

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10989-5 - Pretoria's Praetorians: Civil-Military Relations in South Africa

Philip H. Frankel

Index

More information

Index

- Active Citizen Force Reserve, 2, 90, 101
 Adjutant-General (see Administration, Chief of Defence Force)
 Administration, Chief of Defence Force, 5
 Administration and Management Systems, Directorates-General for, 6
 Advisory Committee on Defence Force Requirements, 81
 AEG-Telefunken, 88
 African Explosives and Chemicals Industries (AECI), 84
 African National Congress (ANC), 100, 125, 141
 Afrikanerdom (see also National Party): as element in Defence Force, 11, 18, 38, 40, 154, 166; civil-military tradition of, 19–28; role of kommando in, 19–28; changes in, 32–3; attitudes to militarization, 138–9; attitudes to Defence Force, 145; militarization and conflict in, 147–51; and total strategy, 150–1; and constitutional reform, 167
 Agricultural sector, 136
 Air Defence School, 10
 Air Force, 3, 4, 94, 102, 132, 137; role of, 9; training institutions of, 10; British heritage of, 14, 15, 17, 18, 160; leadership of, 36–45; civic action and, 92, 100; and South African Police, 103; manpower of, 145; relations with Army and Navy, 154
 Air Force College, 10
 Air Force Flying School (see Air Force College)
 Air Force Gymnasium, 10
 Air Navigation School, 10
 American Space Research Corporation, 87
 Anglo-American Corporation, 81, 83
 Angola, 9, 66, 76, 103, 105, 126, 132, 142; as factor in shaping Defence Force leadership, 41; South African policy during 1976 towards, 150; Defence force attitudes to, 155
 Anti-Apartheid Movement, 125
 'area defence', 91, 143
 Armaments Board, 130, 141 (see also Armaments Development and Manufacturing Corporation)
 Armaments Development and Manufacturing Corporation (Armascor) 101; and Defence Command Council, 3; and Defence Planning Committee, 4; and Defence Budget, 74; in international arms market 77; and growth of military-industrial complex, 82–91; and National Institute of Defence Research, 95 armaments industry (see Armaments Development and Manufacturing Corporation)
 Armaments Production Board (see Armaments Development and Manufacturing Corporation)
 Army, 3, 4, 137; composition of, 8; training institutions of, 9; British heritage of, 15; leadership of, 36–45; as Afrikaner institution, 40; and total strategy, 68; and civic action, 92, 100; Non-Effective Troops Section of, 135
 Army Battle School, 10
 Army, Chief of, 8
 Army College, 9–10
 Army Gymnasium, 10
 Atlas Aircraft Corporation, 84, 86, 94
 Atomic Energy Board, 95
 Bantu Administration boards, 151
 Bantustans, 58 (see also Bophutatswana, Kwazulu, Transkei); militarization of, 115; Defence Force attitudes towards, 148, 157
 Barlow Rand, 81, 83, 87, 88

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10989-5 - Pretoria's Praetorians: Civil-Military Relations in South Africa

Philip H. Frankel

Index

More information210 Index

- Beaufre, André, 78; and total strategy, 46–70
- Belgium, 85
- Berghe, Lieutenant-General W. J., 37, 43
- Beyers, General C. F., 38, 39
- Blacks (see also Coloureds, Indians): in terms of Defence Act, 27; in operational areas, 42; Defence Force policy towards, 61, 107–23; in Armscor, 84; attitudes towards civic action, 93; attitudes towards militarization, 125–6, 127; as source of internal conflict in Defence Force, 156–7; mobility in Defence Force, 163–4
- Bophutatswana, 157; National Guard of, 115
- border areas (see agricultural sector)
- Botha, General Louis, 13
- Botha, P. W., 65, 82; as Minister of Defence, 5, 35; relations with Defence Force, 34, 44, 152–3, 159, 171–72; on total strategy, 78; and private sector, 89, 104, 105, 106; and bureaucracy, 147; rise to prime ministership of, 148; and conflict in Afrikanerdom, 150–1; and constitutional reform, 167, 168, 169
- Botswana, 136
- Brazil, 53, 66
- Brandwag, 98
- British Petroleum, 88
- Broederbond, 151
- bureaucracy: and militarization, 147–150
- Burgher Watch, 19
- Buthlezi, Chief Gatsha, 113, 172
- Cadets, Director for (see cadet system)
- cadet system, 58, 98–100
- Canada, 85
- Cape Corps, 111–12, 118 (see also Coloureds)
- Cape Mounted Rifles, 14, 39
- Cape and Natal Naval Volunteers, 14
- Carlton 'summit', 141
- Chaplain-General, 4
- Chile, 105
- Citizen Force: size and composition of, 2, 12; in the Union Defence Force, 5; according to Defence Act of 1912, 27; as defined in Defence Act of 1982, 90; conscription and, 91, 143; and South African Police, 102; manpower of, 136, 145; in operational areas, 137; mobility in, 138
- Citizen Reserve (see Citizen Force)
- civic action, 92–4; and politicization of military, 41; and total strategy, 58, 65, 116
- Civic Guidance, Directorate of, 67 (see also civic action)
- Civic Guidance and Leisure Time, Directorate of, 97
- Civic Guidance Programme, 97
- civil defence, 100–1
- Civil Defence College (see South African Army Women's College)
- Civic Defence, Directorate of (see civil defence)
- Civil Defence Organization (see civil defence)
- Coloureds: and total strategy, 61; in Armscor, 84; and civic action, 93; attitudes to conscription, 99; as members of Defence Force, 107–23, 161; attitudes towards militarization, 125, 127; as source of internal conflict in Defence force, 157–8; and new South African constitution, 167–9
- Commandant-General (see Defence Force, Chief of)
- Commandos, 143; (see also kommando); composition of, 2, 12; and command system, 9; and 1982 Defence Act amendment, 90; and South African Police, 102; manpower of, 135–6
- Committee of South African War Resisters (COSAWR), 125, 133
- Commonwealth: and Union Defence Force, 14–16; South African withdrawal from, 30, 75, 76; and leadership of military, 39; and total strategy, 64
- Commonwealth Joint Air Training Scheme, 14
- Community Development, Department of, 74
- Comptroller, 130 (see also Finance Staff Section)
- conscientious objection, 126–7, 133–4
- conscription: influence on civil–military relations, 12; as defined in 1982 Defence Act amendments, 90; of immigrants, 110; white attitudes to, 134–9; economic consequences of, 143; of Coloureds and Indians, 168
- Conservative Party (CP), 130, 150–1, 167
- 'constellation of states', 148
- Constitutional Committee (see constitutional reform)
- constitutional reform: and militarization, 167–9
- Cooperation and Development, Department of, 93, 148
- Council for Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), 81, 95
- Counter-Insurgency Unit, South African Police (COIN), 103

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10989-5 - Pretoria's Praetorians: Civil-Military Relations in South Africa

Philip H. Frankel

Index

More informationIndex

211

- Counter-Intelligence, Directorate of (DTI), 7, 103
- Danie Theron Combat School, 10, 99, 112
- Daimler-Benz, 88
- Defence Act, 1912: tasks of the Defence Force according to, 1; and creation of Union Defence Force, 5, 26; as amended 1982, 90, 143; as amended 1963, 102; as amended 1978, 110; and black soldiers, 111; as amended 1975, 118; and conscientious objection, 126
- Defence Advisory Council (DAC), 4, 80
- Defence Bonds, 132
- defence budget, 71–9
- Defence Command Council (DCC), 3, 4
- Defence Council (see Defence Advisory Council)
- Defence, Department of, 81, 103, (see also Defence, Minister of, and Defence, Secretary of)
- Defence Force, Chief of, 98, 130; functions and powers of, 3, 5; and policy-formation in Defence Force, 4; and Armscor 98; and Defence Secretariat, 104; and State Security Council, 105
- Defence Manpower Liaison Committee, 80
- Defence, Minister of, 3, 4, 81, 130; and Union Defence Force, 5; P. W. Botha as, 35, 104; and total strategy, 68; and civil defence, 101; and national 'key points', 141
- Defence Planning Committee (DPC), 4, 83
- Defence Research and Development Council, 80, 95
- Defence Resources, Board of, 81
- Defence, Secretary of, 6, 104
- Defence Special Act, 74, 86, 128
- Defence Staff, Chief of (see Operations Staff Division)
- Defence Staff Council (DSC), 4
- Democratic Turnhalle Alliance (DTA) 104, 155
- destabilization, 149 (see also South African Defence Force, and foreign policy)
- draft resistance (see conscientious objection)
- Dunn, John, 58
- Economic Affairs, Department of, 148
- Educational Technology, College of, 97
- Edwards, Vice-Admiral R. A., 41
- Eloptro Engineering, 84
- Engineer School, 10, 112
- English community: attitudes towards Defence Force, 11; participation in Defence Force, 18, 19, 38, 39, 40; attitudes to cadet system, 99; universities and militarization, 126–7; churches and militarization, 126–7; attitudes to militarization, 133, 138–9; private sector and militarization, 140–6; and constitutional reform, 167
- ethnic armies, 114 (see also Bantustans)
- Finance Staff Section, 6
- Foreign Affairs and Information, Department of (DFAI): and total strategy, 60, 67; and 'Information Scandal', 148; relations with Defence Force, 149–50
- France, 46, 65, 86
- Geldenhuis, General J., 11, 43, 158
- General Mining, 81
- Gesaamentlike Bestuursentrusms (see State Security Council)
- Gibbon, Edward, 173
- Great Britain, 77; influence of on South African military, 13–19; and Defence Act, 26; and South African withdrawal from Commonwealth, 31; and Defence Force leadership, 39; and total strategy, 64; as arms supplier to South Africa, 75, 85; as asylum for objectors, 133; legacy of in Defence Force, 154, 160, 166
- Groenewald Commission, 91
- Grundy, Kenneth, 149
- Hammanskraal Resolution, 127
- Herstigste Nasionale Party (HNP), 130, 150–1, 167
- Holland, 85
- 'homelands' (see Bantustans)
- Horwood, Senator Owen, 75
- Huntington, Samuel, 30, 66
- Imperial War Cabinet, 16
- Indians: Defence Force policy towards, 61; and cadet system, 99; in Defence Force, 107–23; attitudes towards militarization, 125, 127; as source of internal conflict in Defence Force, 157–8; and constitutional reform, 167–9
- Indian Corps, 113
- Infantry School, 10, 112
- Information, Department of, 148 (see also Foreign Affairs and Information, Department of; and 'Information Scandal')
- 'Information Scandal', 35, 75, 107, 148
- Inland Revenue, Department of, 93
- institutional socialization, 96–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10989-5 - Pretoria's Praetorians: Civil-Military Relations in South Africa

Philip H. Frankel

Index

More information212 Index

- Intelligence Staff Division, 7 (see also Counter-Intelligence, Directorate of; Military Intelligence, Directorate of; and Military Information Bureau)
- Inter-departmental Cadet Committee (see cadet system)
- International Business Machines (IBM), 88
- Introduction to Strategy*, 46–51 (see also Beaufre, André)
- Iran, 104
- Isacor, 88
- Israel, 65, 86, 144
- Italy, 85
- Jehovah's Witnesses (see conscientious objection)
- Joint Defence College, 159; role of, 11; and development of total strategy, 46, 53, 68, 174; and civil society, 66, 67; participation of South African Police in, 103
- Justice, Department of, 100
- Kaunda, Kenneth, 105
- Kentron, 84
- 'key points', 100, 141
- Koeberg, 141
- kommando, 131; as civil–military system, 19–28; and total strategy, 63; and civic action, 92
- Korea, 40, 41
- Kwazulu, 93
- Lasswell, Harold, 92
- Leisure Time Utilization Unit (LTU), 96
- Lesotho, 66
- liberal civil–military models, 13; in South Africa, 18; as compared with the kommando model, 25–6; legacy of, 66, 131, 151, 160, 166
- liberalism (see also English community): in contemporary South Africa, 32, and militarization, 126–7, 131; and role of Defence force, 164–6
- Lloyd, Major-General Charles, 92
- Logistics Staff Division, 6
- Lyttelton Engineering, 84
- Malan, General Magnus, 10, 104, 154; relationship with P. W. Botha, 35; background of, 37, 65; political influence of 68; and State Security Council, 105; on Blacks in the Defence Force, 112, 122, 158
- Mangope, Chief Lucas, 113
- manpower, 140–7 (see also South African Defence Force, manpower of; private sector; Permanent force; Citizen Force)
- Manpower Procurement, Directorate of, 145–6
- manpower Utilization and Development, Department of, 80
- Maree, John, 87
- Marine Corps, 9
- Media, 58, 97–8
- Medical Service, 3, 9, 96, 137
- Melville, Kommandant-General S.A., 37, 38
- Messerschmidt, 88
- militarism: and white political culture, 131–2; implications for future of South Africa of, 173–83
- Military Academy, 10, 67, 112, 145
- 'military–industrial complex', 79
- Military Information Service (AMI), 7
- Military Intelligence, Directorate of (DMI): functions of, 7; conflict with Bureau for State Security, 7, 106–7; role in the development of total strategy, 65, 68; and Security Police, 103; rise to prominence in intelligence community, 148
- Military Psychological Institute, 67, 96
- Mozambique, 66, 102, 136
- Mozambique National Resistance (MNR), 102
- Muller, Lieutenant-General A.M., 41
- multinational corporations, 85
- Munitions production Office (MPO), 81
- Myburgh, Philip, 79
- Namibia, 9, 65, 105, 126, 135; and politicization of Defence Force, 41–2; civic action in, 42, 93; South African Police in, 102, 103; political influence of Defence Force in, 104; use of black soldiers in, 112, 114, 119; Coloured troops in, 113; and private sector, 140, Defence Force policy towards, 150, 155–6,
- Naschem, 84
- National Education, Department of, 93, 99
- National Institute of Defence Research, 95
- National Intelligence Service, 106–7
- National Party (NP), 40, 159, 173 (see also Afrikanerdom); and Progressive Federal party, 32; emergence of new leadership in, 33; and Defence Special Act, 75; relations with Defence Force, 97, 98, 108, 129–31; on conscientious objection, 127; and militarization, 127–8, 150–1; and bureaucracy, 147; and constitutional reform, 167–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10989-5 - Pretoria's Praetorians: Civil-Military Relations in South Africa

Philip H. Frankel

Index

More informationIndex

213

- National Reserve, 2, 90, 101, 143
 National Rocket Institute, 81
 national service (see conscription)
 National supplies procurement Act, 142
 Navy, 137; role of, 3, 4, 9; training institutions of, 10; British heritage of, 14–15, 16, 18, 160; leadership of 36–45; and civic action, 92, 100; Coloureds in, 113, 117; relations with other service arms of Defence Force, 154; racial integration in, 163
 New Republic Party (NRP), 128, 130, 167
 Nimrod, 89
 'Non-whites' (see Blacks, Coloureds, Indians)
 Nordlinger, Eric, 43, 76, 174, 180
 nuclear capability, 95

 Operations Staff Division, 3, 6
 Orange Free State Republic, 20, 21, 22–5
 Orpen, Neil, 111

 Perlmutter, Amos, 179
 Permanent Force, 137; size and composition, 2, 9, 12; and Union Defence Force, 5; according to Defence Act, 27; and civil society, 94; manpower of, 108, 135, 145; Coloureds in, 112; blacks in, 114, 119; mobility in, 138; and total strategy, 160; racial integration in, 163
 Personnel Staff Division, 7, 67
 Phatudi, Chief Cedric, 113 political parties (see also Conservative Party, Herstigde Nasionale Party, National Party, New Republic Party, Progressive Federal Party): attitudes towards militarization, 128–32
 Portugal, 82
 Potgieter Commission, 7, 107
 Pretoria Metal Pressings, 84
 Pretoria, University of, 10, 67
 Pretorius, Major Phil, 93
 private sector: in 'military-industrial complex', 79, 80; and Armscor, 83, 87–90; and militarization, 140–7
 Progressive Federal Party (PFP), 32, 79, 128–31, 143, 167
 Progressive Party (see Progressive Federal Party)
 Projects and Combat Development, Directorate of, 95 public opinion (see also Blacks, Coloureds, English community, Indians, Afrikanerdom): and militarization, 131–9; and Defence Force behaviour, 164–6

 Public Services Commission, 146

 Quartermaster-General (see Logistics Staff Division)

 Railway Police, 101, 103
 Rand Afrikaans University, 67, 89
 Reconnaissance Commandos, 8
 Resources, Director-General for, 4
 Rhodesia (see also Zimbabwe); South African arms exports to, 89; South African Police in, 102; manpower in South African military, 111, 115
 Riekert Commission, 146, 156
 Roman Catholic Church, 127
 Royal Air Force, 15, 17, 39
 Royal Navy, 14, 17, 39

 Sandock-Austral, 88
 Sasol, 88, 141
 Schwartz, Harry, 79
 scientific community: and Defence Force, 94–5
 Security Police, 103
 Seychelles, 109, 129
 Shell, 88
 Siemens, 88
 Simonstown Agreement, 16
 Somchem, 84
 South African Army Women's College, 109
 South African Aviation Corps, 15, 17 (see also Air Force)
 South African Broadcasting Corporation, 98
 South African Coloured Corps (see Cape Corps)
 South African Council of Churches, 127
 South African Defence College (see Joint Defence College)
 South African Defence Force (SADF): according to Defence Act, 1; components of, 2–11; modernization of, 4–5, 6, 35, 57, 76, 154, 167; command structure of, 8; training institutions of, 9–11; as a racial institution, 11, 61, 120–3, 156–8, 162, 166, 167; and Afrikanerdom, 11, 18, 19–28, 33, 38; defining features of, 11; corporatism and professionalism in, 12, 43; and 'liberal' civil-military ethic, 13, 18; British influence on development of, 13–18; as outgrowth of kommando tradition, 19–28; South African withdrawal from Commonwealth and, 30; United Nations embargo and, 30, 55; and growth of garrison state psychologies, 31; and decline of South African

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-10989-5 - Pretoria's Praetorians: Civil-Military Relations in South Africa

Philip H. Frankel

Index

More information214 Index

- South African Defence Force – cont.
 liberalism, 32–3; relations with P. W. Botha, 34, 152–3, 154, 155, 156, 171–2; leadership of, 36–44; combat experience of, 40; in Namibia, 41–2, 155–6; and civic action, 41, 58, 92–4; ideology of, 46–70 (see also total strategy); and ‘total onslaught’, 54; attitudes to Marxism, 55; attitudes to African nationalism, 55; and national security policy, 56; and Bantustans, 58, 61; regional policy of, 58, 64, 157; and mass media, 58, 97–8; and cadet system, 58, 98–100; and foreign policy, 59, 63, 104, 149–50; and constitutional change, 61, 167–9; civilian personnel in, 66, 94, and defence budget, 71–9; and South African economy, 79; and private sector, 79, 80, 140–7; and Armscor, 82–91; and conscription, 90–1; and cooperation with scientific community, 94–5; institutional socialization in, 96–7, 117–20; and civil defence 100–1; and South African Police, 101–3; and Ministry of Defence, 103–4; and State Security Council, 105–6; Blacks in, 107–23, 163–4; manpower of, 108, 135–9, 142–7; women in, 109; immigrants in, 109–10; use of mercenaries in, 109; use of Rhodesians in, 109–10; black attitudes towards 125–6; and conscientious objection, 126–7; and churches, 127; and political parties, 128–31; white political culture and, 131–2; white public opinion and, 132–9, 144–5; draft resistance to, 133–5; and border areas, 136; and bureaucracy, 147–50; and Department of Foreign Affairs and Information, 149–50; attitudes to politics, 45, 151–60; internal conflicts in, 154–60; in extant literature, 161–2; and future South African politics, 166–83; as ‘second line of defence’, 169–71; and militarism, 173–83
- South African Liberation Support Committee, 126
- South African Military Command (Imperial Military Command in South Africa), 14
- South African Military Refugees Fund (SAMRAF), 133
- South African Military School (see Army College)
- South African Mounted Rifles, 2
- South African Police (SAP), 101–3, 111, 117, 148, 164
- South African Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, 14, 17 (see also Navy)
- South Africa, University of, 67
- South West African People's Organization (SWAPO), 102, 132, 155
- South West African Territorial Force (SWATF), 92, 121
- Southern African Development Bank, 148
- Southern Cross Fund, 7, 98
- Soviet Union, 55, 77
- Soweto, 93, 102, 120, 122
- Spain, 85
- Special Services Battalion, 39
- Sperry–Rand, 88
- staff system, 4, 6–8
- State Security, Bureau for, 7, 106–7
- State Security Council (SSC), 128, 147, 155, 169; and total strategy, 54; military in, 105–6; and foreign policy, 149; political influence of, 151
- State Security Council Secretariat (SSCS), 105–6
- Stellenbosch, University of, 10, 67
- Stepan, Alfred, 45, 53
- Steyn Committee, 136
- Strategic Studies, Institute of, 67
- Supreme Command (see Defence Command Council)
- Surgeon-General (see Medical Service)
- Taiwan, 65, 85
- Telcast Engineering, 84
- Thompson, William R., 180
- total strategy, 46–70, 149; intellectual origins of, 46, 64–7; and counter-revolution, 62; kommando tradition and, 62; development of, 64; dissemination of, 66, 68, as ideology, 68–70; according to P. W. Botha, 78; and white public opinion, 132–3; and private enterprise, 140–4, 147; as public policy 174–5
- Transkei, 115, 157
- Transvaal Republic (see Zuid-Afrikaanse Republiek)
- Treurnicht, Dr Andries, 172
- Union Defence Force (UDF), 2; organization of, 5; British influence in development of, 13–19; and kommando tradition, 26; as defined in Defence Act, 27; leadership of, 39; and defence budget, 75; Coloureds in, 111
- United Nations, 29, 85, 134, 155
- United Party, 40
- United States, 65, 66, 77, 85
- Universities (see Rand Afrikaans University; Pretoria, University of; Stellenbosch,

University of; Witwatersrand, University of the; etc)	Wiehahn Commission, 143, 156
van der Westhuizen, Lieutenant-General P. W., 43, 105	Witwatersrand, University of the, 81
van den Berghe, General J. C., 107	Webster, General Neil, 104
van Deventer, Lieutenant-General A. J., 106	West Germany, 85
van Ryneveld, Sir Pierre, 17	World War I, 13, 17, 40, 111
van Zyl Slabbert, Frederick, 172	World War II, 14, 17, 40, 111
Verster Committee, 104	Wright-Mills, C., 79
Viljoen, General Constand, 3, 10, 37, 43, 105, 158
Voortrekker movement, 100	'youth preparedness' (see cadet system)
	Zambia, 105
	Zimbabwe, 76, 105, 136 (see also Rhodesia)
	Zuid Afrikaanse Republiek, 20, 21, 22–5