

Index

- AACSB (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) accreditation 17, 25, 33–7
- academic culture, pressures of 11–12
- academic focus of business schools 13–14
- academic value proposition (academic model) 49, 93, 99–100
- academics, preferred leadership style 58–9
- accreditation
  - AACSB 17, 25, 33–7
  - EQUIS 25, 33–6, 37
  - pressures on business schools 25
  - systems for business schools 10–11
- adhocracy organisations (Mintzberg) 56, 57
- AMBA (Association of M.B.As.) 37
- Argentina, IAE business school 209–10, 211–23
- Austria, history of business schools 15–16
- authority, dual 67–8, 109

- Bain, George 110, 111, 119, 121, 124, 162–5, 228–9
- Belgium, history of business schools 15–16
- Bettignies, Henri-Claude de 150, 155–6
- board, role of 109–10
- Bologna Accord (1999) 30, 33
- Borges, Antonio 108, 115, 148–9, 151, 154–8
- brand loyalty amongst alumni 43–6
- breakthrough initiatives 119–20
- British Institute of Management 16–17
- business
  - relationship with government 2–3
  - role in society 6–7
- business ethics, failure of management education 3–6
- business school as a professional organisation 56–9
- business school as a professional service firm (PSF) 59–88
  - definition of a knowledge-intensive firm (KIF) 59–61
  - definition of a PSF 59–61
  - key features and characteristics of PSFs 62–72
  - key processes in PSFs 75–82
  - leadership challenges in PSFs 89–92
  - leading and managing PSFs 88–9
  - links between key features and processes 82–8
  - links between professionals, PSFs and clients 72–5
  - managerial archetypes 83–4
  - organisational forms 82–8
- business school models
  - accreditation agencies 33–7
  - brand loyalty amongst alumni 43–6
  - competitive differences 32–3, 38–43
  - corporate linkages and partnerships 33–6, 43
  - drivers of differentiation 32–47
  - Europe and United States compared 32–47
  - extent of standardisation 36–7
  - flexibility and innovation 41–3
  - funding and endowment 39–41
  - institutional differences 32–8
  - international linkages 33–6
  - international mindset 41
  - knowledge transmission 43
  - language and cultural differences 33–6
  - regulatory differences 33–6
  - reputation effects 43–6
  - size of business schools 37–8
  - social capital differences 32–3, 43–6
  - summary of differences between Europe and United States 46–7
  - systems of governance 38–9
- business schools
  - academic value proposition 93
  - academic versus professional positioning 13–14
  - challenges of globalisation 1–3

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11612-1 - Strategic Leadership in the Business School: Keeping One Step Ahead
Fernando Fragueiro and Howard Thomas

Index

More information

262 INDEX

- business schools (cont.)
  - changing models of management
    - education 6–8
  - criticism of M.B.A. programmes 3–6
  - criticism of values in management
    - education 3–6
  - criticisms and re-evaluation 13–14
  - debate about management education
    - 6–8
  - dominant US model 6–8
  - future directions and challenges 48–54
  - implications of the economic crisis 2–6
  - lack of ethical guidance 3–6
  - learning from the past 6–7
  - need for a major review of their role
    - 6–8
  - PEST analysis of the competitive
    - environment 25–8
  - proposals for curricular change 6–8
  - re-examination of their mission 3–6
  - responsibilities to society 3–7
  - social construction model of evolution
    - 20–5
- Business Week* rankings 45
- capitalism, new model of 2–3
- career management, changing focus in
  - management education 3–6
- Carnegie Foundation 18
- Carnegie Mellon business school 18
- case studies see strategic leadership case studies
- Cass Business School (City University, London) 16–17, 30–1, 32
- Chicago School of Business 17, 18
- cognitive communities 20–1
- collegiality 108–9
- Columbia Business School 17, 18
- competitive differences, Europe and United States compared 32–3, 38–43
- context, importance in strategic agenda
  - formulation 174–84
- contextual approach to leadership 94
- contextual approach to strategic leadership
  - processes 107–15
  - combined with the political approach 123
- contextual intelligence 183
- contextual variables, influence on
  - leadership process 103–4
- contingency theory 94
- Cooley, Thomas 19
- corporate linkages and partnerships 33–6, 43
- Cranfield School of Management 16–17, 30–1
- critical management theory 19
- Dartmouth School of Business 17
- deans as strategic leaders 99–103
  - academic model (academic value proposition) 99–100
  - economic model 101–2
  - strategic agenda 102–3
- deanship
  - career life cycle 210–11
  - CEO role 201–4
  - comparison with PSF partner 55–6
  - comprehensive framework for leadership 186–9
  - environmental scanning 124–5, 205
  - future directions and challenges 48–54
  - influence of rankings 43–6
  - issue diagnosis 124–5, 205–6
  - issue legitimization 122–3, 189–96, 206–7
  - knowledge-based business school 48
  - lack of strategic focus in business schools 49–54
  - leadership issues and challenges 8–12, 48–54
  - leading a business school 198–201
  - moral and intellectual identity of the business school 48–9
  - need for a new vision 48–54
  - personal experience of Fernando Fragueiro 209–10, 211–23
  - personal experience of Howard Thomas 209–10, 223–48
  - PEST (political, economic, sociological and technological) analysis of the competitive environment 25–8
  - power mobilisation 119–20, 121, 122–3, 189–96, 207
  - preferred leadership style of academics 58–9
  - professional aspect of management 48–9
  - relevance gap in business school teaching 48
  - rethinking the business school 48–54
  - road map of four key tasks 204–8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11612-1 - Strategic Leadership in the Business School: Keeping One Step Ahead
Fernando Fragueiro and Howard Thomas

Index

More information

- strategic leadership role 108–11, 114–15
- value creation in the business school 48–9
- deregulated markets, end of 2–3
- Dimon, James 4
- distance learning, M.B.A. courses 41
- Doriot, Georges 149–50
- dual authority 67–8, 109
- eastern Europe, business schools 31
- Ecole Supérieure de Commerce, Paris 15
- ecological awareness, implications for business 2–3
- economic crisis see global financial and economic crisis
- economic model 101–2
- EFMD (European Foundation for Management Development) 37
- emerging economies, role of 2–3
- endowment and funding, business school models 39–41
- Enron 14, 49
- environmental scanning 124–5, 205
- EQUIS (European Quality Improvement System) accreditation 25, 33–6, 37
- ESADE business school (Spain) 30
- ESMT (European School for Management and Technology) 30
- ethical issues in management education 3–6
- ethics of the professional 67
- European and US business school models compared 32–47
  - competitive differences 32–3, 38–43
  - institutional differences 32–8
  - social capital differences 32–3, 43–6
- European management education 28–32
  - eastern Europe 31
  - France 30, 32
  - Germany 30
  - Poland 31
  - range and diversity of models 31–2
  - Scandinavia 31
  - Spain 30
  - Switzerland 31
  - UK 30–2
- faculty, role of 110–11
- financial crisis see global financial and economic crisis
- Financial Times* rankings 6, 10–11, 25, 39, 41, 43, 44
- flexibility and innovation in business schools 41–3
- Ford Foundation 18
- Fragueiro, Fernando (on deanship)
  - approach to strategic leadership processes (SLPs) 210–11
  - career life cycle of strategic leaders 210–11
  - deanship at IAE (1995–2008) 209–10, 211–17
  - history and development of IAE 211–17
  - insights from personal experience 220–3
  - lessons learned about deanship 217–20
  - nature of IAE business school 209–10
  - personal reflections on deanship 209–10, 211–23
  - strategic leadership path of IAE 211–17
- France
  - business schools 30, 32
  - history of business schools 15
- Franks Report 16–17
- funding and endowment, business school models 39–41
- Germany
  - business schools 30
  - history of business schools 15–16
- Gilbert, Xavier 135, 138–9
- global financial and economic crisis 1–6
  - implications for business schools 2–6
  - part played by management education 6–7
  - pressure to change current business practice 2–3
- globalisation 1–6
  - challenges for institutions 1–3
- governance
  - business schools 38–9
  - PSFs 75–6
- governance and strategic leadership 99–103
  - academic model [academic value proposition] 99–100
  - economic model 101–2
  - strategic agenda 102–3
- government, relationship with business 2–3
- Harvard Business School 4, 5, 17, 18, 39
- Hawawini, Gabriel 148–9, 156
- Henley Business School 16–17, 30–1, 41

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11612-1 - Strategic Leadership in the Business School: Keeping One Step Ahead
Fernando Fragueiro and Howard Thomas

Index

More information

264 INDEX

- history of business schools 14–20
  - adoption of scientific method 18
  - advocates in favour of a research focus 19
  - analytic positivist approach 19
  - Austria 15–16
  - Belgium 15–16
  - criticisms of discipline-oriented approach 18–19
  - France 15
  - Germany 15–16
  - Italy 15–16
  - lack of strategic focus 49–54
  - M.B.A. launch in the United States 17
  - M.B.A. programmes in the United Kingdom 16–17
  - origins in Europe 15–17
  - present-day challenges 49–54
  - research and discipline-led focus in the United States 18
  - Switzerland 15–16
  - 'trade school' era in the United States 17–18
  - UK 16–17
  - US 17–18
- IAE business school (Argentina) 209–10, 211–23
- IESE business school (Spain) 4–5, 30
- IMD (Institute for Management Development) (Switzerland) 31, 38, 124
- IMD strategic leadership case study
  - building IMD's culture and identity 141–2
  - case study 135–47
  - consolidation and success (1993–2004) 140–7
  - contextual factors 131–3
  - future challenges 146–7
  - Juan Rada's deanship (1990–2) 136–8
  - merger between IMI and IMEDE (1990–2) 136–8
  - Peter Lorange's deanship (1993–2004) 140–7
  - position in worldwide rankings 134
  - shaping IMD's vision 142–5
  - study approach 129–30
  - transition period (1992–3) 138–9
  - Xavier Gilbert's deanship (1992–3) 138–9
- IMD strategic leadership case study
  - (analysis)
    - contextual analysis 174–82
    - deans as CEOs 201–4
    - identifying key forces at play 174–82
    - issue legitimization 189–96
    - leading a business school 198–201
    - political perspective 184–6
    - power mobilisation 189–96
    - role of the dean in SLPs 196–8
- Imperial College Business School (Tanaka) 32
- incremental initiatives 119, 120
- initiatives
  - breakthrough initiatives 119–20
  - gaining backing for 119–20
  - incremental initiatives 119, 120
- innovation
  - and knowledge creation in PSFs 81–2
  - through cooperation in PSFs 67
- INSEAD (France) 30, 32, 108, 115
- INSEAD strategic leadership case study
  - Antonio Borges' deanship (1995–2000) 155–8
  - background 149–51
  - case study 147–60
  - co-deanships (1990–5) 152–5
  - contextual factors 131–3
  - Gabriel Hawawini's deanship (2000–4) 158–60
  - new campus launch in Asia 156–8
  - past deans 148–9
  - position in worldwide rankings 134
  - study approach 129–30
- INSEAD strategic leadership case study
  - (analysis)
    - contextual analysis 174–82
    - deans as CEOs 201–4
    - identifying key forces at play 174–82
    - issue legitimization 189–96
    - leading a business school 198–201
    - political perspective 184–6
    - power mobilisation 189–96
    - role of the dean in strategic leadership processes 196–8
- institutional differences, Europe and United States compared 32–8
- institutional leadership 95, 96–8
- international linkages, business school models 33–6

- international mindset in business schools
  - 41
- issue diagnosis 124–5, 205–6
- issue legitimisation 122–3, 189–96, 206–7
- Italy, history of business schools 15–16

- journals of management and business 43
- Judge Business School (Cambridge, UK) 7, 16–17, 30–1

- knowledge-based business school 48
- knowledge-intensive firms (KIFs) 56, 59–61
- knowledge management in PSFs 70–1, 81–2
- knowledge transmission 43

- Lancaster University Management School 16–17, 30–1
- language and cultural differences, Europe and United States compared 33–6
- Latin America, IAE business school (Argentina) 209–10, 211–23
- LBS see London Business School
- leadership
  - as a process 93–4
  - as a single role 94
  - contextual approaches 94
  - contingency theory 94
  - definition 93–4
  - situational approach 94
  - style approach 94
  - trait approach 94
- leadership challenges for deans 8–12
  - accreditation systems 10–11
  - concerns and frustrations 10–11
  - conflicting strategic objectives 10–11
  - issue legitimisation 12
  - multiple and complex roles 8–10
  - personal qualities of successful deans 11–12
  - political approach to leadership 8–12
  - power mobilisation 12
  - power sharing and collegiality 11–12
  - pressures of academic culture 11–12
  - social influence process 12
  - studies of academic deanship 8–10
  - tyranny of rankings 10–11
  - understanding organisational context 8
- leadership challenges in PSFs 89–92
- leadership process 93–6
  - and the management process 95
  - coordinating the organisation 98–9
  - critical tasks 96–9
  - influence of contextual variables 103–4
  - institutional leadership 95, 96–8
  - link between leadership and strategy 105–6
  - motivating and mobilising people 98
  - sense of common purpose 97–8
  - setting the direction 96–7
  - shared values and beliefs 97–8
  - shared vision 96–7
  - social integrative leadership 96
  - social leadership 95, 98
  - socio-technical leadership 96
  - structural leadership 95, 98–9
  - supporting and empowering people 98
  - tasks and processes involved 95, 96
  - techno-visionary leadership 96
  - value of the processual approach 105
  - see also* strategic leadership process
- leading and managing PSFs 88–9
- lifelong learning, management education 3–6
- Light, Jay 4
- local-global tensions 1–3
- London Business School (LBS) 16–17, 30–1, 110, 111, 115, 119, 121, 122
- London Business School strategic leadership case study
  - contextual factors 131–3
  - case study 160–71
  - deanships 162
  - George Bain's deanship (1990–7) 162–5
  - John Quelch's deanship (1998–2001) 165–8
  - leading change at LBS 164–5
  - Laura Tyson's deanship (2002–4) 169–71
  - looking ahead 170–1
  - position in worldwide rankings 134
  - study approach 129–30
- London Business School strategic leadership case study (analysis)
  - contextual analysis 174–82
  - deans as CEOs 201–4
  - identifying key forces at play 174–82
  - issue legitimisation 189–96
  - leading a business school 198–201
  - political perspective 184–6
  - power mobilisation 189–96
  - role of the dean in strategic leadership processes 196–8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11612-1 - Strategic Leadership in the Business School: Keeping One Step Ahead
Fernando Fragueiro and Howard Thomas

Index

More information

266 INDEX

- Lorange, Peter 53, 102, 109, 124, 135, 140–7
Lorsch, Jay 114–15
- main generic interests (MGIs) of key actors 112–14
- management process, and the leadership process 95
- managerial archetypes 83–4
- managerial professional business (MPB) archetype 83–4
- Manchester Business School 16–17
- M.B.A. graduates
focus on salary and bonus rewards 3–6 responsibilities to society 3–6
short-term focus 3–6
- M.B.A. programmes
alternative forms of delivery 41–3 contribution to the financial crisis 6–7 criticism of 3–6
ethical issues 3–6
fixation on greed and selfishness 6–7 launch in the United States 17 need for focus on personal values 3–6 need for lifelong career focus 3–6 programmes in the United Kingdom 16–17
- McGill University, organisational type 56–7
- Meyer, Arnold De 156
- Mintzberg, Henry 56–9, 67, 68, 210–11
motivating and mobilising others 98, 121–2
Murthy, Narayana 4–5
- Naert, Philippe 148–9, 152
- networking in PSFs 82
- Notre Dame Business School 6
- Nye, Joseph 183
- Open University Business School 31, 41
organisational forms in PSFs 82–8 organisational types (Mintzberg) 56–9
- P2 managerial archetype 83
- Parmalat 14
- personal value, creation by business schools 49
- PEST analysis, management education environment 25–8
- Poland, business schools 31
- political and contextual approaches combined 123
- political approach
business school leadership 8–12
strategic agenda formulation 184–6
SLPs 116–25
- positivist approach in business schools 19
- power, nature of 120
- power mobilisation 119–20, 121, 122–3, 189–96, 207
- power sharing in PSFs 67–8
- power sources 121
- professional aspect of management 48–9
- professional ethics 67
- professional organisations (Mintzberg) 56–7
- professional service firm (PSF) autonomy of individual professionals 62 business school compared to 55–6, 59–88 characteristics of individual professionals 62–5 dean's role compared to partner 55–6
definition 59–61
dual authority issue 67–8
engaging and retaining staff 78–9
ethics of the professional 67
governance 75–6
importance of reputation 71–2 information asymmetry with clients 66 innovation and knowledge creation 81–2 innovation through cooperation 67 intangible inputs and outputs 69 intangible nature of assets 69
key features and characteristics 62–72 key processes 75–82
knowledge gap with clients 66 knowledge management 70–1, 81–2 leadership challenges 89–92 leading and managing 88–9
links between key features and processes 82–8
links between professionals, PSFs and clients 72–5
managerial archetypes 83–4
MPB archetype 83–4
networking 82
organisational forms 82–8
P2 managerial archetype 83
professional competences 65–7

- professional expertise 62
- professional knowledge of individuals 65–6
- professional standards and values of the individual 65
- service delivery 79–81
- shared power 67–8
- skills and attitudes of individuals 66–7
- staffing 78–9
- standardisation/customisation issue 69–71
- strategy setting 76–8
- trust building 82
- trust in professional relationships 71–2, 74–5
- professional standards of business schools 13–14
- professionalism in management 5
- professionals, preferred leadership style 58–9
- PSF see professional service firm
- public and social value, creation by business schools 49
- public versus private funding 38–9

- Quelch, John 122, 162, 165–8

- Rada, Juan 135, 136–8
- Rameau, Claude 148–9, 152–4
- rankings 10–11, 21, 25
  - Business Week* rankings 45
  - Financial Times* rankings 6, 10–11, 25, 39, 41, 43, 44
  - influence on deans 43–6
  - reputation and brand loyalty effects 43–6
- regulatory context, Europe and United States compared 33–6
- relevance gap in business school teaching 48
- reputation, importance to PSFs 71–2
- reputation building (goodwill) 21, 25
- reputation effects 43–6
- reputational rankings 21, 25 see also rankings
- road map of key tasks for deans 204–8

- Said Business School (Oxford) 16–17, 30–1
- Scandinavia, business schools 31
- semi-globalised management 1–3
- service delivery in PSFs 79–81
- situational approach to leadership 94
- size of business schools 37–8
- social capital, building 21, 25
- social capital differences, Europe and United States compared 32–3, 43–6
- social construction model of business school evolution 20–5
  - accreditation pressures 25
  - building social capital 21, 25
  - cognitive communities 20–1
  - competitive differences 32–3, 38–43
  - development of frames of reference 21–4
  - emergence of industry norms 24–5
  - European and US business schools compared 32–47
  - first level 21–4
  - global and national models 24–5
  - industry belief systems 20–1
  - institutional differences 32–8
  - key drivers and characteristics 21
  - reputation building (goodwill) 21, 25
  - reputational rankings 21, 25
  - second level 24–5
  - shared stories and models 20–1
  - social capital differences 32–3, 43–6
  - status rankings 21, 25
  - third level 25
  - three-level model 21–5
- social integrative leadership 96
- social leadership 95, 98
- socio-technical leadership 96
- Spain, business schools 30
- staffing of PSFs 78–9
- standardisation between business schools 36–7
- Stanford Business School 18
- status rankings 21, 25 see also rankings
- Stern School (New York University) 19
- strategic agenda 102–3
  - building 107
  - executing 107
- strategic agenda setting 173–208
  - comprehensive framework for deans' leadership tasks 186–9
  - contextual analysis 174–82
  - deans as CEOs 201–4
  - identifying key forces at play 174–82
  - importance of understanding context 182–4
  - issue legitimisation 189–96

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11612-1 - Strategic Leadership in the Business School: Keeping One Step Ahead
Fernando Fragueiro and Howard Thomas

Index

More information

268 INDEX

- strategic agenda setting (cont.)
  - leading a business school 198–201
  - political perspective 184–6
  - power mobilisation 189–96
  - road map of key tasks for deans 204–8
  - role of the dean 196–8
- strategic decision-making, use of PEST
  - analysis 25–8
- strategic leaders, career life cycle 210–11
- strategic leadership, definition 106
- strategic leadership and governance 99–103
  - academic model [academic value proposition] 99–100
  - economic model 101–2
  - strategic agenda 102–3
- strategic leadership case studies 129–72
  - contextual similarities and specificities 131–3
  - data sources 127
  - IMD 135–47
  - INSEAD 147–60
  - London Business School (LBS) 160–71
  - methodology 126
  - positions in worldwide rankings 134
  - study approach 129–30
  - study questions 127–8
- strategic leadership case studies [analysis] 173–208
  - comprehensive framework for deans' leadership tasks 186–9
  - contextual analysis 174–82
  - deans as CEOs 201–4
  - identifying key forces at play 174–82
  - importance of understanding context 182–4
  - interplay of internal and external factors 173–4
  - issue legitimisation 189–96
  - leading a business school 198–201
  - political perspective 184–6
  - power mobilisation 189–96
  - road map of key tasks for deans 204–8
  - role of the dean in SLPs 196–8
- strategic leadership process
  - approach to 210–11
  - definition 106–7
- strategic leadership processes in business schools
  - breakthrough initiatives 119–20
  - collegiality 108–9
  - content of influence (scope of power) 117
  - contextual and political approaches
    - combined 123
  - contextual approach 107–15, 123
  - contextual factors 117
    - diverse interests and demands 117–19
    - dual authority 109
    - environmental scanning 124–5
    - external context 111–12
    - factors in a political analysis 116–17
    - gaining backing for initiatives 119–20
    - incremental initiatives 119, 120
    - inner context 111
    - issue diagnosis 124–5
    - issue legitimisation 122–3
    - key actors 109–11
    - MGIs of key actors 112–14
    - managing complex processes 114–15
    - motivating and inspiring others 121–2
    - nature of power 120
    - political approach 116–25
    - power mobilisation 119–20, 121, 122–3
    - power sources (nature of influence) 117, 121
    - power uses (political behaviour) 117
    - role of the board 109–10
    - role of the dean 108–11, 114–15
    - role of the faculty 110–11
    - structural conditions (roles for the key actors) 117
  - strategy, link with leadership 105–6
  - strategy setting in PSFs 76–8
  - structural leadership 95, 98–9
  - style approach to leadership 94
  - supporting and empowering people 98
  - sustainable technologies, investment in 2–3
  - Switzerland
    - business schools 31
    - history of business schools 15–16
  - technology, investment in sustainable technologies 2–3
  - techno-visionary leadership 96
  - Thomas, Howard (on deanship)
    - agenda building and planning (2000–2) 240–1
    - approach to strategic leadership processes 210–11

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11612-1 - Strategic Leadership in the Business School: Keeping One Step Ahead
Fernando Fragueiro and Howard Thomas

Index

More information

- background on Warwick University 224–6
- career life cycle of strategic leaders 210–11
- deanship of Warwick Business School (WBS) (2000–10) 231–48
- evolution of WBS (1967–2000) 226–31
- final reflections on deanship at WBS 247–8
- nature of WBS 209–10
- new paradigm development (2006–8) 243–5
- personal reflections on deanship 209–10, 223–48
- settling on a paradigm for WBS (2002–6) 241–3
- strategic crossroads for WBS (2008–10) 245–7
- vision 2015 243–5
- Tierney, Thomas 114–15
- trait approach to leadership 94
- trust in professional relationships 71–2, 74–5, 82
- Tyson, Laura 115, 162, 169–71
- United Kingdom
  - business schools 30–2
  - history of business schools 16–17
  - see also specific business schools*
- United States
  - business schools see specific business schools
  - history of business schools 17–18
- US business school model 6–8
  - comparison with European models 32–47
  - standardisation 24–5
- value creation in the business school 48–9
- values and beliefs, shared 97–8
- Van der Heyden, Ludo 148–9, 152–5
- vision, shared 96–7
- Warwick Business School 16–17, 30–1, 41, 77, 209–10, 223–48
- Wharton Business School 17
- Woo, Carolyn 6
- Yale School of Management 7