

CONTENTS

Preface page vii

1	The components of Argentine society, 1890–1914	1
2	The oligarchy and institutional reform, 1880–1916	25
3	The rise of Radicalism, 1891–1916	41
4	The workers and their politics in Buenos Aires, 1890–1916	67
5	The first Radical government, 1916–22	95
6	The strikes, 1916–18	125
7	The Semana Trágica	157
8	1919	180
9	Postscript to the first presidency, 1920–2	201
10	The Alvear interlude, 1922–8	218
11	Yrigoyen’s second presidency, 1928–30	241
12	Perspectives	265

APPENDIXES

1	The occupational and class structure of the male population of the city of Buenos Aires by nationality, 1914	275
2	The rise of Radicalism – an historiographical note	279
3	The first Radical government and the Argentine Rural Society	288
4	The working class vote for the Radical and yrigoyenista parties in selected areas of Buenos Aires, 1912–30	299

Select bibliography 301 Index 309