), 285–6; stagnation in, 396–8
- Ministry of Labour, B’s first, 232, 236–7
- mitanaje* and mitanías, 380
- MNR, see Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario
- Monje Gutiérrez, Tomás, 382–3
- Monroy Block, Germán, 337, 347
- Montenegro, Carlos, 154, 210; Céspedes and, 92; and CSR, 211; co-leader of PS, 217, 237; and La Calle, 239, 336; and Lara, 255; and Beta Gama, 295; and MNR, 337; in Villarroel’s cabinet, 372; forced to resign, 372–3
- Montes, Hugo, 269, 277, 294
- Montes, Ismael, 35, 37, 39–49 passim, 61, 67; personal details, 40, 41n.; his achievements, 40–1; and the littoral issue, 41–2; and peace treaty with Chile, 42; his ‘contracts’, 42; and railroads, 42; antimontista factions, 43, 46, 48–9; Salamanca’s criticism, 46–7; and PUR, 48; and violence at

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Montes, Ismael (cont.)
 elections, 51; his policies, 51-2; and the presidency, 53; and Pando's assassination, 54; resigns, 54; end of his first administration, 61; and Saavedra, 67; exiled, 83, 107; to Brazil embassy, 106; and an all-party slate, 115; and vice-presidency, 115, 116; and constitutional amendments, 116; and Salamanca, 128-9, 177; head of Central Bank, 137; and Finca Taraco, 165; his home stoned, 176; his death, 304n.
- Montevideo, 122, 123
- Moscoso, Major (later Colonel) Oscar, 146-8, 181-2
- Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario* (MNR), 234-5, 289, 337; its political position and programme, 337-8, 339; and middle classes, 338, 376, 384-8 passim, 398; and strikes, 344n., 349, 357, 388; attacks government on inflation, 346-7, 347n.; and Belmonte letter, 347-8; Marof attacks, 348-9; its influence in congress, 350; and B and World War II, 350; its success at polls (May 1942), 353; and Catavi massacre, 357, 360, 365-6; and RADEPA, 368, 369n., 373, 374, 378, 382; comes to power, 368; its ideology, 371; and Villarroel, 372-3, 376, 377; and mine workers, 373-4, 375, 390; and PIR, 374, 384; FSTMB and, 376; and reform, 377; and Indians, 380; and radical left, urban workers and students, 381; and CSTB, 381; its majority in congress, 381; and the 'sexenio' (1946-52), 383; and POR, 383, 386-7; and militant miners, 386; in municipal elections (1947), 389; in congressional elections (1949), 389; and labour movement, 390; its revolts (1949-1950), 390, 391; and the army, 391; leads revolution, 398; its last attempt to overthrow government legally, 399-400; in presidential elections (1951), 399; and Ballivián junta, 400; and the revolution (1952), 401; its composition, 401; its difficulties, 405; and North American aid and its consequences, 405; its tripartite direction, 405; rejects Paz Estenssoro and is itself destroyed, 406; after effects of its collapse, 406, 408, 409
- Muñoz Reyes, Jorge, 262
- Nacionalismo romántico*, 92
- Nanawa, siege and battle of, 178, 230, 247
- National Assembly, Campero's (May 1880), 14
- National Bolivian Students Convention, First, 99-101
- 'National concentration', cabinet of, 55
- National Congress of Workers, First (Nov. 1936), 255; see also Congreso Nacional de Trabajadores
- Nationalists, see Partido Nacionalista
- nationalization: of banks, 319; of Bolivian Railway Co., 104; of communications, 338; of mines, 100, 125, 193, 195, 207, 235, 300, 338, 341; of petroleum, 100, 300, 341; of tin industry, 403, 405; of transportation, 300, 341
- National Postal, Telegraph, and Telegraphic Radio Union, 132-3
- National Workers' Congress, Fourth, 122
- Navarro, Gustavo A., see Marof, Tristán
- Neutral Commission (Washington D.C.), 147, 155, 156n.
- New York bankers, 42, 103
- newspapers, labour and radical, 60-1, 62
- newspapers, political, see under their names
- Nicolaus loan, 79-80, 82, 103
- nitrates, 12, 16
- Non-Aggression Pact (with Paraguay), 155
- Norte, El* (party newspaper), 108
- novels, Chaco War, 189-90
- Obreros* (blue-collar workers), 378, 393, 398
- officer corps (and class), 169, 171-2, 173, 190; and Salamanca, 174-5; and Kundt, 178; in command, 185; in Chaco War, 197, 246; CSB and, 214; Toro and, 230, 266; ideology of, 245-6; and POWs, 246; prefer Busch to Toro, 266; and Jewish immigrants, 308; without Busch, 323
- oil (petroleum, q.v.), 77-8
- oil fields, 345

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- oligarchies, 9, 10, 13, 16; of landed gentry, 17; of silver magnates, 17-18, 21, 33-4; 'conservative', 21-4, 29-30, 36, 58, 101, 293; positivist (liberal), 36; Latin American, 98; university, 98; upper-class (Rosca, q.v.), 168, 321; feudal and bourgeois, 297; Siles and, 113; and Indians, 192; and moderates, 235; post-war, 251-2, 259, 293, 299; Marof on, 297; and Concordancia, 306; after Busch, 323-33 passim
- oriente, 3, 11, 28, 38, 277, 285*n.*, 303, 342, 345
- originarios, 7
- Ormachea Zalles, Hector, 273, 274
- Oruro (city and region): mines, 9, 32, 117; and minefields, 355; railroads, 27, 43; Patiño and, 35; Republican party and, 48; Salamanca and, 48, 57-8; electoral violence in, 57, 106; light industry, 59; labour federations, 62, 75; conventions at, 66, 73, 86, 115, 342; Labour party, 72, 73; POS, 73; La Patria, 88, 136, 170; Congreso Nacional de Trabajadores (July 1927), 97; workers' agitation at, 109; in rebel hands, 111; prefect of, 144*n.*; miners' protest meeting (1931), 142; FOT's manifesto (Jan. 1932), 146; racial agitation in, 153; FOT re-established, 225; First National Congress of Workers (Nov. 1936), 97, 255; FIB at, 331; PIR at, 342; revolt and massacre at (Nov. 1944), 376-7, 381
- Oruro Convention (July 1940, PIR), 342
- Orosio, Colonel Filiberto, 145, 149-52 passim; on Salamanca and the war, 152; dismissed, 174
- Ostria Gutiérrez, Alberto, 312, 325; and USA and Standard Oil, 336*n.*; his diplomatic activities, 345-6; attacked in Belmonte letter, 347; forced out of office, 350; his policies continued by Matienzo, 350-1
- Otazo, Rafael, 337, 348, 373, 389
- Otero, Gustavo Adolfo, 92*n.*, 154, 349
- Pacheco, Gregorio, 18, 21-5, 27, 28
- Palabra Libre* (t.u. newspaper), 75
- Palacios, Alberto, 292-3, 319
- Pan-American Conference (Sept. 1939), 336*n.*
- Pan-American Union (1890), 300
- Pando, Colonel (later General) José Manuel, 29; personal details, 28; Liberal party and, 27, 28; at battle of La Paz, 29; and Montes, 37, 40, 41; president (1899), 38; his government, 39; Salamanca and, 46, 47*n.*, 128; assassination of, 53-4
- Paraguay, 101, 112, 135, 136, 175, 218; and Chaco border dispute, 102-12 passim, 134-5, 145*n.*, 149-50, 155; and Chaco War, 126, 130, 146-8, 150-2, 169-87 passim, 197, 293; and Laguna Chuquisaca, see Laguna; Pres. Ayala, 175; penetrates Bolivia, 176; General Estigarribia, 180, 182; breakthrough, 180, 182, 185; at a disadvantage, 185; and peace talks, 185, 186; and oil fields, 186; Asunción, 186; armistice with Bolivia (14 June 1935), 187; peace treaty, 293; and Austrian Jews, 308; relations with Bolivia, 345
- Paraguay, Rio, 156*n.*, 158
- Paredes, M. Rigoberto, 82, 83
- Partido Centralista, 222, 231, 240, 251, 268; attacks Toro's government, 252
- Partido Comunista Boliviana (PCB), 123*n.*, 399
- Partido Conservador, see Conservative party
- Partido Democrático (Democratic party, q.v.), 21
- Partido de la Izquierda Revolucionaria (PIR), 338-40; its first programme and principles, 339-40; independent (internationally), 340; and organized labour, 341; its programme of action, 341-2; dominates politics in B, 342, 343; Oruro convention (July 1940), 342; and railroad strike (Oct. 1940), 344*n.*; attacks government on inflation, 346-7; and MNR, 348, 374; and strikes (1941), 349; and congress, 350; and B and World War II, 350; demonstration at Potosí, 350; its success at the polls (May 1942), 353; a scapegoat for Catavi (Dec. 1942), 356, 357-9; demands explanations, 360; attacked in congress, 360-1, 365; and Catavi vote of censure, 366; and RADEPA's revolt, 368; and MNR in 1944 congress, 374-5; attacks Villarroel's régime, 374*n.*; in anti-government

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- front, 381; after Villarroel's fall, 382; under T. M. Gutiérrez, 382-3; and PIR and middle classes, 384; anti-fascist, 385; 'a front for oligarchy', 386; and CSTB, 386; in 1947 elections, 388; end of, 389, 398-9; and Potosí massacre, 389; supports Urriolagoitia, 389; and FSTMB, 399
- Partido Laborista* (see also Labour party and Socialist parties), 96, 124, 125, 172
- Partido Liberal* (Liberal party, q.v.), 200n., 305
- Partido Nacionalista* (P de la Unión Nacional), 92; its members (named), 92, 94; its programme, 92-3; progress and support of, 93-4; traditional opposition to, 94-5; and elections, 95, 107; Siles and, 105, 108; its bid for power, 106-7; revived, 112; its radical wing, 113 PSR and, 125; supports Chaco War, 154; and Sorzano, 199; and post-war ferment, 210-11; dissolved, 211; and CSB, 214
- Partido Obrero Revolucionario* (POR), 195-6, 211, 213, 232n.; its first convention in B, 295; Gainsborg and Marof, 295-6; revived, 351-2; increasingly powerful, 353; and mine workers, 374; and MNR, 383, 386-7; and FSTMB, 387
- Partido Obrero Socialista* (POS), 72-3
- Partido Orientalista*, 303-4
- Partido Republicano Genuino* (Genuino Republicans or Genuinos): founded (Oct. 1921), 66; opposes Saavedra, 70, 71, 76; Paredes and, 82, 83; Salamanca and, 85, 129, 131, 134, 138, 176; two members of, in cabinet, 88; and P Nacionalista, 94, 95; and municipal elections (1928), 105; some members exiled, 107; Saavedra and, 115; supremacy of (1929-30), 116; and constitutional amendments, 116; its programme, 121; in 1931 elections, 121n.; Liberals and, 170; dominates congress, 183; Aguirre Gainsborg condemns, 194; Tejada Sorzano and, 201; excluded from non-aggression pact, 219; boycotts elections (1936), 220; a revolutionary plot, 221; members arrested, 221-2; C. V. Aramayo and, 222; and La Razón, 231; reorganizing, 258; and Busch régime, 269; its national convention (1938), 275; and army influence, 275; and Concordancia, 305, 343-4; and Peñaranda, 343; and Liberals and PRS, 343-4; and PURS, 345; defeated by PIR (May 1942), 353; and Catavi vote of censure, 365; and PIR, 381
- Partido Republicano de Gobierno*, 95, 143
- Partido Republicano Socialista* (PRS), 143; and Salamanca, 170, 172, 176; and Liberals, 179, 219, 222; demands return of Saavedra, 183; and Tejada Sorzano, 200; after the war, 204, 205, 206; its programme, 206, 207; and CSB, 220; and FOT, 226; and revolution (May 1936), 228; and Toro's government, 231, 238; and pact with PS, 237; supports Saavedra and Toro, 238; re-elects officers, 258; and Busch, 269; and the unity pact, 271; and Concordancia, 305, 343-4; and Genuinos, 343-4; and PURS, 345; and Catavi vote of censure, 365; and PIR, 381
- Partido Republicano Socialista Antipersonalista* (PRSA), 277, 288, 302, 304, 353
- Partido Revolucionario de la Izquierda Nacionalista* (PRIN), 408n.
- 'partido' rojo, 26
- Partido Saavedrista* (Partido Republicana Socialista, q.v.), 238
- Partido Socialista Boliviano* (PSB, see also Confederación Socialista Boliviana and Partido Socialista of La Paz), 73, 95, 96, 124, 212; its leaders (named), 95; its swan song and successor, 96
- Partido Socialista de Estado* (PSE), 263, 264, 269, 303
- Partido Socialista Independiente* (PSI), 288-9, 302, 336
- Partido Socialista of La Paz* (PS), 217; and Sorzano, 222; supports FOT, 226; and revolution (May 1936), 228; and Toro, 231; Baldovieso's investiture speech, 233; and pact with PRS, 237; its decline and demise, 239; and PSE, 263; and Mendoza López' PSR, 264; and La Calle, 336; electoral success of, 353
- Partido Socialista Obrero Boliviano* (PSOB), 296, 297, 302, 366

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Partido Socialista Revolucionario* (PSR), 125, 211, 212, 263-4, 307
- Partido Socialista Unificado* (PSU), 353, 357, 366
- Partido de Unión Nacional* (P Nacionalista, q.v.), 92
- Partido Unión Republicana* (Republican party, q.v.), 46, 48
- Partido Unión Republicana Socialista* (PURS), 345, 388, 389, 391
- Patiño Mines and Enterprises Consolidated, Inc., 80-1, 192, 403
- Patiño, Simón Iturri, 34-6, 40n.; and alcohol import monopoly, 55-6; his mining company headquarters, 80-1; as political mediator, 83; B's debts to, cancelled, 110; and tin production (international), 118, 119, 120; Salamanca and, 130; in part control of B's minerals, 192; his concessions, 275; his private roads, 285n.; his Catavi mines (strike and massacre at), 355-7, 364; his patinista group, 56
- patria chica*, 10
- Patria, La* (party newspaper), 88, 136, 170
- Patronato Nacional* (for indigenous population), 236
- Paz Campero, Javier, 243, 257, 270n.
- Paz Estenssoro, Víctor, 284, 285, 289, 319; and Rioja, 327; and MNR, 337, 368, 377, 389, 405; vice-president of chamber of deputies, 343; and ministry of economy, 346; government cracks down on, 347; and debate on Belmonte letter, 347, 348; and Catavi issue, 363-5; in Villarroel's cabinet, 372, 377; his economic policy, 377-8; and the presidency, 388, 399, 400; president, 401; antagonizes MNR, and is overthrown, 405-6; and the army, 406
- PCB, see Partido Comunista Boliviano
- Peace Conference at Buenos Aires, 186-7
- peasantry and peasants (campesinos), 160-1, 289; the hacienda system, 8; syndicates of, 242; revolution of, 301; Indian, 330; PIR and, 341-2; MNR and RADEPA and, 379; massacred, 380; majority of population (1950), 394; and the revolution (1952), 407
- Peñaranda, Colonel (later General) Enrique, 147, 176, 180-3 passim; personal details, 334; his new army, 182; and Tejada Sorzano and Busch, 186; G. in C. of army, 229n., 230; and Toro, 230; and a war responsibility tribunal, 249; and PSE, 263; and Toro's fall, 265; resigns as G. in C., 275; refuses presidency, 309; after Busch's death, 323; and Quintanilla, 329; and the presidency, 329, 331; elected president, 334; his first cabinet, 334-5; and national economy, 335; his policies, 335; and USA, 335-6; and Standard Oil, 335-6; his tolerance, 336; and PIR, 343; and Genuinos, 343; and freedom of congress, 344; and Paz Estenssoro, 346, 347; and Belmonte letter, 347; supports USA v. Japan, 350; and POR revived, 352; his 'state security' law, 352; suffers at the polls (May 1942), 353; loses congress support, 354-5; and Catavi massacre, q.v., 356, 358-9; his tour of LA, USA and Canada, 359-60; and war on Axis powers, 359, 368; and UN and Atlantic Charter, 359, 360; and nationalists, 362; his government attacked on Catavi issue, 360-6; its reactions, 366-7; and 4-party presidential election pact, 366; and the army, 366-7, 368; and Ichazo, 367; and signs of revolt, 367-8; and declaration of war (1943), 368; captured, and his government overthrown, 368; and RADEPA, 370; and US aid, 378
- pequeña burguesía*, 299
- personalismo* (in politics), 24, 49-50, 64, 101
- Peru, 1, 2; railroads in, 43
- Peru, Republic of, 5, 11-15 passim, 88; and Chile, 41; APRA party in, 101n.; and Tacna-Arica area, 102; contraband trade in, 165; revolutionary groups in exile in, 195; Aprista movement in, 213; oil from, for war, 218; pensadores of, 279
- petroleum: code (1921), 78, see also oil; concessions, 250; nationalization of, 100, 300, 341
- Petropolis, treaty of (1903), 39
- Picuiña, battle of, 182, 197n.
- PIR, see Partido de la Izquierda Revolucionario
- Plan de Resurgimiento Nacional*, 335

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Plaza, Humberto, 91, 92
 political groups, post-war, 204-9;
   named, 204; and the Indians, 207
 political groups (or parties), traditional, 25-6
 political laws, 24-5
 political life, national, 10-13; turning point in (1880s), 24-5; silver magnates and, 17-18, 21, 33-4; tin
   magnates and, 33-4, 36, 71-2, 119, 194, 251; 'interest group' politics, 34;
   political specialists, 34, 36; without revolutions (1899-1920), 39; after Chaco War, 199ff.; Toro's plans to rejuvenate, 243-5
 political organizations, proliferation of (after the war), 208-11
 political parties listed (with dates), 410
pongos (native house-servants), 7, 161n., 164, 290, 379, 380
ponguaje (servitude), 8, 73, 110, 161, 207, 216, 290, 301, 379, 380
 popular fronts, see Frentes Populares population: rural: (1846-1932), 160;
   (1940), 163; departmental and urban (1900-50), 391-3; location of, 3-4; racial divisions of, 6-7, 167; increase of (1900-20), 59; Spanish speaking,
   167; and electorate, 168; of cities
   (after the war), 243n.
 'populism', 73, 74
 POR, see Partido Obrero Revolucionario
 POS, see Partido Obrero Socialista
 positivism and positivists, 36-7, 64,
   126-8 passim, 192
 Potosí (city and region, see also tin), 1-3, 43; population decline, 3; mines, 9;
   and Republican party, 58; miners'
   trade union, 61; labour federations, 62; violence in elections at, 106;
   worker agitation in, 109; falls to revolutionaries, 111; radical agitation in, 153; PIR demonstrations at,
   351; massacre (1947), 389n.
 Potosí (department), 35, 57, 58, 112n., 142, 256; mine-fields, 355
 Pou Mont, Fernando, 312, 314, 326-7
 POWs, see prisoners-of-war praetorianism (replaced by prestige of money), 21
 presidents of Bolivia (see also under their names), 18; listed (with dates), 411
 PRIN, see Partido Revolucionario de la
   Izquierda Nacionalista
 Printers' Union, 141 prisoners-of-war, Bolivian (POWs), 246-50
 'private property' attacked by radicals, 283-4
 professional classes, 10, 207-8, 393
 PRS, see Partido Republicano Socialista
 PRSA, see Partido Republicano Socialista
   Antipersonalista
 PS, see Partido Socialista of La Paz
 PSB, see Partido Socialista Boliviano
 PSE, see Partido Socialista de Estado
 PSI, see Partido Socialista Independiente
 PSOB, see Partido Socialista Obrero
   Boliviano
 PSR, see Partido Socialista Revolucionario
 PSU, see Partido Socialista Unificado
Pueblo enfermo (Argüedas), 192
 Pulacayo, 35, 384
pulperías (food stores), 313
puritanos, 39, 46, 47
 PURS, see Partido Unión Republicana
   Socialista
putsch, the Belmonte, 347-50

 Quechua Indians, 7, 187, 188-9, 242, 304, 379
 quinine (cinchona), 5
 Quintanilla, General Carlos: personal details, 275; and Salamanca and the war, 151; and state of the army, 174;
   his protest to Salamanca, 174-5; and Toro, 180, 230, 277; G. in C. of army, 275; his purge, 293; and Busch, 293, 324; ends military socialism and attempts to govern,
   323-6; and Concordancia, 324-5,
   327-8, 329, 332; and 'constitutional'
   government (favouring oligarchy), 325-6; moving to right, 326;
   kidnaps and exiles Bilbao Rioja, 328;
   created Marshal, 332-3; and elections, 334; and PIR, 343; and
   RADEPA, 370
 Quiroga, General Ovidio, 400

 racism in Bolivia, 192-3
 RADEPA (Razón de Patria), 247, 367, 369, 370; its origin, membership and consolidation, 247, 370; and MNR,
   370-4 passim, 378; its ideology,
   370-1, 373; and Villarroel's government, 371-5; breaking down, 381;
   its end, 382, 383

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- radicalism, political, 95, 96, 98, 101, 121-2; and Chaco War, 190-7; in constitutional convention, 283-5
- Radical party, 55; composition of, 64; in 1931 elections, 121n.
- railroads (see also communications), 42-3; Pres. Arce's (Antofagasta-Altiplano), 26, 27; Argentina-Bolivia, 28; for silver and tin industries, 31; Patiño's, 35; Arica-La Paz, 42; Montes', 43; trade unions of, 61, 62, 71, 75; Saavedra's, 84; with Argentina, 84; La Paz-Buenos Aires, 84; loans for construction of, 103; open up Indian lands, 165; strikes on, 344, 349; Ostria Gutiérrez', 345
- Ramírez, Domingo L., 83
- Razón de Patria*, see RADEPA
- Razón*, La (party newspaper), 34n., 52-3, 54; its alleged attacks on senate, 56; destroyed, 57; pro-Escalier, 65; and Siles, 94; closed down, 95; and communist issue ('a fabrication'), 97; and Chaco War, 170; defends Salamanca, 138; attacked by rioters in La Paz, 173; owned by C. V. Aramayo, 222; and Toro's government, 231, 252
- Reconstruction Finance Corporation, 346, 400
- referendum (the first in B) on constitutional amendments, 116, 117
- Reforma Universitaria*, 90
- regionalism (see also localism), 28, 244, 303, 342
- Reinaga, Fausto, 255
- reivindicacionalismo* and reivindicacionista, 55, 102
- República*, La (party newspaper), 65, 88, 170, 238; demands Salamanca's resignation, 176; some of its staff exiled, 177; closed down, 180
- Republican Era: Saavedra, 64-87; Siles, 88-113
- Republican party (the original, P Union Republicana), 46-58; origin of, 46-7; its programme, 48-50; its gangs or 'clubs', 51; its newspaper (La Razón, q.v.), 52-3; and the presidency, 53; and Pando's 'assassination', 53-4; its prospects (1918), 54; and the littoral, 54-5; dissension in, 56-8; and the government, 57-8; in revolt (1920), 63; in power, 64-87; composition of, 64; factions in, 64-6, 76; and the right to strike, 65, 70-1; Saavedra and, 67; desertions from, 82; Siles and, 85-7; and P Nacionalista, 94, 105, 107; in 1931 elections, 121n.; and Tejada Sorzano, 201; and Beta Gama, 204
- República Obrera Socialista*, 195
- 'Revolución Restaurada', 406nn., 408n.
- revolution, the national (April 1952), signs of and preludes to, 367-8, 391; its coming, 369-402; begins, 401-2; its impact and reforms, 403-9
- revolutions, political and economic (see also violence), 25, 50, 57, 58n.; of July 1920, 63, 64, 114n.; slogans, 64; federal (1890s), 67; under Saavedra, 68; separatist (1924), 84; of 1930 (first attempt at radical social reform), 109-11, 115n., 116; of 1931, 142, 146; 17 May 1936, 225-7, 228, 238; future (pacific or violent?), 290; proletarian, 300; of May 1939, 309; of July 1946, 382, 385; Lora's, 384-5; MNR, 390, 391; of 1952, see revolution (above)
- Rivera, Colonel (later General) Felipe M., 155, 182, 183, 187, 368
- Riverín, Renato, 302, 304
- roads (see also communications), 26, 35, 165; public and private, 285n.
- Rodríguez, Colonel Ángel, 152, 183, 187
- Rojas, Casto, 83, 172, 176
- rojo* group (of intellectuals), 25, 26
- Roosevelt, President Franklin D.: his New Deal, 315
- root crops, 164
- Rosca* (upper-class oligarchy), 34, 168, 258, 337, 339, 364
- Royal Dutch Shell Group, 153, 194
- rubber, 27, 28, 38, 45; boom (1890s), 33
- Saavedra, Abdón S., 88, 89, 92
- Saavedra, Bautista: personal details, 67-8; his opposition to Montes, 46, 58; and Republican party, q.v., 52, 54, 57; exiled, 54, 258; and Escalier, 57; leads conspiracy against Liberals, 58; in power, 64-87; dominates his party, 65; and labour, 65, 70-6; president, 66, 67; his government, 68; and the Indian problem, 70; and urban working and middle classes,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information*Index*Saavedra, Bautista (cont.)

70-1; his main supports, 70, 72; his social legislation, 70-1, 82, 84, 93; and upper élite, 71-2; dangerous opposition to, 77, 79, 82; his public works programme, 77, 80; and taxation of mining industry, 80-1; his reactionary phase, 81-2; and Uncía mining massacre, 81-2, 81n.; and desertions, 82; dissolves congress (Jan. 1923), 83; and revolts (1924), 84; his succession, 84-5, 86; turbulence under, 84n.; and Villanueva, 85; and Siles, 85, 86, 88, 89, 107; leaves for Europe, 85; resigns ambassadorship, 89; and university youth, 89-90; his policy at League of Nations, 102; to Geneva embassy, 106; Siles opposes, 107; his four years of frustration, 108; and Blanco Galindo, 114; and an all-party slate, 115; and second vice-presidency, 115, 116; and Salamanca, 129, 170, 179; and National Postal, T. & T. R. Union, 132; his self-seeking, 143; and a non-aggression pact with Paraguay, 147; and Chaco War, q.v., 154, 170; and Kundt, 173; his home attacked, 176; exiled, 181; returns, 183; and Tejada Sorzano, 184, 201, 221-2; and peace commission, 186, 187; returns to B (Aug. 1935), 201; and post-war political ferment, 204-6; his manifesto, 204-6; and Republican Socialists, q.v., 219; and Elío, 220; and Baldivieso, 220, 221, 222; opposes Toro's government, 237-8; and Busch, 238, 273; his traditionalists, 246; and Dirección General de Trabajo, 254n.; in exile again, 258; returning, 269; and the presidency, 271; his return to La Paz, 271; jailed, 273; his death, 304, 305

Salamanca, Daniel, 46-50; personal details and history of, 46, 127-30; his party 'club', 51; in elections (1916), 52; and Republican party, 54, 57-8; retires, 56, 57; and Saavedra, 64-8 passim; and native oil resources, 78; defeated for presidency, 85; his manifesto, 109; and Blanco Galindo, 114; and the coming of war, 114-59; nominated president, 115, 116, 121; and constitutional amendments,

116; his inauguration, 120; and economic crises, 121, 133; in election (1931), 121; and communism, 123; opposed by Grupo Tupac Amari, 125-6; his presidency awaited hopefully, 127; becomes president (Feb. 1931), 127; and Montes, 128-9; and revolution, 129; and Saavedra and Siles, 129; in retirement, 129; his nationalism, 130; and Chaco War, q.v., 130, 169ff.; his political principles, 130-1; assumes office (as president), 131; his first major decision, 131; his programme, 131-2; and 'social crisis', 131-2; and communist menace, 131-2; and organized labour, 132-3, 136; and Liberals, 134-41; and the Chaco, 134-5, 145-8; and international relations, 135-6; and Paraguay, 135, 136; his 'State of the Union' message (1931), 135-6; and Canelas, 136-40 passim; and finance, 136; and 'social defence', 139, 141, 142; and Labour party, 141; defeated by political opponents, 145; turns to external affairs, 145, 152; and economic crisis, 148-9; and loss of Fortín Santa Cruz, 150-1; leads B into war, 150-9, 194; and Osorio, 152; stops military operations, 156; his hysteria and ingenuousness, 156-7; his note to EMG, 156-7; his differences with EMG, 157-8; his political and military ineptitude, 169, 171, 174; and the officer corps, 171-2, 174-6, 183; and Kundt, 173, 177; and Lanza, 174, 175; and Quintanilla, 174-5; and his cabinet, 176; political revolt against, 176-7; his 'law of social defence', 177; packs congress (May 1933), 179; Saavedra's attack, and others', 179-80, 181; again interferes in military command, 181; his supporters, 183; and El Carmen, Peñaranda and EMG, 184; seized by Peñaranda, and released, 184; his overthrow, 199, 369; his death, 184, 201; El Diario on, 201-2; condemned by P Nacionalista, 210; and Toro, 230; and amendments to 1880 constitution, 280

Salvatierra, Ezequiel, 96, 97, 124, 224; on communist and socialists, 124

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- Sánchez Bustamante, Daniel, 55n., 83n., 102, 240n.; 'president in all but name', 114; his government and junta, 114-17 passim, 131; and constitutional and other reforms, 116, 121, 131; his death, 304n.
- Santa Cruz (city), 298, 303, 345; revolutionary government at, 390
- Santa Cruz (department), 3, 84, 183, 186
- Santa Cruz, Marshal Andrés, 11-12, 332
- 'Sartor Resartor' (Saavedra), 179
- sayanas (colonos' plots of land), 162, 165
- school and university population (1900-50), 392-3
- schools of war and artillery, 367, 369-70
- Schulze, Santiago, 307, 312
- Seleme, General Antonio, 401
- serfdom, near, 161
- Servillano A., Hugo, 236
- 'Sexenio' (1946-52), 385ff.
- siglo de estaño* (century of tin), see tin
- Siglo XX mines, Patiño's, 349
- Siles, Hernando: personal details, 85-6, 302n.; and Saavedra, 66, 107; and miners and Patiño company, 81; resigns seat in cabinet (Jan. 1923), 82-3; exiled, 85; becomes president, 85, 86-7; and Uncía massacre, 86; a calm political situation, 87, 88; consolidating, 88-9; and Abdón Saavedra, 88, 89; his new party, 89-92 (see also P Nacionalista); and students, 91; his strength, and opposition, 94-5; his cabinet (May 1927), 95; supported by other parties, 95; and the student movement, 99; and the littoral, 101-2; and Chaco dispute, 102, 105-6, 108; and economic crisis (1926-8), 102-5; and Kellogg, 102, 106; and Kemmerer mission, 103-4; and Vanguardia incident, 105-6; political amnesty and ambassadorial appointments, 106; his military precautions, and conciliation, 106; renewed political opposition to, 106; forsaken by other parties, 107; rules 'under state of siege', 107; and the Great Depression, 107-8; and Salamanca's manifesto, 109; prorogues government, 109; resigns, 109; and Hinojosa's invasion, 109-10; and altiplano opposition, 111; flees (1930), 111; hostility to, and accusations against, 111-12: his policies assessed, 112-13; his most revolutionary stand, 112-13; rejects all-party slate, 115; exiles Ayoroa, 115n.; and reform elements, 121; his fall (1930), 122, 210; attacked by PSR, 125; his rule by 'coterie', 138; and officer class, 172; and Kundt, 173n., 177-8; and Marof, 191; and Toro, 229; and Standard Oil, q.v., 261
- Siles Zuazo, Hernán, 212, 217, 323, 372; and civil war (1949), 390; and vice-presidency, 399, 400; and MNR, 405; and Revolución Restaurada, 406n.
- silver: era of, 16-18, 34n.; decline of, 31, 32, 33; Patiño's mines, 35; magnates and politics, see political life
- silver production in Potosí, 1-3
- Siñani, Fernando (of Potosí), 281, 288, 335, 356
- Sindicato Gráfico* (trade union), 141-2, 224, 232n.; its manifesto, 142; and petition, 226
- Sindicato de Mineros de Oruro*, 225n.
- Sindicato Nacional de Maestros*, 352
- Sindicato de Oficios Varios de Catavi*, 355
- sindicatos* (trade unions, q.v.), 61, 195, 243, 253
- sindicatos campesinos* movement, 242
- 'social constitutionalism': in B, 278, 280, 281; in LA, 278-80
- 'social crisis' (1931), 131-2
- socialism and socialists, 20, 60, 72, 73-4, 95-6, 98, 122, 123n., 132, 205; 'military', 227, 228-66, 250, 273-91, 321-2, 330, 334; 'revolutionary', 124-5; 'state', 230, 246, 258, 270; post-Chaco War, 203, 233ff., 321-2
- socialism, European, 20, 60, 72, 82, 98-9, 143
- 'socialismo militar', 227, 250
- socialist clubs (after Chaco War), 203
- socialist parties, 96; see also under their names
- Socialist Workers Party of La Paz, see Partido Obrero Socialista
- socialization of private wealth, 100
- Social Reforms, Institute of, 65n.
- Social Revolution (1930), 109-10; manifesto and programme of, 110; slogans of, 110

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information

Index

- social systems (and conditions), 6-11, 60, 160, 167; before the revolution, 391
- social tension, 69
- Sociedad Mutualista Ferroviaria de Oruro*, 62
- Sociología Argentina*, 98
- Soux (mining) Company, 119n.
- Speyer & Co (of New York) contract (1905), 42, 43, 46, 128
- stability: economic, 15, 29; monetary, 59; political, 13, 18, 29
- Standard Oil Company of Bolivia, 78-9; a political issue, 82; expropriation of, called for, 143; blamed (with Royal Dutch Shell) for Chaco War, 153, 194, 196, 197; Marof opposes, 192; its 'clandestine activities', 197; nationalization of oilfields demanded, 215, 256; general hostility towards, 215; its illegal pipe-line to Argentina, 217-18, 261-2; accused of selling oil to B's enemy, 218; its property confiscated, 260-3, 345; taxation of, 261; charges against, 261-3, 285; and Busch's putsch, 267; and Peñaranda, 335-6; and congress (Nov. 1940), 344; Argentina and Brazil support B against USA, 345; offers concessions, 346; dispute finally settled, 351
- strikes, industrial, 63, 71, 76; legitimacy of, 65, 70, 71; in 1922, 75-6; 1931, 141; 1936, 225, 226; 1940, 344; 1941, 349; 1942, 352, 355; 1949, 389-90; 1950, 400
- student movement, university (see also Convención Nacional de Estudiantes Bolivianos), 89, 90-1, 98-101, 111, 122, 143, 148; first national congress of (Aug. 1928), 99; rioting in La Paz, 111; Bustamante rewards, 116; and Marxist literature, 126; and class structure, 167; supports Tejada Sorzano, 200; and FUB, 298-302; under Toro and Busch, 322
- Sucre (formerly Charcas), 4n., 43, 85, 111, 263; population of, 28n.; and La Paz (rivals for capital city), 28-9; students' congress in (Dec. 1939), 298
- syndicalism and syndicalization, 60, 241, 243-6, 250
- Taborga, Major Alberto, 368, 389
- Taborga, Rafael, 92, 210
- Tacna, battle of, 14
- Tamayo, Franz: and Radical party, 55n., 121; and Defensa Obrera, 62; joins foreign ministry (1926), 88; blames Paraguay for war, 154; and the presidency, 183-4; and Ugarte 'slate', 184, 200; and indigenista ideology, 279
- Tamayo, José, 91, 210, 211, 217, 264, 307, 353; in Villarroel's cabinet, 372; replaced, 373
- Tarija (city), 183, 191, 225
- Tarija (department), 183, 186
- taxation (see also finance), 5-6; of Indians, 8, 17; on imports and exports, 17; on rubber, 33n., 38; in Villazón period, 44; on tin, 68n.; mortgaged, 79; of mining industry, 80, 81; under Siles, 93, 103, 104, 261; Kemmerer and, 104; on agricultural land, 163; of Standard Oil, 261; divisas system (and law) of, 305, 314, 326; under Paz Estenssoro, 378
- Tax Reform Bill (1923), 80
- Tejada Sorzano, José Luis; on fall of Liberal cabinet, 56; exiled, 83; nominated for vice-presidency, 116; and inconvertibility issue, and Canelas reforms, 141; offered cabinet post, 176; replaces Salamanca as head of state, 184, 185; his good qualities and actions, 185-6; and peace talks, 185-6; his cabinet, 185; his transitional government, 199-227; supported by the army, 200; and by other parties, 201; and P. Nacionalista, 210; and reform, 219; and a 'government of national conciliation', 221; and political impasse, 222; and FOT, 225; and general strikes, 226; ousted by the army (17 May 1936), 227; his previously decreed salary rises, 240; his Dirección General de Consumos Nacionales (1935), 241; and Standard Oil (q.v.) and Argentina, 261-2
- Tesis de Pulacayo*, Lora's, 384-6
- Tiempo*, El (party newspaper), 170
- Tierras al Indio, Minas al Estado (Marof's slogan), 193
- tin: century of, 16, 31; production of, 31-3, 41, 52, 58-9, 108, 120, 148, 396; exports of, 32, 33, 58-9, 71,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More information*Index*tin (cont.)

107–8, 388, 397; and a new capitalist class, 33; magnates and politics, see political life; Patiño's interests, 35–6; international industry, 35; prices of, 45, 108, 117, 118, 148, 223, 293; taxation on, 68*n.*, 387, see also taxation; Uncía mines, 81; nationalization of mines, q.v., 90*n.*; industry, B's economy depends on, 117; depression, 117–18; world production of, 118 (by states, 120); international control of production of, 118–19, 120; surplus of, 118; government control of, 119–20; Busch and, 314–15; exports during World War II, 347*n.*, 372; and the revolution, 403

Tin Control Organization, International, 120, 148, 149

Tin Investigating Commission (1935), 240

Tin Producers Association (TPA, London), 118–19, 120

Toledo, battle of, 178

Toro, Colonel David: personal details, 229–30; Siles and, 88, 109, 173*n.*; takes charge in a tense situation (June 1930), 109; a victim of revolt (June 1930), 111; his caretaker régime, 114; flees the country, 173*n.*; and Quintanilla's protest, 174; relieved of army command, 178; instigates Quintanilla's insurrection, 180; dominant in EMG, 180; suggests peace, 182; defeated at El Carmen, 184; and Salamanca, 184; his 'débâcles', 197*n.*; and the army's political ambitions, 218–19; offers military government by consent of parties, 221; with Busch, takes over government (16 May 1936), 227–30 passim; and military socialism, 228–66; and the officer corps, 230, 239; his aims and policies, 230–1; supported by traditional parties, 231; his 'declaration' to Associated Press, 231–2; and working-class interests, 232; creates a ministry of labour, 232, 236–7; his speech to camaradas, 233; his cabinet's 52-point programme, 253; and other new ministries, 236; and Saavedra, 237–8; and PS (Baldívieso's), 239; his government's diverse actions, 239–40; authoritarian, 240,

241; anti-labour, 240; and inflation, 241; and labour, 240, 241–2; and Quechua colonos, 242; and syndicalization, 243–6; his 'explanation', 244–5; the 'Articulator', 246, 247; opposition from right and left, 246; AEP's manifesto and, 247; and a war responsibility tribunal, 249–50; and conduct of POWs, 249; his governmental activity, 250; and public and oligarchy, 250–1; attacked by P Centralista, 252; his political manoeuvring, 252; and inflation crisis, 253; ousts Waldo Álvarez, 253; and selects his successor, 256–7; changes his policy, 257; inhibits, political activity, 259; and Standard Oil, 260–3, 264; his party (PSE), 263, 264; improves the economy, 264*n.*, his decline and fall, 264–5; still supported by labour and extreme left, 267; his frontier revolt, 277; imprisons and exiles leftists, 295; and ministry of labour local directors, 312; his decree for nationalization of petroleum, 314; his early constitutional thought, 341; his military school, 367; appreciation of, 265–6

Torre, see de la Torre

Tovar, Felipe, 211, 217

TPA, see Tin Producers Association trade unions (sindicatos, q.v., see also under their names), 61, 62, 71, 141, 195; in mining industry, 167; restrictions on, 177

Tragedia del Altiplano, La (Marof), 191–2

transportation system (see also communications), 60

'Tribunal of Honour' (on POWs), 249–50

tribunal on war responsibility, 248–50

Trotskyism and Trotskyites, 123*n.*, 196, 376, 384

tungsten, 35

UDS (Unión Democrática Socialista), 302

Ugarte, see de Ugarte

Uncía mining company, 35, 375; massacre (1923), 81–2, 83, 84, 86, 115*n.*

Uncía: region, 81; village, 35

Unión Democrática Socialista, 302

Unión Nacional (opposition group), 83*n.*

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10201-8 - Parties and Political Change in Bolivia 1880-1952

Herbert S. Klein

Index

More informationIndex

- 'United Front of the Left' in Potosí, 256n.
- United Socialist Front, see Frenet Unico Socialista
- United States of America: and Peruvian capitalists, Chile and B's littoral, 13; its liberalism, 20; B's mineral exports to, 52; pours private capital into B, 68; helps Saavedra government to put down strike (1921), 71; and Bolivian oil, 77n.; and Nicolaus loan, q.v., 80; Patiño's mining headquarters moved to, 80-1; imperialism of ('Yankee'), 100, 299-300; and B's littoral, 102; Kemmerer Mission, 103; Federal Reserve system 104; Roosevelt's 'New Deal', 315; Peñaranda and, 335-6; backs Standard Oil, 335-6; and Belmonte letter, 347; and Pearl Harbor, 350; bank loans from, 354; cordial relations with, 359-60; supremacy of, 372; tin exports to, 372; and B's reviving army, 406
- United States Reconstruction Finance Corporation, 346, 400
- Universidad de San Simón (Cochabamba), 99, 127-8
- universidades populares*, 216
- universities and political reform, 90-1, 98-101
- university autonomy, 116
- University Reform movement, 98-9, 121
- upper classes, 6-8, 10, 51, 84, 168; political and economic ideals of, 22-3; distrusted Toro and Busch régimes, 275
- Urioste, Ovidio: personal details, 183; and Laguna Chuquisaca affair, q.v., 157; and communist nationals and deserters, 191; on B's regular officers, 197n.; arrested, 221
- Urriolagoitia, Mamerto, 388, 389, 400
- Uyuni (town), 72, 73
- Vaca Chávez, Fabián, 83, 88, 92
- Vanguardia fort, 105-6, 173n.
- Vázquez, Edmundo, 258, 269, 334
- Veterans' movement, 208-9, 246
- Vickers loan, 105
- Viera, Lieut.-Colonel Julio, 243, 258-9, 268
- Villalpando, Abelardo, 332, 374
- Villa Montes, battle of, 182, 184, 185, 197n., 369
- Villanueva, Dr José Gabino, 85, 222
- Villaruel, Colonel Gualberto, 368, 369; personal details, 369; policy of his government, 371-2; his junta, 372-4; recognized by USA and LA, 373; and presidency and vice-presidency, 365; supported by FSTMB, 376; and socio-economic reforms, 376; and anti-government in Oruro (Nov. 1944), 376-7; his first MNR-RADEPA cabinet reforms, 378-9; his congress and a constitution, 380; difficulties of his government, 381; overthrown and hanged, 382; his charter of 1945 reinstated, 407
- Villazón, Elidoro, 43-4, 61, 67
- violence (and intimidation) in politics and industrial disputes (see also militarism), 23-6, 50-1, 54, 57, 142; under Saavedra, 68, 84; under Siles, 106, 109, 111; at Oruro (July 1940), 342; at Catavi (Dec. 1942), 355-7; under Villaruel, 374, 376-7, 381, 382; under Hertzog and Urriolagoitia, 389, 390; after 1964, 407
- War, the Chaco, see Chaco War
- War of Independence (1810-24), 1, 3, 10, 11
- War of the Pacific (1879-84), 13-14, 18, 28, 40, 53; previous chaos, 24
- wars, civil: 1890, 33, 39, 53; 1898-9, 29; 1949, 390
- wars, world, see World War, I and II
- wealth, private, socialization of, 100
- 'White Massacre', the (1947), 389n.
- whites, upper-class, 6-8, 10, 51, 84, 167; political and economic ideals of, 22-3; and military service, 188; and mestizos and Indians, 192-3
- Wilson, President Woodrow, 55
- wolfram, 35
- Workers' Federation of Labour, 62
- Workers, First National Congress of, 255-7, 255n.
- working classes (see also labour), 160-7; Saavedra and, 68-72 passim; social legislation for, 70-1, 72, 82, 84, 93; third national convention of, 97; agitation at Oruro, 117n.; demonstrations (1931), 142; Toro's government and, 232; and PIR and other

Index

- working classes, (cont.)
    sympathetic movements, 340–1; before and after Chaco War, 341;
    Lora and, 384
World War I (1914–18), 35, 39, 45, 52, 62, 173, 348
World War II (1939–45), 347n., 350, 359, 368, 372

Zalles, Juan María, 145n., 170, 183, 185, 219, 269; and a government of national unity, 221; tries to save Liberal government, 221
Zilveti Arce, Pedro, 231, 240, 258, 269; and Catavi massacre and PIR, 356–63 passim, 366; captured, 368
Zuazo Cuenca, Julio, 212

Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales Bolivianos (YPFB), 260