Contents

List of tables
Preface

viii
ix

1 Introduction: the prison-house of nations
2 Dispersal and reunion: revolution and civil war in the borderlands
3 Bolshevik nationality policies and the formation of the USSR: the Bolsheviks dispute national policy
4 Nation-building the Soviet way
5 Surviving the Stalinist onslaught, 1928–1941
6 The Great Patriotic War and after 7 Deportations
8 Territorial expansion and the Baltic exception
9 Destalinisation and the revival of the republics
10 Stability and national development: the Brezhnev years, 1964–1982
11 From reform to dissolution, 1982–1991
12 Nation-making in the post-Soviet states
13 The orphans of the Soviet Union: Chechnya, Nagorno Karabakh, Abkhazia, South Ossetia and Transdniester
Conclusion

365
383
vii