

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11387-8 - The Poetics of Conversion in Early Modern English Literature: Verse and Change from Donne to Dryden

Molly Murray

Table of Contents

More informationContents

Acknowledgments	page viii
Note on the text	x
Introduction: toward a poetics of conversion	i
1 William Alabaster's lyric turn	36
2 John Donne and the language of de-nomination	69
3 Richard Crashaw and the gender of conversion	105
4 Versing and reversing in the poetry of John Dryden	138
Afterword: Eliot's inheritance and the criticism of conversion	173
Bibliography	178
Index	199