

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11721-0 - Women as Hamlet: Performance and Interpretation in Theatre, Film and Fiction

Tony Howard

Table of Contents

More informationContents

List of illustrations	Page vii
Preface	ix
1 Introduction. The drama of questions and the mystery of Hamlet	1
PART I: THE WOMEN IN BLACK
2 Playing Hamlet, writing the self	35
3 'Is this womanly?'	65
4 Virile spirits: Sarah Bernhardt and her inheritance	98
PART II: CASE STUDIES: HAMLET, THE ACTRESS AND THE POLITICAL STAGE
5 'I am whom I play': Asta Nielsen	137
6 'Why are you looking at me like that?': Zinaida Raikh	160
7 Behind the arras, through the Wall: Poland 1989	183
8 Hamlet from the margins: Spain, Turkey, Ireland	206
PART III: REPRESSION AND RESURGENCE
9 Films and fictions: Hamlet, men's eyes, and the ages of woman	237
10 Women's voices in the cathedral of culture	265
11 Beyond silence, imagination	300
Index	321